KEEP OUR REGION beautiful

EXPLORE RESPONSIBLY

Somerset County

Here at GO Laurel Highlands, we are thrilled to welcome visitors to our unique and remarkable outdoor recreation area. We believe the natural beauty in the Laurel Highlands rivals top destinations around the world – but we need your help to keep it that way. Follow these tips for responsible recreation so generations to come can continue to enjoy the Laurel Highlands.

LEAVE NO TRACE.

If you take something into a natural area, take it with you when you leave. Everyone deserves to see the same pristine location, plus your trash can harm local flora and fauna.

DON'T FEED THE BEARS – OR ANY WILDLIFE.

While the Laurel Highlands is home to one picnic-basket stealing bear at Yogi Bear's Jellystone Park in Mill Run, the rest of our wildlife is, well, wild. Don't feed, pet, chase, or disturb them in any way, outside of legally licensed fishing and hunting in designated areas. This is their home, too.

BE CONSIDERATE OF OTHERS.

Everyone deserves the perfect Laurel Highlands vacation, so remember that we are all sharing the natural areas. Be mindful of noise levels, respectful of rules and regulations, and generally be kind to anyone you encounter. Know the symptoms of COVID-19, and if you don't feel well, stay home.

USE FIRE RESPONSIBLY.

If you choose to make a fire for cooking or telling ghost stories at night, do so only in dedicated areas. Pay attention to ranger warnings about fire risks during dry seasons. Keep a bucket of water nearby, and don't go to bed with a lit fire. One careless mistake could cause catastrophic damage.

PROTECT OUR WATER SOURCES.

The Laurel Highlands is home to dozens of creeks, rivers, waterfalls, and lakes. Be mindful of what you dump, where you dump it, and how it might impact the waterways around you. Washing your camping dishes in a creek might feel harmless, but it is introducing more pollutants into the environment.

TAKE ONLY PHOTOS AND MEMORIES.

If every visitor took a stone, flower, or fossil on their visit, eventually there would be very little left for others to enjoy. We want you to thoroughly enjoy your trip, but please leave it where you found it.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY fun

LIFELONG MEMORIES START HERE

All ages welcome! The Laurel Highlands offers a range of activities that will thrill everyone from tots to teenagers.

Idlewild & SoakZone in Ligonier has been entertaining families for decades. Little ones love Storybook Forest, where they can meet fairy tale characters and take a trolley ride through Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood. Water slides, a lazy river, and a wave pool make SoakZone the coolest place to spend a hot summer day!

Idlewild & SoakZone

Whether you feel the need for speed on the track or the desire to let loose and break something in the Rage Room, Full Throttle Adrenaline Park in Monroeville can make it happen. Go-karts that are twice the speed of most will have your heart racing, while a premium axe-throwing experience will require a steady hand. The Rage Room and Break Bar are the perfect places to let out pent-up frustration as you don safety gear then smash away with the provided tools!

Get up close and personal with furry friends at Living Treasures Animal Park in Donegal. In many cases, feeding and contact with animals are encouraged. The park features more than 400 animals and 70 different species, from American alligators and spider monkeys to brown bears and white tigers. An experience the whole family won't soon forget!

Jennerstown Speedway is the gathering spot for race fans every Saturday night in the summer, with six divisions of racing action. Adrenaline runs high, but ticket prices don't, with free admission to most events for children younger than 12.

For even more adventure, go underground to explore Pennsylvania's largest cave. Located near Farmington, Laurel Caverns is home to more than four miles of passages. Weather is never a factor at Laurel Caverns – it's a constant 52 degrees underground – but it does close during the winter months for bat hibernation season.

Celebrate the great American road trip at the Lincoln Highway Experience in Latrobe, the largest museum sharing the story of our nation's first coast-to-coast highway. Younger children will love the hands-on exhibits while grandparents and parents can reminisce about the "good ol' days" with artifacts from the Lincoln Highway. Afterward, everyone can enjoy a complimentary slice of pie at Serro's Diner.

Once home to a young George Washington, Fort Ligonier now serves up educational experiences with artillery batteries, cannons, wagons and buildings rebuilt on the original site of the French and Indian War fort. Plan ahead and you can even "raise the flag on fun" with escape rooms, birthday parties and sleepovers at the fort.

Seven Springs Mountain Resort in Champion offers four seasons of Epic fun! The Epic pass provides ski and snowboard access to all 40 Vail resorts across North America, including nearby Hidden Valley and Laurel Mountain. The largest ski resort in the state, Seven Springs features 33 slopes and trails, seven terrain parks and 10 lifts. Summer brings its own flavor of fun on the mountain with alpine slides, disc golf, a rock wall, paddleboats, paddleboards and horseback riding.

Guests at Nemacolin can indulge in dozens of on-site experiences at the luxury resort with special activities for kids of all ages. Youngsters can try their hand at painting classes or splash around in their own indoor pool. There are even wildlife adventures that include painting with ponies and encounters with lions and tigers. When it's time for mom and dad to spend quality time on their own, Nemacolin conveniently offers babysitting services.

Lincoln Highway Experience

BE INSPIRED BY Wright

FOUR HOMES,
ONE DESTINATION.

The genius of Frank Lloyd Wright can be found in many places across the U.S. and internationally, but many are surprised to learn that the Laurel Highlands is a veritable mecca for architectural tourism.

Let's start from the top. Wright's masterpiece: Fallingwater. Located in the wooded mountain oasis of Mill Run, Fallingwater has been hailed as America's greatest work of architecture and ranked as the nation's most loved building. The home, visited by nearly 200,000 guests annually, seems to hover majestically above a waterfall. One of the most highly sought-after destinations, Fallingwater is just one of four Wright homes in the Laurel Highlands.

Kentuck Knob, constructed seven miles from Fallingwater, is an excellent example of Wright's Usonian style. Rather than being built on the hillside, the home appears to be a part of the landscape and only enhances its stunning views of the valley below.

