LUIS HUMBERTO ARAIZA

Secretary of Tourism Baja California Sur

Welcome to Los Cabos

Located at the southern tip of the Baja California peninsula, Los Cabos is one of the world's most diverse tourism destinations. Set against a dramatic desert backdrop and nestled between the Pacific Ocean and Sea of Cortés, our destination is home to award-winning resorts, culinary offerings, championship golf courses, celebrated spas, world-renowned sport fishing tournaments and state-of-the-art convention facilities.

Los Cabos encompasses the capes of San José del Cabo, Cabo San Lucas and the East Cape, each with a distinct personality for a very select set of travelers that want to take advantage of the natural beauty of Baja California Sur. Visitors experience desert, mountain and water activities, along with the contrast of the sea and desert landscapes that will remain in their memories.

Getting to Los Cabos is easier than ever, with the Los Cabos International Airport's (SJD) more than 500 weekly flights, serving more than 40 destinations. Additionally, Los Cabos has been unstoppable, adding several luxury properties to the already growing inventory of resorts and hotels. With over 83 hotels and resorts, Los Cabos offers more than 18,000 rooms and has over 2,300 new hotel rooms forecasted over the next few years, increasing the inventory of luxury brands in the destination.

Another big draw to the destination is its vibrant culinary offerings, which attract distinguished chefs to come to Los Cabos and share their creativity. Top-ranked chefs, such as Richard Sandoval, Enrique Olvera and Jean-Georges Vongerichten, among many others, have taken our signature Mexican dishes and reimaged them, creating a culinary oasis for locals and visitors.

As one of Mexico's top destinations for meetings and conventions, Los Cabos has its state-of-the-art International Convention Center (ICC), with more than 72,000 square feet of meeting and event space for up to 8,000 attendees. The Los Cabos International Convention Center is among the most modern and expansive venues found in the country.

There is really something for everyone. Whether you're traveling for business or leisure, we are extremely excited to welcome you! We encourage you to fully maximize your time here and visit every corner of the state of Baja California Sur.

LILZI ORCÍ

Executive President
Los Cabos Hotel Association

Bienvenidos a Los Cabos!

We are honored to welcome you to Los Cabos, at the southern tip of the Baja California peninsula, considered by many a land of enchantingly sunny beaches and one of the world's most diverse tourist destinations. Nestled between the Pacific Ocean and Sea of Cortés, our destination is home to more than 83 award-winning resorts and hotels. Whether you're looking for a romantic escape for two or an adventurous getaway at Land's End, Los Cabos welcomes you to experience its hospitality through one of the countless luxury or affordable offerings.

With over 18,000 current hotel rooms and over 2,300 forecasted over the next few years, increased flight connectivity, a growing culinary scene, and vibrant festivals and event offerings, the destination will continue to lead in 2020. The region is set to welcome 10 new resorts through the year 2023. Some of the newest high-end properties include St. Regis, Aman, Park Royal, Caesar's Palace, 1 Residences, Soho, and So Los Cabos Hotel and Residences, among others.

Los Cabos truly has something for everyone. From music and culture, to adventure and sport fishing, the destination is a great place for travelers to enjoy a variety of experiences, especially with its prominent annual events, including fishing tournaments, triathlons, marathons, gastronomic events, the Los Cabos International Film Festival, ATP Los Cabos, Los Cabos Open of Surf, the annual culinary festival Sabor a Cabo and many more.

We invite you to connect with Los Cabos and enjoy an extraordinary vacation, discover the hospitality that we give our visitors and be amazed by all the experiences we offer.

We are thrilled to receive you, and encourage you to make your way, the Baja Way!

Welcome

Change is the only constant, and that is especially true in the hospitality industry. People travel looking to relax, discover and indulge, but savvy travelers are no longer simply booking flights, paying for traditional tours and looking for a place to rest their heads. People are seeking unforgettable experiences, engaging activities, unique meals and meaningful moments to share with all their loved ones. Travelers have more options than ever, and Los Cabos is prepared and eager to live up to its reputation as a timeless destination and the challenge of exceeding even the most fastidious expectations.

This exclusive little corner of Mexico is warm and welcoming in the most traditional sense, a hallmark of the region's cities that are tough to beat. Stellar spas, inspired restaurants beyond the convention facilities. If you are one of the many couples tying the knot here, congratulations! You couldn't have picked a more magical place. For everyone who steps foot on this special corner of Baja California Sur, here's to creating memories... We hope you enjoy your stay!

ost visitors to Los Cabos rarely leave the city limits, but if you want to immerse yourself in an adventure in a less frequented part of Baja California Sur, consider a day trip into the outback, an arid country with sweeping vistas.

Just 34 miles north of Land’s End, the quaint rural town of Santiago is home to flourishing orchards and working ranches that make the land resemble a verdant island amid a sea of desert scrub. Santiago doubles as the gateway to the Cabo Real Ecological Reserve, which itself skirts the Sierra de la Laguna mountain range. Designated a UNESCO global biosphere reserve in 1994, the range is graced with a wealth of biodiverse vegetation and magnificent rock formations.

Located within the reserve, the locally owned Rancho Ecologico Sol de Mayo is home to some of the region’s most iconic flora and fauna, including lizards, quail, roadrunners, rabbits and the occasional ring-tailed cat. Hit the trail early to get a better chance of seeing the animals. They tend to come out before the sun is at its peak, and spend the rest of the day tucked in shaded hideaways, ideal for an extended siesta.

The drive to the ranch is relatively easy, though it is recommended that you rent an all-wheel drive vehicle to get there, as the last several miles are unpaved and uneven. The varied fleet at Ten Car Rental includes midsize sports utility vehicles and Jeeps, ideally suited for this kind of adventure.

Once at the ranch, be prepared to pay a nominal fee to park and another small fee for access to the trail that leads to the waterfall. The hike down to the waterfall itself can take as little as five to 10 minutes, but the return trip takes longer, as it is up the steep incline. You can assist yourself on the rustic but functional trail with railings and ropes you'll find along the way.

The ranch offers a few amenities, including restrooms, fresh meals and beverages, and even cabins for overnight stays.

Huge granite rocks atop the Sol de Mayo waterfall funnel its crystalline, spring-fed water into a pool below.

When the picturesque, 40-foot cascading fall comes into view, it's easy to feel like you have traveled a world away. This natural formation invites visitors to step back in time, as huge granite rocks atop the Sol de Mayo waterfall funnel its crystalline, spring-fed water into a pool below — a sight that has attracted locals to the area for centuries. In fact, you may run into a few locals enjoying the peaceful spot while you're there.

Visitors can easily spend the whole day cooling off in the natural swimming hole absorbing the laid-back atmosphere. The deep pool

GETTING THERE: Rent a car, or contact a destination management company (DMC) like Terramar, which regularly organizes tours through the back country.

provides the perfect pick-me-up for adults after a day of exploring, while a safe sandy shallow area is best for kids and less confident swimmers. The water is cool and refreshing, but at the height of summer may be reduced to a trickle or dry up completely.

If you seek a little more insight and context, look for expeditions guided by naturalists who are knowledgeable about the area and its secrets. Various destination management companies, such as Terramar and Mexico Planners organize hiking tours, and can personalize your experience. Their knowledgeable guides provide information about the land, its vegetation, where you are most likely to see specific animals and the indigenous people who lived in the area hundreds of years ago.

"It's such a rush to stumble upon an oasis in the middle of the desert," says Sunny Irvine, owner of destination management company Terramar. "You feel like you're on a discovery expedition as you come upon these remote villages, missions and waterfalls."

Hiking Essentials

The best way to thoroughly enjoy your day trip is to plan ahead and pack accordingly. A day in the desert can be a life-changing adventure just as easily as it can be a lackluster experience if you are not prepared. The most important item to remember when heading out on a hiking trip through desert trails is a good pair of comfortable, closed-toe walking shoes — indispensable for managing the uneven and steep terrain. So swap the flip-flops for a pair of good hiking boots. Other items to pack include a swimsuit, sunscreen, sunglasses, a hat, plenty of water, a small rucksack to carry everything and, of course, a camera or cell phone to capture your memories. You may also want to pick up some food and drinks at the ranch prior to trekking down the trail to enjoy a scenic picnic when you've made it.

ith the opening of two additional golf courses, Los Cabos now offers 17 incredible tracks. If you play every hole at every course in Los Cabos, you will complete 309 holes, while being treated to some of the planet's most spectacular scenery. Other impressive accolades Los Cabos has recently received include the Golf Digest ranking of all of Mexico's 220 golf courses, in which the preeminent magazine ranked 10 Los Cabos courses in their short list of the country's top 16.

When you golf at the southern tip of the Baja California peninsula, expect to have an unparalleled experience. Added amenities at most of these courses include pro shops, instruction and some form of culinary palapa. These strategically placed mini-restaurants are usually staffed with a bartender and chef, and serve a full-range of local staples and a vast menu of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages. The incredible dominance of these superlative courses can be traced back directly to the talented designers that have helped cultivate the region's golf presence, including Jack Nicklaus, Greg Norman, Tom Fazio, Davis Love III, Tiger Woods and, most recently, Fred Couples.

Los Cabos extends its golf dominance in Latin America with two new courses.

WHAT'S NEW

Rancho San Lucas Golf Club, designed by legendary golfer and course designer Greg Norman, is one of the highlights of the new Grand Solmar at Rancho San Lucas. The new resort sits on 1.2 miles of beachfront property right on the Pacific Ocean, just 15 minutes north of Cabo San Lucas. The 7,260-yard layout has a few holes on the beach, notably the par-3 third, which parallels the sea. From this vantage point, during the winter months golfers are treated to incredible views of breaching whales.

With a contrasting desert backdrop, the course offers exquisite ocean views from 13 of its 18, holes with seven being oceanfront.

Cabo Real Golf Club features a multi-themed, target-style course, which was recently refashioned by Jones.

One of the defining characteristics of the links-style course is its deep pot bunkers. These sharp-edged, steep-walled sandy pits are the bane of every golfer and the first to be used at any course in Los Cabos.

The golf course is but the centerpiece of Norman's first real estate venture in Mexico: the exclusively branded Norman Estates at Rancho San Lucas. The collection includes family residences, condominiums and estate homes with incredible ocean views. The community also features a village with shopping, dining and entertainment options; an expansive community park with a lake; biking and hiking trails; family picnic areas; a tennis center; and proximity to Cabo San Lucas' dynamic vibe.

The Twin Dolphin Golf Club, which opened in late 2018, features a par-72 layout that stretches to 7,156 yards from the back tees. The course was built on a broad sloping plateau bisected by three major arroyos, and is perched nearly 600 feet above sea level. It offers exclusive access to guests of Montage Los Cabos.

LOS CABOS GOLF HIGHLIGHTS

Often referred to as the Grand Dame of Los Cabos Golf, Palmilla Golf Club was the first major course built in Los Cabos, opening in 1992. The Jack Nicklaus-designed course features 27 holes, nestled in the uniquely Los Cabos blend of desert and sea. The impressive track is divided into the Arroyo Nine, the Mountain Nine and the Ocean Nine. Palmilla Golf Club gently takes you through 800 vertical feet of the Baja California Sur desert, with many of the holes offering views of the azure-colored Sea of Cortés.

The venerable Cabo San Lucas Country Club still has that Old Mexico feel to it. Designed by Roy Dye and opened in 1994, it is one of the most challenging and scenic golf courses on the entire peninsula. Cabo San Lucas Country Club is the area's only course offering views of the iconic El Arco rock formation at Land's End. Featuring several revamped holes, the par-72 course measures 7,238 yards from the championship tees. At 610 yards, the par-5 7th is the longest golf hole in all of Mexico and features a double dogleg around a lake.

