It's where the Sea of Cortés meets the Pacific Ocean, and a wealth of creatures, natural phenomena, sumptuous flavors and unmatched experiences come together.

EXCITING

Sightseeing

On a SUN BEAM

Most visitors to Los Cabos rarely leave the city limits, but if you want to immerse yourself in an adventure in a less frequented part of Baja California Sur, consider a day trip into the outback, an arid country with sweeping vistas.

Just 34 miles north of Land's End, the quaint rural town of Santiago is home to flourishing orchards and working ranches that make the land resemble a verdant island amid a sea of desert scrub. Santiago doubles as the gateway to the Cabo Real Ecological Reserve, which itself skirts the Sierra de la Laguna mountain range. Designated a UNESCO global biosphere reserve in 1994, the range is graced with a wealth of biodiverse vegetation and magnificent rock formations.

Located within the reserve, the locally owned Rancho Ecologico Sol de Mayo is home to some of the region's most iconic flora and fauna, including lizards, quail, roadrunners, rabbits and the occasional ring-tailed cat. Hit the trail early to get a better chance of seeing the animals. They tend to come out before the sun is at its peak, and spend the rest of the day tucked in shaded hideaways, ideal for an extended siesta.

The drive to the ranch is relatively easy, though it is recommended that you rent an all-wheel drive vehicle to get there, as the last several miles are unpaved and uneven. The varied fleet at Ten Car Rental includes midsize sports utility vehicles and Jeeps, ideally suited for this kind of adventure.

Sustainable travel is not just a trend; it's a way to share
the world.

Once at the ranch, be prepared to pay a nominal fee to park and another small fee for access to the trail that leads to the waterfall. The hike down to the waterfall itself can take as little as five to 10 minutes, but the return trip takes longer, as it is up the steep incline. You can assist yourself on the rustic but functional trail with railings and ropes you'll find along the way.

GOOD TO KNOW

The fresh water for the creeks and underground reservoirs throughout Baja California Sur comes from the Sierra de la Laguna mountains.

The ranch offers a few amenities, including restrooms, fresh meals and beverages, and even cabins for overnight stays.

When the picturesque, 40-foot cascading fall comes into view, it's easy to feel like you have traveled a world away. This natural formation invites visitors to step back in time, as huge granite rocks atop the Sol de Mayo waterfall funnel its crystalline, spring-fed water into a pool below — a sight that has attracted locals to the area for centuries. In fact, you may run into a few locals enjoying the peaceful spot while you're there.

Visitors can easily spend the whole day cooling off in the natural swimming hole absorbing the laid-back atmosphere. The deep pool provides the perfect pick-me-up for adults after a day of exploring, while a safe sandy shallow area is best for kids and less confident swimmers. The water is cool and refreshing, but at the height of summer may be reduced to a trickle or dry up completely.

If you seek a little more insight and context, look for expeditions guided by naturalists who are knowledgeable about the area and its secrets. Various destination management companies, such as Terramar and Mexico Planners organize hiking tours, and can

GETTING THERE: Rent a car, or contact a destination management company (DMC) like CalypsoTrip, which regularly organizes tours through the back country.

Hiking Essentials

A day in the desert can be a life-changing adventure. It can just as easily be a lackluster experience if you are not properly prepared. The best way to thoroughly enjoy your day trip is to plan ahead and pack accordingly. The most important item to remember when heading out on a hiking trip through desert trails is a good pair of comfortable, closed-toe walking shoes — indispensable for managing the uneven and steep terrain.

Other items to pack include a swimsuit, sunscreen, sunglasses, a hat, plenty of water, a small rucksack to carry all your items and, of course, a camera or cell phone to capture your memories. You may also want to pick up some food and drinks at the ranch prior to trekking down the trail to enjoy to stay hydrated and refuel before you return.

personalize your experience. Their knowledgeable guides provide information about the land, its vegetation, where you are most likely to see specific animals and the indigenous people who lived in the area hundreds of years ago.

“It’s such a rush to stumble upon an oasis in the middle of the desert,” says Sunny Irvine, owner of destination management company Terramar. “You feel like you’re on a discovery expedition as you come upon these remote villages, missions and waterfalls.”

RESPONSIBLE TOURISM

There are several ways you can be a responsible eco-tourist and do your part to ensure the incredible natural wonders in the destinations you visit remain the way you were able to experience and enjoy them. All travelers can leave a destination a little better than they found it, and this is certainly applicable to a place as naturally blessed as Los Cabos.

Coral reefs are some of the most productive ecosystems on the planet. In fact, they are home to 25 percent of all marine life and provide much of the world’s oxygen. According to the environmental firm Raw Elements, there has been a major decline of coral reefs worldwide in recent years that is directly related to sunscreen pollution. While in Los Cabos — or any other beach — do your part by using non-nano zinc oxide sunscreen. Look for biodegradable sunscreen that is marked “reef safe.”

A number of hotels and resorts in Los Cabos invite guests to participate in hands-on sea turtle conservation efforts.

Given the warm, sunny weather that makes Los Cabos such a great place to stay, keeping hydrated is essential. Instead of buying bottled water — an unnecessary expense that adds plastic to the oceans — bring your own bottle and fill it up! Drinking tap water at your hotel or at a restaurant is perfectly safe throughout Los Cabos.

Remember, this is a major tourist destination, so plenty of resources go into making sure the water is safe for consumption. Local water comes from the mountains, thousands of feet above. It drains into aquifers and is then treated. It's not just a good bet that filtered water is readily available during your visit, it's a better choice if you value the environment you are visiting. So fill up your reusable bottle 10 times a day if you need!

SUPPORT CONSERVATION EFFORTS

A number of hotels and resorts throughout Los Cabos invite guests to participate in hands-on sea turtle conservation efforts from June through December. During this time, many of the local beaches become turtle nesting grounds where hundreds of hatchlings make their way back to the sea, protected and escorted by guests and conservation team members. This is an incredible family bonding and social activity.

GOOD TO KNOW

Blue Flag certified beaches must meet and adhere to strict, internationally recognized environmental, educational, safety and accessibility standards.

Los Cabos' beaches are among its greatest draws. Thanks to the worldwide Blue Flag designation, it's easy to identify which ones are the safest and most environmentally sound. One of the many upsides of being a responsible tourist is reaping the rewards of the efforts we make together, like enjoying a Blue Flag certified beach. Los Cabos boasts 22 Blue Flag-certified beaches, the most of any destination in Mexico! These include: Acapulquito, Chileno, Corsario, El Surgidero, Hacienda, La Gaviota, La Ribera, Las Viudas, Medano Breathless, Medano Casa Dorada, Medano Club Cascadas de Baja, Medano ME Cabo, Medano Pueblo Bonito Cabos, Medano Pueblo Bonito Rose, Medano Riu Palace Los Cabos, Medano Riu Santa Fe, Medano Villa Del Palmar, Medano Villa El Arco, Medano Villa La Estancia, Monuments, Palmilla and Santa Maria.

Fit TO A TEE

As an iconic, internationally recognized golf destination, Los Cabos keeps its golf game fresh and challenging. Now offering 18 incredible tracks, if you play every hole at every course while you're in town, you'll get to see and enjoy some of the planet's most spectacular scenery. Golf Digest listed three of the area's courses within its "World's 100 Greatest Golf Courses" list and seven made it to the magazine's "Top 10 Golf Courses in Mexico" list.

