

Did you know?

1. Evangeline Maid Bread was founded by the Huval family in Youngsville back in 1919 and moved to Lafayette in 1926.
2. Evangeline Maid's namesake comes from the title character from Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's epic poem "Evangeline: A Tale of Acadie."
3. The founder's eldest daughter, Mary Huval modeled for the famous Evangeline Maid logo as you know it today.
4. The original hand-twist process of making the Old Fashioned Loaf has not changed.
5. The most iconic Evangeline Maid icon is the revolving bread sign outside of the facility that dates back to 1960.
6. Evangeline Maid Bread supplies 50% of the state, which is about 30 percent of the state's population.

Lafayette
LOUISIANA
LafayetteTravel.com