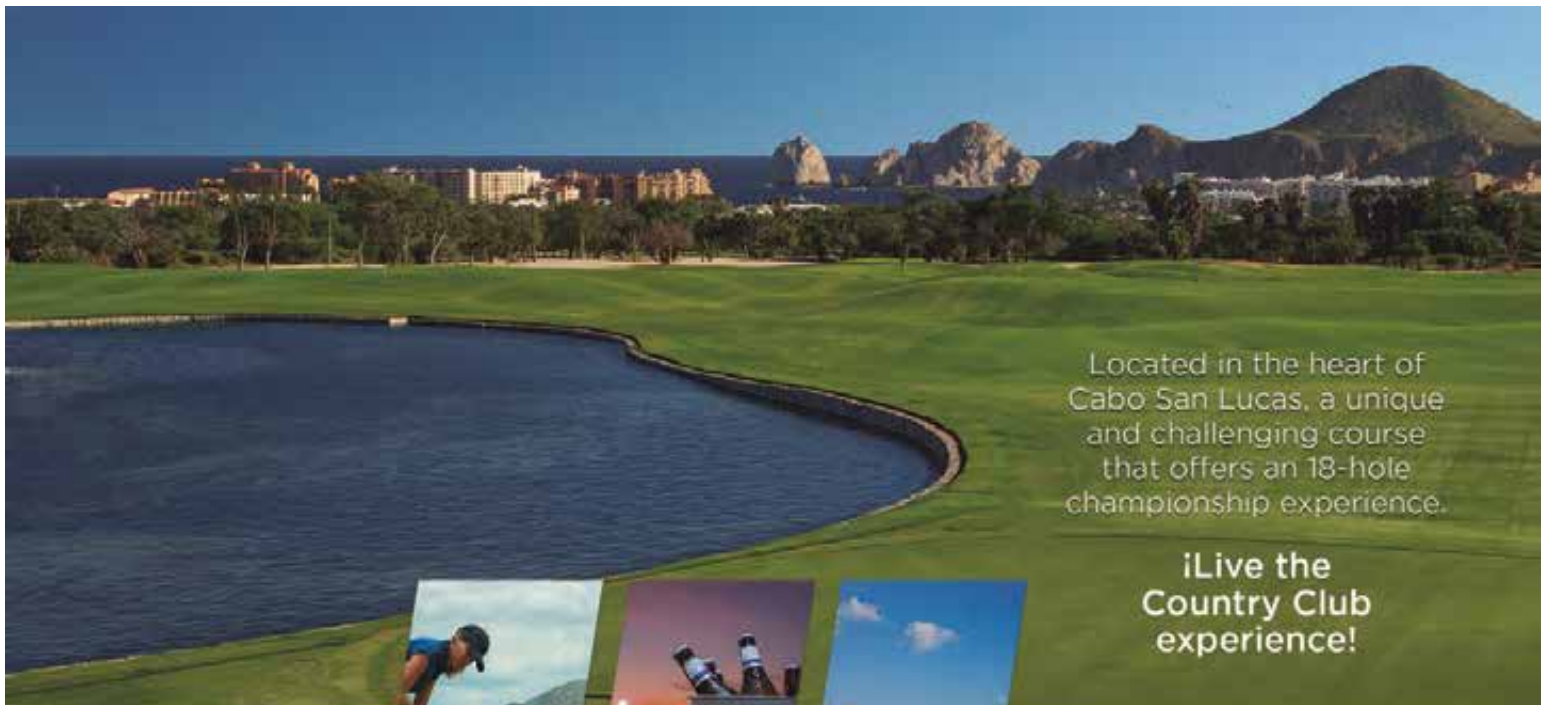

With these two courses, Los Cabos made an impressive entry into the international golf scene. More recently, Querencia Golf Club opened in 2000 to rave reviews. The dramatic Tom Fazio-designed course spans 300 acres, winds through deep arroyos and climbs to cool, arid plateaus with endless vistas. This private, 18-hole championship course measures 7,050 yards from the championship tees and overlooks the Sea of Cortés.

In 2014 the 18-hole championship Quivira Golf Club, a Signature Jack Nicklaus design, became the star attraction at Pueblo Bonito Resort. Several of the picturesque holes on this par-72, 7,139-yard course are carved right into the Pacific Ocean shoreline, offering unparalleled ocean views. In its first five years, Quivira Golf Club established itself as a major presence. It was dubbed the "Best New International Golf Course" by Golf Magazine when it first opened and "The Development of the Year" by Golf Inc. More recently, it was included in Golf Digest's "World's 100 Greatest Golf Courses" list.

THE QUEST FOR PERFECTION

biggest names in golf architecture, including Signature Designs from Jack Nicklaus, Robert Trent Jones II and Greg Norman. Each is spectacular in its own way, and should be on everyone's to-do list when in Los Cabos.

The showpiece of a 2,800-acre resort and residential beachfront community, Cabo Real Golf Club features a multi-themed, target-style course, which was recently refashioned by Jones from a pre-existing layout.

Likewise, Club Campestre San José anchors a 550-acre master-planned community. Despite its sloping desert terrain and views of the Sea of Cortés, the course's defining characteristic is its undulating, multi-tiered greens, which are widely considered among the most liberally contoured putting surfaces in Los Cabos.

Puerto Los Cabos Golf Club has thrilled golfers for over a decade. The rare composite design — nine holes each by Greg Norman and Jack Nicklaus — has proven to be a winning combination, as the two legends are among the world's greatest professional golfers, as well as being widely celebrated course designers. Guests at Secrets Puerto Los Cabos Golf & Spa Resort can tee off right outside their suites.

A NIGHT COURSE: With a lighted driving range Cabo San Lucas Country Club is the only course in the area where you can play at night.

GOOD TO KNOW

Scenic and challenging but nuanced, Club Campestre San José is a local favorite and is widely considered to represent among the best value in the Los Cabos golf circuit.

SUNSHINE & GOLD

Guests at the Sheraton Grand Los Cabos Hacienda del Mar, can enjoy the resort's many amenities, including access to the par-72, 7,103-yard Ocean Course at Cabo del Sol and its counterpart, the Desert Course. Davis Love III's links-style Dunes Course at Diamante Cabo San Lucas is a par-72, 18-hole championship course that stretches to 7,300 yards from the tips, and Tiger Woods' El Cardonal course at the same property features breathtaking views.

Among the premiere private tracks in Los Cabos is the Nicklaus-designed El Dorado Golf & Beach Club. Tom Fazio's incredible Chileno Bay Golf & Beach Club complements that extraordinary property with its incredible layout.

ere's how it all plays out. You're on the deck of a 70-foot sportfishing yacht. Charging into mounting Pacific swells, you're strapped to the fighting chair, battling a 600-pound blue marlin sporting monumental shoulders and a sharp sword for a nose. Waves crash over the transom, spraying salt water in your face as the captain backs down on the beast. After a 45 minute war of give and take, the mate reaches down into the water, the billfish wildly slashing around. He grabs the leader at boatside, the hook is dislodged and the marlin is released to fight another day. High fives round the house.

Sweating bullets, you unstrap the fighting harness and coolly walk into the salon of the sportfisher, kick your feet up and dine on fresh sushi, stir a martini and catch some rays while waiting for the next bite. That's the real catch in the Los Cabos fishing scene: You can be out on a rugged maritime brawl with genuine beasts while indulging in state-of-the-art luxury.

BIG GAME FISHING

The waters off Los Cabos are comprised of the Pacific Ocean and the Sea of Cortés. Both consisting of prolific marine environments and submarine sea mounts, myriad species can be found anywhere from right along the shoreline out to 60 miles. Big game fishing in Los Cabos is highlighted by its world-renowned striped marlin fishery, but other seafaring sportfish include blue marlin, black marlin, wahoo, yellowfin tuna and dorado.

The easiest way to have a thoroughly Los Cabos fishing experience is to charter a boat. Picante Sportfishing runs daily trips out to the fishing grounds right around Land's End: the five- to 50-mile range where you can target marlin species. Luxury charter vessels from the Pisces Fleet are built with world-class service in mind. Charter boats are equipped with the latest size 50 to 80 class gold conventional reels matched with stand-up heavy duty rods spooled with 80-pound line, suitable for a strenuous

Fishing Tournaments

Los Cabos hosts numerous fishing tournaments that pit the skill and knowledge of seasoned sea captains and anglers competing to win some of the most lucrative jackpots in the world. Six main tournaments hit the Los Cabos shores with the Stars and Stripes Tournament in June, Los Cabos Billfish Tournament in October, the Cabo Tuna Jackpot in November, and then the trifecta of the local Bisbee's circuit: Bisbees East Cape, Los Cabos Offshore and Bisbee's Black and Blue in late October. At the latter, payouts can exceed $4 million! The Bisbee's tournaments are legendary, making their mark for over 30 years. Celebrating 25 years in business, Picante Sportfishing lays claim to being the fishing champion of Los Cabos, with more than $4.6 million in tournament earnings. Even if you don't participate, it's always exciting to watch the weigh ins at the docks.

Charter a Boat

Whether you're a newbie or a seasoned angler, Los Cabos offers plenty of options to suit your specific needs and budget. On my first trip to Los Cabos in 2007, I had no idea how to charter a boat, so I walked the docks at Marina Cabo San Lucas, and I managed to negotiate a trip on a ramshackle 17-foot panga boat with a local fisherman. Chartering a fishing boat is an even easier process. Simply contact Pisces Fleet, which offers a variety of options for inshore and offshore fishing, starting with 22-foot panga boats for half-day, four-hour fishing jaunts of inshore fishing. If you want to hit the water with an all-inclusive package that comes with bait, tackle, provisions and top-of-the-line rods and reels, Pisces Fleet boasts a complete line of luxury sportfishing vessels up to 70 feet long. The first-class accommodations in these dream liners include air-conditioned cabins and all the amenities needed for an all-day outing — as well as some you don't need, but you'll certainly appreciate. You can even plan an overnight excursion that will take you farther out and take your experience from a day of fishing to an aquatic adventure. And if you're a solo angler, don't fret. You can always pay for a share on a charter to join a group that's headed your way. Think of it as ridesharing, Los Cabos style!

battle with a billfish. When making the one- to three-hour run 10 to 60 miles offshore, nothing beats traveling in comfort and style, and these sportfishing yachts are decked out with comfortable couches, fully stocked refrigerators and even TVs to keep your party entertained.

Once at the grounds, captains and mates work hard setting a trolling spread of lures and baits to tempt marlin, tuna, wahoo and dorado. A spread can contain up to 10 rods out as the lures crashing across the water surface resemble a school of baitfish, triggering a reaction strike from the pelagic species. Trolling is a fairly easy way to get strikes, as once the spread is set, rods are placed in the rod holders in the gunwales, and the boat simply cruises at a six- to eight-knot pace dragging the lures in its wake.

You'll certainly know when you get a hit. The reel's drag system starts singing and screaming as the fish rips line off at a breakneck pace. While dorado and wahoo are generally reeled in within 15 to 20 minutes, marlin pushing 500 to 800 pounds and tuna weighing in at over 250 pounds can sometimes test the willpower, spirit and stamina of even the strongest angler with drag-out battles than can last hours. The excitement of watching a 40-pound dorado's acrobatic jumps or a 200-pound striped marlin's sword smashing the baits and lures with the adeptness of a swordfighter is a sight you won't forget. Monstrous gladiators of black, blue and striped marlin, (striped marlin being Los Cabos' most common marlin species) run September through mid-March, with catches averaging six to 12 marlin a day during peak season. In February, March and April, dorado (aka mahimahi or dolphin fish) can be caught. Yellowfin tuna hit hard September through January, and wahoo and sailfish round out the mix of species in the warm summer months.

INSHORE ACTION

While many anglers most often associate the marquee species of marlin and tuna with Los Cabos, a vibrant and exciting inshore fishery exists that doesn't require anglers to make the long run out to the blue water grounds. When bottomfishing or trolling off the beach in the East Cape, the main targets include various species of grouper, jacks, cabrilla, snapper and — the crown jewel of the region — the atavistic roosterfish. Characterized by the long-flowing coxcombed dorsal fins that spike out of the water, these fish resemble works of art.