Polymath Park, located 23 miles north of Fallingwater, features two Wright homes – Mäntylä and Duncan House – that were constructed in the Midwest before being relocated to the Laurel Highlands. The Blum House and Balter House, both of which were designed by Wright protégé Peter Berndtson, also grace the property. All four homes at Polymath Park are available for overnight lodging and offer guests the experience of living in a Wright creation.

While it's possible to tour all four Frank Lloyd Wright homes during a single day in the Laurel Highlands, we recommend spreading it out over two days to make the most of the experience.

Planning ahead is key. Fallingwater tours often sell out weeks in advance – particularly during the summer months and in the fall, when the foliage is at its peak. If you choose to spend the night in a Wright-designed home at Polymath Park, reservations should be made well before your trip. While you're booking the lodging at Polymath, make a reservation for TreeTops Restaurant, an award-winning dining experience on the property.

Frank Lloyd Wright's Fallingwater

plan your trip

THE WRIGHT WAY TO SEE THE LAUREL HIGHLANDS

DAY 1

Arrive in the Laurel Highlands in the afternoon or early evening. For a luxurious getaway, stay at Nemacolin's Falling Rock, which boasts Frank Lloyd Wright-inspired design and includes personalized butler service. Dinner at Lautrec, Nemacolin's Forbes Five-Star and AAA Five-Diamond restaurant, is an unforgettable experience.

DAY 2

Start the day with a fresh, locally sourced breakfast and a handcrafted drink at Bittersweet Café before making the short trip to Kentuck Knob. Book tickets in advance online for the guided house tour and give yourself time to check out the interesting birdhouses and art installations before your tour begins. Photography is not permitted inside of the house, so relax and enjoy the experience!

Afterward, be sure to check out the stunning view from Kentuck Knob – which is especially beautiful in the fall – and allow time for the fascinating art walk and a trip to the unique gift shop.

Stop for a photo op at Cucumber Falls as you head toward the scenic town of Ohiopele, headquarters for outdoor adventure. Grab lunch to-go at the Falls Market Restaurant & Pub and enjoy it picnic-style beside the gorgeous views of the Youghiogheny River.

Arrive at Fallingwater at least an hour ahead of your scheduled guided tour to allow time to check in at the Visitors Center, stroll through the Speyer Gallery exhibit and the gift shop. Photography is permitted on the first floor of the home, and the tour lasts about an hour. Be sure to follow the signs for the "View" to capture an iconic photo of Fallingwater.

Polymath Park is about a 40-minute drive from Fallingwater. Be sure to check in by 5 p.m., giving you time to freshen up ahead of your advance reservations (a must) for an enchanting twilight dinner in a treehouse-style dining pod with an exquisite 4.5-course meal from TreeTops Restaurant, and your stay in a Wright home.

DAY 3

Rise and shine with a trip to Silver Horse Coffee in Donegal for your favorite morning beverage and a breakfast burrito, scone, or muffin. Return to Polymath Park for your architectural tour, which can range from a one-hour visit, a two-home tour, or the complete collection of all four homes.

Relax with a glass of wine and enjoy the view at Stone Villa Wine Cellars, which is less than five miles from Polymath Park, then enjoy a delicious meal at Out of the Fire Café before heading home.

AUBÖCK: THE GALLET COLLECTION

OPENING AT TOUCHSTONE CENTER
FOR CRAFTS MAY-JULY 2024

There is a certain allure that fine art and rare objects wield over viewers. When history and provenance collide with these objects, the experience can be sheer magic.

Auböck: The Gallet Collection presents an exhibition at Touchstone Center for Crafts of rare and important works of art and objects from the internationally renowned Werkstätte Carl Auböck, located in Vienna, Austria, which operated for over 120 years. The Gallet family's collection spans five generations and includes examples of metal working, woodwork, ceramics, artwork, architecture, ephemera, and more.

"We are excited to be able to shine a light on this important artistic legacy that has roots in Vienna, Austria, and extends to Uniontown, Pa.," said Touchstone Center for Crafts Executive Director Lindsay Ketterer Gates. "As an organization, we strive to bring impactful exhibitions to our galleries that enlighten the public and bring awareness to all forms of craft. It's difficult to imagine any other global artistic legacy that encompasses such a wide range of disciplines, from metal working to woodworking, architecture, ephemera, and more. The fact that it has ties to Uniontown is something to be celebrated!"

In 1939, Valerie Auböck Gallet and her husband, Louis, immigrated to the United States and eventually settled in Uniontown where they established a successful knitting factory. Valerie, the sister of Bauhaus student and renowned artist, Carl Auböck II, remained in close contact with her Viennese family, supporting the Werkstätte throughout her lifetime. It was through this relationship that many Auböck treasures came to reside in her Uniontown home and were eventually passed along to her heirs.

“We need to tell this story.”

When Ken Greep moved into a Modernist home in Uniontown, he had no idea he was gaining more than just a place to live. He soon discovered a new passion. He purchased the home from the Gallet estate, having belonged to Valerie Auböck Gallet. The home had a rich history and ties to five generations of the Internationally-known Auböck designers. After learning of the family history and seeing the artifacts still housed in Uniontown, Greep - a midcentury modern and art aficionado - decided that the story needed to be told, and the exhibition needed to be kept here.

After years of research, Greep was ready to move forward with the exhibition, and decided that Touchstone was the perfect venue. “We could’ve taken this exhibit anywhere in the world, but we wanted to keep it here, to showcase and share it with the local people,” he said.

The Auböck exhibition provides an intimate glimpse into the extraordinary life of Valerie Auböck Gallet and her family, shown through a curated collection of artwork, objects, and ephemera.

Touchstone provided the perfect artistic venue. Founded in 1972, Touchstone’s mission is to advance excellence in the arts and crafts by educating and encouraging individuals to develop technical skills, good design, and innovative expression. Workshops and residencies are available in an array of media including blacksmithing, ceramics, glass, small metals/jewelry, drawing/painting, and other special topic areas.

