

CITY OF KELOWNA

Proclamation

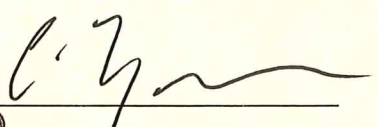

Tourism Kelowna Love for Kelowna Day

May 29, 2021

- WHEREAS Kelowna is a four-season playground, with an abundance of natural beauty, outdoor adventure, and world-class amenities, events, and attractions that residents can enjoy year round, alongside visitors; and
- WHEREAS Love for Kelowna Day was established by Tourism Kelowna in 2020 to showcase our region and all it has to offer, and to support local businesses; and
- WHEREAS Love for Kelowna Day will be held annually on the last Saturday in May as part of Tourism Week in Canada, which celebrates the economic and social contributions of the industry; and
- WHEREAS Locals are encouraged to join fellow residents and the tourism industry in celebrating who we are and where we live by exploring their favourite places, supporting local businesses, and sharing their love for Kelowna through social media; and
- WHEREAS It is fitting on Love for Kelowna Day, and every day, to recognize and celebrate the value of tourism and the positive contributions the industry makes to quality of life in Kelowna and the Central Okanagan;
- THEREFORE I, Colin Basran, as Mayor of the City of Kelowna, do hereby proclaim May 29, 2021 as

Love for Kelowna Day

In the City of Kelowna, Province of British Columbia

Colin Basran
MAYOR

May 17, 2021

Dated on this day