The Cavern Club

Take a Magical Mystery Tour

Hop aboard the famous brightly coloured Magical Mystery Tour bus for a two-hour ride through the band's hometown haunts, from Penny Lane to George's childhood home.

Magical Mystery Tour

Explore The Beatles Story

Located at Royal Albert Dock, this immersive museum is packed with memorabilia, recreated sets (hello, Abbey Road!) and plenty of stories from their rise to global stardom.

Visit Strawberry Field

Once a children's home and now a beautiful visitor attraction, this tranquil spot inspired one of John Lennon's most iconic songs.

Liverpool Beatles Museum

One of the largest Beatles collections in the world, featuring over 1000 never before seen authentic items across three floors.

Wander down Penny Lane

Yes, it's real and yes, you can get your photo with the street sign. Look out for the barber shop, the roundabout and the fire station too.

Raise a pint on Mathew Street

Grab a drink and toast to rock and roll history on this famous street in the likes of The Grapes and Erics.

See where it all began at Mendips & 20 Forthlin Road

Step inside the childhood homes of John Lennon and Paul McCartney with a guided National Trust tour – perfect for die-hard fans who want a peek behind the curtain.

Did you know?

Liverpool holds the Guinness World Record for the UK city with the most number one hits.

Sport

Sport is more than just a game in Liverpool, it's a way of life.

Football Fever

This is a city where football pulses through the streets. With two football giants – Liverpool FC and Everton FC – it's no wonder matchdays feel electric.

At Anfield, the legendary home of the Liverpool FC Men's team, you can step behind the scenes on a stadium tour and then explore The LFC Museum, immersing yourself in the club's rich history from past to present.

Liverpool FC Stadium Tour

For those who don't mind heights, you can take on the Anfield Abseil. Take in views out from across the Main Stand before heading on a 100ft abseil down past Liverpool's famous crest.

Over at Hill Dickinson Stadium, the brand new home of the Everton Men's team, you can experience a behind-the-scenes tour of this state-of-the-art stadium on the banks of the River Mersey.

And it's not just the men's game that makes headlines here. On a visit to Liverpool, you can catch Liverpool FC Women in action at St Helens Stadium or cheer on Everton FC Women at the iconic Goodison Park.

With both clubs competing in the Women's Super League, it's a brilliant way to experience top-class football and the city's unbeatable sporting atmosphere.

Did you know?

Goodison Park was the first purpose built football stadium in the UK and opened in 1892.

Scenic Walks

From tranquil city parks to windswept coastal paths, the region offers a rich tapestry of landscapes waiting to be discovered.

Sefton Park

A Liverpool icon, Sefton Park is a vast green escape filled with lakes, winding paths and the elegant Palm House. It's the perfect place to enjoy a peaceful stroll and soak up the changing colours of nature.

Formby Beach & Pinewoods

Golden sands, dramatic dunes and whispering pine forests make Formby one of the region's most breathtaking coastal walks. Keep an eye out for red squirrels along the way.

Sefton Park

Crosby Beach

Home to Antony Gormley's, Another Place featuring 100 cast-iron figures gazing out to sea. It's a dramatic walk where art meets nature, under ever-changing skies.

West Kirby Marine Lake

Enjoy a refreshing walk along the edge of this coastal lake, with panoramic views across to North Wales and the Dee Estuary. A perfect spot for breezy strolls and waterside reflection.

Birkenhead Park

The inspiration behind New York's Central Park, Birkenhead Park is a masterpiece of Victorian design. Its tree-lined paths and ornamental lakes offer a beautiful escape in every season.

Birkenhead Park

Calderstones Park

Home to ancient stones, a Japanese garden and the legendary Allerton Oak, Calderstones Park blends history and tranquillity in a beautifully landscaped setting.

Knowsley Village Heritage Trail

This gentle walk weaves through Grade II listed buildings, leafy lanes and village greens. A perfect blend of heritage and countryside charm.

Port Sunlight

Step into a storybook village with tree-lined avenues, manicured gardens and striking architecture. Port Sunlight is as enchanting to explore as it is rich in heritage.

Port Sunlight

Liverpool Waterfront

Stroll past iconic landmarks, shimmering river views and world-class architecture. The waterfront's mix of mercantile culture and soul-stirring scenery makes every step unforgettable.

Royal Albert Dock

The Dream

Set high on a former colliery, The Dream is a striking sculpture surrounded by green space and sweeping views. A contemplative walk with a powerful sense of place.

Wallasey Beach

A quieter stretch of coastline with sweeping views across Liverpool Bay, Wallasey Beach is perfect for those seeking solitude and sea air. Follow the coastal path past the West Cheshire Sailing Club, where bobbing boats and open skies add a touch of maritime charm to your walk.

