

Christmas to New Year plans

1 Explore St Helens Dream statue

Take a short trip to Sutton, St Helens, and discover Dream, a striking sculpture by Jaume Plensa that has become an iconic piece of public art. Featured in Netflix's Stay Close, this serene landmark is perfect for a reflective winter walk and a unique photo opportunity.

2 Go ice skating at BOX PARK

Embrace the remaining festive spirit at the ICEBOX rink in BOXPARK Liverpool, tucked inside the vibrant Cains Brewery Village. Whether you're a pro or a wobbly beginner, it's the ultimate way to glide into the New Year with friends and family.

3 Visit the Quirky Quarter

Step into a world of optical illusions and mind-bending fun at Quirky Quarter on Duke Street. This immersive attraction is packed with puzzles, interactive exhibits, and photo-worthy moments, perfect for all ages and guaranteed to spark plenty of laughs.

4 Visit a Museum or Gallery

Liverpool boasts more museums and galleries than any UK city outside of London. Most of them are free! Uncover history at the Museum of Liverpool, or wander through the Walker Art Gallery. For something different, head to FACT for digital art or The Bluecoat for creative exhibitions.

5 Day out in Southport

Escape the city for a refreshing seaside adventure! Wander the seafront, then dive into culture at The Atkinson museum and art gallery.

6 Go on the magical mystery tour and visit the Cavern Club

Beatles fans, this one's for you! Hop on the famous Magical Mystery Tour and discover the iconic spots that shaped the Fab Four's story, from Penny Lane to Strawberry Field. After soaking up the nostalgia, head to the legendary Cavern Club for live music and unbeatable vibes. It's a must-do experience.

7 Eat, drink and shop at Liverpool ONE

Liverpool ONE is the ultimate festive playground between Christmas and New Year! From big-name brands to quirky boutiques, it's perfect for a post-Christmas shopping spree or spending those gift cards. Refuel with a bite at one of the many restaurants, whether it's a cosy coffee stop or a full-on feast.

8 Tour Anfield or Hill Dickinson Stadium

Football fan? Make the most of your time off with a behind-the-scenes tour of Anfield or Hill Dickinson Stadium. Walk through the players' tunnel, check out the dressing rooms, and stand pitch-side where legends have played. It's a must-do for any sports lover and a brilliant way to experience Liverpool's football heritage up close.

9 Discover hidden gems

Step off the beaten track and uncover Liverpool's indie treasures. Sip cocktails at The Daffodil, browse unique finds at The Nest, or wander down Bold Street for foodie delights and boutique shopping. Fancy something artsy? Head to FACT for a film or exhibition, or take a stroll down Lark Lane for bohemian vibes and cosy cafés. These spots are perfect for a laid-back day of exploring.

10 The history of Liverpool

Liverpool's past is packed with stories waiting to be told! Join a spooky Shiverpool tour for a theatrical twist on the city's history, or explore the Old Dock Tour to see where Liverpool's maritime legacy began. Beatles fans can't miss The Beatles Story, while heritage lovers will adore Port Sunlight and Speke Hall for a glimpse into Victorian life. It's the perfect mix of culture and adventure to round off the year.

