BOXING

Make history all over again by holding your event at the home of the first ever World Heavyweight Prize Fight in the U.S. This historic Prize Fight was held in Jefferson Parish on May 10, 1870. Since then, we have hosted state and collegiate boxing along with professional MMA events in our 2,000-seat Alario Center, pages 41-44, and 4,600-seat Pontchartrain Convention & Civic Center, pages 45-48.

CHEER

Jefferson Parish is not just another routine location. The Pontchartrain Convention & Civic Center and the Alario Center have hosted championship events including Spirit Blast, Varsity All Stars and LHSAA Championship competitions. With over 40 gyms and 2 convention centers, our location is something to cheer about. See gyms listed on pages 28-29 and for convention facility details, see pages 41-48.

DANCE

From Mardi Gras parades to ballroom dancing, Jefferson Parish is a great location for your dance event. Our two convention centers have hosted a variety of dance competitions, from local and regional to national championships. Does your team want to have some fun? Come to Jefferson Parish and dance in one of the world famous Mardi Gras parades that occur throughout the Greater New Orleans area. For convention facility details, see pages 41-48.

Parc de Familles features the first disc golf course created in a hardwood cypress swamp. It is one of a kind with throwing lanes lined by beautiful large cypress trees. Located in Lafitte, Louisiana, you will enjoy the true spirit of south Louisiana’s great outdoors.

DISC GOLF

Experience the Parc de Familles course, designed by championship course designer John Houck, through a cypress swamp, or enjoy the luxury and convenience of the course at Lafreniere Park by local course designer and professional disc golf player Michael Kernan. All tee types are concrete.

Consistently rated in Golfweek’s “Best Courses You Can Play,” TPC Louisiana is home to the Zurich Classic on the PGA Tour. This Pete Dye golf course is part of the Audubon Golf Trail and stretches over 250 acres of wetlands along the Mississippi River Delta. Don’t overlook Stonebridge Golf Club of New Orleans, a links style golf course with amazing views of the city of New Orleans. Enjoy footgolf on “The Harvey 9” for a fun alternative to the game of golf.

From gymnastics, cheer & dance to horseshoes and bull riding, our multipurpose facilities have seen all kinds of action. The Pontchartrain Center plays host to AKC Dog Shows, Robotics Competitions and an abundance of sports through the Louisiana High School Athletic Association. The Alario Center is home to the Allstate Sugar Bowl Prep Classic each January, hosting over 60 teams from all over the US, followed by a smooth transition to the Mardi Gras Volleyball Classic and finishing the month hosting the NOLA National Invitational Gymnastics event. These popular mid-sized centers are favorites in our much-loved sports market.

WATERSPORTS

FISHING/SPEAR FISHING

From bass to tarpon, Jefferson Parish offers abundant fresh and saltwater fishing. Lake Pontchartrain covers 630 miles and has an average depth of 12 feet. It connects to the Gulf of Mexico and is fed by four rivers creating brackish water teeming with fresh and saltwater fish.

Over 150 miles of navigable bayous in Jefferson Parish provide unique experience for fishing events. Our staff at the Jefferson Convention & Visitors Bureau will find the perfect location for your fishing rodeo or tournament.

KAYAKING, CANOEING & PADDLEBOARDING

Jefferson Parish offers abundant activities teaming with wildlife and adventure. Slow moving waterways and open lakes provide a variety of options for any skill level.

BOATING/PERSONAL WATERCRAFTS

From recreational rides to racing and freestyle events, Jefferson Parish offers waterways for any kind of watercraft event. Lake Pontchartrain, among the largest brackish lakes in the United States, is a hotspot for sailing and creates the northern border of Jefferson Parish. Enjoy an abundance of bayous and canals for smooth water adventures, or head to Grand Isle and enjoy the lazy surf and sandy beaches on the Gulf of Mexico.

NOLA MOTORSPORTS

KARTING FACILITY

This 40-acre karting facility is the largest karting track in North America. It includes 30 acres of total track area with 7 acres equipped with lighting. Three circuits provide 80+ configurations.

THE NORTH TRACK

A 2.75-mile world-class race track that consists of 16 turns with a 5,200-foot straightaway. Designed with challenge and safety in mind, this track offers both the club level and professional driver an amazing experience. NOLA Motorsports offers the public the ability to use our track for recreational or competitive use.

SKID PAD

With 305,000-square-feet of premium soft-grade asphalt, there are few skid pads of this size and quality in the world. This extremely smooth surface is home to some of the deep south's biggest drifting and autocross communities like SCCA, Drift South and Formula Drift. With 133 parking spaces, 30,000 square feet of garage space facing the pad, this track brings events, demos and product launches to the next level.

EVENT CENTER

A unique world-class 34,000-square-foot meeting venue that sits elegantly trackside, this beautiful space will set your event a notch above the rest.
