Lafayette Convention & Visitors Commission Staff

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your interest in Lafayette, Louisiana, and we look forward to having you visit us in the “Happiest City in America” according to Wall Street Journal’s Market Watch.

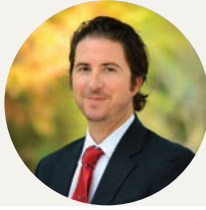

Throughout the pages of our Planner Guide, you will learn about the many attractions, restaurants and facilities that have helped us garner such accolades as: Rand McNally and USA Today’s Best Food City in the USA, Southern Living’s Tastiest Town of the South, Livability.com’s Top 10 Foodie City, recognition as one of the South’s Historic College Towns with Hip Group Appeal by ConventionSouth as well as Travel and Leisure’s #2 Best College Town in the USA.

For years, our food, music, culture and people have made Lafayette Parish an ideal destination. Our staff stands ready to answer any questions you may have, whether you are interested in hosting a meeting, a sports event, bringing a tour group, or just want to come experience the uniquely authentic Cajun and Creole culture.

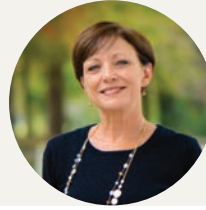

So come see us, and we promise to always “laissez les bons temps rouler” (let the good times roll)!

STAY HAPPY, STAY LAFAYETTE!

Lafayette is at the heart of Louisiana's Cajun Country, an area known for letting the good times roll, or as we say it laissez les bons temps rouler, and people are starting to notice. The Wall Street Journal's MarketWatch.com recently named Lafayette as the Happiest City in America and it's no mystery why. With our distinctive blend of food, music and culture it's no wonder people from all over are heading down south with a smile on their face.

The New TABASCO® Experience

Learn how the world famous TABASCO® brand pepper sauce gets made from the greenhouse to the mash warehouse all the way through processing and bottling at the new TABASCO® experience. After the tour, sample some of the peppered products and leave grinning from ear to ear with souvenirs at the Tabasco Country Store. (Tabasco.com)

Vermillionville

Vermillionville is a 23-acre historic and folklife park along the banks of the Bayou Vermilion that depicts the Acadian, Creole and Native American cultures from the time period 1765 – 1890. This historic village features guided tours, costumed artisans, live music, cooking school, dance lessons, boat tours, and a gift shop that will leave you overjoyed with history and culture. (Vermillionville.org)

Blue Dog Café

Experience the work of world renowned artist George Rodrigue while sampling award winning cuisine at the Blue Dog Café. Learn about the history of the Blue Dog, Rodrigue's most notable character and icon of the South, while tasting Cajun inspired cuisine with a southwestern twist. Your eyes and mouth will leave elated and encourage you to Sit. Eat. (BlueDogCafe.com)

Downtown Lafayette Museums

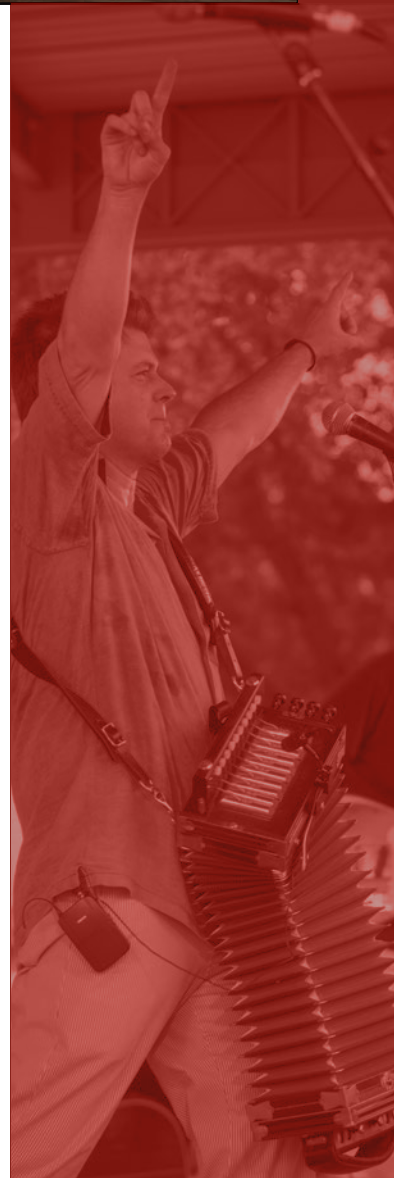

Lafayette's Downtown is dotted with museums that will have your eyes beaming with delight. Start off at the Acadiana Center for the Arts and make your way down the museum loop to the Alexandre Mouton House, Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Children's Museum of Acadiana, Cité des Arts and the Lafayette Science Museum & Planetarium. (DowntownLafayette.org)

