WELCOME TO LONGMONT, CO

Mixing historic charm and character with modern style and convenience, downtown Longmont is filled with inspiring architecture, interactive retail stores, eclectic dining, and notable art venues.

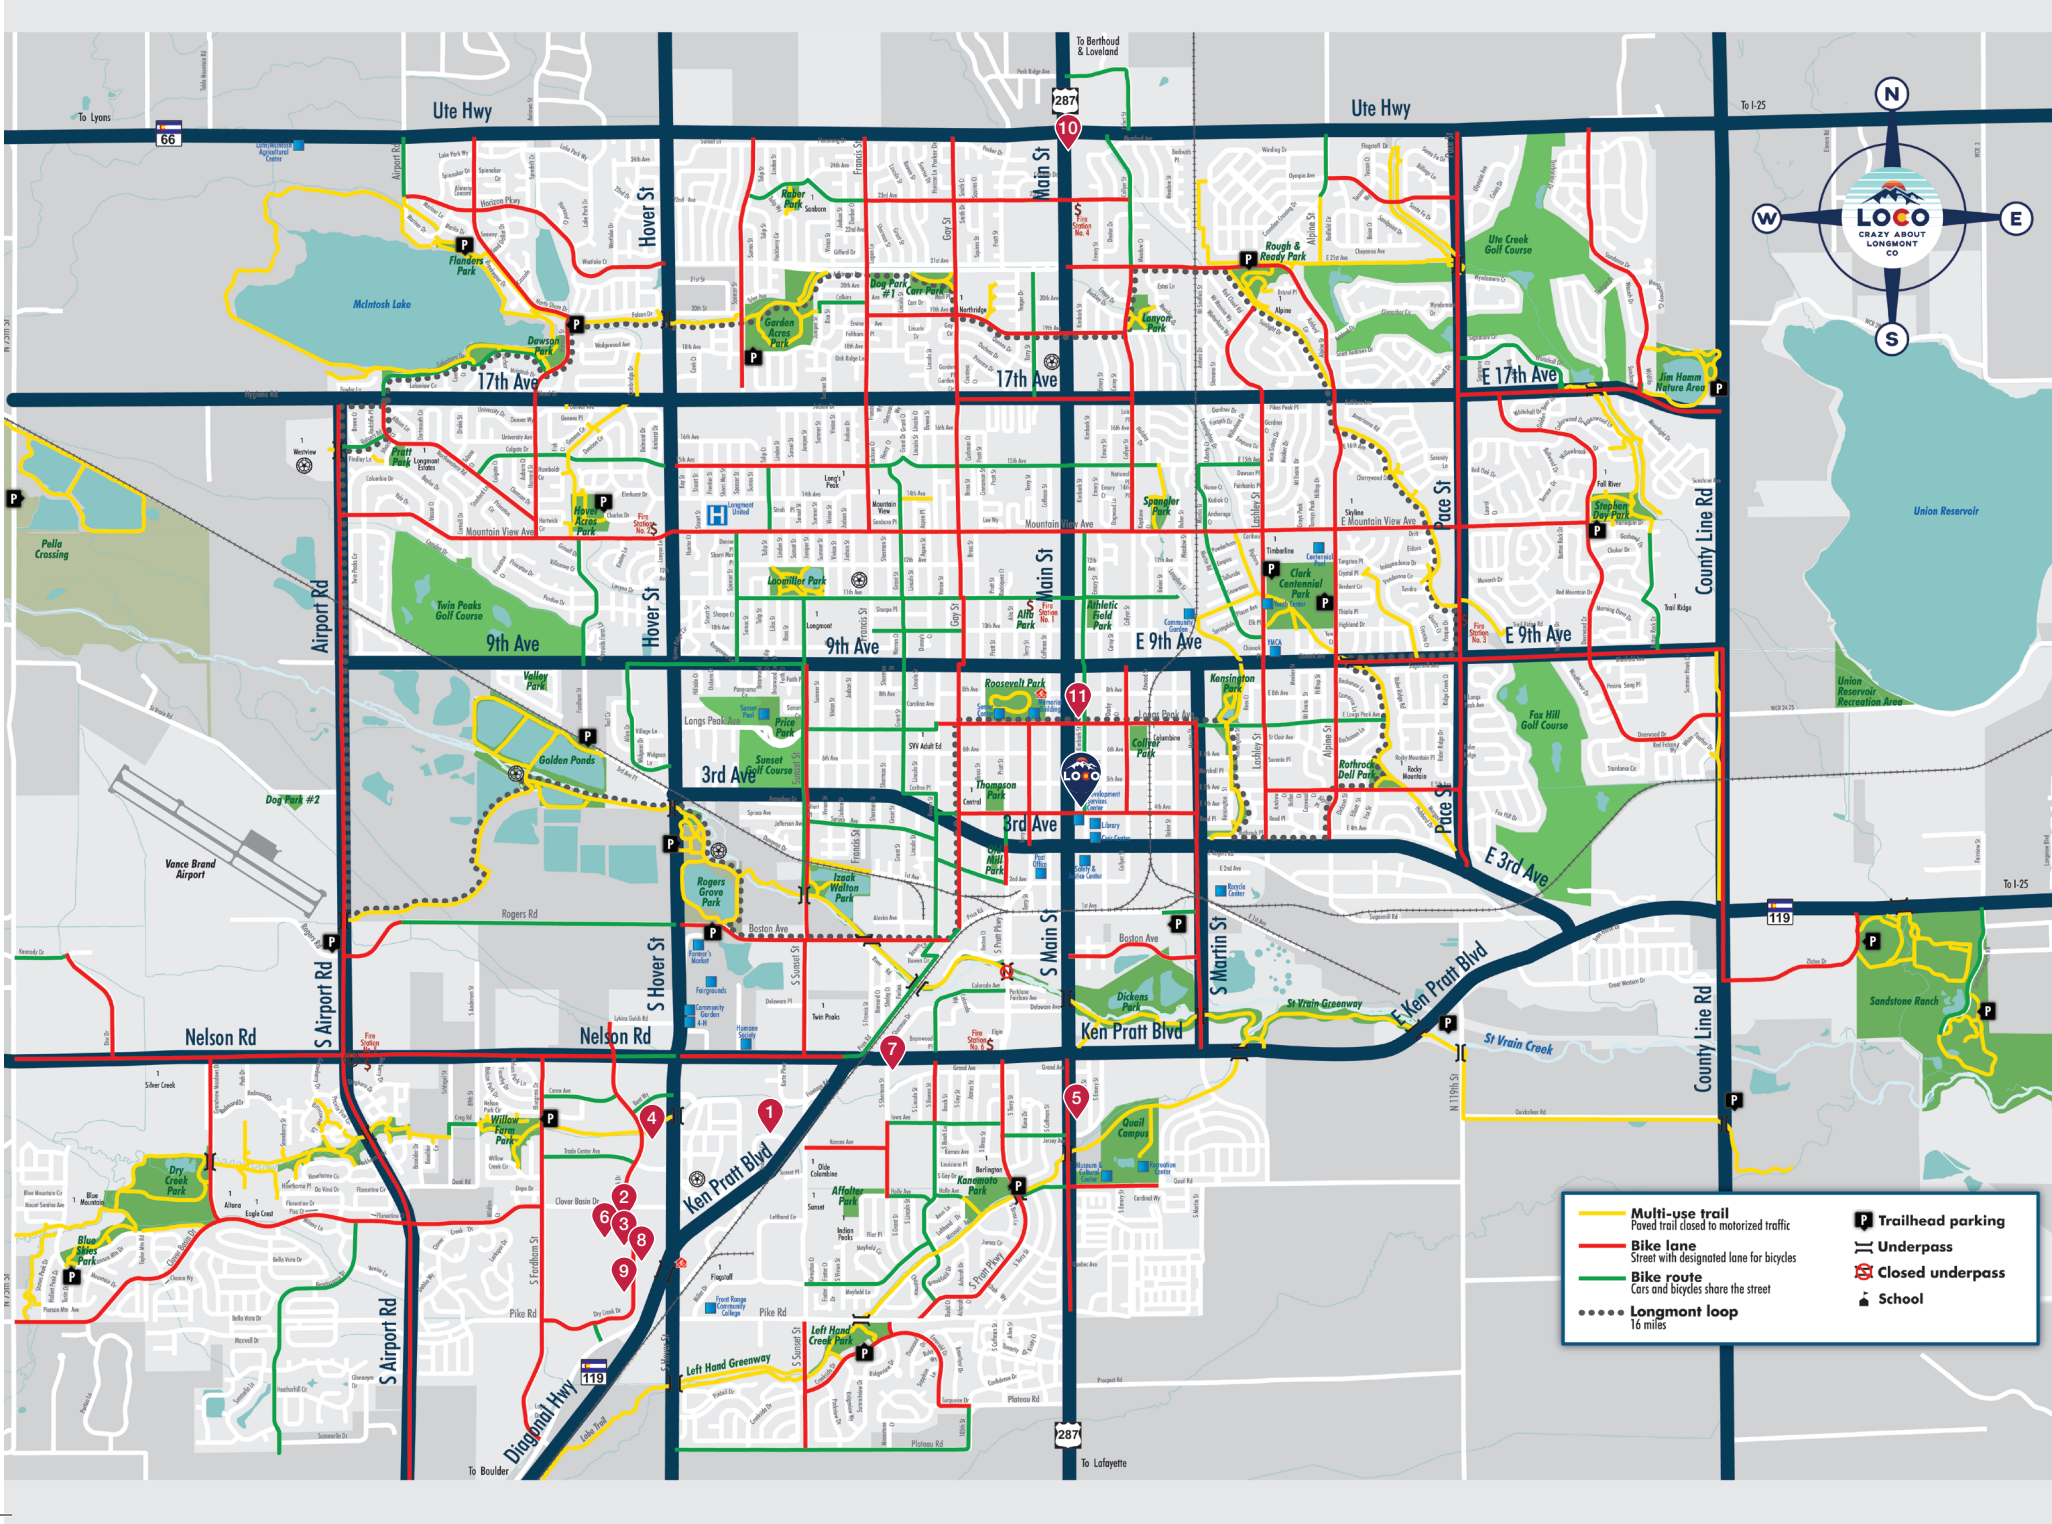

Founded by Chicago businessmen and area farmers in 1871, Longmont was originally named the Chicago-Colorado Colony. Shortly after being settled, the city's name was changed to Longmont in honor of Longs Peak, the 14,259 foot peak visible throughout the city. Today, Longmont is home to over 95,000 residents with an elevation of 4,979 feet above sea level.

Downtown Longmont is a state-designated Certified Creative District. Our downtown features many art galleries, restaurants, breweries, and amenities.
