WHAT TOURISM DOES FOR SELMA

JULY 2018
Our mission is to attract and serve visitors to Johnston County to make an economic impact in our destinations. In 2016, visitors to Johnston County spent $232.49 million staying in our hotels, visiting attractions, enjoying restaurants, shopping, as well as attending meetings, festivals and special events. That's money that supports local small businesses!

In 2017, the JCVB team assisted Magic Murals and New Dixie Oil to design the convenient store graphics to promote tourism. Two brochure racks were provided to distribute area brochures.
We love to show off our destinations in Johnston County and we did that for Selma several times:

- Hosting travel media who can share what’s happening in Selma resulted in multiple stories: Journalists with the North American Travel Journalist Assn. (12), Travel Media Showcase (4), and VisitNC Canadian Fam (5), all toured Double Barley Brewing and Hinnant Winery.

- Selma in the News: “DeWayne’s in 10 Best Garden Centers in NC List”, Dewayne’s mentioned in The Huffington Post online in a round-up of the area.

Jeffery Hamilton and Melissa Dooley joined the JCVB Staff at both NC Welcome Center days during National Tourism Week, which is held the second week of May each year. Mr. Ray Wheeler from Atkinson’s Mill attends each year making delicious hush puppies for visitors.