Most times, inshore fishing is done while trolling live baits or casting lures just outside the breaking waves, but it can extend for one to five miles off the coastline, as the spread is dragged over submarine rock piles and underwater ledges that attract fish. Shoreline trolling is the easiest way to experience Los Cabos fishing as many small boating and panga charters operate right from the local marinas, and the inshore species, such as jacks, grouper, roosterfish and snapper, can be found all year round.

And remember this: The sportfishing experience doesn't end when you dock. Many of the restaurants that line Marina Cabo San Lucas, such as Captain Tony's and Fisherman's Landing will cook your fresh catch for a nominal fee. Simply bring your prize to the kitchen, and the culinary team will clean, filet and cook your catch and serve it with sides.

Escape — to Los Cabos

There is plenty to see and do where the land ends and possibility begins.

BY NICK HONACHEFSKY

vast, prolific playground lies within these desert-born reaches. Bristling and bustling with opportunity, the Baja California peninsula beckons intrepid adventure seekers with its tempting azure waters and dusty landscape.

Whether traveling with your significant other, a group of friends, the extended family or simply out on a solo mission, there are so many experiences, can't-miss attractions, activities and adventures to cross off while exploring Los Cabos that you'll find yourself planning a return trip with a whole other crew.

COUPLES THERAPY

Nothing is sweeter than sharing a life-changing experience with your partner. And, believe me, there's no shortage of activities for couples to bond over in Los Cabos. Start a morning out beach-strolling along the golden sands of Lover's Beach, watching the sun rise through El Arco at Land's End. The sun-kissed morning can continue into midday over at Cabo

BUILT FOR TWO: Plenty of activities in Los Cabos can be enjoyed during a couples' getaway, which makes the destination perfect for newlyweds, honeymooners and romantics at heart.

Pulmo National Marine Park. The 20,000-year-old coral reef there spans 45.75 square miles and is at the epicenter of the region's world-class snorkeling. Swim over the bountiful reef, and you're likely to see green parrotfish, exquisite Moorish idols and curious banded butterflyfish flitting about among the technicolor seascape.

Additional snorkeling opportunities attract lovers of sealife to the calm waters of Chileno Bay and Santa María Bay.

On land, you and your significant other can enjoy peaceful moments of solitude together while hiking Fox Canyon in the Cabo Real Ecological Preserve within Sierra de la Laguna. Follow the strenuous day of exploration with a lazy visit to the quaint towns of Miraflores and Santiago to pick up local arts and crafts. Exploring the Baja California Sur countryside via horseback riding can strengthen bonds between couples, as a trot along the cactus-lined arroyos and a gallop along the beachfront amid the crashing waves of the Pacific are sure to generate buzz.

Seafaring types can book an outing with Cabo Sails to glide over the soft seas on a luxurious vessel for a three-hour excursion with the majestic Land's End scenery as a backdrop. The folks at Cabo Sails can arrange daily sunset tours, as well as whale watching trips during the winter months. It is truly an awe-inspiring experience to witness majestic humpback, Bryde's, finback and gray whales travel with their families, breach and spout water, throwing their mammoth tails into the air as they dive downward.

Solo Run

Visitors traveling alone — or those who wish to have a little time away from the group — can enjoy a perfect day running solo in Cabo San Lucas. To have a fun solo adventure that is both simple and rewarding, get some wheels. Renting an outfitted Jeep at Ten Car Rental can get you started. First stop: Médano Beach. This is where you can soak in the sights — both natural and social — as all the party people indulge in their fun in the sun, whether hitting up a game of volleyball or sipping on refreshing tropical drinks at Mango Deck. There, you can rent a kayak, stand-up paddleboard or Jet Ski and make your way over to Land's End where you can have an up-close and personal encounter with El Arco, walk on Lover's Beach and visit the colony of resident sea lions permanently lounging and sunning themselves on the rocks. Alternatively, you can catch a ride on a boat and rent snorkeling gear to swim around the rock formations like Neptune's Finger as you gaze at thousands of brilliant tropical fish. Back at the marina, stroll and shop the myriad high-end stores at Luxury Avenue, like CH Carolina Herrera, Pandora, Vilebrequin and Tous. End the day with a sumptuous dinner at Alexander's Restaurant, which pairs traditional European dishes with fresh, locally sourced ingredients.

IN THEIR TURF

Dolphin Discovery is located in a 75,000-square-foot natural ocean cove within San José del Cabo's Marina Puerto Los Cabos. The popular attraction offers a menu of immersive programs.

For a thoroughly decadent experience, charter a fully catered and liquor-stocked 130-foot Sovereign Luxury Yacht from Pisces Fleet.

THE FRIEND ZONE

Planned a bro trip or a girl's getaway? There's more than enough activity in this region to keep the squad entertained. First, set the tone by grabbing a bite and some brews at Baja Brewing Co. From there, vast and varied activities open up.

Stick to the water, grab your surfboard to pull into some tasty waves at Monuments Beach or at Shipwrecks where chest to head high surf is standard to getting tubed. After an exhilarating day in the waves, clean up and head to The Rooftop at The Cape, a Thompson Hotel, a hip hangout with a sky garden, intoxicating views and well-prepared cocktails.

Rip around the Baja California Sur countryside offroading in 4x4 vehicles through Terramar Travel or by zipping around your own Baja Racer 1000 Chenoweth dune buggy whacking jumps and kicking up dust among the sand spit arroyo pits.

Over the top adventure — quite literally — can be had on the ziplining tours that send you careening on a wire over the desert. At the end of the day — or as you're getting started, if you prefer — get into the watersports scene at Médano Beach, where waverunners, paddleboards, parasailing and kayaking keep visitors busy. Don't forget to wash it all down with the revolving drink specials at the always lively Mango Deck.

FAMILY FUN

A family that plays together stays together, but an unruly bunch of bored kids can throw a wrench into an otherwise wonderful vacation. Thankfully, there's no shortage of options for the underage set to enjoy in Los Cabos.

A number of hotels and resorts host well-organized kid's clubs that keep children fully engaged with face painting, water balloon fights and sandcastle making, as well as more active pursuits, such as soccer, basketball and pool games.

The waters have a strong call. Book a snorkeling tour with Mexico Planners, whose aquatic adventures in both Chileno Bay and Santa María Bay will have the whole family eyeing all manner of tropical aquarium fish. Older kids might enjoy renting kayaks to paddle over the crystal clear waters and observe the creatures from above. A central hub for family fun is Médano Beach, where volleyball nets, parasailing tours and Jet Ski rentals are widely available. Many of the beaches on this strip are Blue Flag-certified, so you know your loved ones are in pristine waters.

Famished families can take a few steps from their sandy resting spot to hit up The Office and fuel up with family friendly menu options showcasing finger food fare such as Baja Style Shrimp and Cabo Burritos.

One of the most fantastic family experiences in Los Cabos can be had at Dolphin Discovery, a fully enclosed facility that's home to seven bottlenose dolphins. Various 45-minute packages have guests swimming, playing and frolicking with the dolphins in their own environment. Digital photos and streaming video are available to take home to show friends and loved ones or simply to relive the experience with these wonderful creatures.

With so much activity, the whole family can feel a little spent at the end of the day. Wind down with dinner and a show aboard Caborey's three-deck catamaran. Families get a full view of the rock formations at sunset as they dine and enjoy performances by Mexican mariachi singers and Argentine tango dancers.

GROUP PROJECT: Traveling in a group? Plan ahead! Destination Management Companies (DMCs), like Mexico Planners, can help with transfers and excursions.

Go | Wild

Few places are better suited for appreciating nature than Los Cabos.

BY RICK STEDMAN

All travelers can leave a destination a little better than they found it. This is especially applicable in naturally sensitive locations like Los Cabos. There are several ways you can be a responsible eco-tourist and do your part to ensure this incredible natural wonder remains in its current state.

INDIVIDUAL ACTIONS

Given the warm, sunny weather that makes Los Cabos such a great place to stay, keeping hydrated is essential. Instead of buying bottled water — an unnecessary expense that adds plastic to the oceans — bring your own bottle and fill up! Drinking tap water at your hotel or at a restaurant is perfectly safe throughout Los Cabos. Remember, this is a major tourist town, so plenty of resources go into making sure the water is safe for consumption. Local water comes from the mountains, thousands of feet above. It drains into local aquifers and is then treated. It's not just a good bet that filtered water is readily available during your visit, it's a better choice if you value the environment you are visiting. So fill up your reusable bottle 10 times a day if you need!

Coral reefs are some of the most productive ecosystems on the planet. In fact, they are home to 25 percent of all marine life and provide much of the world's oxygen. According to the

PASSING THROUGH

Los Cabos is a popular migration destination for a number of whale species, including humpback and gray whales, but everything from orcas to sperm whales have been sighted.

environmental firm Raw Elements, there has been a major decline of coral reefs worldwide in recent years that is directly related to sunscreen pollution. While in Los Cabos — or any other beach — do your part by using non-nano zinc oxide sunscreen. Look for biodegradable sunscreen that is marked “reef safe.”

SUPPORT CONSERVATION EFFORTS

About 20 hotels and resorts throughout Los Cabos invite guests to participate in hands-on sea turtle conservation efforts from June through December. During this time, many of the local beaches become turtle nesting grounds where hundreds of hatchlings make their way back to the sea, protected and escorted by guests and conservation team members. This is an incredible family bonding and social activity.

Los Cabos’ beaches are among its greatest draws. Thanks to the worldwide Blue Flag designation, it’s easy to identify which ones are the safest and most environmentally sound. While in Los Cabos, look for these 19 Blue Flag-certified beaches: Acapulquito, Chileno, Corsario, Hacienda, Las Viudas, Palmilla, Santa Maria, La Ribera, Medano Breathless, Medano Casa Dorada, Medano Club Cascadas de Baja, Medano ME Cabo, Medano Pueblo Bonito Cabos, Medano Pueblo Bonito Rose, Medano Riu Palace Los Cabos, Medano Riu Santa Fe, Medano Villa Del Palmar, Medano Villa El Arco and Medano Villa La Estancia.

Beauty — & the Beach

Los Cabos' wildly varied beaches deliver "sandsational" experiences.

BY DAWNA L. ROBERTSON

The tip of Baja California Sur is all about digging your toes in the sand, snorkeling amid marine marvels, napping in a cabana and waking up to the sound of the surf. Mother Nature blessed Los Cabos with beaches ideally suited to every inclination — from the tranquil beachcomber to the active thrill seeker.

TRUE BLUE BEACHES

Blue Flags fly at 19 beaches that have earned their certification from the elite global Foundation for Environmental Education (FEE).

During the past few years, the destination has focused on its local beaches to meet the FEE's stringent eco-certification standards for water quality, safety, cleanliness, accessibility and shoreline protection.

MORE THAN MÉDANO BEACH

Of the Blue Flag tally, 12 flank resorts and hotels lining the two-mile stretch of Médano Beach, long recognized as Los Cabos' safest swimming destination. Starting with Playa Hacienda, the names of these beaches reflect the accommodations they front. The roster includes Breathless, Casa Dorada, Club Cascadas de Baja, ME Cabo, Pueblo Bonito Los Cabos, Pueblo Bonito Rosé, Riu Palace Los Cabos, Riu Santa Fe, Villa del Palmar, Villa del Arco and Villa La Estancia. This Blue Flag strand maintains a lively scene with volleyball and rentals of stand-up paddleboards, kayaks and wave runners.

Bordering the entrance to Marina Cabo San Lucas, steps from what was once the most productive fishing cannery in Latin America, the Cannery Beaches are a succession of small strands frequented by locals for swimming, kayaking, snorkeling and their lack of vendors. It's often a source of confusion for visitors, however, since many refer to the area as Locals Beach or Old Peoples' Beach, or individually as Playa Empacadora, Playa Balconcito and Playa Coral Negro.

Monuments Beach features a tricky left point break and spectacular views of Land's End. It's also home to The Cape.