Speke & Garston Coastal Reserve

This hidden gem offers sweeping views across the Mersey, with quiet trails through wild grasslands and wetlands. Ideal for birdwatching and breezy walks by the water.

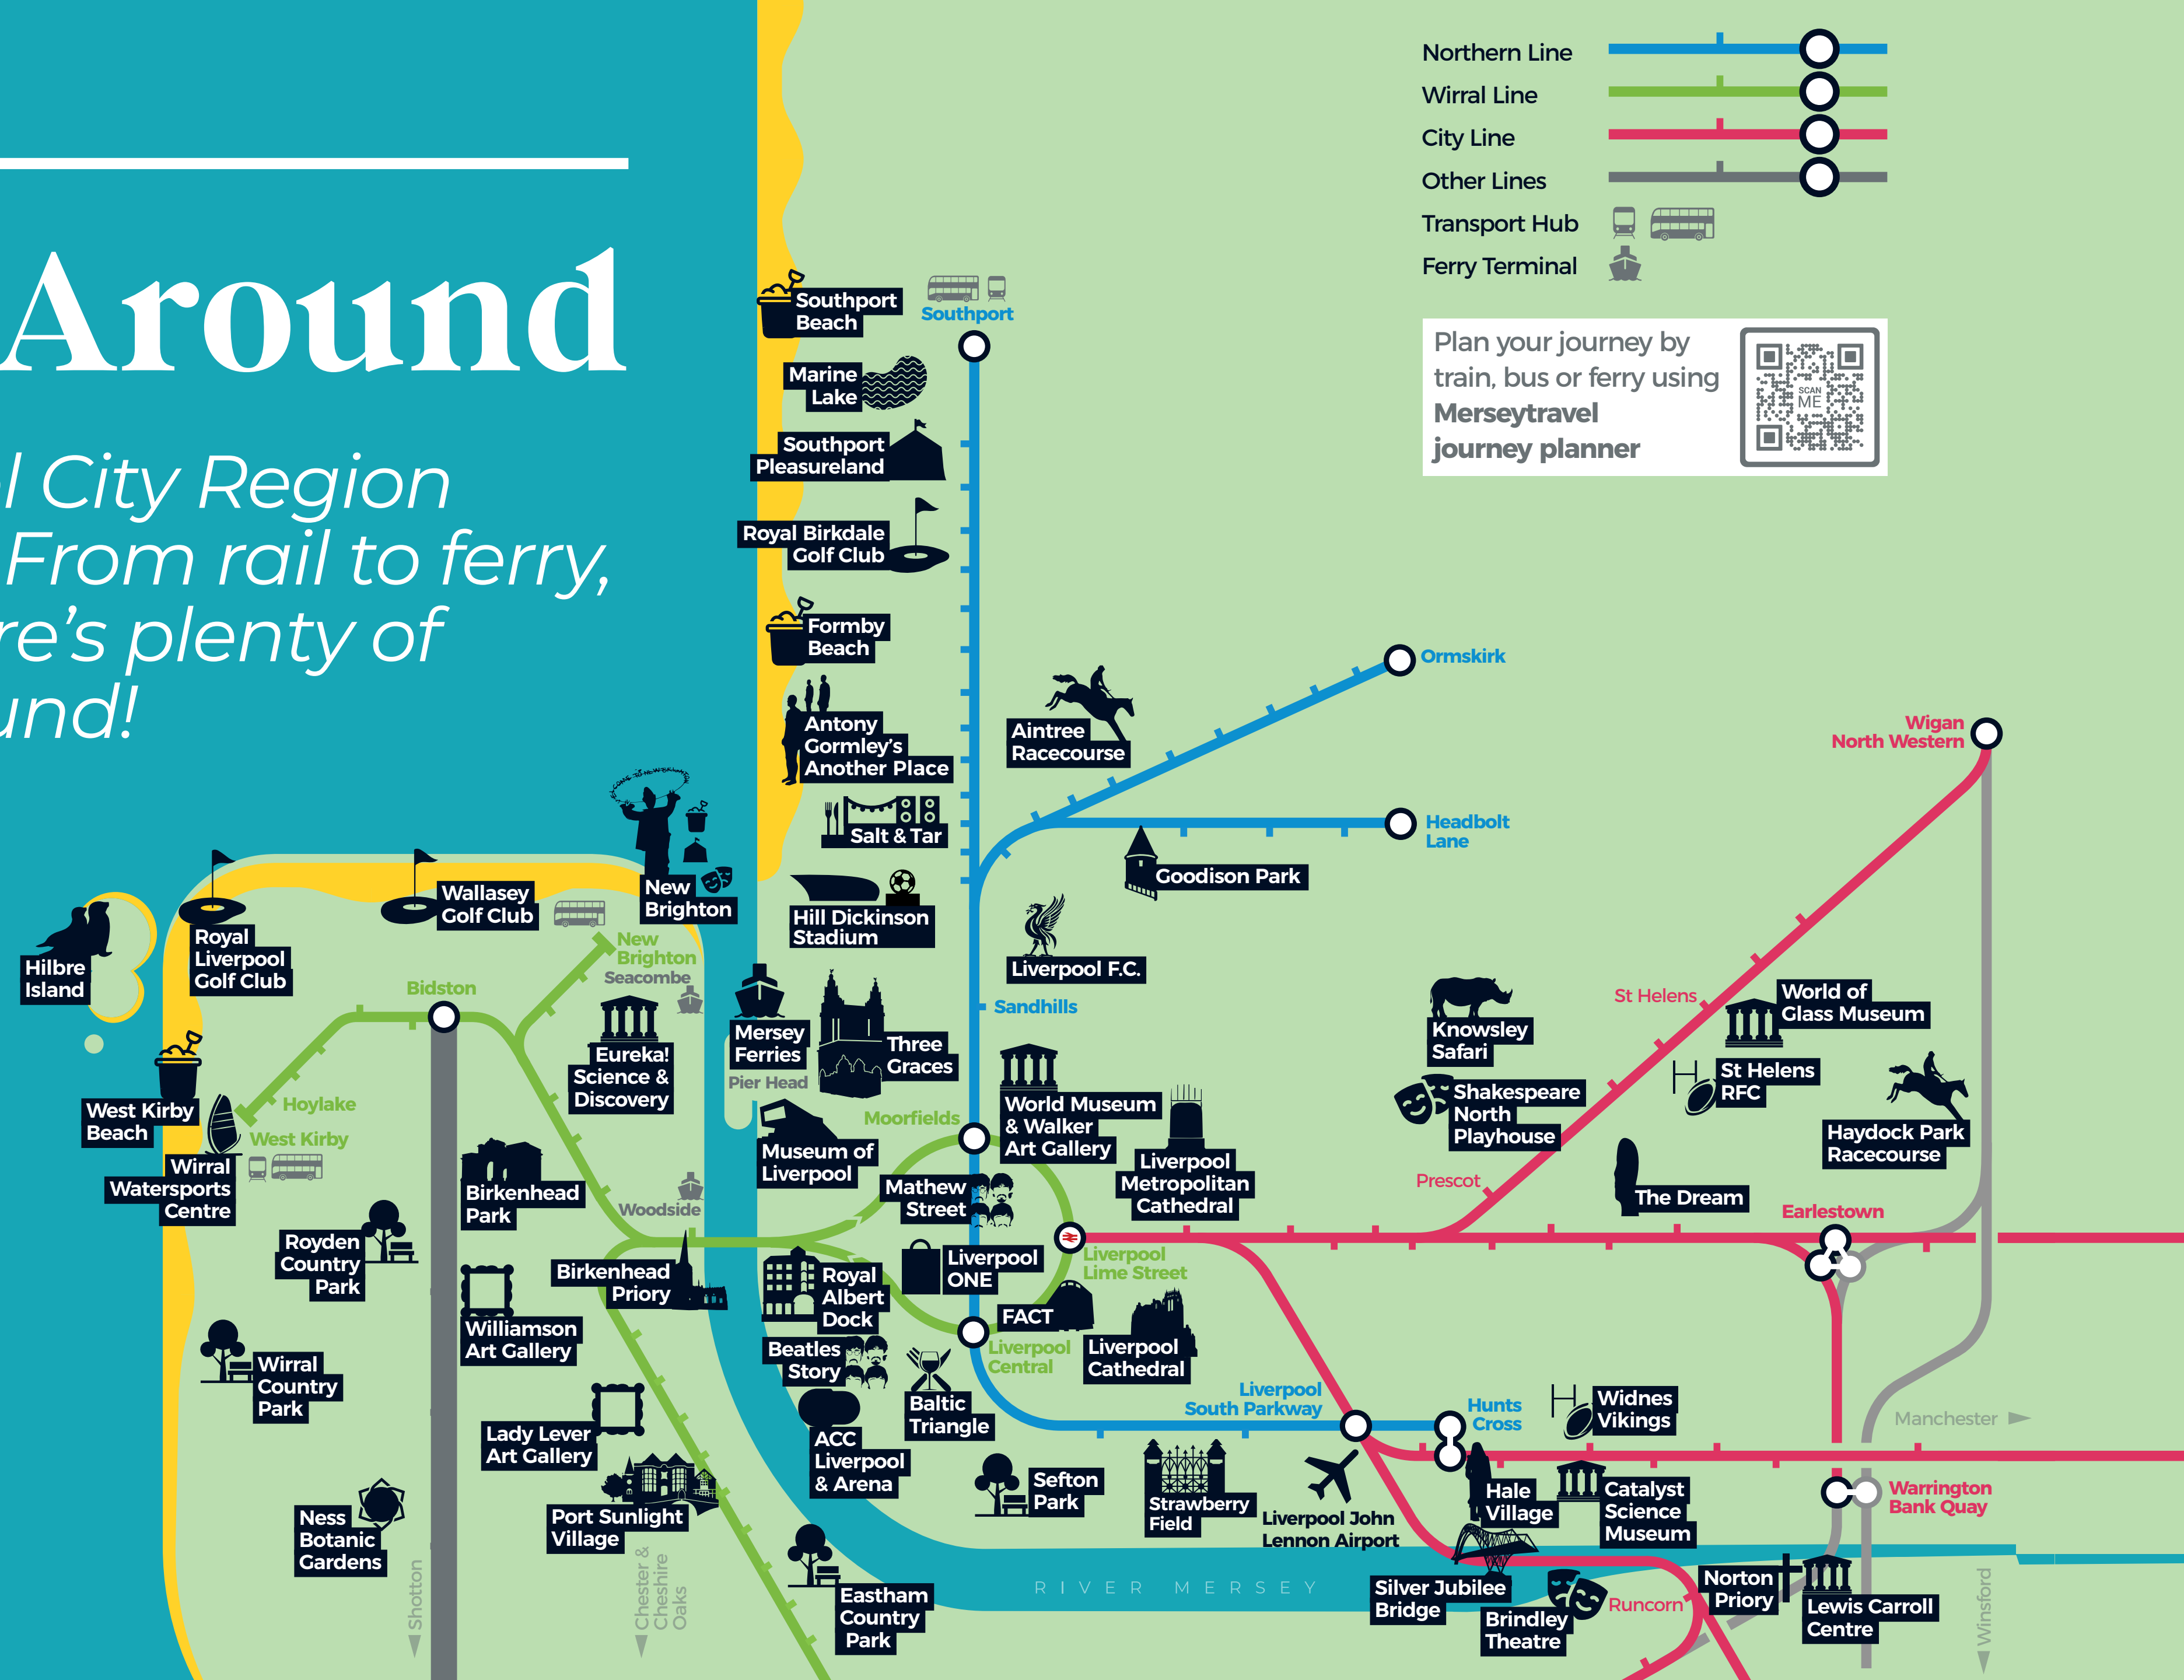

Irby & Thurstaston Common

This scenic walk takes you through peaceful woodland and open heath, with panoramic views across the Dee Estuary. A favourite for walkers who love variety and space to roam.

Getting Here

The bags are packed, your playlist is queued and your Liverpool adventure is about to begin.

The bags are packed, your playlist is queued and your Liverpool adventure is about to begin.

However you choose to roll into the city, by plane, train, boat or motorway, getting here is a breeze. Here's how to kick off your journey in style:

By Air

