

Lincoln

Brimming with unique culture, undeniable convenience and competitive affordability, Lincoln's warm community and dedicated professionals are perfectly suited to host your next spiritual event. Let our passionate team welcome you to our beautiful city and introduce you to the excitement, enthusiasm and charm of our warm, engaging community. We invite you to experience Lincoln.

A place to explore. A place to connect. A place to believe.

© Mercy City Church

Destinations Coffee House:
Start your morning with a delicious cup of joe or conclude your day with a live worship night at Destinations Coffee House, a unique and welcoming coffee house with a religious spin.

First Plymouth Church Historic Stones: Commemorating the church's history, three stones convey their own stories on the church's beautiful grounds: The Martin Luther Stone, The Pilgrim Stone and the Bethlehem Stone.

International Quilt Museum:
Unfold the stories and religious context woven into the quilts that line walls of the largest publicly-held collection dating back to the 1700s.

Sheridan Lutheran Church's Stations of the Cross:
Constructed from the oil drums of Haitian artisans, 15 Stations of the Cross are located throughout the Sheridan Columbarium and Outdoor Worship Center.

285,000

population of Lincoln

69

lodging facilities

5,000+

Hotel Rooms

Pinnacle Bank Arena

85,000 sq. ft. Total Event space

88,100 sq. ft. of Flexible Hotel Meeting Space within a 1 Mile Radius

16,000 sq. ft. Largest Event Space Capacity

11 Event Rooms within the arena

Visit us
Lincoln.org
#LNK

Friend us
facebook.com/
Lincoln-Convention-
Visitors-Bureau

Follow us
twitter.com/
lincolncvb

Find us
YouTube.com/
LincolnNEcvb

Why Lincoln?

- Welcoming Atmosphere
- Competitive Affordability
- Family Friendly
- Focus on Faith
- Easy to Navigate
- Engaging Attractions

Union College

Trinity United Methodist Church

Sunken Gardens

First United Methodist Dome

Resources for a Successful Event

Religious Advisory Council: Formed by the Lincoln Convention & Visitors Bureau, the Religious Advisory Council unites faith-based meeting planners and representatives from local churches to both connect individuals within the religious community and plan future gatherings, with the ultimate goal of growing Lincoln's spiritual community

Women in Ministry: A division of the Religious Advisory Council, Women in Ministry focuses on female-led gatherings. From coordinating evening speakers to coordinating the successful Pioneer Women's Conference, Women in Ministry is an exceptional resource when planning your next event in Lincoln.

Getting Here

BY CAR

In the state of Nebraska, Interstate 80 runs west from Lincoln to the Wyoming state border, ultimately ending in San Francisco, California, and east ending in Teaneck, New Jersey, in the New York City Metropolitan area.

BY AIR

DELTA AND UNITED SERVE LINCOLN

Lincoln Airport

402-458-2480
lincolnaairport.com

BY TRAIN

Amtrak departs twice daily (westbound at 12:14 am; eastbound at 3:26 am) from the Lincoln Haymarket Station, located at 277 Pinnacle Drive. 800-USA-RAIL | amtrak.com

BY BUS

Arrow Stage Lines
arrowstagelines.com

Windstar Lines
gowindstar.com

Burlington Trailways
burlingtontrailways.com

Dashabout Roadrunner
dashaboutshuttle.com

As a full service CVB, we are happy to assist you in any stage of your visit, from early planning, to event and hotel reservations. Please contact Kelsey McGreer at kmcgreer@lincoln.org or 402-436-2353 for more information.

LINCOLN
CONVENTION AND VISITORS
BUREAU