Touchstone’s 150-acre wooded campus is near Frank Lloyd Wright’s Fallingwater, Ohio’s State Park, and Nemacolin Resort. Touchstone offers immersive learning experiences to participants of all skill levels, including: 1- to 5-day workshops and date-night sessions in seven fully equipped studios; scholarships for adults, veterans, and teens; artist residencies and internships for emerging artists; facility rentals and creative retreats with hands-on studio activities for groups; and, community events, studio tours, and gallery exhibitions for the public.

OUT ON THE TOWN

SMALL TOWNS, BIG EXPERIENCES

The natural beauty of the Laurel Highlands attracts millions of guests each year, but that's not all the area has to offer. Take a scenic drive through the region and stop by one of the many quaint towns that are home to delicious culinary experiences, cute boutique shops, and one-of-a-kind lodging options.

Ligonier Country Market

LIGONIER

A quintessential “Hallmark” town, Ligonier is conveniently walkable with a charming gazebo on the perfectly groomed diamond (town square) and interesting local shops lining Main Street. The Colonial House on Main and Thistledown at Seger House, among others, are welcoming bed-and-breakfast choices and The Ramada Ligonier offers an in-town hotel option.

Abigail’s Coffeehouse is a popular spot for people-watching as you enjoy an affogato – espresso poured over top ice cream – or sip on an Americano.

Betsy’s of Ligonier offers casual apparel for today’s woman while Onyx and Ivory is a boutique shop featuring a carefully-curated collection of women’s items. Clothing with artsy flair is just one of many selections at Song of Sixpence, where you’ll find an extensive collection of handmade items, candles, soaps and more.

The Post and Rail Men’s Shop has provided classic clothing at affordable prices for nearly a half-century.

Each Ligonier shop has a unique identity. For example, Artisan Made Marketplace showcases gourmet packaged foods, local artist creations, gift baskets and more. On the Diamond Antiques offers vintage goods and collectibles from multiple dealers. My Honeybee is run by a mother-daughter team who live by the motto of BEE HAPPY, and their eclectic selection of merchandise showcases this philosophy.

Find contemporary fine craft from all over America – including fine art exhibits at the Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art (SAMA) and locally handcrafted award-winning furniture by Sirofchuck Studios – or take an art class at Main Exhibit Gallery & Art Center.

Dining options abound from the casual atmosphere of Carol & Dave’s Roadhouse and the healthy lunch options at Connections Café to south-of-the-border favorites at El Vaquero Mexicano. Roman’s Pizza is always a popular choice!

The Ligonier Country Market, which runs from May through September, was voted the best farmers market in Pennsylvania, and thousands flock to the town for Fort Ligonier Days each October.

DONEGAL

A popular stop off the Pennsylvania Turnpike for visitors heading to Seven Springs Mountain Resort, Holiday Inn Express & Suites or the Log Cabin Lodge & Suites offer convenient access to much of the Laurel Highlands, including some incredible dining options. Out of the Fire Café has built a stellar reputation by focusing on fresh seafood – be sure to try their signature smoked salmon – and hand-cut meats. TreeTops Restaurant, which is located at Wright at Polymath Park, features an incredible dining experience whether you opt to dine in the restaurant or in an individual treehouse-style pod.

Buck up your morning (or afternoon) with a Silver Spur from Silver Horse Coffee. The sparkling iced coffee drink with citrus, heavy cream, and carbonated coffee will have you racing out of the gate and flying down the backstretch.

Shoppers can step back in time at the Old General Store and Country Pie Shoppe, which specializes in old-time products in a unique setting or the Silver Penny, a vintage home goods and fine used furniture store. Hemlock Lane Designs, run by a father-and-son team with Westmoreland County roots stretching back five generations, crafts custom furniture, home décor and repurposed items.

SOMERSET

Named one of the best adventure towns in the Mid-Atlantic and Southeast regions the past two years, Somerset is right off the Pennsylvania Turnpike and offers plenty of lodging options including Comfort Inn, Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott and Hampton Inn locations.

Sustainability takes center stage Uptown at Jar the Zero Waste Store. It's a very walkable community, especially on Saturdays between May and October, when the SoCo Farmer's Market brings local growers and artisans together. Baker's Home & Garden Center features Amish furniture, home décor, seasonal decorations and much more.

Family-run since 1941, the Pine Grill Restaurant is a Somerset staple featuring steak, seafood and pasta dishes. Tailgatez is a family-friendly sports bar that has 21 beers on tap and an extensive menu.

Don't miss January's Fire & Ice Festival and July's Chalk the Block, which draws artists from across the country!

Baker's Home & Garden Center

Neubauer's Flowers & Market House

UNIONTOWN

Neubauer's Flowers & Market House is a fourth-generation florist offering an array of home decor, outdoor plants, and year-round Christmas merchandise. That's not the only spot to catch the holiday spirit, as yuletide lovers can visit Santa daily from April through Dec. 31 at the Christmas Shop & Downer House Antiques.

A unique selection of realistic floral designs, artisan-made gifts, farm-to-table products, and local wines is available at Pepperberries. A few blocks away is Amy's Quilt Room, which features a fresh and modern twist on a timeless tradition with fabrics, patterns, and quilting classes available.

The Hampton Inn, Hilton Garden Inn and Deer Creek Winery & Watson Estate Bed and Breakfast each provide a great base from which to explore Uniontown. Be sure to catch a show at the historic State Theatre Center for the Arts.

Chalk the Block Somerset

Unique & Boutique

If you like to stray off the beaten path and find shopping experiences that are unlike those anywhere else, check out these:

fdp studio+shop | This pottery workshop and home goods store is in a beautifully renovated historic building.