Added amenities at most of these courses include pro shops, instruction and some form of culinary palapa. These strategically placed mini-restaurants are usually staffed with a bartender and chef, and serve a full-range of local staples and a vast menu of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages. When you golf at the southern tip of the Baja California peninsula, expect to have an unparalleled experience. The incredible display of architecture, design and carefully thought-out features at these courses can be traced back directly to the talented designers that helped develop the region's golf presence, including Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Tom Fazio, Davis Love III, Tiger Woods and Fred Couples, among others.

WELL ESTABLISHED

Famous for its 27 holes, many of which feature spectacular views of the Sea of Cortés, Palmilla Golf Club was the first major course built in Los Cabos, opening in 1992. The Jack Nicklaus-designed course was his first signature venture into Latin America. It's divided into the Arroyo Nine, the Mountain Nine and the Ocean Nine, and it is often referred to as the Grand Dame of Los Cabos Golf. The impressive track gently takes players through 800 vertical feet of the Baja California Sur terrain.

retains its Old Mexico feel, and that's part of its endless appeal. Designed by Roy Dye and opened in 1994, it is one of the most challenging and scenic golf courses on the entire peninsula. The course was significantly remodeled in 2018 by Mexican designer Agustin Piza, so the par-72, Dye-designed, 18-hole course now measures 6,852 yards and boasts several new holes. The club's back nine was shortened and its corridors were widened to expand what has always been the layout's showpiece: its spectacular views of El Arco at Land's End.

With these two courses, Los Cabos made an impressive entry into the international golf scene. Querencia Golf Club opened in 2000 to

In 2014 the 18-hole championship Quivira Golf Club, a Signature Jack Nicklaus design, became the star attraction at Pueblo Bonito Resort. Several of the picturesque holes on this par-72, 7,085-yard course are carved right into the Pacific Ocean shoreline, offering unparalleled ocean views. In its first five years, Quivira Golf Club established itself as a major presence. It was dubbed

THE QUEST FOR PERFECTION

Questro Golf manages a trio of excellent golf course in Los Cabos, including Cabo Real Golf Club, Club Campestre San José Golf, and Puerto Los Cabos Golf Club. Each course was designed by the biggest names in golf architecture, including Signature Designs from Jack Nicklaus, Robert Trent Jones II and Greg Norman. Each is spectacular in its own way, and should be on everyone’s to-do list when in Los Cabos.

Cabo Real Golf Club features a multi-themed, target-style course reimagined by Robert Trent Jones from a pre-existing layout. The showpiece of a 2,800-acre resort and residential community with 3.2 miles of beachfront, the track measures 6,848 yards at the tips.

Likewise, Club Campestre San José anchors a 550-acre master-planned community. Measuring 6,966 yards from the championship tees, the 18-hole course was designed by Jack Nicklaus amid the gently rolling foothills of the Sierra de la Laguna mountains and features spectacular views from every single hole.

Despite its sloping desert terrain and views of the Sea of Cortés, the course’s defining characteristic is its undulating, multi-tiered greens, which are widely considered among the most liberally contoured putting surfaces in Los Cabos.

Puerto Los Cabos Golf Club has thrilled golfers for over a decade. It features a unique 27-hole composite design finished in 2018 when Nicklaus returned to build his long-awaited second nine. The rare design — the nine-hole Mission Course by Greg Norman and now 18-hole Marina Course by Nicklaus — has proven to be a winning combination. Bunkers and dramatic elevation changes mark the recent additions made by the latter, and eventually, Norman will be back to build his second nine to finish the oeuvre with two separate 18-hole courses.

BOLD STROKES

Known for his “least-disturbance” design approach, the 18-hole Rancho San Lucas Golf Club features a low-profile layout that left the site’s existing contours intact and offers sweeping ocean views from every hole. The result is a 7,210-yard, par-72 course that spans three separate ecosystems: across windswept dunes, up through a cactus forest and back toward the sea on the back nine designed by legendary golfer and course designer Greg Norman.

NEIGHBORING GREENS

Guests at the Hacienda del Mar Los Cabos Resort, Villas & Golf can enjoy the property’s plush accommodations, award-winning dining and stunning views of the Sea of Cortés, including access to the adjacent Tom Weiskopf-designed Desert Course.

For a thoroughly breathtaking experience, a drive to Costa Palmas East Cape is in order. The links-style course at Costa Palmas is framed by the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains and features broad fairways and a windswept layout that rises more than 130 feet above sea level. Designed by Robert Trent Jones, Jr., the layout includes greens with unguarded entrances, groves of mesquite trees and strategically-placed bunkers, as well as views of the coves, harbors and channels that line the Costa Palmas community.

Located in the heart of Cabo San Lucas, a unique an challenging course that offers an 18-hole championship experience.

EXCITING Fishing

Life on THE LINE

Here's how it all plays out. You're on the deck of a 70-foot sportfishing yacht. Charging into mounting Pacific swells, you're strapped to the fighting chair, battling a 600-pound blue marlin sporting monumental shoulders and a sharp sword for a nose. Waves crash over the transom, spraying salt water in your face as the captain backs down on the beast. After a 45 minute war of give and take, the mate reaches down into the water, the billfish wildly slashing around. He grabs the leader at boatside, the hook is dislodged and the marlin is released to fight another day. High fives round the house.

Sweating bullets, you unstrap the fighting harness and coolly walk into the salon of the sportfisher, kick your feet up and dine on fresh sushi, stir a martini and catch some rays while waiting for the next bite. That's the real catch in the Los Cabos fishing scene: You can be out on a rugged maritime brawl with genuine beasts even as you indulge in state-of-the-art luxury.

Dedicate a day for the 40-mile run to the fishing grounds of an offshore expedition.

OUT IN THE WATER

The waters off Los Cabos are comprised of the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Cortés. Both consisting of prolific marine environments and submarine sea mounts, myriad species can be found anywhere from right along the shoreline out to 60 miles. Big game fishing in Los Cabos is highlighted by its world-renowned striped marlin fishery, but other seafaring sportfish include blue marlin, black marlin, wahoo, yellowfin tuna and dorado.

The easiest way to have a thoroughly Los Cabos fishing experience is to charter a boat. Luxury charter vessels from the Pisces Fleet are built with world-class service in mind. Charter boats are equipped with the latest size 50 to 80 class gold conventional reels matched with stand-up heavy duty rods spooled with 80-pound line, suitable for a strenuous battle with a billfish. When making the one- to three-hour run 10 to 60 miles offshore, nothing beats traveling

GROUNDS FOR BATTLE: The waters off Los Cabos are known as legendary billfish grounds, exemplified by the world-class striped marlin fishery.

Charter a Boat

Whether you're a newbie or a seasoned angler, Los Cabos offers plenty of options to suit your specific needs and budget. On my first trip to Los Cabos in 2007, I had no idea how to charter a boat, so I walked the docks at Marina Cabo San Lucas, and I managed to negotiate a trip on a ramshackle 17-foot panga boat with a local fisherman. Chartering a fishing boat is an even easier process. Simply contact Pisces Fleet, which offers a variety of options for inshore and offshore fishing, starting with 22-foot panga boats for half-day, four-hour fishing jaunts of inshore fishing. If you want to hit the water with an all-inclusive package that comes with bait, tackle, provisions and top-of-the-line rods and reels, Pisces Fleet boasts a complete line of luxury sportfishing vessels up to 70 feet long. The first-class accommodations in these dream liners include air-conditioned cabins and all the amenities needed for an all-day outing — as well as some you don't need, but you'll certainly appreciate. You can even plan an overnight excursion that will take you farther out and take your experience from a day of fishing to an aquatic adventure. And if you're a solo angler, don't fret. You can always pay for a share on a charter to join a group that's headed your way. Think of it as ridesharing, Los Cabos style!

in comfort and style, and these sportfishing yachts are decked out with comfortable couches, fully stocked refrigerators and even TVs to keep your party entertained.

