

VISIT
KNOXVILLE
TENNESSEE

MEDIA KIT

www.visitknoxville.com

A NATURE-LOVING-ADVENTURE-SEEKING-ARTSY-KINDA TOWN

In this one, unique location, mountains meet music... art meets adventure... culture meets cuisine... and no one meets a stranger. The pure walkability of downtown allows people to explore and discover vibrant murals, local music, historic sites, art museums, parks, greenways and more. With its sophisticated mix of culture and cuisine, experience a destination served up with genuine hospitality.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

How exactly did Knoxville come to be known as a nature-loving-adventure-seeking-artsy-kind-of-town? It's because Knoxville can't be defined by just one thing. The town itself is a run-on sentence you simply can't bring yourself to interrupt. A big city with hometown feels, Knoxville serves up endless opportunities for outdoor adventure, rich history, arts and culture – with an honest dose of southern hospitality. Foodies crave us and music lovers keep tuning in. Keep reading and you'll discover why!

"A Hidden Culinary Gem, home to an exciting and ever-growing culinary landscape."

Forbes Magazine

"I owe Knoxville a debt of gratitude... thoroughly infatuated with the city's cultural and culinary depth."

New York Lifestyles Magazine

"A big city with tons of fun, yet still considered a small town at heart, Knoxville has kept evolving throughout the years and in return that keep travelers and locals wanting more and more."

Houston Style Magazine

DON'T TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT...

...BUT WE'VE GOT RECEIPTS

A Guide to Knoxville Beyond the College Hangouts
Garden & Gun

Where to Eat in Knoxville & Maryville
Bon Appetit

Best Places to Eat in Knoxville
Southern Living

Best Places to Eat in Knoxville
DapperQ

GARDEN@GUN

Best Bars in the South - Knox Brew Hub

Esquire

Best Bars in America - Brother Wolf

- Best New Brewery - Pretentious Beer Co.
- Best Cidery - Gypsy Circus Cider Company
- Best Zoo Exhibit - Zoo Knoxville
- Best Aerial Adventure Park - Navitat
- Best Arts District - Downtown Knoxville

JUST THE (FUN) FACTS

Tennessee's third largest city

Settled in 1786 and established in 1791, the city now has a population of 192,000+ and 487,000+ (2021) in Knox County. The name comes from Henry Knox, President Washington's War Secretary (who never came here, and Fort Knox isn't here either!)

Knoxville is a college town

Knoxville is home to the University of Tennessee with 33,000+ students. Go Vols!

Easy to get to, hard to leave

Knoxville is at the crossroads of major interstates I-75, I-40, and I-81 and within a day's drive of half the US population. McGhee-Tyson Airport serves the region with 30 direct flights.

Can't be defined by just one thing

Knoxville has that one thing you're hoping to find...and more.

MUSIC + ENTERTAINMENT

Knoxville is one of America's most vibrant cities for live music. From classical to bluegrass, country to rock, live music is on the Square, on the streets and on the stages of the historic Bijou and Tennessee Theatres, hosting concerts and Broadway shows as well as performances by the Knoxville Opera Company, the Knoxville Jazz Orchestra and the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra.

WDVX's Blue Plate Special is a Knoxville must-do. The live radio show takes place Mondays-Thursdays and Saturdays from 12-1PM at the WDVX Studios in the downtown Visitors Center, and Fridays are held at Barley's Taproom & Pizzeria. Known primarily for Americana and Bluegrass, the Blue Plate welcomes a variety of performers from around the world.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

The sounds of nature are also part of Knoxville's soundtrack. Located just three miles from downtown, Knoxville's Urban Wilderness is a spectacular 1000-acre outdoor adventure area where you can hike, bike, climb, paddle or just wander in the woods – within the heart of the city. Over 50 miles of trails and greenways connect Ijams Nature Center (home to Navitat, a unique, tree-based adventure park), pristine lakes, historic sites, Civil War battlegrounds, quarries, adventure playgrounds, city parks and 500-acre wildlife area.

The city also features more than 120 miles of greenways connecting all facets of the city. Consider a slow ride to the Knoxville Botanical Gardens or the University of Tennessee Gardens and take a leisurely stroll amongst the flowers.

