TESTIMONIALS

Hear from locals who have recommended Lexington for meetings or events.

“As a meeting planner for national and international organizations, I’m accustomed to holding conventions in first tier cities. Due to local interest in the medical arena, we took a chance and hosted an annual convention in Lexington. Our attendees were thrilled with the area, the city and the facilities and have asked to make Lexington a permanent rotation for their annual convention. Lexington is truly a world class destination with many outstanding restaurants and attractions. I would recommend Lexington to anyone planning a national or international convention.”

Brian Doty, CMP | Agentis Management

“VisitLEX is one of the best kept secrets in the entire state. The staff is incredible. Having experts that know how to showcase this beautiful city and help you put on the very best event you can is like having staff you don’t have to pay for.”

Kerri Schelling | KY School Boards Association

“The VisitLEX team has served as an invaluable resource to UK Athletics throughout our SEC & NCAA Championship hosting opportunities. UK Athletics and the city of Lexington have an exemplary reputation for hosting quality events—and the VisitLEX staff is a critical component to that success.”