Once at the grounds, captains and mates work hard setting a trolling spread of lures and baits to tempt marlin, tuna, wahoo and dorado. A spread can contain up to 10 rods out as the lures crashing across the water surface resemble a school of baitfish, triggering a reaction strike from the pelagic species. Trolling is a fairly easy way to get strikes, as once the spread is set, rods are placed in the rod holders in the gunwales, and the boat simply cruises at a six- to eight-knot pace dragging the lures in its wake.

You'll certainly know when you get a hit. The reel's drag system starts singing and screaming as the fish rips line off at a breakneck pace. While dorado and wahoo are generally reeled in within 15 to 20 minutes, marlin pushing 500 to 800 pounds and tuna weighing in at over 250 pounds can sometimes test the willpower, spirit and stamina of even the strongest angler with drag-out battles that can last hours. The excitement of watching a 40-pound dorado's acrobatic jumps or a 200-pound striped marlin's sword smashing the baits and lures with the adeptness of a swordfighter is a sight you won't forget. Monstrous gladiators of black, blue and striped marlin, (striped marlin being Los Cabos' most common marlin species) run September through mid-March, with catches averaging six to 12 marlin a day during peak season. In February, March and April, dorado (aka mahimahi or dolphin fish) can be caught. Yellowfin tuna hit hard September through January, and wahoo and sailfish round out the mix of species in the warm summer months.

CLOSER TO SHORE

While many anglers most often associate the marquee species of marlin and tuna with Los Cabos, a vibrant and exciting inshore fishery exists that doesn't require anglers to make the long run out to the blue water grounds. When bottomfishing or trolling off the beach in the East Cape, the main targets include various species of grouper, jacks, cabrilla, snapper and — the crown jewel of the region — the atavistic roosterfish. Characterized by the long-flowing coxcombed dorsal fins that spike out of the water, these fish resemble works of art.

Most times, inshore fishing is done while trolling live baits or casting lures just outside the breaking waves, but it can extend for one to five miles off the coastline, as the spread is dragged over submarine rock piles and underwater ledges that attract fish. Shoreline trolling is the easiest way to experience Los Cabos fishing as many small boating and panga charters operate right from the local marinas, and the inshore species, such as jacks, grouper, roosterfish and snapper, can be found all year round.

And remember this: The sportfishing experience doesn't end when you dock. Many of the restaurants that line Marina Cabo San Lucas, including the legendary Captain Tony's will cook your fresh catch for you and only charge a nominal fee. Simply bring your prize to the kitchen, and the culinary team will clean, filet and cook your catch and serve it up with sides.

Fishing Tournaments

Los Cabos hosts numerous fishing tournaments that pit the skill and knowledge of seasoned sea captains and anglers competing against each other and against amateur fishermen, who are in it for the adventure and the chance to make a name for themselves.

A number of major tournaments hit the Los Cabos shores throughout the year. Even if you don't participate, it's always exciting to watch the weigh ins at the docks. Head to visitloscabos.travel/events to find out what tournaments or fishing events are taking place during your visit to the area.

Waves OF JOY

Whether you surf, lounge about digging your toes in the sand, or snorkel amid marine marvels, Mother Nature blessed Los Cabos with beaches ideally suited to every inclination — from the tranquil beachcomber to the active thrill seeker.

ECO-CERTIFIED

Blue Flags fly at 22 beaches that have earned their certification from the elite global Foundation for Environmental Education (FEE).

During the past few years, the destination has focused on its local beaches to meet the FEE's stringent eco-certification standards for water quality, safety, cleanliness, accessibility and shoreline protection. The most recent additions to the admirable list are El Surgidero, La Gaviota and Monuments Beach.

RESORT BOUND

Of the Blue Flag tally, 12 flank resorts and hotels lining the two-mile stretch of Médano Beach, long recognized as Los Cabos' safest swimming destination. Starting with Playa Hacienda, the names of these beaches reflect the accommodations they front. The roster includes Breathless, Casa Dorada, Club Cascadas de Baja, ME Cabo, Pueblo Bonito Los Cabos, Pueblo Bonito Rosé, Riu Palace Los Cabos, Riu Santa Fe, Villa del Palmar, Villa del

Arco and Villa La Estancia. This Blue Flag stretch is lively with rentals of stand-up paddleboards, kayaks and wave runners.

Bordering the entrance to Marina Cabo San Lucas — steps from what was once the most productive fishing cannery in Latin America — the Cannery Beaches are a succession of small strands frequented by locals. But don't be confused, as many refer to the area as Locals Beach or Old Peoples' Beach, or individually as Playa Empacadora, Playa Balconcito and Playa Coral Negro. After eyeing the stellar Land's End scenery from Médano Beach, hop onto a water taxi for a close encounter with the iconic Arco, the dramatic end point to Baja California's 1,000-mile long peninsula. Water taxis drop guests off at Lover's Beach (Playa del Amor), a national marine park where snorkeling under calm conditions is among the best in the area. A short stroll across an opening in the rock formations leads to the Pacific coast's Divorce Beach, which is exclusively for lounging, strolling and sunbathing due to crashing waves and strong currents. Be sure to pack supplies and gear as there are no amenities at either.

GOOD TO KNOW

Lover's Beach is a popular destination whose serene waters are great for snorkeling — not so with the adjacent and aptly named Divorce Beach.

CROWNING THE CORRIDOR

At Widow's Beach (Playa Las Viudas) on The Corridor, dramatic volcanic rocky coves conceal fascinating little nooks. While swimming isn't recommended, this beach offers an absolute treasure trove for photographers, beachcombers and shell hunters.

Other certified beaches along the route include Acapulquito, La Ribera, Chileno Bay, Playa Palmilla and Santa María Bay, with the last three considered Los Cabos' Blue Flag pioneers.

The white sand sanctuary of Playa Palmilla nudges the left side of the ultra luxury One&Only Palmilla. The protected offshore cove's serene conditions are so reliable it serves as the swim leg of the annual Ironman Los Cabos. Amenities include beach chair and umbrella rentals, palapas, bathrooms, showers and lifeguards. There are no food concessions, but the nearby resorts can certainly that, and the whale sightings in the winter add a bit of magic to an already otherworldly scene.

Nearby Chileno Bay and Santa María Bay are busier after a few property openings, but their calm waters, dramatic landscapes and lively underwater scenery makes them well worth a visit.

A family that plays together stays together, but an unruly bunch of bored kids can throw a wrench into an otherwise wonderful vacation. Thankfully, there's no shortage of options for the underage set to enjoy in Los Cabos.

A number of hotels and resorts host well-organized kid's clubs that keep children fully engaged with simple activities like face painting, water balloon fights and sandcastle making, as well as more active pursuits, such as soccer, basketball and pool games. At One&Only Palmilla, families can plan numerous activities just steps from their

With so much activity, the whole family can feel a little spent at the end of the day. Wind down with dinner and a show aboard Caborey's three-deck catamaran. Families get a full view of the rock formations at sunset as they dine and enjoy performances by Mexican mariachi singers and Argentine tango dancers.