Eclectique | The name says it all, as the Latrobe shop includes more than 30 local artisan vendors supplying handcrafted merchandise.

The Falls Market General Store | Find everything you need, from camping supplies to groceries.

Duppstadt's Country Store | Affectionately known as "the Buckstown Mall," this 1904 property features anything from cowboy boots to candles.

Dining

Pizza: Slices of Heaven

In Greensburg, try the wood-fired crab Rangoon at El Diablo Brewing Co. & Wood-Fired Kitchen or the pork carnitas pie at Marino's American Eatery, an establishment that was featured on a 2023 episode of "America's Best Restaurants." Jaffre's in Greensburg or Latrobe, Guy Fieri's American Kitchen, inside Live! Casino, or Olde Spitfire Grill are also great options.

Gluten-free options range from the hand-tossed pies at Ginny's Neighborhood Pizza next to the Great Allegheny Passage trail in Murrysville, to dough made fresh daily at Little E's Pizzeria in Greensburg.

Cups, Cakes, and Cones

Sometimes you just need a great cup of coffee or a sweet treat.

512 Coffee and Ice Cream checks all the boxes, and its fun and funky atmosphere make it one of the most popular spots in Latrobe.

Greensburg's Dv8 is part espresso bar, part art gallery.

Bittersweet Café in Farmington offers wonderful drinks and a popular menu.

Main Street Sweets in Greensburg features amazing specialty candy and gourmet milkshakes.

Since 1947, The Pie Shoppe in Laughlintown is a must-stop for delectable options, or try nearby Getaway Café.

If gluten-free cupcakes are on the menu, the Stanton Daily Grind in New Stanton and Maywood Grill in Chalk Hill have delicious options.

Visitors to Tissue Farm in Confluence can browse on-site art galleries and exhibits while enjoying a tasty beverage from their espresso bar.

If you listen closely, the Tower of Voices whispers a tale of sacrifice and heroism across a once unassuming field in the rolling hills of the Laurel Highlands. Nearly a quarter century has passed since September 11, one of the darkest days in American history. But the heroic deeds of the passengers who sacrificed their lives by intentionally crashing United Flight 93 into a Laurel Highlands field will never be forgotten. This is the goal of the Flight 93 National Memorial.

Spend a heartfelt day exploring the paths and listening, reading, and feeling the stories of the passengers.

The memorial near Shanksville pays tribute to the 40 passengers and crew members who died aboard the Boeing 757 on Sept. 11, 2001. The plane was hijacked by terrorists intent on crashing it into the U.S. Capitol Building in Washington, D.C., but passengers aboard the flight, aware of earlier attacks in New York and Virginia, fought back, saving countless lives in the process. This quiet town instantly was thrown into the spotlight, opening its arms to rescue workers, families, and friends. The response is a true testament to the strength woven into the fabric of this rural area.

The Wall of Names memorializes the 40 innocent lives lost while the Tower of Voices provides visual and audible tributes to their heroism. The most emotional reminders of that day are evident in the Visitors Center, which includes audio recordings of the heartbreaking messages that passengers left for loved ones in the moments before impact.

Groups are working together to make the Flight 93 National Memorial even more accessible with the development of the 9/11 Trail, a 1,300-mile multi-use route that links the World Trade Center and Pentagon to Shanksville.

Nearby, the beautiful Remember Me Rose Garden serves as a “living memorial” to the passengers and crew, while Patriot Park honors armed forces from the Global War on Terror with a display of more than 7,000 American flags. Take a walk through history and pay tribute to true American heroes at the Flight 93 Memorial.

FIND IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCES

Artists and art lovers have a palette's worth of opportunities at their fingertips in the Laurel Highlands. Enjoy the latest exhibition at The Westmoreland Museum of American Art in Greensburg, the Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art in Ligonier or Sager Mosaics just off the Great Allegheny Passage near Perryopolis. Planning an artistic retreat? Get some hands-on experience with a multi-day workshop at Touchstone Center for Crafts in Farmington, a fine-arts mecca for masters as well as beginners. Want to learn something new or catch a class on a rainy day? Latrobe Art Center, Greensburg Art Center, and Laurel Arts in Somerset each offer classes and special events.

The Palace Theatre in Greensburg regularly welcomes some of the biggest names in music, ranging from classic rock and pop to blues and country along with live theater, comedy and more. Windber's Arcadia Theatre and The Lamp Theatre in Irwin play host to some of the most popular tribute acts in the world today. In Greensburg, you can listen to live music under the stars during the summer at The Palace Theatre TGIS (Thank Goodness It's Summer) and the St. Clair Park SummerSounds concerts. The Laurel Highlands is also home to lively arts, crafts, music, and community festivals nearly every weekend from the first sign of spring through the last leaf of fall.

Community theater takes center stage with shows like “Cabaret,” produced by Greensburg Civic Theatre company. In Uniontown, the historic State Theatre Center for the Arts, once hailed as “the largest, finest and most beautiful playhouse in Western Pennsylvania,” presents national touring productions as well as classic films.

Calling all history buffs! Did you know that the French and Indian War started in the Laurel Highlands? It's true, and George Washington plays a leading role in Laurel Highlands history. Artifacts uncovered have verified that the first shots were fired at Jumonville Glen, part of Fort Necessity National Battlefield in Farmington. Learn first hand about the 15-minute skirmish on May 28, 1754 involving troops commanded by 22-year-old Lieutenant Colonel George Washington, which launched the seven-year war. A little more than a month later, Washington surrendered for the only time during his military career, during the Battle of Fort Necessity.

History comes to life at Fort Ligonier, located in the charming Hallmark-style town named after the historic site. Learn more about the man known as the Father of His Country in the Washington Gallery at Fort Ligonier, a reconstructed and restored French and Indian War fort. The historic journey continues to weave throughout the Laurel Highlands at Bushy Run Battlefield, the only recognized Native American battlefield in Pennsylvania, and at Friendship Hill, the restored country estate of Albert Gallatin, who purchased the Louisiana Territory and funded the Lewis & Clark exploration as secretary of the treasury during the Jefferson and Madison administrations. Historic Hanna's Town, established in 1773, holds a rich history, including playing an important role in the American Revolution. Today, visitors will find interesting exhibits, antique shows and special events at this scenic and historic landmark.