Touch down just a few miles from the action at Liverpool John Lennon Airport. Hop on a direct airport bus or grab a private transfer and be in the city centre in no time.

Flying into Manchester Airport? No problem. You're around 45 minutes away, with direct trains and coach services ready to whisk you straight into Liverpool.

By Road

Driving in? Great choice. Liverpool is well-connected by the UK's motorway network.

- Cruise into the city centre via the M62
- Access the north of the city from the M57 and M58
- Heading to the Wirral? The M53 is the way to go

By Rail

Train travel to Liverpool is easy, speedy and scenic. Liverpool Lime Street Station is your central arrival point, right in the middle of all the city's major attractions, hotels and restaurants. Services run from all over the UK via operators such as Avanti West Coast, TransPennine Express, London Northwestern, Northern and more.

While you're here, explore further afield with Merseyrail, a super convenient local train network with nearly 70 stations. Fancy a beach day in Formby, a coastal stroll in Southport or a historic wander through Chester? You can access them all via Merseyrail!

By Coach

Hop on a Megabus or National Express for a comfy, budget-friendly ride from cities across the UK. Liverpool also welcomes thousands of group coach tours each year.

By Water

Yes, you can even make a grand entrance by ferry!

- Stena Line sails daily from Belfast to Liverpool for foot passengers and vehicles
- P&O Ferries offer daily crossings from Dublin
- Travelling from the Isle of Man? The seasonal service from Douglas with the Isle of Man Steam Packet Company will bring you to the Scouse shores.