BETTER TOGETHER

There's no shortage of activities for couples to bond over in Los Cabos; after all, nothing is sweeter than sharing a life-changing experience with your partner.

You can start your morning strolling along the golden sands of Lover's Beach, watching the sun rise through El Arco at Land's End.

Slightly farther afield, Cabo Pulmo National Marine Park is home to a 20,000-year-old coral reef that spans 45.75 square miles and is at the epicenter of the region's world-class snorkeling. You're likely to see green parrotfish, exquisite Moorish idols and curious banded butterflyfish flitting about even on a casual swim.

Additional snorkeling opportunities attract those who love natural activities and sealife to the calm waters of Chileno Bay and Santa María Bay, both great destinations for a day out in the waves and an evening enjoying the legendary nightlife in town.

On land, you and your significant other can enjoy peaceful moments of solitude together while hiking Fox Canyon in the Cabo Real Ecological Preserve within Sierra de la Laguna. Follow the strenuous day of exploration with a lazy visit to the quaint towns of Miraflores and Santiago to pick up local arts and crafts.

Seafaring types can book an outing with Cabo Sails to glide over the soft seas on a luxurious vessel for a three-hour excursion with the majestic Land's End scenery as a backdrop. The folks at Cabo Sails can arrange daily sunset tours, as well as whale watching trips during the winter months. It is truly an awe-inspiring experience to witness majestic humpback, Bryde's, finback and gray whales travel with their families, breach and spout water, throwing their mammoth tails into the air as they dive downward.

So much can and has been said about Mexican flavors, ingredients, dishes and heritage. It should come as no surprise that the options for dining out in Los Cabos spread before you like the whole area is serving up the feast of your dreams. From the inventive and imaginative to the comforting, you can spend each day of your vacation at a different location and not have the same dish — or even cuisine — more than once. ## Pancho's Restaurant & Tequila Bar's been in Los Cabos for over 30 years.

wildly varied geography. Both these elements have inspired countless iconic dishes and traditions.

Get properly schooled at Pancho's Restaurant & Tequila Bar located in the heart of Cabo San Lucas. Named after the legendary

Mexican general Pancho Villa, the popular restaurant serves dishes that represent each of the country's 31 states, including chicken mole from Puebla, short rib from Sonora, tamales wrapped in banana leaves from Oaxaca and the freshest seafood from Baja California Sur. Enjoy watching the chefs work their magic from the large mesquite grill at the center of the restaurant.

Always festive, bright and cheerful, the restaurant's décor is decidedly Mexican, with its veritable rainbow of colorful linens, papel picado (elaborately cut hanging tissue paper banners) and fabulous murals.

Arguably Pancho's most celebrated feature is its world-famous bar, which is stocked with hundreds of tequila labels, as well as mezcal and other fine liquors.

If you want a thorough tequila primer, this is the place to take part in an unassuming sampling session that will help you discover how mezcal differs from tequila and what it takes to make a quality tequila while offering clarity on the worm and other myths. Along the way, you'll also learn about tequila and mezcal customs and traditions.

Another lively spot across town in San José del Cabo's arts district, La Lupita Tacos & Mezcal is unabashedly Mexican. Rustic and festive, sugar skulls and bright colors adorn a pared down dining hall where live music shows and other performances are held. The restaurant proudly sources ingredients from local growers, features a menu that's inspired by Mexico's culinary traditions and carries Mexican wines. The pièce de resistance, however, is the wide selection of mezcals on the menu.

When La Lupita opened in the heart of San José del Cabo, it hit a nerve. Bright and lively, the no-frills restaurant proudly celebrates the art of the taco, but this laser-like focus does not mean a bland menu. David Camhi, who was born into the food and beverage industry and has spent a lifetime in it, knows you have to start with a solid foundation, and Chef Pía Quintana works with nothing but the freshest ingredients. And because Mexicans are practically born eating tacos, every bite has to be spot on. That means that while the menu may seem simple at first blush, there is astounding variety, but, as Camhi says, always presented within a very Mexican context. The concept was so popular and well received, it quickly grew to include a second outpost in Cabo San Lucas.

Local restaurateur Edith Jimenez can elevate your understanding of national culinary traditions with gusto at any of her incredibly successful restaurants. The local culinary Edith's, her first venture, specializes in Baja California Sur cuisine with just a touch of influence from her home state of Guerrero. The Office on the Beach is a local landmark that offers something for every palate — from fresh sea bass and octopus in ajillo sauce to juicy, black Angus burgers.

In 2017 she opened the doors to Tres Sirenas. From the reference to a mythical figure popular throughout Mexico — especially by the sea — to the doors, floor tiles, tables, silverware, paintings and blown-glass lighting, every inch of this meticulously outfitted restaurant is a love letter to Mexico.

Start your meal with a simple salad, and you are treated to a tableside show that ends with a dish bedecked in flowers (yes, you can eat those, too). Savor the fresh oysters or the enormous prawns and then tuck into a grilled snapper. Anything you order is as fresh as the day. To close out your meal, order a Mexican coffee and you will once again get the kind of tableside service that started your meal. It's warm, comforting and as unforgettable as the view of Cabo San Lucas from the rooftop lounge.

FROM THE SEA

A fixture at Marina Cabo San Lucas is Captain Tony's. In a tradition that pays tribute to Los Cabos's identity as a premier fishing destination, diners at this Marina Cabo San Lucas mainstay aren't just ensured the freshest seafood available, they can have their catch fileted and prepared to their liking, too. It's the perfect way to turn a lucky day at sea into a delicious evening on the marina. The fresh catches — whether yours or not — are complemented by the kind of relaxed atmosphere that goes hand-in-hand with a fisherman's ethos and the Los Cabos lifestyle.

Pitahayas is an American Academy of Hospitality Sciences Five Star Diamond recipient, and has a AAA Diamond Award for Excellence.

TURN UP THE HEAT

By DAWNA L. ROBERTSON

With the breathtaking backdrop of Land's End, Los Cabos restaurants can easily be considered among the finest, most romantic venues for an anniversary dinner, drinks with that special someone, a lunch date or even a hearty breakfast for two. From sunset vistas, impressive wine selections and celebrity chef menus to casual eateries and intimate spots, couples are treated to a countless array of options that keep the romance going.

BUBBLES & CAVIAR

Tucked into cliffs overlooking the Pacific, Waldorf Astoria Pedregal's El Farallón resembles a coastal seafood market where patrons can select fresh catches displayed atop mounds of shaved ice. Once weighed, the culinary team works its magic on an open grill. Elevate the AAA Four Diamond affair with a tasting experience at the restaurant's Champagne Terrace. More than 15 different Champagnes — from blanc de blancs to rosés and vintage selections — are available for you to sample as you learn more about each bottle and the process it took to make it. Savor the imported cheeses and artisan salts, which pair incredibly well with the beach and ocean views you get from the cliff.

ROMANTICALLY INCLINED

Pitahayas Restaurant at Hacienda del Mar rewards couples with much more than they expect. Executive Chef Volker Romeike's eclectic selections fuse Asian techniques with Pacific Rim ingredients. The dishes are paired to perfection with a selection of wine. La Cava de Santiago, an underground wine cellar located beneath the restaurant, stores more than 400 different wine labels. With its rough-hewn stone walls and wrought-iron doors, the place is designed to hold a momentous celebration at its wooden table for 10. It's little wonder La Cava de Santiago has received Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for 12 consecutive years. For a special celebration, book a candlelit dinner there.

