It is truly evident that the client is the most valuable thing to the GLCVB staff. We know that other groups bring their meetings to Lansing, but the GLCVB always make us feel like we are the most important one.”

“The GLCVB was excellent to work with. I approached them with an idea and they took it from there. I never had to call or email them; they were responsive, followed through with what they promised and offered many resources for those in attendance at our event. Best of all there was no cost to our organization for the assistance provided. I will never plan a Lansing area event again without the CVB's help.”