YOUR GUIDE TO GOOD TIMES

The Laurel Highlands Pour Tour is perfect for those thirsting for a weekend getaway or a year-long challenge.

Developed by GO Laurel Highlands in partnership with nearly 50 craft beverage makers, the trail unites breweries, wineries, distilleries, meaderies and cideries in Westmoreland, Fayette and Somerset counties with craft beverage lovers. After Pour Tour participants pick up a free passport at partner locations or download the app, they receive stickers for making purchases from participating locations – or for uploading a picture to the app for verification purposes. After collecting enough stickers, they are eligible for prizes, with higher-tier prizes for more visits.

Many Pour Tour aficionados prefer to savor the experience, visiting partner locations throughout the year to slowly collect stickers or check-ins. Others view the Pour Tour as a quest, with some carving out time for a hoppy holiday or a vineyard vacation!

The printed passport features a map to help participants locate beverage makers while the app uses GPS to determine the nearest Pour Tour partner. Either way, the Pour Tour program serves as a handy guide for visitors.

Feeling parched after a long day on the Great Allegheny Passage? Check the map and see Bloom Brew is a great place for a beer in West Newton, Yough River Brewing is a great place for a beer in Connellsville while Trailhead Brewing Co. is the go-to spot in Rockwood.

Looking for a pre-show drink in Greensburg before a trip to The Palace Theatre? The app will let you know that the Laurel Highlands Meadery is less than two miles away and Invisible Man Brewing is right across the street.

Want to grab a bite to eat while you're enjoying that amazing craft beverage? The passport will help you see partners that include food options such as El Diablo Brewing Co. & Wood-fired Kitchen, Tap-It! Brewery & Grill or Chapel Hill Wines.

Wherever you are in the Laurel Highlands, it's not too far from a great time at the next Pour Tour location!

REST. RELAX.
RECHARGE.

With so many exciting adventures to fill your days, it's only fitting that your Laurel Highlands lodging options are equally as exciting but also restful! No matter what brings you to the Laurel Highlands, you'll find a rejuvenating overnight experience to match your getaway vibe.

THE LUXURY EXPERIENCE

Nemacolin, the luxury resort that is home to “real-life magic,” has completely redesigned The Grand Lodge. All 56 rooms now include suites with private balconies that allow guests to embrace the scenic beauty of the 2,000 acres that Nemacolin calls home. The Farmington resort also includes The Chateau, an iconic hotel with a design inspired by the Ritz Paris; Falling Rock, which was influenced by Frank Lloyd Wright and includes personalized butler service; and single-family homes and estates.

FANTASY ESCAPE

Transport yourself into a mythical world by crossing the threshold into the Hobbit House, a themed lodging property that is a dream come true for “Lord of The Rings” fans. Nearly everything in the home was custom-built, from the medieval doors with operable speakeasy look-throughs to whiskey barrel cabinets.

If you really want to get away from it all, a stay at the Ohiopyle Luxury Treehouse provides the perfect opportunity to do just that. Enjoy the sounds of nature on one of three covered patios or relax in the hot tub after a hike on the property’s mile-long private trail.

Take a trip back in time with a stay at The Good Ol’ Days House. The three-bedroom retro guesthouse was recently renovated, but is filled with treasures such as working rotary phones, vintage board games and pinball machines.

ACTIVE AND ALLURING

Escape to scenic Seven Springs Mountain Resort in Champion, with lodging options ranging from the Slopeside Hotel to chalets, villas, and vacation rentals. Nearby, Highlands Cabins offers unique experiences with townhomes and cabins that are close to the ski slopes and golf courses.

Laurelville Retreat Center in Mount Pleasant offers deluxe and standard hotel rooms and single-family cabins on a 600-acre campus that includes miles of hiking trails, a ropes course, and sports courts.

CLOSE TO THE ACTION

Many visitors use the Pennsylvania Turnpike, which runs through the heart of the Laurel Highlands and includes four exits to reach our wonderful destinations. Conveniently located hotels near the Turnpike include the Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott in New Stanton and Somerset (Exit 75 & 110); the Holiday Inn Express & Suites in Irwin and Donegal (Exit 67 & 91).

CAMP OR GLAMP!

The great outdoors is a welcome space for sleeping under the stars. Check out Benner’s Meadow Run Camping and Cabins, Yogi Bear’s Jellystone Park Camp and Pine Creek Glamping Co. to name a few.

PLAN YOUR PERFECT wedding day

SHEEK & UNIQUE TO RURAL & RUSTIC

The dress. The vows. The music. Every detail of your dream wedding must be perfect. But perhaps nothing is as important than the venue. Mountaintop, lakeside, in a sunflower field or even on a ski lift, there are endless options for exchanging your vows in a unique setting in the Laurel Highlands.

Are you dreaming of a shabby chic reception that brings together country charm and sophistication? An eloquently renovated rustic barn would be ideal. The Laurel Highlands is home to several barn-style venues that strike this delicate balance, including the Barn at Fallingwater, Cavallo Fields, Grayson House, The Hayloft & Heritage, and West Overton Barn and Museum.

If you're thinking big with an expansive guest list and the need for many overnight rooms, one of our well-appointed resorts will welcome your family and friends with open arms. A destination wedding at a resort offers the convenience of holding the ceremony, reception and pre-and-post festivities all in one place. Add some outdoor activities, brunch, or time at the spa and your wedding will be touted as the event of the season. Opt for a woodsy lakeside backdrop at The Lodge at Indian Lake, an elegant mountain wedding at Oak Lodge or an exciting slopeside gathering at Seven Springs. Looking to go really posh, maybe even over the top? Say "I do" surrounded by the ultimate in opulence at Nemacolin.