A variety of water activities beckons – fish, paddleboard, kayak, or take a dinner cruise on the beautiful Tennessee River. On football Saturdays in the fall, expect to see “sailgating” instead of tailgating – boaters from surrounding states line the waterfront ready to cheer on the Vols!

ARTS + CULTURE

Knoxville is known to be a community of artistic souls looking to capture the heart and culture of Knoxville by not only reliving the past, but focusing on the present as well as looking forward into the future. We've even been declared as an Etsy Maker City. Our area local artists bring the essence and vitality of Knoxville's spirit to life in painted murals, artwork, sculptors and photography displayed throughout the city. Be sure to stop in Glitterville Studios, where some of Oprah's "favorite things" are found.

The Knoxville Museum of Art celebrates the art and artists of East Tennessee. The KMA presents an engaging schedule of exhibitions.

Every First Friday of the month, experience a growing number of galleries and venues throughout the city that feature a variety of artists' displays and live music. Downtown anchors include The Art Market, The Emporium, and our own Visitors Center – all conveniently located on Gay Street. Stroll, sip and shop throughout the evening! Meander over to Market Square and the Old City for additional art, entertainment and dining options.

FOR THE FOODIES

Knoxville has more than its fair share of culinary arts as well. With a focus on locally sourced foods, Knoxville's unique culinary scene is shaped by a group of talented chefs including Tennessee's first James Beard Award Winner: Joseph Lenn. Lenn is the owner of J.C. Holdway and is one of several Blackberry Farm chefs who operate restaurants in Knoxville. Chef Matthew Gallagher operates Emilia, serving Italian inspired cuisine in a crisp atmosphere. The Old City is home to Lonesome Dove, a Western Bistro operated by celebrity chef and University of Tennessee grad Tim Love.

How about some other unexpected Knoxville flavors? For Knoxville's version of hot chicken, go see Miss Jackie at Jackie's Dream. She always serves with a smile but make no mistake - hot is hot! Yassin's Falafel House not only claims some of the best Middle Eastern cuisine around, but has also been recognized by Good Morning America as the "Nicest Place in America".

If your sweet tooth is in control (or maybe out of control), sample sundaes at the Phoenix Pharmacy & Fountain or try some swirled soft serve at Cruze Farm Creamery. Yum!

TAKE IT TO THE TRAIL

The Ale Trail that is! The city has established itself as one of the best craft beer towns in the Southeast, a place to relax with some of the country's finest beers and finest people – hop on the Ale Trail and taste for yourself!

From Hefeweizen in a German castle (Schulz Bräu) to experimental brews in a glass-blowing studio (Pretentious Craft Co.), you'll find plenty to whet your whistle.

If you don't know where to start, consider spending an afternoon with Knox Brew Tours, or pop into the Knox Brew Hub. This bar turned beer concierge will point you in the right direction - possibly the only drinking hole encouraging you to take your business elsewhere!

Need another "trail" to follow? Knoxville is also home to a few stops on the Tennessee Whiskey Trail, so be sure to have a sample at Knox Whiskey Works, PostModern Spirits, or Drop Zone Distilling.

HISTORY + HERITAGE

As the first capital of Tennessee, Knoxville is proud of its heritage and committed to preserving it. Many visitors come to Knoxville to learn more about Civil War sites in our area, and tour earthworks, battle sites and historic homes. The East Tennessee History Center holds the key to Knoxville's past. Ever-changing, award-winning exhibits tell the history of the people, places and events that shaped this region from the time of the Cherokee until the World's Fair in 1982.

From log cabins to frame houses to stately stone mansions, there are seven Historic House Museums of Knoxville which invite you to step back in time to learn firsthand the history of Knoxville and experience the times and events that shaped them and the families who occupied them. From the pioneers engaging in both trade and skirmishes with the native Cherokee post-Revolutionary War, to enterprising women leading the crusade for suffrage in the early 20th century, Knoxville is the perfect snapshot of American life and is full of human interest story possibilities.

