Accommodation options in Jamaica are varied and exciting. Whether you are looking for a family resort, an intimate honeymoon bungalow, a villa experience or an exotic cabin with lush vegetation, Jamaica has just the right kind of spot for you! That's one of the key things to remember about Jamaica: whatever your pace and taste, there is a Jamaica experience perfectly tailored to meet your desire. And so it is with our accommodation choices, from idyllic mountainside vistas, to breezy seaside chateaus and everything in-between, Jamaica has lots to offer, regardless which resort area you choose to visit.

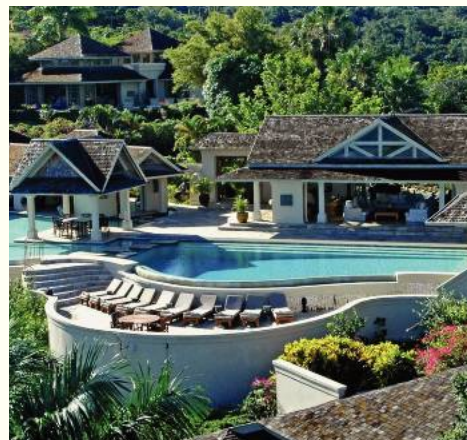

There are many good reasons to choose a small hotel or villa on your next visit to Jamaica. For starters, they offer a unique and authentic local perspective on the destination.

There is much more opportunity to interact with the people, who will be tasked with making your vacation experience unforgettable. Precisely because they are small and intimate, often the chef is able to easily make adjustments to meal menus, to accommodate special requests you or your family may have. The "catch of the day" literally means the catch of the day when you are at a small hotel. It is not unusual to see fresh produce and seafood making it into the kitchen, just about the same time as you saunter out of bed to meet the new day!

Additionally, our small hotels and villas are primarily owner-operated, so you benefit from the intimate attention and hospitality as one would get visiting a typical Jamaican home. Staff quickly know you by name; your preferences and are anxious to see to your comfort and enjoyment.

And a villa vacation is not just for the rich and famous! Though Jamaica has many gorgeous emporiums of luxury, we also have many beautiful, modest villa accommodations, ideal to satisfy your family or group needs. Our villas may be found independently situated on large lots by the water's edge, or in lush terraced garden settings, with many of them offering complimentary shuttles to nearby beaches for their guests. There are also resort villas complexes, where though you are staying in a villa, there is also access to traditional hotel and resort amenities on-property.

So, for your next visit to Jamaica, consider one of our many small hotels; boutique Inns or Villas. Our people are waiting to welcome your people!