BIKE

Extreme or serene? Long ride or short jaunt?
Traditional model or e-bike?

Cyclists have plenty of choices in the Laurel Highlands.

The Great Allegheny Passage, which is a 150-mile trail from Pittsburgh to Cumberland, Md., has been ranked as one of the nation's top recreational trails by USA Today's 10Best, and it was the first inductee into the Rails to Trails Hall of Fame. It attracts more than a million users per year who appreciate the gentle grade – less than 1% on average – and the variety of the trail, which winds below forest canopies, through old railroad tunnels and across bridges that offer sweeping views of river valleys below. Overnight trips are a breeze thanks to lodging, food and transportation options in trailside towns such as Connellsville, Ohio, Confluence, and Meyersdale. Conveniently located trailheads also make out-and-back rides a popular option.

Rent a bike at Confluence Cyclery, try an e-bike from JoltBike or book a GAP tour with Laurel Highlands River Tours & Outdoor Center or Wilderness Voyageurs.

If you want to go at your own pace, for added convenience, you can have Bill's Car Service, Maple Leaf Outfitters or Sunshine Luggage Shuttle handle your bags.

When you're looking for bigger thrills – and climbs and descents – there are plenty of mountain biking options, too. Forbes State Forest offers 250 miles of trails open to cyclists of all ability levels on surfaces ranging from single track to gated dirt and gravel roads. Somerset County's Quemahoning Reservoir is home to 26 miles of trails, including a loop around the 900-acre reservoir.

HIKE

Slip on your favorite sneakers for a relaxing walk to a waterfall or lace up those hiking boots and hit the trail for a weeklong trek. Novices seeking a peaceful stroll in the woods as well as backpackers looking for a long thru-hike will enjoy the scenery.

Some suggested hikes:

EASY: Keystone State Park in Westmoreland County offers the Pine Trail, which is only about a third of a mile, as well as the Lakeside Loop.

MODERATE: Catch a glimpse of the “other side” of Ohiopyle Falls in Fayette County with a 2-mile hike on Ferncliff Trail.