ATTRACTIONS + MUSEUMS

Other popular Knoxville attractions include:

- Women's Basketball Hall of Fame – The only facility in the world dedicated to preserving the history of women's basketball (and World Record Academy record holder for World's Largest Basketball Sculpture!)
- McClung Museum of Natural History & Culture – Exhibits in this facility on the University of Tennessee's campus showcase the geological, historical, and artistic past of Tennessee and cultures from around the globe.
- Knoxville Ice Bears – Come for a game of fast-paced hockey and fun!
- Zoo Knoxville – One of the premiere zoological experiences in the southeast where guests come face to face with the world's most fascinating animals.
- The Sunsphere – Built for the 1982 World's Fair, the Sunsphere stands 266 feet tall with 26 stories and is topped by a 75-foot gold-colored, glass-paneled sphere. No trip to Knoxville would be complete without a 360° view of the city from the 4th Floor Observation Deck.

KNOXVILLE BARXVILLE:

A NATURE-LOVING-ADVENTURE-SEEKING-BELLY-SCRATCHING-KINDA TOWN

Knoxville has gone to the dogs - literally! There's no better place to bring your furry best friend than the Scruffy City. Throughout Knoxville you will find welcoming signs for your dog like fresh bowls of water just waiting to be lapped, dog-friendly events, and plenty of area parks for your pooch to roam free. Knoxville is the perfect playground for your furry family member to explore mountaintops, trails and enjoy splashing in the area "watering holes."

Sniff out delicious unique cuisine or local craft breweries with dog-friendly patios for you and your pal to enjoy together. Your companion will get plenty of exercise too exploring the very walkable downtown with lots of shops that welcome pets - even our own Visitors Center, where you can enjoy live music with WDVX's Blue Plate Special!

Visiting Knoxville with your pooch has never been easier or more fun!

Learn more at visitbarxville.com!

FESTIVALS + EVENTS

Year round, this diverse and welcoming city hosts more than 80 cultural festivals and events. We're a city with four seasons which makes Knoxville a unique and exciting place to visit all year long!

Spring – Spring is a time of beats, eats, and the celebration of the beautiful dogwood trees that cover our landscape. March kicks off with the ever-eclectic and internationally-acclaimed Big Ears Festival. April celebrates arts of the Appalachian region with a multitude of events that include the Dogwood Arts Festival (a juried craft show), Rossini Festival (Knoxville's biggest street party hosted by the Knoxville Opera), and Southern Skies (Americana & folk music festival).

Summer – Things heat up with Rhinestone Fest (for the Dolly Parton lovers!), SoKno Pride, Festival on the Fourth, and more.

Fall – Fall is one cultural event after the other, with the Knox Asian Festival, HoLa Festival, Greek Fest, German Fest, and others.

Winter – With events like the Elf on the Shelf® Adventure (the country's first community-wide elf hunt), Holidays on Ice (open-air ice skating in Market Square), and the Peppermint Trail (peppermint themed decorations, drinks, and treats), the holidays in Knoxville are truly a magical experience.

SPORTS + FILM

Visit Knoxville Sports Commission

Knoxville, Tennessee loves sports and loves to host sporting events. The city continues to welcome top events like USA Cycling National Championships, USA Swimming TYR Pro Series, and will welcome the U.S. Olympic Team Trials - Diving in 2024. In 2023, the 53rd Annual Bassmaster Classic was crowned the largest-attended event today, and received the 2023 HospitalityTN Purple Iris Award for Special Event of the Year and the 2023 SportsTravel award for Best Professional Event.

Visit Knoxville Film Office

Knoxville is one of the leading production towns in the country, home to Warner Bros. Discovery, Jupiter Entertainment, RIVR Media, and others. The VK Film Office has successfully recruited nearly 20 feature films since 2016, putting Knoxville on the map as a premier film location for independent films. Knoxville has been ranked four times as one of MovieMaker Magazine's Best Cities to Live and Work as a Filmmaker. The inaugural film festival, FILM FEST KNOX, was hosted November 2023 with much anticipation for 2024's event.

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING FUN TO WRITE ABOUT? NEED IDEAS OR PHOTOS?

HEY Y'ALL!

 865.306.4341 c

 kcombs@knoxville.org

 301 S. Gay St. Knoxville, TN 37902

Kristen Combs
Director of Communications

Author of 100 Things to Do in Knoxville Before You Die
(Reedy Press)

2023 DMO Employee of the Year
(HospitalityTN)

www.visitknoxville.com