SWEPT AWAY

The Cape, a Thompson Hotel, is home to a handful of eateries that quickly rose the ranks to be lauded among the best in Los Cabos, including Manta and The Ledge. While Manta is often cited because of its world-renowned chef, The Ledge's menu has proved to be just as inspired and tantalizing. The al fresco dining with expansive views there adds only more fuel to romantic fires. Also at the hotel is the ever-popular Glass Box with its 360-degree-view glass wall, ideal for intimate evening dining and private events. For a more laid-back night of drinks with a view, The Rooftop, a signature space with two open-air bars, sunken communal seating, fire pits and serene water features can take the pressure off date night without removing the sense that time spent together is always special.

Los Cabos' roster of eight AAA Four Diamond gems satisfies even the most discerning epicurean couples with lavish menus flaunting fresh catches and organic ingredients sourced from local farmers. Among these, the ultra-luxury One&Only Palmilla resort boasts what is arguably the destination's finest assembly of onsite dining concepts.

Unrivalled culinary experiences are offered within four spectacular settings, each with a distinct ambience and cuisine to please every palate. SEARED Steakhouse in collaboration with Michelin-starred chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten dazzles as an elegant steakhouse showcasing only the finest cuts. The tony resort's Suviche offers an impressive selection of fresh sushi and ceviche, and Agua specializes in a unique blend of Mediterranean cuisine with a Mexican twist. For those staying at the property or enjoying an activity nearby, Breeze offers all-day dining. Spend a day at one of the most serene swimmable beaches in Los Cabos and curb your late afternoon hankerings with light bites and elevated Mexican classics there.

Pro tip: Dining under the stars at any of the resort's concepts is a Los Cabos must.

SAIL AWAY

Go the traditional route of dinner and a show but with a completely different view. Aboard Caborey's three-deck catamaran, guests get a front-row seat to views of the Land's End rock formations at sunset, including El Arco as they dine and enjoy the open bar. After the dishes are cleared, you are treated to Mexican and Argentine performances by mariachi singers and Las Vegas-style tango dancers.

FUN AT ALL TIMES

By SOLE SASTRE

The scene is always social and lively in Los Cabos, with something new always cropping up. Médano Beach is ground zero for a day of swimming, drinking, playing and simply hanging out watching the crowd's antics at Mango Deck. But as the sun sets, the world-famous Cabo San Lucas nightlife begins to sizzle. From funky, hole-in-the-wall joints and local hangouts to thumping dance clubs and live music venues, there is no lack of options.

AWARD WORTHY

Celebrate with Baja Brewing Co., the original craft brewery from the Mexican state of Baja California Sur, which is ecstatic to be celebrating two important milestones: winning Best Large Brewery of Mexico at Copa Cerveza and marking its 15th year in Los Cabos.

In October 2021 at Copa Cerveza, the most prestigious beer competition in Mexico, 28 international beer judges evaluated more than 600 beers in 42 categories in Mexico City. A total of 130 Mexican breweries participated, and Baja Brewing Co. was the most decorated, earning five medals and being recognized as the Best Large Brewery in Mexico.

Since it started business in 2007, Baja Brewing Co. has pushed the boundaries of what Mexican beer can be. The company's mission from the start was to bring a craft brewing culture to Mexico similar to what exists in Colorado — where founder and brewmaster Jordan Gardenhire along with his partner Rob Kelly first began brewing beer while in college at the University of Colorado at Boulder.

With two brewpubs in Los Cabos, Baja Brewing Co. and more than eight different beer styles, plus seasonal beers, the company has not just established its locations as local hot spots, but also made it possible for guests at other establishments to enjoy the all-natural and local ingredients that go into their award-winning brews. The brewery distributes throughout Southern Baja California Sur and farther out to other parts of Mexico; and in 2012, Baja Brewing Co. successfully entered the U.S. market with its flagship blonde ale: Cabotella (CAH-bo-TAY-uh), a play on words that means “Cabo in a bottle.” Don’t miss out and stop by one of the brewpubs to say hi, try one of the award winning brews and enjoy a fantastic night out.

In addition to being one of the most lauded new resorts to open its doors in Los Cabos, The Cape, A Thompson Hotel is also one of the region’s hottest nighttime destinations. Naturally, the vibrancy has extended to every corner of the property, particularly its bars. The Lobby Bar celebrates Mexico’s mid-century Pacific Coast glamour, offering incredible ocean vistas in an open-air setting. Its inviting sunken-lounge design, along with a pool table and other gaming options, are perfect for pre- or post-dinner drinks. Also at The Cape is The Rooftop, Cabo San Lucas’ most beloved rooftop lounge, with great views of downtown Cabo San Lucas and El Arco. Nearby Hard Rock Los Cabos is part of a group that’s renowned for its entertainment and nightlife offerings. Enjoy the all-inclusive dining and the ongoing roster of events

THE FINER THINGS

Step it up a notch with a little golf... at night. Restaurant ¡Viva! at Cabo San Lucas Country Club offers a different way to blow off some steam after hours. The recently refreshed 18-hole golf course can be enjoyed after sunset, thanks to one of the lighted driving range, where golfers can extend their play, practice and spend time with friends until late. At the Club, a garden fountain sets the tone for a charming après-golf experience that includes an excellent menu at the in-house restaurant. While it won’t make for a terribly late night out, it’s an excellent way to kick off festivities or enjoy an evening out while saving your energy for your next day of exploration.

On an artistic note, San José del Cabo’s Gallery District Association’s weekly Art Walk — which takes place on Thursdays between November and June — attracts art lovers and travelers who want to stroll the streets as they pop in and out of more than a dozen galleries and studios. The galleries often organize special activities like having artists in attendance or launching new exhibit openings, and the neighborhood restaurants add to the festive vibe by holding Art Walk specials and creating themed offerings.

Any other day, or time of year, you can always head to La Lupita Tacos & Mezcal, where the relaxed, welcoming vibe is best complemented by live music and killer tacos and, well, mezcal!

Farm the Land

When in Los Cabos, you should know that farm fresh cuisine is a lifestyle. The region was quick to embrace organic farming with a wealth of multi-faceted developments that boast gorgeous indoor-outdoor restaurants, some located right on the harvested land. Some are in the midst of sprawling modernist resorts, while others simply feature amenities like cooking classes, an organic grocery store or a tranquil spa that utilizes fresh ingredients. Trailblazing Los Cabos chefs and restaurateurs are honoring the flavors and traditions of Mexican cuisine by harvesting their own produce and working with local fishermen and ranchers to create exquisite dining experiences.

Situated just a mile from the Sea of Cortés and the San José del Cabo Estuary, Los Tamarindos is an organic farm restaurant housed within a 19th-century farmhouse on land where sugarcane was once harvested. The fertile soil offers the ideal conditions to grow heirloom tomatoes, organic eggplant, aromatic herbs and greens. The hacienda-style farmhouse boasts an impressive outdoor patio for dining beneath a thatched palapa by the fields. Opt for a hands-on cooking class where you'll spend time harvesting vegetables on the farm and then preparing a four-course meal of Mexican and Mediterranean dishes that you can enjoy afterward with your fellow classmates.

Or simply make a reservation at the restaurant and let Los Tamarindos' culinary team work their magic. Start with the chilis rellenos — stuffed with pasilla peppers, cotija cheese and farm vegetables — and Pacific oysters from the nearby Laguna San Ignacio. For your entree, it's hard to beat the slow-cooked, bone-in pork shank in green mole.