Martin Accordions

Hear the story of how Junior Martin and his family began making custom crafted diatonic accordions used by professional and amateur musicians around the world. Learn about the many steps in creating the accordion from the artist himself and sit back in delight as he demonstrates how this joyous instrument is played. (MartinAccordions.com)

Dinner & Dancing

The only thing we enjoy more than eating down here in Cajun Country is dancing. Get the best of both worlds as you sample local flavors from restaurants like Pont Breau's, Prejean's or Randol's Restaurant with accompanying live music seven days a week. Sample our unique Cajun cuisine while two stepping around the dance floor to local music. Your feet and your appetite will be doing a happy dance.

THE CAJUN WAY OF LIFE

Lafayette Parish stands at the epicenter of Louisiana's Cajun & Créole Country. Our region's history dates back to the 18th century, when Canada's Acadians were expelled in the late 1700s and settled in Louisiana.

More than two centuries later tourists come to Lafayette to get a rare taste of the genuine Cajun experience, from traditional food fixings and music to the warm southern hospitality that greets you at every turn.

Experience THE REAL LOUISIANA ON THE CAJUN COAST

CHITIMACHA MUSEUM

Take a trip through the history of the Chitimacha Tribe, this region's first inhabitants, at this free museum. The Chitimacha ("People of the many waters") were known for their basket weaving artistry and the museum features artifacts and brief videos.

FRANKLIN HISTORIC DISTRICT/MAIN STREET

A walking tour is a must for lovers of historic architecture and the Old South. On the National Register of Historic Places, the Franklin Historic District boasts more than 420 noteworthy structures, including stunning antebellum homes under a live oak arcade, charming Victorian cottages and a late-19th-century downtown shopping district.

WEDELL-WILLIAMS AVIATION & CYPRESS SAWMILL MUSEUM (A LOUISIANA STATE MUSEUM)

Explore the exhibits of the Wedell-Williams Aviation Museum, including numerous aircraft, 1930s air race trophies and memorabilia, as well as a children's exhibit. Cypress Sawmill exhibits document the history of the cypress lumber industry in our area.

MORGAN CITY HISTORIC DISTRICT RIVERFRONT

Explore this city's unique waterfront, with its seawall, shops and restaurants, all close to several other attractions and historic homes and churches in the district.

INTERNATIONAL PETROLEUM MUSEUM AND EXPOSITION

Walk aboard an authentic offshore drilling rig, the "Mr. Charlie," the centerpiece of a unique facility which also offers training for the offshore oil industry. On a guided tour, visitors will learn about the oil industry, the functions of the oil rig and hear tales of the industry's beginnings.

CYPRESS BAYOU CASINO

Try your luck at Louisiana's first land-based casino, located on the Chitimacha Indian Reservation in Charenton. Over 1300 slot machines and more than 35 table games (including blackjack, craps, roulette, three and four card poker) are featured. There are six restaurants and a nightclub with entertainment every weekend plus national acts.

OAKLAWN MANOR

Tour this 1837 Greek Revival plantation manor, the residence of Louisiana's former governor and Mrs. Murphy J. (Mike) Foster. The home features European antiques, lovely bird carvings and an extensive Audubon collection.

GREVEMBERG HOUSE

Visit an authentically-restored 1851 Greek Revival style townhouse, which is on the National Register of Historic Places. Four "Temple of the Winds" Corinthian columns grace the home, containing fine antiques, documented wallpapers and early artifacts.

AMELIA BELLE CASINO

Finding your favorite game is easy, with over 800 slots plus table games such as Blackjack, Craps, Roulette, Mississippi Stud or Three Card Poker. The buffet is a great choice for lunch or dinner!

Lafayette's Original Museum of Authentic Acadian Homes

As a folk life museum LARC'S Acadian Village offers an authentic vision of Acadian society in South Louisiana during the 19th century. While touring the Village see homes furnished with native Louisiana antiques, stroll down by the bayous and feed the turtles, or just enjoy the serene environment at your own pace. Guide tours are also available.

LARC'S Acadian Village also offers three rental venues for your special occasions. We host many of events including festivals, cook-offs, family reunions, weddings, holiday parties, birthday parties, corporate picnics, and other events each year.

Join us for Noel Acadien au Village during the month of December to experience one of the largest lighting displays in the South. The Village comes alive with half a million lights, animated displays, live entertainment, local cuisine, carnival rides, pictures with Santa, holiday shopping, and much more.
