17. Sherod Park

US 6 at Coen Rd. (2 miles west of town)

440.204.2490, cityofvermilion.com

Offering commanding views of the lake, the majority of the 21-acre park is open green space, thus the primary allure is to look for migrant water birds moving along Lake Erie. The birding here is seasonal and by far best from Oct through early-winter. Featuring green space, trees, natural areas, walking track, and beach.

Central Shores

CASTALIA

18. Castalia Duck Pond

SR 101 (Main St.), lakeeriebirding.ohiodnr.gov
This 12-acre pond is at its best from late-fall to early-spring when waterfowl species head to open waters. Ample parking at both sides of the pond.

19. Castalia Quarry MetroPark

8404 SR 101 (Sandusky-Clyde Rd.)
419.625.7783, eriemetroparks.org
This 152-acre former quarry is home to about 240 species of native plants, some that are rare or threatened. You will also find fossils that date back 400 million years and glacial grooves. Excellent views of migrating raptors, plus habitats for smaller birds. Trails on the north side of SR 101 are great places to see migrating wetland species. An observation tower with ramp allows broad views of the park. Two miles of natural and gravel trails. Restroom open seasonally. Year-round, daily 8 am-dusk.

20. Castalia State Fish Hatchery

7018 Homegardner Rd.
419.684.7499, wildlife.ohiodnr.gov
As part of the blue hole aquifer system and diverted water from the Cold Creek, the area provides a unique birding experience on 90 acres of land and three acres of water. See herons, waterfowl, egrets, eagles, and more. Guided tours by appointment and grounds open Mon-Fri 8 am-3 pm; closed holidays.

21. Resthaven Wildlife Area

412 Cement Ave.
419.424.5000, wildlife.ohiodnr.gov
The unique feature here is a large remnant prairie. Many foot trails allow the visitor to explore diverse habitats of this wildlife area, totaling more than 2,200 acres. Indigo buntings, woodcocks, and ring-necked pheasants favor this area. Accessible fishing pier available. Year-round, daily dawn-dusk.

SANDUSKY

22. Community Foundation Preserve at Eagle Point

3819 Cleveland Rd. W (US 6)
419.625.7783, eriemetroparks.org
Eagle Point provides countless opportunities to enjoy nature from birdwatching, hiking, kayaking, canoeing, and more. This park offers excellent birding year-round and can be extraordinary during the spring migration. Pets permitted, accessible, and small boat launch. Access to the East Sandusky Bay Water Trail available. Year-round, daily 8 am-dusk.

23. Erie Sand Barrens State Nature Preserve

Scheid Rd. (off Taylor Rd. in Oxford Twp.)
866.644.6727, naturepreserves.ohiodnr.gov
This 32-acre preserve features a sand beach ridge plant community with many rare prairie plants. Hike the .5-mile trail and view prairie milkweed, Virginia meadow beauty, and twisted yellow-eyed grass. No pets. Year-round, daily dawn-dusk.

24. Firelands Audubon Society

firelandsaudubonsociety.org
Formed to protect, preserve, and appreciate natural habitat for birds and wildlife through conservation and education. FAS offers a variety of field trips and birding workshops for all levels of birders. Seasonal bird walks and bird counts in various locations throughout the area are fun and informative for everyone. See website for details.

25. Pipe Creek Wildlife Area

River Rd. (off Cedar Point Dr.)
