Brimming with unique culture, undeniable convenience and competitive affordability, Lincoln's warm community and dedicated professionals are perfectly suited to host your next meeting or reunion. Let our passionate team welcome you to our beautiful city and introduce you to the excitement, enthusiasm and charm of our warm, engaging community. We invite you to experience Lincoln.

A place to explore. A place to connect. A place of pride.

Veterans Memorial Garden:
Located in Lincoln's historic Antelope Park, the garden allows peaceful reflection with 21 memorials and serves as a permanent reminder of the sacrifices veterans have made to preserve our freedom.

The Nebraska Capitol:
Constructed from 1922 to 1932 for $10 million. Seen from miles away, the majestic 400-foot domed tower contains mosaics and sculpture representing the natural, social and political development of Nebraska.

Museum of American Speed:
Established by Speedway Motors founder "Speedy" Bill Smith and his wife Joyce Smith, the museum is dedicated to preserving and displaying artifacts of American automotive history.

Lincoln Haymarket:
The "Haymarket" name can be traced to Lincoln's first decade. In the original plat of Lincoln of 1867, a "Market Square" was designated between O and P Streets from 9th to 10th.