Other highlights include the grilled marinated octopus, sesame tuna ceviche and the baked free-range chicken with cauliflower puree. They also boast an impressive selection of local Mexican wine from Valle de Guadalupe and Valle de Parras, as well as craft cocktails.

GLOBAL AT HOME

By RICK STEDMAN

There is no single approach to dining in Los Cabos. The culinary scene is as diverse as the types of fish in the Sea of Cortés. Though it was the sun and sea that initially attracted travelers, the delectable dining options can certainly be added as yet another draw for many visitors today.

Tantalizing taste buds has become something of an international competition, and Los Cabos punches way above its weight class there. The well-loved and internationally recognized Mexican culinary canon is complemented by a robust global presence developed thanks to the international visitors and sizable expatriate community that has grown in the region. The restaurant scene in Los Cabos now includes European, Asian, Middle Eastern, South American and, of course, a variety of proudly Mexican establishments.

Drawn TO BEAUTY

If you include art and culture as part of your travel experience, you'll find that this small corner of the Baja California peninsula provides ample opportunities for artful pleasures, live entertainment and engaging activities.

Start in San José del Cabo where you'll want to visit the charming and sophisticated Gallery District. Not only is the area home to countless galleries and artist studios, it also plays host to an incredibly popular weekly Art Walk, which takes place on Thursday evenings between November and June.

Here you'll find spaces dedicated to work by some of the most important and trailblazing local artists, including sculptor Julian Garcia Forcelledo's 22-year-old Arte Gallery and studio, and 14-year-old contemporary Galería Corsica. Keep an eye out for pieces by Javier Guadarrama, Victor Mora, Eduardo Mejorada and Spanish-born painter Enrique Bascon, who heads up his own gallery as well.

Gallerist Patricia Mendoza — whose namesake gallery spotlights a diverse range of contemporary creators and work, including conceptual, avant-garde, and cheeky paintings and sculpture — started offering an Art-to-Table experience that sees collaboration between Mexican artists and the area's organic farms. For the event, chefs craft menus inspired by the artists and incorporate produce and meat from the local growers. These can be booked for groups directly with the gallery.

The district is also home to the San José del Cabo Jazz Weekend Concert Series, which takes place in the winter.

Keep an eye on the calendar at visitloscabos.travel/events for the latest updates on the jazz festivals, as well as concerts and other live events.

REEL TO REEL

The Los Cabos International Film Festival, aka Festival Internacional de Cine de Los Cabos draws thousands of film aficionados and hundreds of film industry professionals. Directors Spike Lee, Terry Gilliam, Oliver Stone and Paul Schrader, and actors Nicole Kidman, Adam Driver, Monica Bellucci, Jared Leto, Jacob Tremblay and Octavia Spencer number among those who have presented work, received awards and taken part in events.

WHAT A SAINT

Not far from Los Cabos, Todos Santos is a bastion of art. One of three magical towns in the Baja California peninsula, it's a Colonial city overlooking the Pacific Ocean that moves to a much slower rhythm. Park beside the picturesque, yellow church downtown, and set out to explore the galleries, restaurants and shopping available there.

The town is a joy in itself, with its camera-worthy pastel buildings and historic façades. Still, the standout feature is in the city's galleries, most of which line the cobblestone streets surrounding the downtown district. Some are housed in weathered, single-story, brick buildings, while others, such as in-home galleries where the artists live and work, offer more intimate settings. On any given day, you can visit a dozen or more studios where you're likely to meet the artists and hear a bit about their latest projects.

Come for the seaside and stay for the art, live
and festivals.

The all-suite boutique resort features incredible views of the Sea of Cortés highlighting the desert and ocean at its best. The Rooftop terrace features an incredible pool, restaurant and bar, that makes a phenomenal wedding venue with a view.

For an indoor affair, Mestizo Del Mar, the signature restaurant at the property, also offers sweeping views. The venue provides excellent private tables for groups large and small and specializes in delectable sea-to-table creations and signature cocktails made with locally sourced ingredients.

Casa Dorada Los Cabos Resort & Spa is another luxury property that has prepared several stunning settings specifically to host weddings. The resort organizes a welcome cocktail party for your party on the pool deck, giving travelers a much-needed opportunity to relax and catch up. The signature restaurant, 12 Tribes Restaurant, is a favorite for rehearsal dinners, as it seats up to 100. After you are officially wed, you can dance and celebrate on a private ocean-view terrace or enjoy a luxurious banquet inside the facility.

Likewise Vela at the Hilton Los Cabos is the kind of venue that makes the most of a fine restaurant with all the support of a major resort to back it. Vela is known for its refined European cuisine made with fresh Mexican ingredients. Inspired by the menus of Spain, France, and southern Italy, tradition is king here: pastas and flatbreads are made in-house daily, the wine list favors European vineyards, and preparations follow Old World methods. Yet while tradition may be king, romance is certainly queen — because this is a comfortably chic environment, one where the mood sets the tone for the dining and everything to follow. Treat your guests to a reception al fresco alongside the resort's infinity pool or indoors if that's what your party prefers.

A decidedly different vibe exists at the Cabo Surf Hotel & Spa. The boutique beach hotel is located on one of the most beloved surfing beaches in Los Cabos. Having 7 Seas Seafood Grille and Sea Spa Cabo on the premises means you can organize a laid-back event with all the surfing bells and whistles. And with a grand total of 36 rooms, you can even rent out the whole place.

OUTSIDE THE BOX

The variety of settings at which couples can tie the knot is astonishing. You can recite your vows on a cliff overlooking the Sea of Cortés or get married with a few of your loved ones while cruising through the Pacific Ocean aboard a luxurious Pisces Yacht. Beach weddings against a backdrop of luminous waves are wildly popular, with resorts like Villa la Estancia, Villa del Palmar and Villa del Arco offering majestic settings accentuated by a variety of themes and decorative motifs.

Those who want an authentic experience can tie the knot at a family owned property like Rancho Shibumi in the outskirts of Cabo San Lucas. Paulina and Athena Smith have transformed the erstwhile ranch into one of the most exclusive, elegant and private wedding venues in Los Cabos, and have ensured that every aspect of the nuptial experience is completely customizable

Couples can host their cocktail under a palapa before enjoying a three-course gourmet dinner at the hacienda, a breathtaking space lined by 27 stone arches with unobstructed views of the Pacific Ocean. Whether you are planning a grand affair with 600 guests or an intimate gathering of 50 your closest friends and family members, the Rancho Shibumi's central focus of love rings true. "We love people who love the land and appreciate it for what it is," says Athena Smith. "[It's] one of the only places where the desert meets the sea."

With that guiding principle, it is an ideal venue for the environmentally minded, as they only rely on locally sourced materials and are powered by solar panels.

The seamless and captivating convergence of two forces of nature is not just part of the sustainable ethos, it is engrained in the venue's design and its very name, Shibumi, which refers to the aesthetic of simple, subtle and unobtrusive beauty.

Hit the OPEN ROAD

Los Cabos refers to the connected cities of Cabo San Lucas and San José del Cabo, but the less frequented East Cape also makes up part of the region. Famed for its legendary fishing and its proximity to the Cabo Pulmo National Park, it's where anglers, nature lovers and those with an "if you know, you know" sensibility escape to when they're looking for something a little more serene.

A number of resorts and hotels have set up shop here, including big names like the Four Seasons Resort Los Cabos at Costa Palmas. But some hotels have been in the area for a while.