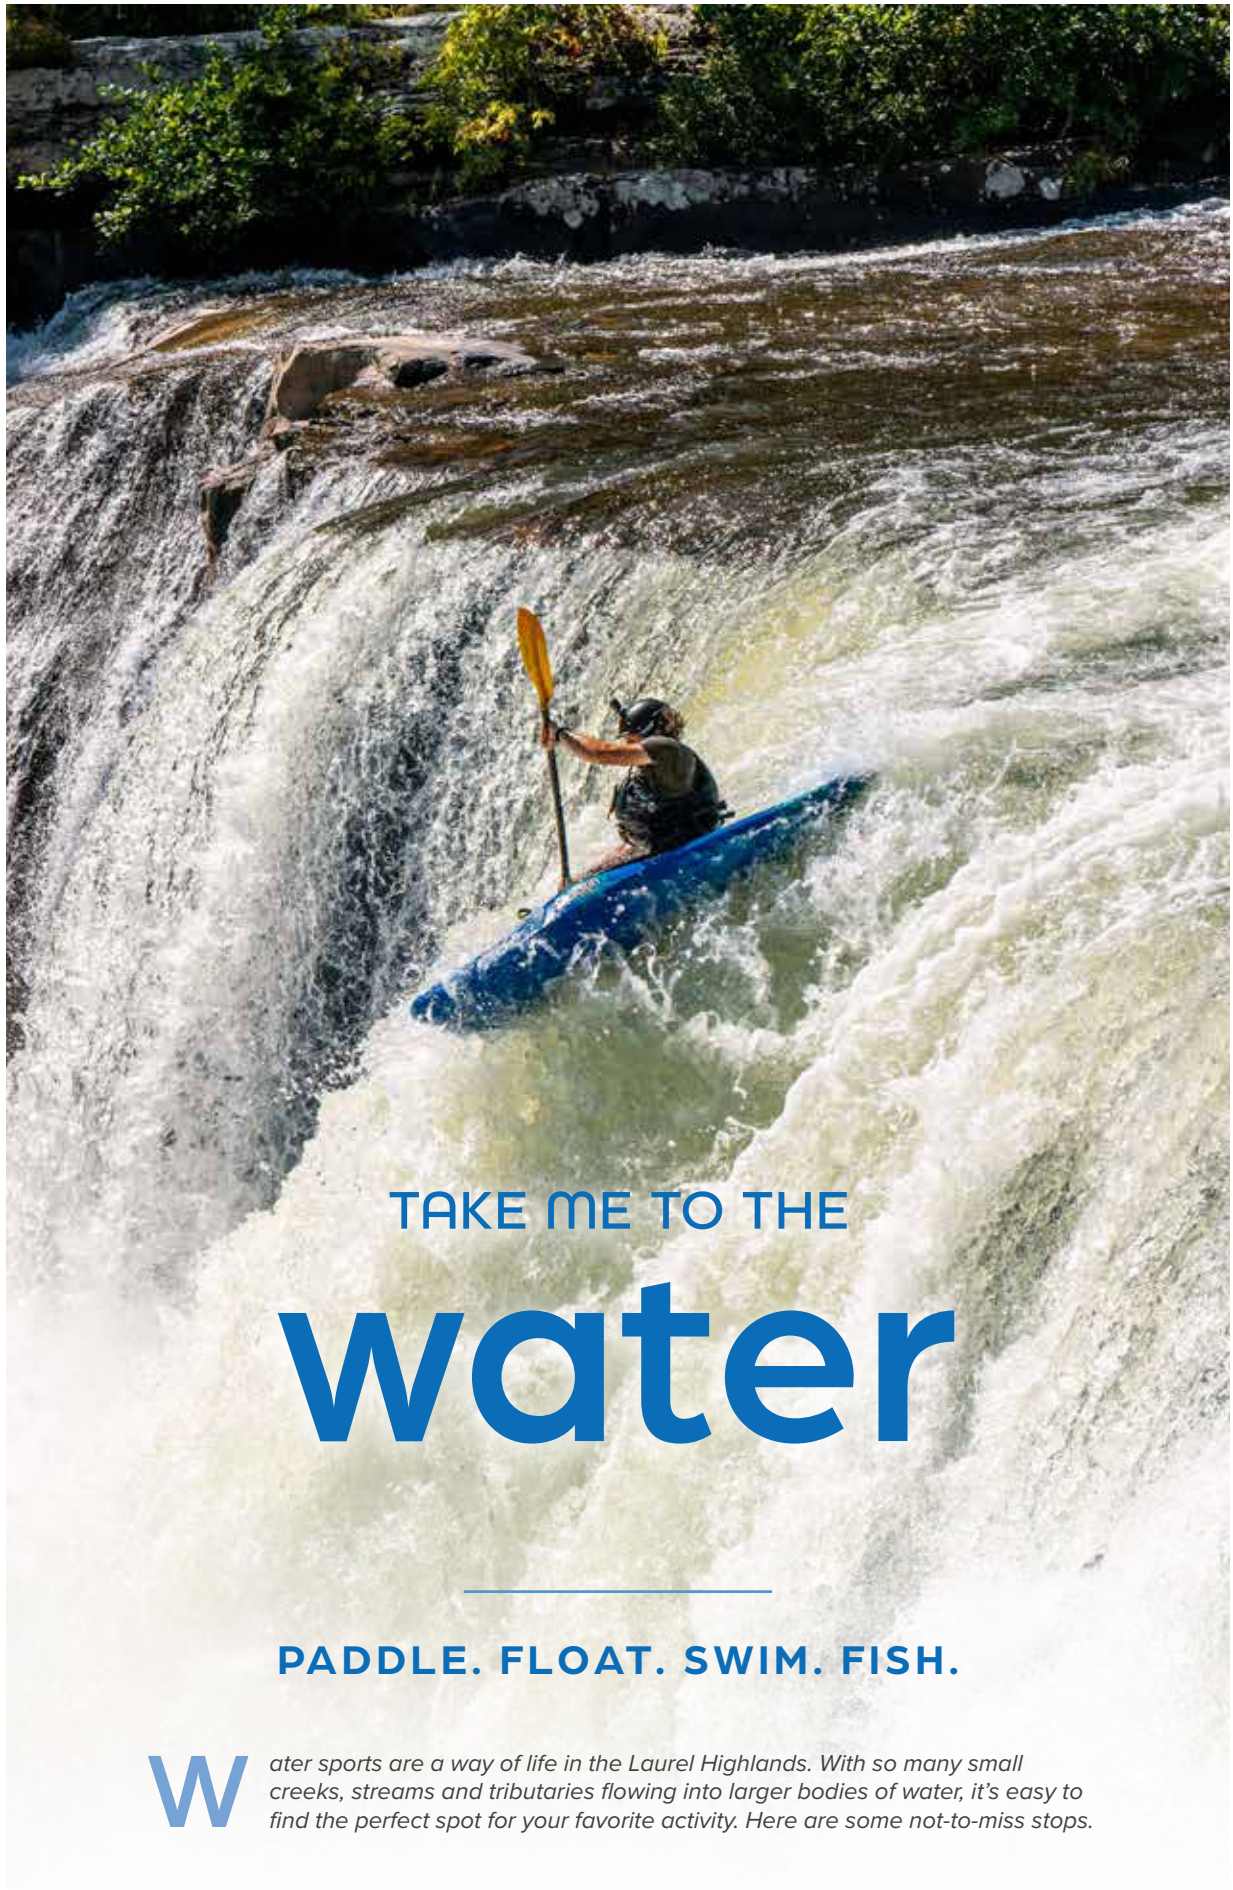

DIFFICULT: The Laurel Highlands Hiking Trail stretches 70 miles from Ohiopyle, Fayette County, to Seward, Westmoreland County. Steep climbs and descents mark each end, and well-placed overnight shelters – which require reservations – allow for multi-day hikes.

TAKE ME TO THE

PADDLE. FLOAT. SWIM. FISH.

Water sports are a way of life in the Laurel Highlands. With so many small creeks, streams and tributaries flowing into larger bodies of water, it's easy to find the perfect spot for your favorite activity. Here are some not-to-miss stops.

Youghiogheny River Lake

YOUGHIOGHENY RIVER

Touted as the busiest section of whitewater east of the Mississippi River, you can ride 7.5 miles of mostly class II and III rapids on the Lower Yough. Looking for a little slower pace? Try a family-friendly float on the Middle Yough. Ohiopyle is home to excellent rafting outfitters, including Laurel Highlands River Tours, Ohiopyle Trading Post, White Water Adventurers and Wilderness Voyageurs.

STONYCREEK RIVER

Pennsylvania's first artificial set of whitewater rapids was created at Whitewater Park near Johnstown, and the conditions are easily maintained by releases upstream at the Quemahoning Dam. Coal Tubin' offers whitewater rafting and tubing, along with river tubing and inflatable kayak experiences.

KEYSTONE LAKE

This 78-acre lake inside Derry's Keystone State Park is a popular spot for watersports enthusiasts. Two Dam Kayak Rentals offers more than the name implies with an inventory that includes canoes, row boats, hydrobikes, stand-up paddleboards and pedal boats.

YOUGHIOGHENY RIVER LAKE

Not to be confused with the river itself, this 16-mile-long lake is one of the premier spots for power boating and water-skiing in southwestern Pennsylvania. Located just southwest of Confluence, the lake crosses the Mason-Dixon line into Maryland.