ROMANTIC ESCAPES

After eyeing the stellar Land's End scenery from Médano Beach, hop onto a water taxi for a close encounter with the iconic Arco, the dramatic end point to Baja California's 1,000-mile long peninsula. Water taxis drop guests off at Lover's Beach (Playa del Amor), a national marine park where snorkeling under calm conditions is among the best in the area. A short stroll across an opening in the rock formations leads to the Pacific coast's Divorce Beach, which is exclusively for lounging, strolling and sunbathing due to crashing waves and strong currents. Be sure to pack supplies and gear as there are no amenities at either.

CROWNING THE CORRIDOR

At Widow's Beach (Playa Las Viudas) on The Corridor, dramatic volcanic rocky coves conceal fascinating little nooks. While swimming isn't recommended, this beach offers an absolute treasure trove for photographers, beachcombers and shell hunters.

Other certified beaches along the route include Acapulquito, La Ribera, Chileno Bay, Playa Palmilla and Santa María Bay, with the last three considered Los Cabos' Blue Flag pioneers.

The white sand sanctuary of Playa Palmilla nudges the left side of the ultra luxury One&Only Palmilla. The protected offshore cove's serene conditions are so reliable it serves as the swim leg of the annual Ironman Los Cabos. Amenities include beach chair and umbrella rentals, palapas, bathrooms, showers and lifeguards. There are no food concessions, but the nearby resorts can certain that, and the whale sightings in the winter add a bit of magic to an already otherworldly scene.

Nearby Chileno Bay and Santa María Bay are busier after a few property openings, but their calm waters, dramatic landscapes and lively underwater scenery makes them well worth a visit.

ith an eye toward constantly raising the bar on holistic living, the resorts and spas in Los Cabos appeal to both highly competitive endurance athletes and wellness-minded individuals looking to continue their rigorous routines while on vacation or to partake in a much needed health immersion.

The recently rebranded Waldorf Astoria Spa takes a traditionally holistic approach to wellness. Guests can check their stress at the door — and leave it behind — thanks to organic treatments inspired by the lunar cycle, sea and authentic curanderismo, or Mexican folk healing techniques. The techniques may be deep rooted, but the facilities are diverse and inspired, including steam rooms, saunas, ice rooms, whirlpools and a salt water meditation pool. The resort's fitness center further connects body and spirit through complimentary vinyasa yoga classes, sunrise hikes, circuit training, athletic stretching and aqua fitness programs. Level up your yoga getaway with private classes at a beach palapa or moonlight meditation and flow sessions that get you in tune with the lunar cycle.

Also honoring Mexican heritage, the treatments and services at Eforea Spa at Hilton Los Cabos Beach & Golf Resort incorporate local ingredients and native rituals. A Living Wall of flowers, herbs and other plants provides guests with the opportunity to actively participate in their wellness experience by inviting them to hand-pick ingredients for their treatments. While many spa spaces are best suited for solitary relaxation and reflection, Eforea is ideal for wedding parties, groups and even children, who are treated to the Cabo Kids experience with custom services, ice cream parties with manicures and pedicures, and parent-child packages.

Resident Manager

Vista Encantada Spa Resort & Residences Oscar Gutierrez, the resident manager at the brand new Vista Encantada Spa Resort & Residences, oversees all activity at the property, including Milagro Spa. What truly transports guests at this specialized facility is how heritage and nature merge to balance, nurture, restore and refresh in five fully equipped treatment rooms. While relying on a virtual garden, the spa's team of professionals ensures the ancestral treatments and rustic practices utilized provide guests with a wellness experience rooted in the beneficial properties of four endemic flowers: dahlia, cempasuchil (Mexican marigold), amaranth and sunflower.

at a facility that spans more than 21,000 square feet. Taking cues from the natural healing ingredients grown in the surrounding botanical garden detoxifying, rejuvenating and energizing spa therapies are carried out in 12 treatment rooms. Jasha also boasts an outdoor garden and patio, vitality pools, an indoor pool and private Jacuzzis, as well as a modern version of a temazcal, a traditional Mexican sweat lodge used by the Aztecs to promote healing, health and well-being.

IT'S THE ONE

Merging ancient practices with progressive results-driven treatments, One&Only Spa is revered as a sanctuary of renewal. Beyond a fitness regime, wellness approaches at this legendary facility blend Mexico's natural vibrancy, culture and spiritual traditions with the art of mindful living. Rev up your heart rate with resistance training at the cutting-edge fitness facility; partake in tailored programs that include one-on-one boxing, group cycling, TRX suspension training, yoga and Pilates; and then indulge in the freshest spa cuisine presented with customary five-star flair at the Wellness Garden.

Exclusive retreats organized throughout the year are designed to restore, reconnect and rejuvenate with practical techniques that promote well being, reduce stress and guide participants toward living in the present.

STAYING CURRENT

Consider a space specifically tailored to complement your time of wellness. Currents at The Cape, a Thompson Hotel, is a seven-room spa that offers stunning ocean views, on-property rock formations and an open-air layout. The space minimizes outside stimuli, so guests can focus on relaxation and the sights, sounds and scents of the beautiful local landscape. Best of all, the property is literally steps away from the crashing waves.

Spend a day at the spa to take full advantage of the facilities, which include hot-and-cold plunge pools, a couples treatment room with rain showers and a private pool, and two ocean-view cabanas for al fresco treatments and stellar views.

Among the treatment options, consider the Relaxing Ritual Experience, which addresses the body as a whole through a therapeutic massage that optimizes energy levels, a lavender body scrub that stimulates circulation and a long foot soak.

Likewise, The Spa by the Ocean at Grand Solmar at Rancho San Lucas takes the sensory concept into the treatment room by including the region's celebrated natural stimuli as part of the spa experience. The landscape is not just a serene backdrop at the plush facilities here. Contact with nature is at the center of the wellness practices and treatments.

Services include spa standards like massages and facials, as well as Body Experiences. These specialty treatments address all kinds of issues from detox through body exfoliations and polishes to nourishing treatments for overexposure to the Baja California Sur sunshine.

Le Blanc Spa Resort Los Cabos is home to BlancSpa, one of the most expansive facilities of its kind in the region. With 25 treatment suites, nine indoor couples' suites, 15 single suites and the Le Blanc D'Or Suite, as well as an extensive menu of services and treatments that include hydrotherapy and salon services.

ARTISTIC AND LAID BACK

Retaining its historic Colonial character, San José del Cabo attracts would-be home buyers to pitch their vacation camp setting amid natural splendor and 18th century charm. Golf reigns supreme in this part of Los Cabos with many well-manicured and challenging courses in the area, but that's not all there is. Just a 20-minute drive from the international airport, San José del Cabo's properties offer easy transfers for retirees and visitors eager to get to their vacation homes quickly. Nature lovers relish the bird watching and underwater options available at the San José del Cabo Estuary, where thousands of species of resident and migratory birds fly high as brightly colored butterflyfish, parrotfish and sergeant majors swim by.

Residents can take their pick from incredibly well-appointed properties within gated communities in close proximity to exquisite shopping options. Retail destinations include Marina Puerto Los Cabos and the shops at Club Campestre, along with all the galleries and boutiques that line the downtown area.

IT'S ALL HAPPENING

Hustling, bustling, glimmering and shining, Cabo San Lucas is no doubt the crown jewel in Los Cabos' landscape. Attracting the Hollywood elite and cosmopolitan travelers looking for world-class dining and nightlife, the Cabo San Lucas scene beckons you to get your groove on, indulge in spectacular dining and sample the high-flying adventures. You can do it all in Cabo San Lucas, which is home to both upscale properties and affordable condominiums — around Marina Cabo San Lucas and throughout the city itself.

Stroll along eclectic Médano Beach or take a quiet walk along Lover's Beach under the impressive rock formations. Many options are available to all budgets to either own or rent, and time-shares are plentiful. Along the Pacific Coast, master-planned communities like Quivira Los Cabos offer residents more than just a roof over their heads, with extraordinary amenities that go way beyond the standard gym and community pool. World-class golf, award-winning dining and an inspired menu of activities and programming take living arrangements to the next level.

Shopping is an artform in Los Cabos, where markets showcase indigenous silverware, leather goods, local crafts and decorative home accents, along with high-end designer labels. Heading to Luxury Avenue for a day of haute shopping can easily segue into the legendary nightlife Cabo San Lucas offers.

An added bonus is that travelers do not have to fly into Los Cabos international airport, as the refurbished private airport in the immediate area allows for easy access to any properties within the city. For a sense of all the options, Pisces Collection — the longest established and one of the most trusted real estate companies in Los Cabos — is the place to go for assistance. They can guide buyers to the best buys within exclusive communities.

Home to some of the toniest resorts in the area, The Corridor also offers a wealth of options for the interested real estate buyer.

Residences at Solaz Signature Suites go well beyond the simple real estate transaction and have progressed to offering would-be residents experiential living. Numerous floor-plan designs promote active lifestyles and are complemented by amenities that include a spa, fitness center, kids club and an indulgent roster of stellar restaurants.

Local shopping is also easy, thanks to The Shoppes at Palmilla and the lively Koral Center, where you can find El Mercado Centro Gastronómico.

hen it comes to dining in Los Cabos, there is no singular or best approach. The culinary scene in this region is as diverse as the types of fish in the Sea of Cortés. Though it was the sun and sea that initially attracted travelers, the delectable dining options can be added as yet another draw for many visitors today.

Tantalizing taste buds has become something of an international competition, and Los Cabos punches way above its weight class. The well-loved and internationally recognized Mexican culinary canon is complemented by a robust global presence developed thanks to the international visitors and sizable expatriate community that has grown in the region. The restaurant scene in Los Cabos now includes European, Asian, Middle Eastern, South American and, of course, a variety of proudly Mexican establishments.

WHERE TO GO: Visit Nick-San at its first location off Paseo de la Marina in Cabo San Lucas or at the location in The Shoppes at Palmilla. They also have outposts in the mainland.

by acclaimed chef Thierry Blouet, who fuses authentic Mexican dishes with classic French culinary traditions and techniques. Diners at the stunningly decorated restaurant — with views of the Sea of Cortés — have the enviable opportunity to take off on a culinary adventure by booking the private chef's table, where fresh, sustainable products are always on the menu.

Located on the Corridor at the Sheraton Grand Hacienda del Mar Los Cabos is the ultra-swank Pitahayas Restaurant. Opened in 1995, Pitahayas' culinary concept of Pan Asian cuisine is a fusion of ingredients and products from the Pacific Rim. Since 1999, Pitahayas has received Five Star Diamond recognition from the American Academy of Hospitality Sciences.

With its panoramic views of the Sea of Cortés and imaginatively presented dishes, it is a destination unto itself. In fact, in 2017 Pitahayas was recognized as one of the 100 Imperdibles de México (100 Mexico Must-Sees), which showcases experiences that truly reflect the country's rich cultural heritage.

SOUTH AMERICAN GRILL

"Churrascuería y Vino"

Sublime sunsets and a sense of playing a starring role within one of the most divine settings in the world can take your dinner from delicious to incomparable.

Fresh seafood — caught daily in the waters just below — pairs perfectly with the fine Italian dishes on the menu. And, in keeping with the ambience, the restaurant's Taittinger Terrace serves as the onsite Champagne bar, offering diners, daters and those fortunate enough to be there the perfect excuse to raise a glass and cheer.

Celebrated the world over for its stunning location and breathtaking views, Sunset Monalisa is a classic dining destination.

Enrique Olvera, executive chef of Manta at The Cape, a Thompson Hotel, has received critical acclaim, global recognition and a loyal following. He is the subject of the fourth Volume 2 episode of Netflix's Emmy-nominated Chef's Table and is also the proud author of Tu Casa Mi Casa, published by Phaidon Press. At Manta, Olvera celebrates the traditions of the Pacific coasts — with a strong emphasis on Baja California Sur. His decidedly Mexican flavors take their cues from Japanese, Peruvian and other Pacific Rim traditions. The restaurant's floor-to-ceiling windows frame dazzling views of El Arco, Cabo San Lucas Bay and Monuments Beach. Designed by Marisabel Gómez Vázquez of Arquitectura de Interiores, Manta serves as the perfect setting for Olvera's imaginative menu.

