Kansas City, Kansas

The West side of Kansas City, KS is booming with world-class shopping, sports, dining, and entertainment. There's no slowing down on this side of town, and it all started with the building of the 1.5 mile tri-oval race track, Kansas Speedway, in 2001. Not long after the opening of Kansas Speedway came major developments like Cabela's, Nebraska Furniture Mart and Hollywood Casino at Kansas Speedway. In April 2006, the opening of the Legends Outlets Kansas City put Kansas City, KS on the map as a premier shopping destination. With 100+ retailers and restaurants, this 1,200,000 sq ft outdoor lifestyle district features a walking tour of sculptures, murals and other art forms honoring famous Kansans.

MORE TO COME...

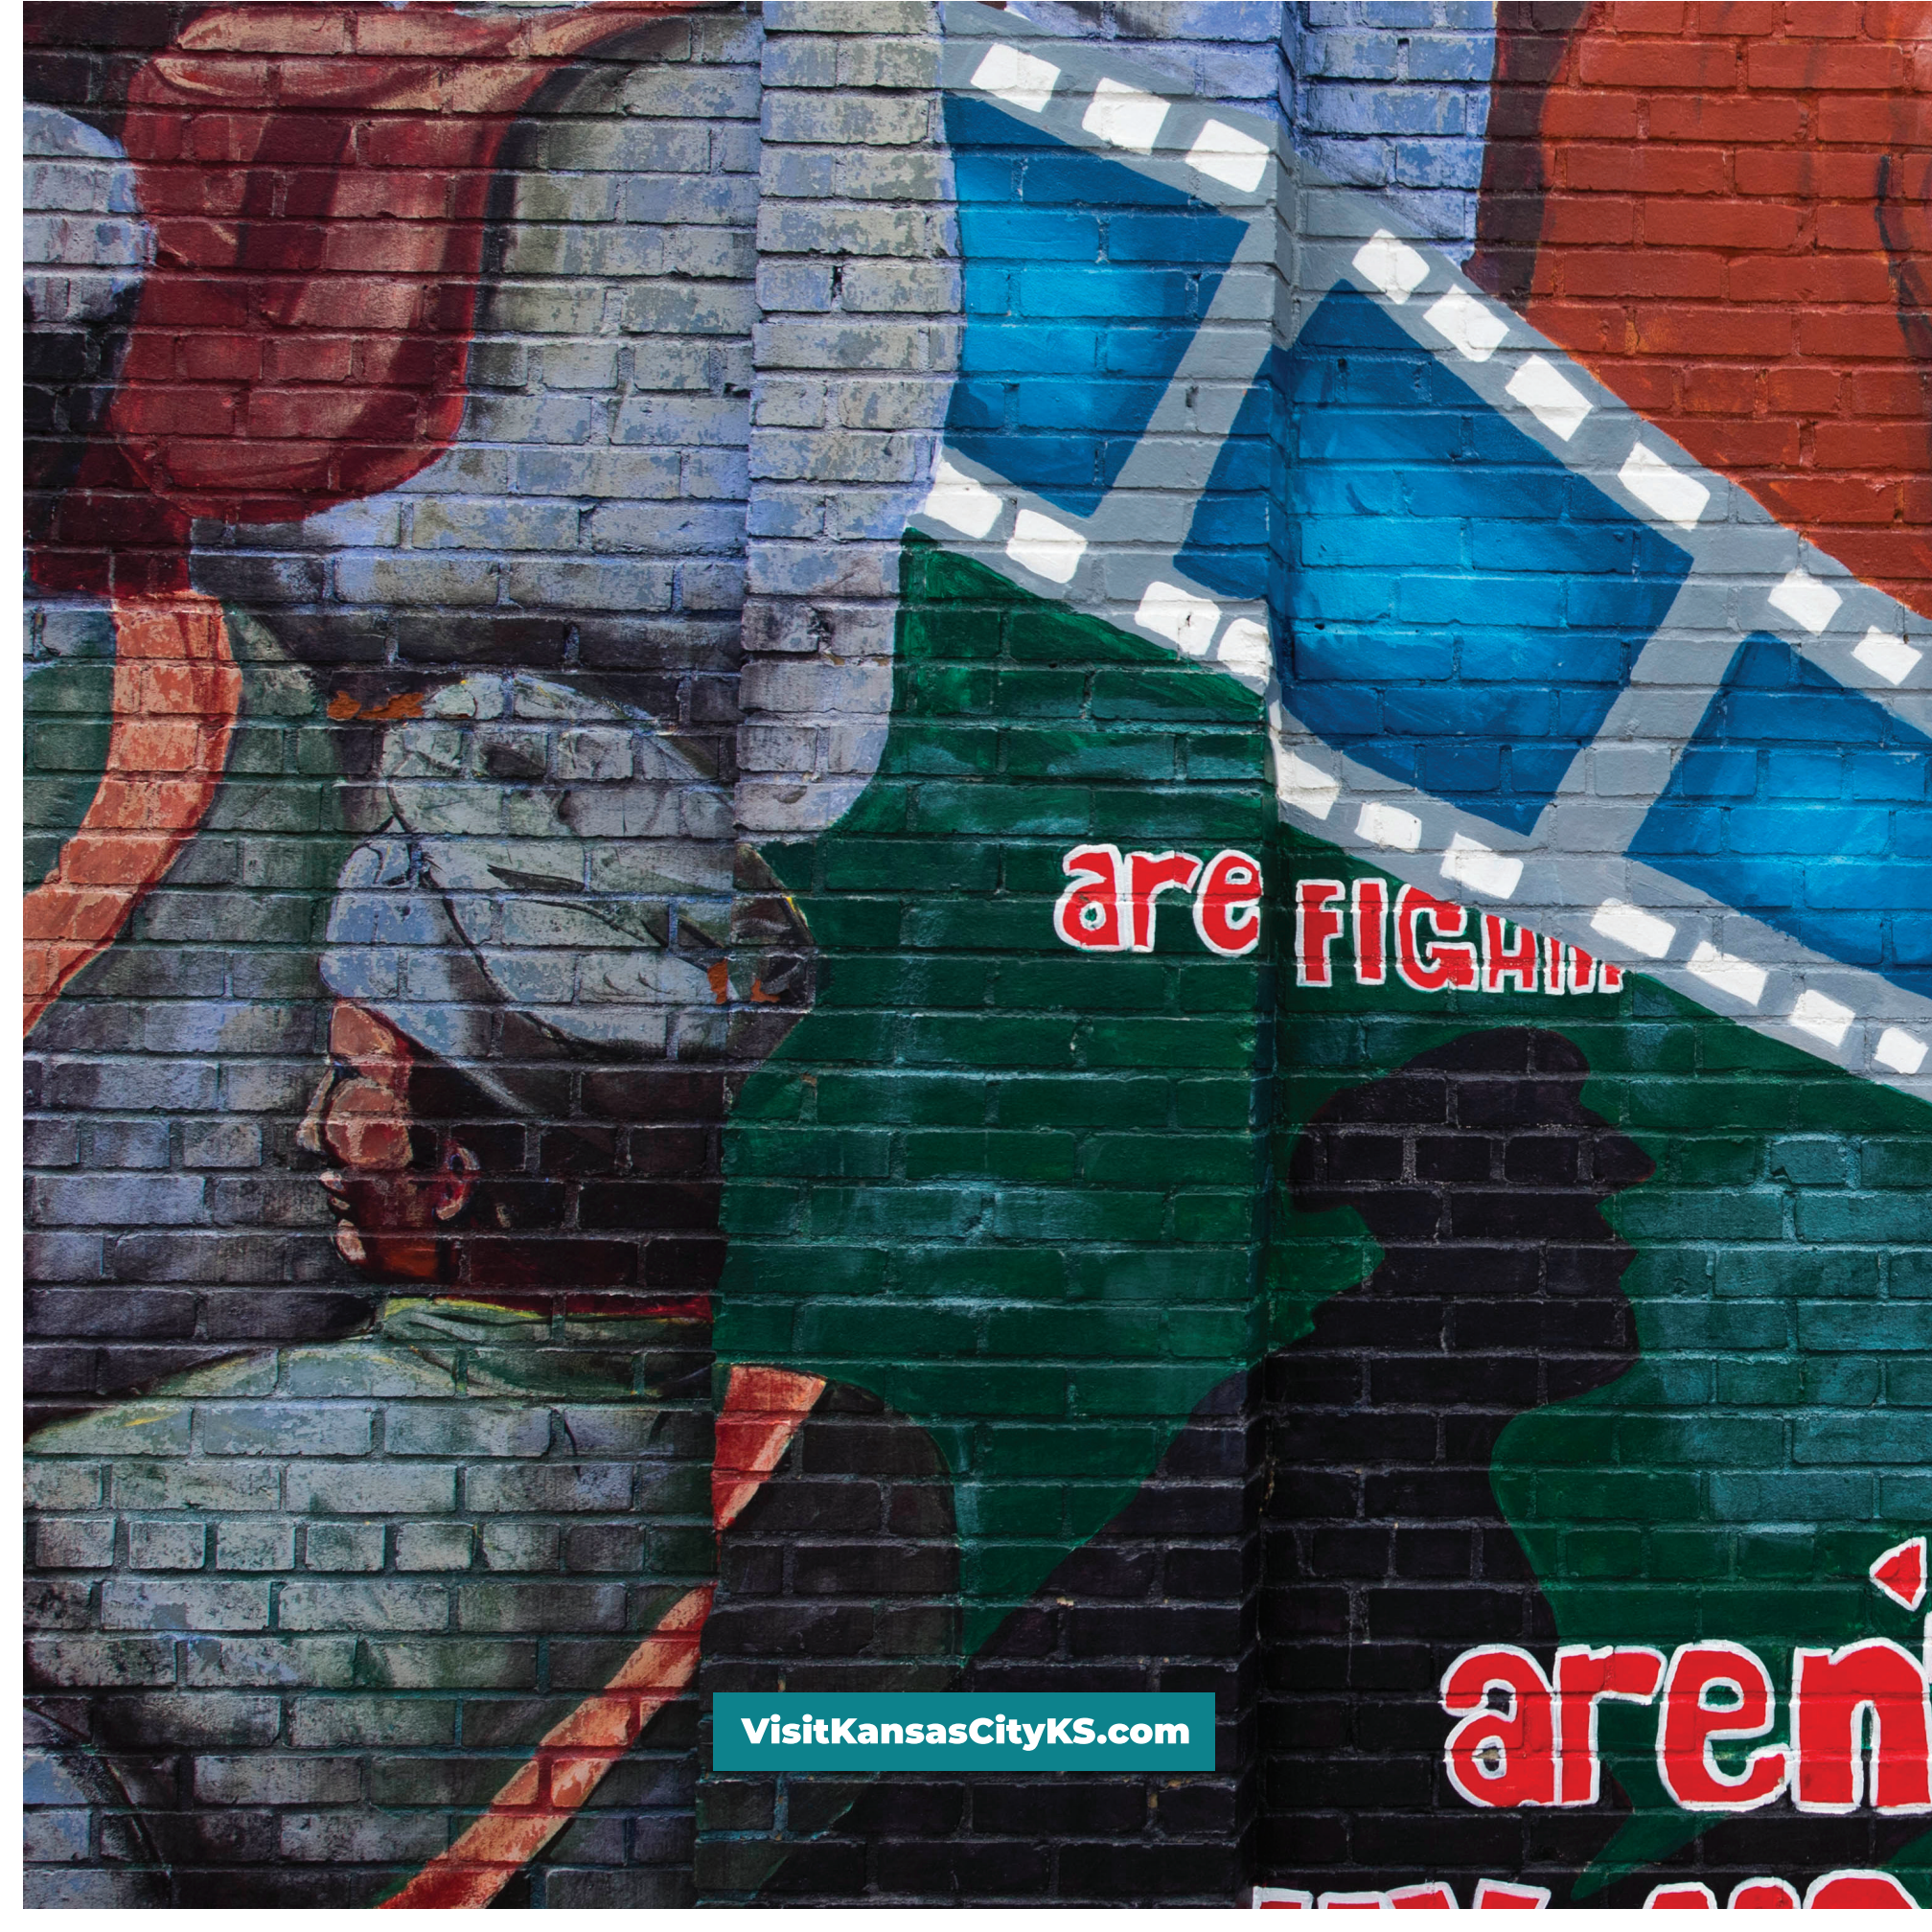

The Future of KCK

The excitement is building over several noteworthy projects that will make our region even more desirable for sports, events and meetings. The Homefield project, projected to open by 2025, is a top-of-the-line indoor sports facility capable of hosting elite basketball and volleyball tournaments. Including, a state-of-the-art outdoor facility for baseball and softball tournaments.

Off the field, the planned Margaritaville will be the first resort of its kind in Kansas, ideal for corporate meetings, conferences, and events. Rock Island Bridge is billed as the country's first destination bridge. It's easy to see why. A large food hall is planned for visitors to get coffee, adult beverages, homemade pizza and much more. The site literally bridges the Kansas-Missouri border, and just a short stroll to Hy-Vee Arena.

Last, but not least, a new American Royal complex. The American Royal will reach new heights, elevate the prominence of food and agriculture, create strategic connections with consumers, and make a global impact. Moreover, it will be a place that creates an arena for agricultural learning and developments the next generation of leaders.
