

Things to do

We invite you to explore the historic attractions in Downtown Smithfield on the Walking Tour, the outlet shopping at Carolina Premium Outlets, and the recreational activities throughout the town.

Visit the museum that honors the life and career of local Hollywood legend Ava Gardner, which houses an impressive collection of movie memorabilia and personal items. Ava Gardner was born seven miles east of Smithfield and is buried at Sunset Memorial Park, just one mile from the museum.

For a bit of recreation, enjoy a walk on the Mountains to the Sea Trail that curves along the banks of the Neuse River from Smithfield Town Commons to the Smithfield Community Park.

Buffalo Creek Greenway, Smithfield NC.

Things to do

We hope you get to explore the Antique Shops & Malls in Uptown Selma conveniently located off I-95, Exit 98. After antique hunting or shopping at DeWayne's take in the country music entertainment at the Live @ the Rudy Theatre every weekend.

Be sure to visit the third weekend of June each year for the 301 Endless Yard Sale. Selma marks the half-way point on a route that extends over 100 miles and 5 counties along Highway 301. You can find great deals on antiques and collectables as Selma's antique dealers and local collectors set-up shop along the highway and in the uptown area.

Historic Selma Union Station, Selma NC.