Chefs that are celebrated worldwide, like Jean-Georges Vongerichten, have found Los Cabos to be a sensory playground for their creativity. It's the kind of destination that has both the abundance of resources needed for the sushi and ceviche offerings Vongerichten conceptualized at One&Only Palmilla's Suviche, as well as the caliber of audience that appreciates the famed chef's signature French-Asian approach. At Suviche, the freshest sushi and sashimi go toe-to-toe with Mexican-style ceviches. The minimalist menu is complemented by an extensive tea and sake selection that can be made less intimidating for the novice by the expert Sake Sommelier, who is ready to assist with pairings.

OLD WORLD OPTIONS

Alexander's Restaurant in Marina Cabo San Lucas features Swiss cuisine along with fresh, locally caught fish, an eclectic selection of wines and delicious desserts. Alexander's is where you go to sample chef and owner Alex Brulhart's menu of traditional Continental and tropical-inspired dishes. Among the standouts at this Los Cabos institution are the chateaubriand in Béarnaise sauce, duck a l'orange and the envy-inducing flambéed tequila shrimp. An extensive wine selection and full bar complement the delicious fare, and the decadent dessert options — like the Chocolate Volcano — offer a perfect ending to an unforgettable experience.

The aptly named southern Italian pasta and wine bar Pasta e Vino offers a selection of traditionally made favorites which can be easily paired with the Italian wines on their extensive wine list. Owner Mario Scotto, who is a Sommelier himself, prepares the classic dishes with fresh, seasonal, local ingredients, as well as specialty items imported from the old country. After working at Michelin-starred restaurants in his native Italy, as well as London and Playa del Carmen, Scotto has brought his talents to Los Cabos to recreate and share his childhood experiences through the tantalizing flavors of his homeland.

Level up your dating game in Los Cabos.

BY DAWNA L. ROBERTSON

ith the breathtaking backdrop of Land's End, Los Cabos restaurants can easily be considered among the finest, most romantic venues for an anniversary dinner, drinks with that special someone, a lunch date or even a hearty breakfast for two. From sunset vistas, impressive wine selections and celebrity chef menus to casual eateries and intimate spots, couples are treated to a countless array of options that keep the romance going.

SUNSET LOVERS

Tucked into cliffs overlooking the Pacific, Waldorf Astoria Pedregal's El Farallón resembles a coastal seafood market where patrons can select fresh catches displayed atop mounds of shaved ice. Once weighed, the culinary team works its magic on an open grill. Elevate the AAA Four Diamond affair with a tasting experience at the restaurant's Champagne Terrace. More than 15 different Champagnes — from blanc de blancs to rosés and vintage selections — are available for you to sample as you learn more about each bottle and the process it took to make it. Savor the imported cheeses and artisan salts, which pair incredibly well with the beach and ocean views you get from the cliff.

Likewise Sunset Monalisa's Taittinger Terrace Champagne and Oyster Bar offers couples the opportunity to celebrate their years together or the fact they're getting to know each other.

WHAT LIES BENEATH

Pitahayas Restaurant at Sheraton Grand Hacienda del Mar rewards couples with much more than they expect. Executive Chef Volker Romeike's eclectic selections fuse Asian techniques with Pacific Rim ingredients. The dishes are paired to perfection with a selection of wine. La Cava de Santiago, an underground wine cellar located beneath the restaurant, stores more than 400 different wine labels. With its rough-hewn stone walls and wrought-iron doors, the place is designed to hold a momentous celebration at its wooden table for 10. It's little wonder La Cava de Santiago has received Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for 12 consecutive years. For a special celebration, book a candlelit dinner there.

STELLAR SUSTENANCE

The Cape, a Thompson Hotel, is home to a handful of eateries that quickly rose the ranks to be lauded among the best in Los Cabos, including Manta and The Ledge. While Manta is often cited because of it's world-renowned chef, The Ledge's menu has proved to be just as inspired and tantalizing. The al fresco dining with expansive views there adds only more fuel to romantic fires. Also at the hotel is the ever-popular Glass Box with its 360-degree-view glass wall, ideal for intimate evening dining and private events. For a more laid-back night of drinks with a view, The Rooftop, a signature space with two open-air bars, sunken communal seating, fire pits and serene water features can take the pressure off date night without removing the sense that time spent together is always special.

Los Cabos' roster of eight AAA Four Diamond gems satisfies even the most discerning epicurean couples with lavish menus flaunting fresh catches and organic ingredients sourced from local farmers. Among these, the ultra-luxury One&Only Palmilla resort boasts what is arguably the destination's finest assembly of onsite eateries.

Unrivalled culinary experiences are offered within four spectacular settings, each with a distinct ambience and cuisine to please every palate. SEARED Steakhouse in collaboration with Michelin-starred chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten dazzles as an elegant steakhouse showcasing only the finest cuts. The tony resort's Suviche offers an impressive selection of fresh sushi and ceviche, and Agua specializes in a unique blend of Mediterranean cuisine with a Mexican twist. For those staying at the property or enjoying an activity nearby, Breeze offers all-day dining. Spend a day at one of the most serene swimmable beaches in Los Cabos and curb your late afternoon hankerings with light bites and elevated Mexican classics there.

Pro tip: Dining under the stars at any of the resorts concepts is a Los Cabos must do.

DINNER AND A SHOW

Go the traditional route of dinner and a show but with a completely different view. Aboard Caborey's three-deck catamaran, guests get a front-row seat to views of the Land's End rock formations at sunset, including El Arco as they dine and enjoy the open bar. After the dishes are cleared, you are treated to Mexican and Argentine performances by mariachi singers and Las Vegas-style tango dancers.

Farm to Table

Locally sourced, catch of the day and organic are standard practice in Los Cabos.

BY SHAYNE BENOWITZ

hen in Los Cabos, you should know that farm fresh cuisine is a lifestyle. The region was quick to embrace organic farming with a wealth of multi-faceted developments that boast gorgeous indoor-outdoor restaurants, some located right on the harvested land. Some are in the midst of sprawling modernist resorts, while others simply feature amenities like cooking classes, an organic grocery store or a tranquil spa that utilizes fresh ingredients. Trailblazing Los Cabos chefs and restaurateurs are honoring the flavors and traditions of Mexican cuisine by harvesting their own produce and working with local fishermen and ranchers to create exquisite dining experiences.

THE ROCK

Tucked into the rugged coastal cliffs of the southern tip of Baja California Sur, Waldorf Astoria Los Cabos Pedregal is a luxurious destination and a foodie haven that juts out of a mountain. A Forbes Five Star resort, their restaurant collection is guided by Executive Chef Gustavo Pinet, who explores the flavors and traditions of Mexican cuisine, sourcing the freshest ingredients from the Baja California peninsula to the Yucatan. Don Manuel's is the resort's crowning jewel, celebrating the cuisine of Cabo San Lucas with seasonal, hacienda-style fine dining. The dinner menu changes nightly reflecting what's fresh and available. You can expect standout dishes like soft shell crab risotto scented with chipotle, Tarasca bean soup with green chorizo and black truffles, and braised short rib empanadas with panela cheese.

Also at the resort, El Farallón's dramatic setting is the perfect match for Chef Pinet's ocean-to-table cuisine. The four-course dinner is influenced directly by the local fishermen who supply the daily fresh catch. Delight in a mixed grill featuring sea bass, yellowtail snapper, red snapper, lobster, clams and shrimp, as well as rib eye steak. You can also enjoy family-style sides, like poblano green rice and black truffle mac and cheese, or tuck into starters like sea bass ceviche. In addition to the restaurant at the Beach Club, there's also the poolside Crudo, which can be found beneath thatched palapas and serves everything from ceviche to sushi and sashimi-style dishes along with refreshing cocktails like watermelon mojitos and locally brewed craft beers.

When La Lupita opened in the heart of San José del Cabo, it hit a nerve. Bright and lively, the no-frills restaurant proudly celebrates the art of the taco.

REVOLUTIONARY CONCEPTS

Like a true movement, La Revolución Comedor de Baja California is based on an inspiring idea: to alter or transform the way a conventional restaurant is run, from its physical structure and layout to the food, drinks and service it provides.

Celebrated Mexican chef Benito Molina proposes a modern take on his country's standards with Baja California Sur as his setting and ongoing inspiration.

While there is nothing overtly provocative about choosing the freshest organic ingredients from local growers or creating menus that are seasonal, there is a great sense that the selection of the basic foodstuffs goes beyond its high quality. The superb service at the eatery is highlighted by the restaurant's unique pairing concept. At La Revolución, specific cocktails are suggested with certain dishes as if they were wine varietals. Renowned mixologist Osvaldo Vázquez knows his way around a bar and is not shy about sharing what he has learned. Though he may have taken up bartending on a whim, he discovered a passion for distilled drinks and cocktails that goes well beyond a simple pour. "I didn't choose the bar. I think the bar chose me," he says.

The effort to share food, drinks and information about how that food is cultivated, where it comes from and how to best bring out its flavors comes across as good old-fashioned Mexican hospitality. But do not be deceived. If you wander down the historic streets of San José del Cabo into La Revolución, you will come out fully satisfied, but also a little changed and more knowledgeable than you were before.

FLORA'S FIELD KITCHEN AT FLORA FARMS

At the vanguard of Los Cabos' sustainable food movement, Flora Farms first opened in 1996 as a small organic restaurant helmed by husband-and-wife duo Gloria and Patrick Greene. Today, it's a paradise for gourmet cuisine and sustainable living with Flora's Field Kitchen set inside a glass-enclosed, greenhouse-like dining room with an expansive patio that overlooks the organic garden and farm. "We don't like to call it farm-to-table dining because we're on the farm," says Executive Chef Guillermo Tellez, who walks the grounds every week to check the progress of his produce and plan his menus. "We're in here. It's like, from the soil to the table. The concept is very unique."

While the onsite farm originally provided produce for some of the area's finest restaurants, including those helmed by celebrity chefs, it now supports its own Flora's Field Kitchen, exclusively allowing Chef Tellez to create everything from gourmet pizza to homemade pasta and farm-raised pork. In fact, all of the meat on the menu comes from the nearby 150-acre ranch where the animals are raised humanely with diets free of hormones and antibiotics (beef, specifically, does not appear on the menu because it's not sustainable in the region). The property is also home to Mama's Pizzeria; Flora's Ice Cream Cart; the Farm Bar, which serves craft cocktails; a bakery peddling artisanal breads; and an organic grocery store. You can even check into the Farm Spa for an afternoon of all-natural pampering amid the papaya trees and the flower and herb garden. Cooking or plein air painting classes can also part of your visit.

PATRON SAINT OF FRESHNESS

A lively spot in San José del Cabo located right in the heart of the arts district, La Lupita is unabashedly Mexican. Rustic and festive, sugar skulls and bright colors adorn a pared down dining hall where live music shows and other performances are held. The restaurant proudly sources ingredients from local growers, features a menu that's inspired by Mexico's culinary traditions and carries Mexican wines. The pièce de resistance, however, is the wide selection of mezcals on the menu.

When La Lupita opened in the heart of San José del Cabo, it hit a nerve. Bright and lively, the no-frills restaurant proudly celebrates the art of the taco, but this laser-like focus does not mean a bland menu. David Camhi, who was born into the food and beverage industry and has spent a lifetime in it, knows you have to start with a solid foundation, and Chef Pía Quintana works with nothing but the freshest ingredients. And because Mexicans are practically born eating tacos, every bite has to be spot on. That means that while the menu may seem simple at first glance, there is astounding variety, but, as Camhi says, always presented within a very Mexican context. The concept was so popular and well received, it quickly grew to include a second outpost in Cabo San Lucas.