Established in 1976, Buena Vista Resort serves the discriminating traveler looking for a location near Los Cabos that combines the best of today's comfort with the colors and romance of a bygone era. The property's Mediterranean-style bungalows are set in gardens that sweep upward from the Sea of Cortés. Stay on property for access to a beautiful and swimmable 20-mile white sand beach, pristine natural mineral water hot spring, delectable cuisine and easy access to adventure and eco-tours.

PEACEFUL ESCAPE

A visit to La Paz also offers a serene contrast to the high-energy, activity-driven Los Cabos. Even as the biggest city in Baja California Sur, this capital feels like a cozy community, complete with a historic town center, cobblestone streets and jacaranda trees. Settled on the coastline that inspired John Steinbeck's The Pearl, it's a wondrous blend of Mexican culture and natural beauty.

To get there, rent a car and enjoy the picturesque two-hour drive marked by views of the coast, the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains and rolling desert landscape. Upon arrival, book a room at CostaBaja Resort, Marina & Spa. It's a full-service resort that serves as an ideal hub for your exploration.

Sweet DREAMS

The foundation of a great vacation is often based on where you rest your head at night — or maybe late into the morning or for a post-beach nap in the afternoon. And that can vary as much as the kind of traveler you are, who is accompanying you on your adventure, or even what your current mood is. Los Cabos has a room for anyone and everyone — a place where you can feel both safe to relax and empowered to explore.

If the last two years have reinforced anything, it's that our time with our loved ones is precious and nothing beats fresh air. Fortunately, the hotels and resorts in Los Cabos were well poised to take on this new reality with their enviable locations and stellar rosters of amenities that have only become more thoughtful and nuanced.

Take the spectacular The Cape, A Thompson Hotel. Set right on Monument's Beach with a privileged view of El Arco, this beachfront hotel's 157 rooms, suites and villas all boast unobstructed views. This is the kind of place where all you have to do to get some fresh sea air is step out into your own balcony. Refined and vibrant, The Cape invites you to elevate your dining at Manta, The Ledge and The Rooftop, and then let all your worries melt away with a session at Currents spa.

You don't have to lower your standards because you have the whole family in tow. In fact, at One&Only Palmilla, you can enjoy the pinnacle of luxury amenities and know your little ones are making fantastic memories. Tucked into one of the most deliciously swimmable beaches in Los Cabos, this legendary property welcomes guests with spacious rooms, suites and villas, and invites everyone to feel at ease on the delightfully manicured grounds. With thoughtful activities for families, the exciting KidsOnly program and plenty for love birds to do, there's truly something to keep everyone in your group occupied and enchanted.

If you're looking for something with a little more edge, the Hard Rock Hotel Los Cabos offers the ultimate all-inclusive experience. Make like a celebrity and drop by any of the eight world-class restaurants on the property whenever the mood hits. Fancy a top-shelf cocktail? It's included. How about some live entertainment? That's on the menu, too. Your teens can vibe at The Cavern Club, where they have access to air hockey, a pool table, Xbox One, board games and arcade games. The littles can be introduced to the rockstar life making crafts and playing games at The Roxity Kids Club*.

Activities and experiences the whole family can enjoy at Hacienda Encantada Resort & Residences include everything from cooking classes to horseback riding along the beach, and the concierges can arrange any kind of adventure nearby, including sunset cruises and city tours that mix sightseeing with a little shopping and more.

But, family travel is not just about keeping the smallest ones entertained. Indulge in luxury with in-laws, siblings and friends at Le Blanc Spa Resort Los Cabos, an adults-only all-inclusive that boasts designer suites and a 29,000-square-foot full-service spa with 25 treatment rooms. Everything is included, from butler service, unlimited top-shelf beverages and fine dining to sublime spa experiences and breathtaking views of the Sea of Cortés. In the mood for something extraordinary? Try the only Lebanese fine dining in Los Cabos.

For those seeking a low key getaway with all the creature comforts, Casa Dorada Resort & Spa's inviting ambience welcomes families of all shapes, sizes and breeds. Not only can families take advantage of services like the Casa Kidz Place program, but they can bring their furry family members along, too, as the resort is pet friendly.

With its recent multi-million dollar renovation, The Hilton Los Cabos Beach & Golf Resort has been thoughtfully reimaged. Designed to provide intuitive service, the resort now features an additional 14 oceanfront suites with private plunge pools, an adults-only infinity Serenity Pool and Jacuzzi, an ocean-view fitness center and lush surroundings that will promote your sense of harmony and well being.

Originally the legendary Cabo del Sol Ocean Course, Cove Club reopened in 2019 with several new holes, restyled bunkers, upgraded playing surfaces and new landscaping. Measuring 6,807 yards, Cove Club stretches more than a mile along a coastline of craggy rock outcroppings and sun-washed shores inspiring course designer Jack

Nicklaus to describe it as “the best golf property I’ve ever seen.” With the waves crashing against the rocks, verdant fairways, and gentle sea breezes, the Cove Club experience is akin to a romantic walk on the beach. cabodelsol.com/coveclub-course

DIAMANTE CABO SAN LUCAS DUNES COURSE

The par-72, 7,022-yard Dunes Course at Diamante Cabo San Lucas is marked by fairways, tees and greens carved right into sand dunes high above the Pacific Ocean. The windswept layout skirts huge blowout bunkers on its journey to and from the sea. Breaching whales are a common sight from many of the holes in the winter. This beachfront course was designed by 21-time PGA Tour winner Davis Love III. diamantecabosanlucas.com

EL CARDONAL

The the 18-hole, championship El Cardonal marked Tiger Woods’ architectural debut. With dramatic views of the Pacific Ocean and natural arroyos, mature vegetation and native dunes, the par-72 course measures 7,363 yards and visually complements Diamante’s famed Dunes Course. diamantecabosanlucas.com

EL DORADO GOLF & BEACH CLUB

Stretching to 7,322 yards, this par-72 Jack Nicklaus-designed course is widely considered a desert-meets-the-sea masterpiece and is regularly ranked one of the top courses in the world. Located on The Corridor, it offers spectacular play opportunities as it winds through desert landscapes featuring colorful canyons and arroyos. The course at El Dorado offers an unforgettable experience for anyone fortunate enough to play it. eldoradogolfandbeachclub.com.

PALMILLA GOLF CLUB

Palmilla is the landmark facility that set the stage for top-tier golf in Los Cabos when it opened in 1992 and is recognized as the “Grand Dame of Los Cabos.” Famous for offering 27 holes of amazing golf and spectacular views, it was Jack Nicklaus’ first signature venture into Latin America. With three distinctive nines – Arroyo, Mountain and Ocean – the course gently guides golfers through 800 vertical feet of Baja California Sur terrain. palmillagc.com.

PUERTO LOS CABOS GOLF CLUB

Puerto Los Cabos Golf Club features a unique 27-hole composite design finished in 2018 when Jack Nicklaus returned to build his long-awaited second nine. The Marina Course was originally designed by Nicklaus, and the Mission Course was designed by Greg Norman. Bunkers and dramatic elevation changes mark the recent additions made by Nicklaus. Stretching to 7,194 yards, the par-73 layout is etched into the rolling desert foothills, backed by the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains. Making use of its flash-faced bunkers to signpost the fairways and defend the greens, the layout reveals Norman’s fondness for Australia’s classic Sandbelt courses. The club’s Marina Course features rippling fairways, undulating greens and sculpted bunkers. Eventually, Puerto Los Cabos will offer two separate 18-hole courses. questrogolf.com

QUERENCIA GOLF CLUB

One of Mexico’s premier private clubs, this Tom Fazio-designed course is renowned for its slick, multi-tiered greens and challenging play across steep hills and bluffs – with several holes skirting the edges of deep canyons and rocky arroyos. Its 18 holes span more than 300 beautifully manicured acres. Recognized by Golf Digest and Golfweek magazines in 2021, the par-72 course measures a total of 7,050 yards. loscabosquerencia.com.

