

Federal Commander - Gen. Darrell N. Markijohn

Brig. Gen. Darrell N. Markijohn has been a living historian for 25 years. He first joined the 6th Ohio Cavalry as a mounted trooper in 1994. He served in the ranks for 8 years and in 2002, rose to the rank of 1st sergeant and Unit Adjutant.

In 2000, Markijohn was named to the Ohio Bicentennial Commission Civil War Committee where he created and coordinated the Morgan's Raid Reenactment to celebrate the State's 200th birthday in 2003. Markijohn portrayed Confederate Gen. John Hunt Morgan and lead 170 horsemen on a grueling 60-mile ride along the actual route of the Raid through Southeastern Ohio in 2003 and then again in 2006.

In 2004, he was elected to the position of United States Volunteer (USV) Cavalry Commander and in May of 2012, he assumed the position of USV Brigade Commander. The USV is the largest Federal Reenactment organization in the U.S., comprising of 3 infantry regiments, regiments of artillery and mounted cavalry, and a battalion of sharpshooters. It also has a large group of civilian reenactors.

Brig. Gen. Markijohn served as the overall commander of the Federal Army at the following events:

- 150th Anniversary of 2nd Bull Run/Manassas,
- 150th Anniversary of Antietam,
- 150th Anniversary of Chancellorsville,