LOS TAMARINDOS

Situated just a mile from the Sea of Cortés and the San José del Cabo Estuary, Los Tamarindos is an organic farm restaurant housed within a 19th-century farmhouse on land where sugarcane was once harvested. The fertile soil offers the ideal conditions to grow heirloom tomatoes, organic eggplant, aromatic herbs and greens. The hacienda-style farmhouse boasts an impressive outdoor patio for dining beneath a thatched palapa by the fields. Opt for a hands-on cooking class where you'll spend time harvesting vegetables on the farm and then preparing a four-course meal of Mexican and Mediterranean dishes that you can enjoy afterward with your fellow classmates.

Or simply make a reservation at the restaurant and let Los Tamarindos' culinary team work their magic. Start with the chilis rellenos — stuffed with pasilla peppers, cotija cheese and farm vegetables — and Pacific oysters from the nearby Laguna San Ignacio. For your entree, it's hard to beat the slow-cooked, bone-in pork shank in green mole. Other highlights include the grilled marinated octopus, sesame tuna ceviche and the baked free-range chicken with cauliflower puree. They also boast an impressive selection of local Mexican wine from Valle de Guadalupe and Valle de Parras, as well as craft cocktails.

With a culinary scene that's hotter than a habanero, Los Cabos' calendar of foodie events and festivals is jam-packed. Mark your calendar for one of these delectable celebrations.

FESTIVAL SABORES DE BAJA. Held in Miraflores in late March at the outdoor Doña Pame restaurant, this festival is dedicated to the region's organic farming and authentic flavors. It's a celebration of culture and food, as well as live music, dance and craftspeople.

SABOR A CABO INTERNATIONAL FOOD & WINE FESTIVAL.

Held in late November, Sabor a Cabo International Food & Wine Festival is the region's largest culinary event, attracting more than 3,000 hungry guests to sample food and wine prepared by more than 60 regional chefs — all while enjoying live entertainment.

Held at a different location each year, the signature gastronomic festival benefits local charity organizations and is one of Los Cabos' most anticipated events of the year, thanks to its magical fusion of fabulous flavors with the finest sights and sounds around. Café des Artistes at the JW Marriott The JW Marriott Los Cabos' Café des Artistes is about to turn five, but the inspiration behind the concept and its creative menu is more than 20 years in the making. Acclaimed chef Thierry Blouet took the long road to Los Cabos. Born in Puerto Rico to French parents, he made stops in Venezuela, Spain, France, New Caledonia and Australia before arriving in Mexico 40 years ago. With his solid training at French schools, the worldly Blouet had a vision of a restaurant, where the tradition and refinement of French techniques would be paired with the venerable Mexican culinary heritage of ingredients, colors, flavors and heart. When he first conceived of the idea, the time was not right, but as the JW Marriott Los Cabos was being constructed, Blouet met with Jorge Paoli of Grupo Diestra — the group behind the new project — and the rest is history. He has spent the last five years doing what he loves most: creating new dishes, mentoring his culinary team, designing novel spaces and traveling to learn about new products, techniques and trends, which invariably make their way into his kitchen. He doesn't have to go far for inspiration though. "The nature, the desert, the sea," he says, "the wide open spaces here inspire a sense of liberty."

their imaginations run wild dreaming up creative dishes to offer festival participants. Local restaurants — more than 50 of them, in fact — show off their signature recipes and most requested dishes, as thousands of attendees take in the flavors and charms of Los Cabos.

Past editions have hosted sunset galas held aboard luxury yachts, beer fests and celebrity chef dinners that have all been organized to complement the main event, which itself has featured culinary powerhouses such as Richard Sandoval, Enrique Olvera and Dieter Koshina, among others.

CHEESE & WINE FESTIVAL. The Sheraton Grand Los Cabos hosts the Cheese & Wine Festival every March. A wide variety of local and international quesos and vinos are sampled, while enjoying live musical entertainment.

TACO FEST. Who doesn't love a good taco? Every April, the luxurious oceanfront Casa Dorada resort hosts Taco Fest to have regional chefs compete for the winning stuffed tortilla creation — all with a side of live music and dancing.

SAN JOSÉ DEL CABO RESTAURANT WEEK. For one week in October, the culinary region of San José del Cabo celebrates Restaurant Week with participating restaurants offering special menus at a deep discount.

CABO COCKTAIL FEST. Held in February, the Cabo Cocktail Fest celebrates mixology and hospitality with a variety of events and parties, highlighting industry leaders and sharing best practices — all while indulging in delicious libations!

ith so much to be said for Mexican flavors, ingredients, dishes and heritage, being in Los Cabos is like landing in the middle of a dream buffet. From the inventive and imaginative to the comforting, you can spend each day of your vacation at a different location and not exhaust your options. Whether at a restaurant, bar, beachside truck, golf course palapa serving light bites or street vendor, you'll find what makes the flavors of everything you taste so exquisite is that they are truly the fruit of the land and sea. Inhale deeply, and the salt air intensifies the flavors. Hold your breath before downing that sip of tequila and you'll learn about the subtle nuances inherent in the national spirit you may have just missed the first time you took a shot in college. Try the restaurants, book a cooking class or attend a pairing session. If taking a class or two is not enough for your immersive Mexican culinary experience, then make plans to attend a culinary festival. There is always something to savor in Los Cabos.

AUTHENTICALLY YOURS

There's a lot you may like about Mexican food, but there's probably just as much you don't know — maybe even more. Get properly schooled as local restaurateur Edith Jimenez elevates your understanding with gusto at any of her wildly successful restaurants. The local culinary powerhouse owns Edith's Restaurante and The Office, as well as La Pintada and the newest offering, Tres Sirenas.

Edith's, her first venture, specializes in Baja California Sur cuisine with just a touch of influence from her home state of Guerrero. The Office on the Beach is a local landmark that offers something for every palate — from fresh sea bass and octopus in ajillo sauce to juicy, black Angus burgers.

In 2017 she opened the doors to her latest concept: Tres Sirenas. From the reference to a mythical figure popular throughout Mexico — especially by the sea — to the doors, floor tiles, tables, silverware, paintings and blown-glass lighting, every inch of this meticulously outfitted restaurant is a love letter to Mexico.

Start your meal with a simple salad, and you are treated to a tableside show that ends with a dish bedecked in flowers (yes, you can eat those too). Savor the fresh oysters or the enormous prawns and then tuck into a grilled snapper. Anything you order is as fresh as the day. To close out your meal, order a Mexican coffee and you will once again get the kind of tableside service that started your meal. It's warm, comforting and as unforgettable as the view of Cabo San Lucas from the rooftop lounge.

Near Jimenez' multiple concepts, right off Marina Cabo San Lucas, AMResorts' Breathless Resort & Spa is home to Ocote, which offers a fusion of traditional flavors made with organic, local ingredients. The national standards are elevated by the innovative mixology menu, which relies on a fully stocked bar that specializes in tequilas and mezcals.

BIENVENIDOS

A little farther into the heart of Cabo San Lucas, Pancho's Restaurant & Tequila Bar is named for the legendary Mexican general Pancho Villa and serves dishes that represent each of the country's 31 states, including chicken mole from Puebla, tamales wrapped in banana leaves from Oaxaca and the freshest seafood from Baja California Sur.

Always festive, the restaurant's Pancho Villa Room can be booked for special occasions. Its famous bar is stocked with hundreds of tequila labels (said to be the largest collection of its kind in the world), as well as mezcals and other fine liquors.

If you want a thorough tequila primer, ask for José de Jesus Anguiano at Pancho's. During your sampling session, Anguiano will help you discover how mezcal differs from tequila, provide information on what it takes to make a quality tequila, offer clarity on the worm and other myths, and generally guide you as you learn about tequila and mesal customs.

With two locations — one in Cabo San Lucas and another in San Jose del Cabo — La Lupita Tacos & Mezcal keeps the menu simple. Tacos are the main dish and can come in various iterations, like Baja scallops, flank steak, or mushroom and cactus. Mezcal and music are also on the daily menu.

Humo, the signature restaurant at Zadún, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve pays homage to the Latin American grill. Simple but flavorful dishes include chorizo and oysters prepared over open flames and presented in a rustic, refined setting. Also at the brand new property, El Barrio serves up Mexican cuisine — from street fare to fine dining — in a colorful, open-air setting that is meant to welcome diners with a consciously Mexican sense of community. This distinct energy is celebrated at El Barrio where families are invited to explore the menu options with a sense of wonder and togetherness.

And because little else represents Mexico like tequila, Zadún's bar, Candil, features more than 100 labels of tequila and mezcal.

"Agave is like wine; it can vary from year to year, region to region, mezcalero to mezcalero," says mixologist Hector Ramirez. "I think that's partly why agave spirits are so loved and respected."

Those, along with other Mexican spirits and local ingredients, are used to create the bespoke cocktails on the Candil menu, including Ramirez's favorite, the Nauyaca, which is named after a viper found in his home state of Guerrero.

BEYOND THE SEA

A fixture at Marina Cabo San Lucas is Captain Tony's. In a tradition that pays tribute to Los Cabos's identity as a premier fishing destination, diners there aren't just ensured the freshest seafood available, they can have their catch fileted and prepared to their liking, too. It's the perfect way to turn a lucky day at sea into a delicious evening on the marina. The fresh catches — whether yours or not — are complemented by the kind of relaxed atmosphere that goes hand-in-hand with a fisherman's ethos and the Los Cabos lifestyle.

Fisherman's Landing is also well recognized for its diverse approach to cooking fish freshly caught by its customers. Preparing dorado in different ways — including an outrageously seared mahimahi platter served with a full side of veggies and potatoes. Some of the other items on the menu include the Fisherman's salad, fried calamari, oysters, shrimp quesadillas, whole red snapper, a variety shrimp platter, steak and shrimp kebabs, clam chowder, and a host of gourmet appetizers, as well as their widely beloved shrimp and fish tacos.

Definitely casual, this is the kind of place that invites you to sit a while and have a few beers while watching all the activity at the marina or order a house drink such as the Craft Margarita, which is made with the Mexican orange liqueur Controy and served in a giant wooden bowl.

Agua Salada Barra & Cocina was created by Los Cabos locals with a simple mission: To disconnect from the routine. The menu contains a blend of mouthwatering Mexican dishes, as well as traditional American fare. The fun menu includes sushi appetizers, as well as Buffalo wings, mozzarella sticks and other bar staples to get you started. Patrons also appreciate the fabulous view from Agua Salada's location right on Marina Cabos San Lucas.

SOMETHING SWEET

Solaz, a Luxury Collection Resort — the first property for the brand in Baja California Sur — offers a roster of options, including its signature restaurant, Mako. The seaside eatery complements its authentically inspired offerings with an extensive wine list from the impressive La Cava cellar, which boasts a selection of more than 2,500 vintages — many from Mexico.

And what is a celebration without chocolate? This is Mexico after all, the birthplace of this nectar of the gods. Solaz is home to Xocolatl, a chocolate shop and ice cream boutique that sells organic chocolate from Mexico.

La Pintada is local chef and restaurateur Edith Jimenez's heartfelt homage to the traditions of Baja California Sur. As time progresses and the region becomes more diversified, these traditions which were handed down from within families are more difficult to access. The generations that kept them alive are either disappearing or moving from a traditional fishing and ranching lifestyle into a modern economy. With a premier location in downtown Cabo San Lucas, La Pintada serves the most traditional Los Cabos dishes, known as choyero cuisine, and artfully pairs them with the wide variety of Rámuri beers on tap.

Dishes like the Platón Choyero include staples such as Tatema's beef, Miraflores sausage, regional cheeses, sautéed onion sauces, and corn and flour tortillas. Seafood has a marked presence on the menu, reflecting the geography. There are Rámuri beers available at the restaurant as well. La Pintada has become a popular dining and nightlife destination, thanks to its rooftop beer garden, live music events, uniquely flavorful menu and stellar service.

The scene is always social and lively in Los Cabos, with something new always cropping up. Médano Beach is ground zero for a day of swimming, drinking, playing and simply hanging out watching the crowd's antics at Mango Deck. But as the sun sets, the world-famous Cabo San Lucas nightlife, begins to sizzle.