TROUT TRAIL

If you prefer to cast your luck – and your lure – the Laurel Highlands Trout Trail is an angler's paradise, with dozens of streams spread over the region, allowing fishers to revel in solitude while they wait to reel in a trophy trout.

'TIS THE season

COLORFUL ADVENTURES ALL YEAR LONG

STUNNING. GORGEOUS. RESPLENDENT.

Those are just some of the words used to describe autumn in the Laurel Highlands, which has been ranked as one of USA Today's 10Best Fall Foliage Destinations each of the past three years. This year, our Keystone State Park ranked #1!

It's not just the colorful leaves that make the region such a hot spot when the weather turns cooler. The many ridges that crisscross the Laurel Highlands provide excellent vantage points from which to see vibrant colors in the valleys below – or on another hilltop in the distance. Here are some of our favorite spots to see fall foliage:

MOUNT DAVIS. It's all downhill from here. Well, geographically at least. The highest point in Pennsylvania at 3,213 ft., this Forbes State Forest ridge near Springs doesn't feature an easily visible peak, but climb to the top of the observation tower for a view that goes for miles.

BAUGHMAN ROCK. One of the most easily accessible views on our list, this Ohiopyle State Park staple is just steps from a parking lot and is a favorite for sunrise photos.

BEAM ROCKS. Located within Forbes State Forest near Laurel Mountain Ski Resort, this extraordinary overlook requires a half-mile walk on an easy trail.

WOLF ROCKS. A bit more effort is required to reach Wolf Rocks, but the view at the end of the trail is well worth the 2-mile moderate hike. It's located in Forbes State Forest near Laurel Mountain Ski Resort.

PACKSADDLE/DOC MILLER COVERED BRIDGE. Combine a waterfall, a covered bridge and gorgeous fall foliage for the ultimate Instagram-worthy picture at Brush Creek near Fairhope.

Winter is just cooler in the mountains! When the snow flies, everyone flockes to the Laurel Highlands for unforgettable outdoor adventures.

Vail's Seven Springs Mountain Resort in Champion is the largest ski resort in Pennsylvania with 33 exciting slopes and trails, seven gnarly terrain parks and 10 convenient lifts. A snow tubing park is perfect for the less-adventurous, group outings, and an all-around fun experience. Known for its exceptional après-ski offerings, you'll find plenty to do when you're not on the slopes. Enjoy an upscale dining experience at Helen's or cocktails and music at the infamous Foggy Goggle. Unwind with a massage at Trillium Spa, then cozy up beside the fireplace at an elegant, rustic mountain home or stay in the Slopeside Hotel to enjoy all the resort's on-property amenities.

Grab Vail's Epic Day Pass – good for up to seven days – and add Hidden Valley and Laurel Mountain resorts to your Seven Springs adventure. Located just 15 minutes from Seven Springs, Hidden Valley features 26 slopes and trails, two terrain parks and two lifts. Hidden Valley is an excellent place for children and adults to learn to ski or snowboard and offers group or private lessons. Laurel Mountain, also operated by Vail, is a favorite with experienced skiers. Off the beaten path, this quaint little resort boasts 20 slopes and trails, including the double diamond Lower Wildcat, which is the steepest in the state! Bring home some bragging rights when you master the 60-degree-vertical trail.

Nemacolin offers guests the opportunity to hit the slopes without ever leaving the 2,200-acre property in Farmington. It has 25 acres of downhill skiing and snowboarding on six slopes. The luxury resort also offers snow tubing, cross country skiing and snowshoeing adventures plus dozens of other upscale experiences at The Peak.

Looking for outdoor recreation without the downhill thrills? For great exercise and a firsthand view of the winter wonderland, try cross country skiing at Kooser State Park, Laurel Ridge State Park, Forbes State Forest or Ohiopyle State Park. Snowshoeing is also a popular option at Laurel Ridge State Park.

Need a place to get your motor running? Bring your snowmobile to Forbes State Forest, which has more than 115 miles of groomed road! No more boring winters! Start your family tradition of fun and adventure in the Laurel Highlands.

LEARN MORE

There is nothing quite like golf in the Laurel Highlands. The rolling hills, pristine vistas, and world-class courses will forever be linked with one of the greatest to ever play the sport. Arnold Palmer's Latrobe Country Club bears the name of the seven-time major champion who grew up in a house on the property, learned to play the sport there and later bought the club. He designed the back nine of the 18-hole course, including the iconic covered bridges that have become a draw for photographers from across the U.S.

The first course Palmer ever designed is also located in the region. Northwinds Peninsula Golf Club is now an 18-hole course that can be combined with a round at Northwinds Golf Course during a stay at Indian Lake.

Palmer's friend Dick Groat, who was a legendary athlete in his own right, designed and built Champion Lakes near Ligonier with Pittsburgh Pirates teammate Jerry Lynch. Champion Lakes has been ranked among the top public courses in Pennsylvania, as has Totteridge Golf Course in Greensburg.

Chestnut Ridge Golf Resort & Conference Center in Blairsville is home to a pair of breathtaking courses in Tom's Run and Chestnut Ridge, with stay-and-play packages available.

Nemacolin features two of the state's best courses in Mystic Rock, which has hosted PGA Tour events, and Shepherd's Rock. Both courses are open to overnight guests at the Farmington resort.

Highlands Cabins offers a unique experience with lodging that combines rustic charm and luxury as well as the ability to play both Highlands Golf Club courses at Seven Springs and Hidden Valley.

Connellsville's Pleasant Valley Golf Club is a popular option now open to the public, as is Glengarry Golf Links in Latrobe.

Glengarry Golf Links

INSIDER TIP: SpringHill Suites in Latrobe features a fascinating collection of Arnold Palmer memorabilia, including some of his equipment and letters to The King from Dwight Eisenhower to Bill Clinton. It's less than two miles from Latrobe Country Club and five from Glengarry Golf Links, making it the perfect location for a weekend golf getaway.