QUIVIRA GOLF CLUB

In a spectacular setting at the tip of the Baja California peninsula marked by windswept dunes, sheer cliffs and desert foothills, Quivira’s Jack Nicklaus-designed course scales the heights at Land’s End. This stunning par-72, 18-hole course stretches to 7,085 yards and is set along massive sand dunes, rugged cliffs and white-sand beaches. With views of the Pacific Ocean from all 18 holes, Quivira offers more oceanfront exposure than any other course in Los Cabos. quiviragolfclub.com.

RANCHO SAN LUCAS GOLF CLUB

The centerpiece of an 834-acre community set on the Pacific Ocean, the Greg Norman Signature Rancho San Lucas Golf Club opened in 2020. Known for his “least-disturbance” design approach, the 18-hole course features a low-profile layout that left the site’s existing contours intact and offers sweeping ocean views from every hole. The result is a 7,210-yard, par-72 course that spans three separate ecosystems: across windswept dunes, up through a cactus forest and back toward the sea on the back nine. Norman also integrated indigenous grass varieties that require the least amount of water, building an eco-friendly experience that flows naturally with the landscape. ranchosanlucas.com/golf

THE OASIS SHORT COURSE

The the second course designed by Tiger Woods for Diamante Golf and the first par-3 course in Los Cabos, the Oasis Short Course is designed to appeal to members and guests at all ability levels, from novices to experts. diamantecabosanlucas.com

TWIN DOLPHIN GOLF CLUB

Built on a sloping plateau bisected by three major arroyos, Twin Dolphin Golf Club rises more than 590 feet above sea level and boasts a naturalistic layout that features sweeping views of the Sea of Cortés from every hole. Course architect Fred Couples worked on the course’s routing and strategic design with Todd Eckenrode of Origins Golf Design to make it “a course that all players can enjoy.” twindolphinloscabos.com/golf

VIDANTA GOLF

One of the most enjoyable golf outings in Los Cabos, the nine-hole, par-35 Vidanta Golf in San José del Cabo measures 3,153 yards and is semi-flat. But don’t be fooled by the modest measurements, as it presents quite a few challenging holes that include both water and bunkers. Though it’s the oldest course in Los Cabos, Vidanta is widely considered one of its best values. vidantagolf.com

GOOD TO KNOW

Los Cabos hosts countless festivals, concerts and sporting events. Go to visitloscabos.travel/events to find out exactly what is happening during your trip!

Tips & INFO

LOCATION: Los Cabos refers to two towns — Cabo San Lucas and San José del Cabo — found at the end of Baja California Sur, about 1,000 miles south of San Diego, California.

POPULATION: Approximately 203,000 people live in Los Cabos.

CLIMATE: Located just south of the Tropic of Cancer, Los Cabos is a subtropical desert. In the summer, highs can reach 90° F and there are sporadic showers. Winter evenings see the thermometer drop to 60° F, with daytime highs near 80° F.

TIME ZONE: Los Cabos is on Mountain Time (MT) — one hour ahead of Pacific Time.

LANGUAGE: In Mexico, Spanish is the official language, but English is widely spoken throughout Los Cabos, especially by those within the hospitality industry.

ELECTRICITY: 120 volts/60 hertz. Electrical outlets are the same as those used in the U.S.

BANKS AND CURRENCY: The official unit of currency is the Mexican peso (MXN), but the U.S. dollar (USD) is widely accepted. All major Mexican national banks are represented in the destination and are usually open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Many branches have ATMs that accept U.S. bank cards just as they do in the U.S. Keep in mind, transaction fees may be higher, and some ATMs can dispense both Mexican pesos and U.S. dollars. While you can exchange dollars for pesos at the airport, any bank and many hotels, the banks will usually have the best rates. Credit cards are welcome at most major restaurants and hotels. When using your credit card, the statement total will appear in pesos at the exchange rate posted on that day.

EXCHANGE RATE: At press time, one Mexican peso is equal to $0.05 USD. This rate fluctuates, so check it closer to your travel date and when you arrive.

COMMUNICATION: Most major wireless carriers offer packages that provide messaging, calling and data services at reasonable rates. Check with your provider and ask about roaming rates in Mexico, international package options and other travel-related services prior to your trip. The internet works quite well throughout Los Cabos, and Wi-Fi is a standard amenity at many businesses and most hotels and resorts, so Skype, FaceTime, Whatsapp and other Wi-Fi-enabled apps are a cost-effective means of communication

To call the U.S. from your U.S.-based cell phone, dial 00 + 1 + area code + phone number. To call local landlines, just dial the seven-digit phone number. To call local cell phones (within the same area code), dial 044 + phone number. To call Mexico outside Los Cabos, dial 01 + area code + phone number.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS: Mexico celebrates a number of public holidays annually. Except for banks and government offices being closed, your vacation plans should not be disrupted by the festivities.

GETTING AROUND

Red and yellow taxi vans operate in San José del Cabo; blue and green vans cruise Cabo San Lucas. They are available 24 hours a day and are never far. You can expect to pay $50–60 USD to get from one town to the other. Buses run regularly and cost $2–3 USD, depending on the exchange rate. Accounting for stops at major hotels along The Corridor, the ride between the towns can take about an hour. Uber is also available.

AIRPORT & TRAVEL DETAILS

To enter Mexico, you need a valid passport. All foreign travelers must pass through immigration and customs. Once you have been cleared by immigration officials, collect your luggage and proceed to customs where you push a button on something that looks a lot like a traffic light; if the light turns red, your luggage has been selected for inspection. After getting through customs and immigration, you may walk past time-share sales people eager for your attention.

Unless you've arranged pickup with your hotel, yellow and white mini shuttles are a good option. They are less expensive than taxis, but they won't depart unless full, so you may find yourself waiting a few minutes.

Cab drivers and other pre-arranged transportation providers have a designated waiting area just outside.

Just 20 minutes north of San José del Cabo, the Los Cabos International Airport (SJD), services more than 400 domestic, international and private flights weekly. At press time, the following airlines offered flights to Los Cabos: Aeroméxico, Aero Pacífico, Air Canada, Alaska Airlines, American Airlines, Calafia Airlines, Delta, Frontier, Interjet, Magnicharters, Southwest Airlines, Spirit Airlines, Sun Country Airlines, Sunwing, United Airlines, VivaAerobús, Volaris and WestJet.

Nonstop flights and connections to Los Cabos are available from numerous cities across the U.S., including Atlanta; Charlotte; Chicago; Dallas/Fort Worth; Denver; Detroit; Houston; Kansas City, Mo.; Minneapolis; Newark; Phoenix; Salt Lake City and Seattle.

From California, there are flights and connections available from Los Angeles, Orange County, San Diego, San Francisco and San Jose. From Canada, there are flights available from Calgary, Edmonton, Kelowna, Toronto, Vancouver and Winnipeg.

The smaller, less frequented Cabo San Lucas International Airport (CSL) is located just 10 minutes from downtown Cabo San Lucas and primarily services private aircraft.