HEART OF THE PARTY

From funky, hole-in-the-wall joints and local hangouts to thumping dance clubs and live music venues, there is no lack of options. For a unique nighttime experience in Los Cabos buy tickets to a show at Coco Bongo. Part dance club, part cirque revue, you never know just what you'll get, but it will definitely be an experience. From flying acrobats and performance artist displays to live bands, DJs and popular movie clips projected on outsized screens, the spot is definitely for those who want to see and do more. With locations in various parts of Mexico, including the one right on the Paseo de Marina in Cabo San Lucas, Coco Bongo has perfected the art of the party. Crowd interaction, impromptu performances and a staff that is often part of the line-up energize the space. Special events and themed holiday programming add to the excitement, as the nightly spectacle takes on another dimension. Guests can book various packages to suit the experience they want. Packages include the entry fee along with a variety of add-ons like open bar and roundtrip shuttle service so you don't have to worry about a designated driver or try to arrange travel after a night of partying. On certain week nights, you can book a Bongo Tour, which takes you on a guided, six-hour, open-bar tour of local nightlife hot spots.

One of the best places to listen to great music as you lounge, enjoy delicious cocktails and dance or just soak in the spectacular scene is Blue Marlin Ibiza Los Cabos located at the ME Cabo hotel — a stone's throw from the marina. White pool-side loungers, couches and chairs belie a scene that is red hot.

ADULTS ONLY

Baja Brewing Company, one of a handful of Mexican craft breweries that have also infiltrated the American market, shares authentic Baja California Sur-produced beverages with beer aficionados across the world. It has fast become a favorite thanks to its use of high-quality ingredients and signature microbrews. The original restaurant — next to the brewery located in San José del Cabo — includes an outdoor beer garden with its own wood-fire pizza oven.

Since debuting in San José del Cabo's art district in 2007, it has expanded to include a rooftop terrace venue at Cabo Villas Beach Resort and a location at the Puerto Paraíso Mall on Marina Cabo San Lucas. You'll easily know you've reached your spot thanks to the giant donkey statue out front. All outposts feature flavors like the signature medium-bodied Cabotella blonde ale, as well as seasonals like the Mango Beer, Baja Barley Wine and Burro Brown.

In addition to being one of the most lauded new resorts to open its doors in Los Cabos, The Cape, A Thompson Hotel is also one of the region's hottest nighttime destinations. Naturally, the vibrancy has extended to every corner of the property, particularly its bars. The Lobby Bar celebrates Mexico's mid-century Pacific Coast glamour, offering incredible ocean vistas in an open-air setting. Its inviting sunken-lounge design, along with a pool table and other gaming options, are perfect for pre- or post-dinner drinks. Also at The Cape is The Rooftop, Cabo San Lucas' only rooftop bar and lounge, which offers great views of downtown Cabo San Lucas and El Arco. The terrace is connected to a beer garden pergola, where you can order handcrafted cocktails and local artisanal beers on tap.

UNEXPECTED

Beyond the bar and night club scene, Restaurant ¡Viva! at Cabo San Lucas Country Club offers a different way to spend a night out. The Roy Dye-designed, 18-hole golf course can be enjoyed after sunset, thanks to one of the club's Drinking and Driving program. Courtesy of a lighted driving range, golfers can extend their play, practice and time with friends until 11 p.m. on most nights. At the Club, a garden fountain sets the tone for a charming après-golf experience that includes an excellent menu at the in-house restaurant. While it won't make for a terribly late night out, it's an excellent way to start the evening or to keep your energy for your next day of exploration.

At Hotel El Ganzo, Ganzo Downstairs Bar serves up a fine mix of beverages and cocktails, while it's culinary heart — Ganzo Downstairs — can offer anything from chilaquiles, shrimp ceviche and quesadillas to raw favorites straight from the Gachoo Sushi Bar. The well-stocked wine cellar houses varietals from Mexico, Argentina, Australia, Chile, Italy, New Zealand and the United States. The artsy hotel is a great place to hang out and feel like you are living it up celebrity style. Resident artists and well-planned programming mean your night of drinks and bites can lead to anything from a live art presentation to an evening of music or poetry.

In the same artistic vein, San José del Cabo's Gallery District Association's weekly Art Walk — which takes place on Thursdays between November and June — attracts art lovers and travelers who want to stroll the streets as they pop in and out of more than a dozen galleries and studios. The galleries often organize special activities like having artists in attendance or launching new exhibit openings, and the neighborhood restaurants add to the festive vibe by holding Art Walk specials and creating themed offerings.

Get a healthy dose of art with an inspiring view of the sea.

BY LAWRENCE FERBER

Beaches and ocean views, golf, partying and nightlife, delicious cuisine, stunning upscale resorts, and — let's be honest — celebrity spotting may draw millions of leisure seekers to Los Cabos each year, yet a growing calendar of international arts events, local creators, gallerists and arts-centric hotels are fast making this stretch of Mexico's Baja California peninsula a culture vulture's stop on the map.

In fact, those who rattle off Mexico City, Merida, San Miguel de Allende, and Oaxaca as Mexico's musts for arts, crafts and culture should immediately add Los Cabos to their list. Smart fashion and culture website Nylon ran an article in 2018 announcing, "This Mexican Region Is Becoming A Major New Art Hub," breaking down the "bustling art scene" that exists within.

Lovers of contemporary dance and film surely got a whiff of this shift almost a decade back, thanks to a couple of world-class festivals. Celebrating its eighth year in 2020, the three-day Gala de Danza transforms the Viceroy Los Cabos resort into stages for eye-popping performances that amalgamate dance, music, fashion and cutting-edge multimedia/technology, dramatically juxtaposed against the Sea of Cortés.

Some guest rooms serve as VIP suites, with clear views from the balconies and even bath tubs, which led Dance Magazine to call Gala de Danza possibly "the most lavish dance show on earth."

While boasting an international line-up of choreographers, dancers, musicians and other artists each year (Emmy winner Derek Hough, American Ballet Theater's Misty Copeland and musician Sammy Hagar among them), Gala de Danza and its founder/artistic director and associate director, Christina Lyon and Lourdes Tellez, respectively, are also deeply locally minded. San José del Cabo's 4-year-old dance school Danza que da Esperanza directly benefits from the Gala. Translating to "the dance that gives hope," this foundation offers local at-risk youth and children opportunities to learn the art form, plus full scholarships and training to take part in Gala productions and even perform worldwide.

Celebrating its ninth anniversary in 2020, the Los Cabos International Film Festival, aka Festival Internacional de Cine de Los Cabos, has drawn attendance of over 17,000 at previous editions, including hundreds of film industry professionals. Directors Spike

More than just an annual high brow presentation, Gala de Danza supports local talent at San José del Cabo's 4-year-old dance school, Danza que da Esperanza.

Lee, Terry Gilliam, Oliver Stone and Paul Schrader, and actors Nicole Kidman, Adam Driver, Monica Bellucci, Jared Leto, Jacob Tremblay and Octavia Spencer number among the talents who have presented work, received awards and taken part in events.

Another festival to keep an eye out for is the five-year-old EsperanzARTE. Taking place at the Esperanza private beach resort, this event represents an immersive combination of cocktail party, art exhibition and live music performance during which Los Cabos' chefs create unique tasting menus with wine pairings to complement Mexican artists' work. It's a local power mingle as well, so grab tickets ASAP!

Esperanza also hosts its weekly "Paint and Sip" event every Friday night. Participants enjoy premium agave spirits or Mexican wine while giving their inner painter a chance to let loose within the resort's Agave Art Gallery. For those who would rather just visit and observe, guests are welcome to stroll the outdoor sculpture garden any time of the year.

An artful property stunningly designed by Mexico City's innovative Sordo Madaleno Architects, Solaz, a Luxury Collection Resort, commissioned Mexican artist Cesar López-Negrete to create nature-inspired, evocative wood and metal sculptures — including the lobby's gold-on-wood rendition of Baja California peninsula — throughout the property and its 33-acre grounds.

Over in San José del Cabo you'll want to visit the charming and surprisingly sophisticated Gallery District and take part in the weekly Art Walk, which takes place on Thursday evenings between November and June. The district is also home to winter's San José del Cabo Jazz Weekend Concert Series, the eighth edition of which will take place in January 2020.

Here you'll find spaces dedicated to work by some of the most important and trailblazing local artists, including sculptor Julian Garcia Forcelledo's 22-year-old Arte Gallery and studio, and 14-year-old contemporary Galería Corsica. Keep an eye out for pieces by Javier Guadarrama, Victor Mora, Eduardo Mejorada and Spanish-born painter Enrique Bascon, who heads up his own gallery as well.

Gallerist Patricia Mendoza — whose namesake gallery spotlights a diverse range of contemporary creators and work, including conceptual, avant-garde, and cheeky paintings and sculpture — started offering an Art-to-Table experience that sees collaboration between Mexican artists and the area's organic farms. For the event, chefs craft menus inspired by the artists and incorporate produce and meat from the local growers. These can be booked for groups directly with the gallery.

You can also savor an Art-to-Table experience in Cabo San Lucas with Art Gallery Yandi Monardo. Originally hailing from Uruguay, the multidisciplinary Monardo literally set up shop here around 20 years ago.

Full of Love

From celebrity nuptials to intimate gatherings, Los Cabos is the place to celebrate love.

BY DAWNA ROBERTSON

Leaving the work to experts who are eager to stage the perfect nuptial celebration is entirely affordable in Los Cabos. And doing so allows you to devote more time and energy to pre- and post-wedding festivities. Whether you prefer a wedding that's small and understated or large and extravagant, you can rest assured that you'll find exactly what you're looking for at any of the venues here.

The variety of settings at which couples can tie the knot is astonishing. You can recite your vows on a cliff overlooking the Sea of Cortés at or get married with a few of your loved ones while cruising through the Pacific Ocean aboard a luxurious Pisces Yacht. Beach weddings against a backdrop of luminous waves are wildly popular, with resorts like Villa la Estancia, Villa del Palmar and Villa del Arco offering majestic settings accentuated by a variety of themes and decorative motifs.

Those who want an authentic experience can tie the knot at a family owned property like Rancho Shibumi in the outskirts of Cabo San Lucas. Paulina and Athena Smith have transformed the erstwhile ranch into one of the most exclusive, elegant and private wedding venues in Los Cabos, and have ensured that every aspect of the nuptial experience is completely customizable

Couples can host their cocktail under a palapa before enjoying a three-course gourmet dinner at the hacienda, a breathtaking space lined by 27 stone arches with unobstructed views of the Pacific Ocean. Whether you are planning a grand affair with 600 guests or an intimate gathering of 50 your closest friends and family members, the Rancho Shibumi's central focus of love rings true. "We love people who love the land and appreciate it for what it is," says Athena Smith. "[It's] one of the only places where the desert meets the sea."

With that guiding principle, it is an ideal venue for the environmentally minded, as they only rely on locally sourced materials and are powered by solar panels.

The seamless and captivating convergence of two forces of nature is not just part of the sustainable ethos, it is engrained in the venue's design and its very name, Shibumi, which refers to the aesthetic of simple, subtle and unobtrusive beauty.

There are many world-class resorts in Los Cabos that offer more traditional wedding experiences, too. Marina Fiesta Resort & Spa houses virtually everything that can make a wedding day special. Take advantage of their intimate spa with bridesmaids, enjoying a Classic European Facial, a signature Marine Spa Experience or a hot stone massage to prepare for the celebration. The resort also offers hair and make-up services, as well as meditation sessions that can help with the stress, tension and fatigue. An in-house wedding coordinator can help plan rehearsal dinners, wedding ceremonies, receptions or any other event. You can simply take your pick from a variety of menu items, fine wines and exquisite floral arrangements, leaving all the hard work to the professionals.

You can celebrate your new beginning with a sense of place at One&Only Palmilla, which features all the usual wedding and event amenities, like expert wedding planners, as well as unexpected surprises, like the small white chapel on the grounds.

Hacienda Cocina y Cantina is a popular venue for many reasons. Nestled within Hacienda Beach Club & Residences right on Médano Beach, the location couldn't be better. That particular stretch of beachfront is secluded and serene (think: no water sports, vendors or crowds), ensuring the utmost privacy and a sense that you are the only people in the world. ceremony photos, your guests can take in views of Lover's Beach and the famous rock formations that make up Land's End as they enjoy appetizers like ceviche tostadas, crab cakes and house-made guacamole. The critically acclaimed restaurant has been hailed as one of the best in Los Cabos. Plus, it's one of the few venues open to working with third-party wedding and event coordinators, which provides you with the ultimate flexibility.

Casa Dorada Los Cabos Resort & Spa is another luxury property that has prepared several stunning settings specifically to host weddings. The resort organizes a welcome cocktail party for your party on the pool deck, giving travelers a much-needed opportunity to relax and catch up. The signature restaurant, 12 Tribes Restaurant, is a favorite for rehearsal dinners, as it seats up to 100. After you are officially wed, you can dance and celebrate on a private ocean-view terrace or enjoy a luxurious banquet inside the facility.

Likewise Vela at the Hilton Los Cabos is the kind of venue that makes the most of a fine restaurant with all the support of a major resort to back it. Vela is known for its refined regional Italian cuisine made with fresh Mexican ingredients. Treat your guests to a reception al fresco alongside the resort's infinity pool or indoors if that's what your party prefers. Notable items you may want to consider for the menu include homemade Oaxacan mole linguini and chile de arbol con risotto.

A decidedly different vibe exists at the Cabo Surf Hotel & Spa. The boutique beach hotel is located on one of the most beloved surfing beaches in Los Cabos. Having 7 Seas Seafood Grille and Sea Spa Cabo on the premises means you can organize a laid-back event with all the surfing bells and whistles. And with a grand total of 36 rooms, you can even rent out the whole place.

One of the latest additions to Los Cabos' robust roster of wedding venues is at Baja Brewing Co.'s epic rooftop location at Cachet Resort Los Cabos on Médano Beach. This scenic new location provides the perfect setting for an unforgettable rehearsal dinner or a spectacular sunset wedding. No detail has been spared in the design of this 8,000-square-foot space, which can accommodate groups of up to 500 guests. Unobstructed 270-degree panoramic views of Land's End, Cabo San Lucas Bay and Médano Beach can make sure every photo is post-card worthy.

— Hit the Open Road

Whether this is a repeat visit to Los Cabos or you're on an extended stay, there's always more to see and do just around the bend.

BY JUSTIN P. BIEL

visit to La Paz is a serene contrast to the high-energy, activity-driven Los Cabos. Even as the biggest city in Baja California Sur, this capital city feels like a tight-knit Mexican community, complete with a historic town center, cobblestone streets, adobe houses and jacaranda trees. Settled on the iconic coastline that inspired John Steinbeck's The Pearl, La Paz is a wondrous blend of Mexican culture and natural beauty. A gem of a city that's often overlooked, those who journey to La Paz usually return, seduced by the peaceful spot on the Sea of Cortés.

To reach Baja California Sur's eclectic capital, rent a car and enjoy the serene two-hour desert drive marked by coastal views, the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains and rolling desert landscape. Upon arrival, book a room at CostaBaja Resort, Marina & Spa. It's a full-service resort that serves as an ideal hub for your exploration. With a golf course, spa and several dining options on site, you'd be hard-pressed to find a reason to leave... other than to explore the city, of course. Start at the Malecón, a stretch of seaside boardwalk that exemplifies the city's vibe. For the best experience, explore the pedestrian path on foot and discover the diverse mix of beachfront restaurants, shopping and local artisans that thrive along the Sea of Cortés. The Malecón is a favorite destination for residents and tourists, and should be the first stop on any trip to La Paz.

Like many traditional Mexican towns, La Paz is infused with Old World charm. But to genuinely understand the city's culture and geography, take a trip to La Paz's Regional Museum of Anthropology and History. A handful of engaging exhibits will guide you through the history of the Baja California peninsula and its people. A few hours is all it takes to explore the cave paintings, arrowheads, sculptures and fossils. The inexpensive museum is one of the best cultural activities in town, but keep in mind the exhibits are in Spanish, so unless you have a good grasp of the language, ask someone to help with translation.

Then, it's time to shift gears to other cultural attractions. An excellent place to start is the city's most iconic church, the Sanctuary of the Virgin of Guadalupe. It is both a spiritual and cultural center for the Catholic community in La Paz and is a prominent symbol of the city's deeply religious heritage. The building's architecture is rare for Baja California Sur, as it emulates the opulent churches typically found in Mexico's interior, both in scale and design.

Beyond its cultural significance and history, the city of La Paz is known for its connection to the sea. For where the city of La Paz ends, the Sea of Cortés begins. The waters off the coast offer world-class diving, fishing and unrivaled marine life.

Start your ocean escapade with a trip to Balandra Bay, widely considered one of the most beautiful beaches in all Mexico. Balandra offers a sensory overload, a smattering of picture-perfect coastal strands within a vibrant landscape of white sand, turquoise water, red mountains and scattered giant cactuses. The bay is massively wide but shallow enough to spot colorful schools of fish from atop your paddleboard or while splashing in knee-deep water along the shore. Get there early to lay out towels and coolers beneath the shaded palapas that line the beach, and note that buying food and drinks at Balandra is limited, so you should have everything you need for the day. Once you get there, there's a strong chance you won't want to leave.

For stage two of your ocean journey head to Marina La Paz, get yourself a boat and set sail for Espíritu Santo Island. Only a short ride from La Paz, this protected World Heritage site is an ideal location for anyone seeking a pristine outdoor experience. By water, explore caves and inlets teeming with tropical fish and playful sea lions. By land, hike trails and keep an eye out for rare species of reptiles and birds. For the most adventurous, overnight camping trips are available, and if you're the more glamorous type, check out the overnight glamping options. A day at Espiritu Santo, or a night spent under its lovely stars, disconnects you from the world in all the right ways.

It's impossible to talk about La Paz and its oceans without noting the majestic whale sharks that feed here each winter from October through May. Getting the chance to swim beside the largest fish in the world is just what it sounds like: a once in a lifetime experience. After the initial shock of being face to face with these gentle giants, expect a sense of awe and gratitude to settle upon you — mind and spirit. The sense of being alive you feel while swimming with a whale shark doesn't last forever, but experiencing it in the first place is entirely up to you. La Paz is a city of rich culture and plentiful natural resources, attracting those in pursuit of a peaceful life. But the secret of Baja California Sur's lovely capital city, has officially gotten out. These days the hidden pearl shines brighter than ever.

WHAT A SAINT

Whereas La Paz is a sanctuary of natural wonders, Todos Santos is a bastion of art. One of three magical towns in the Baja California peninsula, it exudes a vitality that is downright enchanting. Just an hour outside Los Cabos, the coastal town is a haven for artists, dreamers and those who live to create. Upon arrival, you'll find a Colonial city overlooking the Pacific Ocean that moves to a much slower rhythm. Park beside the picturesque, yellow church downtown, and set out to explore the city's galleries, restaurants and shopping, all of which are infused with a hefty dose of creative expression.

Walking through the town is a joy in itself, with camera-worthy pastel buildings and historic façades around every corner. Still, the standout feature is in the city's galleries, most of which line the cobblestone streets surrounding the downtown district. Some are housed in weathered, single-story, brick buildings, while others, such as in-home galleries where the artists live and work, offer more intimate settings. On any given day, you can visit a dozen or more studios where you're likely to meet the artists and hear a bit about their latest projects. You may even hear the story behind what brought them to town or why they never left.

The galleries feature a variety of artistic disciplines including painting, sculpture, photography, ceramics, mixed media and glass art. A few notable galleries are the Galería de Todos Santos, a beautiful, well-lit space featuring the work of owner-artist Michael Cope, along with other artists.

The Gabo Art Gallery — an appointment only establishment — features playful pieces that have traveled extensively across Mexico, the U.S. and Europe.

Galería Logan stars Jill Logan's dreamlike Baja California Sur-inspired works that feel alive with a wash of color, form and emotion. Finally, Galería Arturo, is home to long-time local artist Arturo Mendoza Elfeo, and Ezra Katz Gallery, houses the plein-air and studio impressionist's works.

The galleries in Todos Santos aren't limited to paint and canvas. If glass art is your thing, call ahead to visit Wendy Faith at Las Casitas for a chance to see her architectural-quality art glass, objets d'art and a line of kiln worked silverware. And a short drive from downtown is Galería N.E. Hayles, where you can take art classes on mosaics, abstracts and more.

You will notice the artistry here extends beyond the galleries. A weekend stay leads you to yet another well of creativity. The legendary Hotel California, with its vibrant décor and festive scenery, treats guests to live music at its lively bar, and Guaycura Boutique Hotel Beach Club & Spa houses a private collection of contemporary art that is prominently showcased throughout the property.

Nearly every street in Todos Santos offers something different. Down one road you'll find silversmiths, on another, a boutique selling small-batch mezcals. There are shops stacked with woven rugs, fashion stores with one-of-a-kind garments and coffee shops with beans from local Baja California Sur roasters.

As Hotel San Cristobal itself claims, some of the best destinations are actually found at the end of long dirt roads. If you want to take your artistic adventure off road — and take a turn away from the visual arts, too — the hotel hosts a series of cultural events, including salsa lessons.

Stay a | While

Indulge in the plush accommodations and thoughtful amenities that characterize Los Cabos.

BY SARAH MUÑOZ

One vacation with three generations' worth of travelers. How do you make everyone in the group happy? These days, it's easier than you think — especially if you choose the right place.

Already an established haven for girlfriend getaways, group fishing expeditions and romantic retreats, Los Cabos has also left its indelible mark on the family travel sphere thanks to its perfect blend of creature comforts and active pursuits. But the destination has taken it a step further by rolling out the red carpet for those groups that have several generations traveling together, sharing experiences and making memories as a family.

Mexico as a country is among the top family travel destinations, and with multigenerational travel becoming an increasingly common trend for upscale travelers, it's easy to see why so many families choose to vacation in Los Cabos. While the activities, natural landscapes and dining options are widely celebrated, much of the attraction lies in the accommodations themselves, as they are not only top-of-the-line, but also facilitate travelers' activities. The hotels and resorts throughout Los Cabos have emphatically embraced multigenerational guests with two strategies: amped-up accommodations and experiential offerings.

Milestones, anniversaries, birthdays or "just because" vacations can reveal shared interests and kickstart new family traditions with kids, parents, grandparents and even several families of friends traveling together.

Maxence Bonnamain

General Manager

Hilton Los Cabos Beach & Golf Resort

The last 20 years have led Maxence Bonnamain directly to this point: at the helm of the award-winning, 343-room seaside Hilton Los Cabos. His recent promotion to that position comes as no surprise. He has been, after all, a central figure in the resort's ongoing success and was key to its relaunch in 2014. Born in France, his extensive travels, which began in childhood, exposed him early to a love of travel, food and discovering new cultures. While constantly refining his own dynamic and adaptive leadership style, and exploring the boundaries of how to best deliver the most seamless service within the luxury market, Bonnamain will now lead a multi-million-dollar renovation of the beloved Los Cabos resort.

"[Multigenerational family groups] simply want to travel together and do things with the whole group," says Gabriel Ibarra, director of sales & marketing for Hacienda Encantada Resort & Residences. Activities and experiences that the whole family can enjoy at that resort include everything from cooking classes to horseback riding along the beach, and the concierges can arrange any kind of adventure nearby, including sunset cruises and city tours that mix sightseeing with a little shopping and more.

A getaway in Los Cabos allows for a wealth of experiences for the entire family. Solaz Signature Suites is a vacation ownership complex that offers all the amenities of a planned community, along with the perks of a high-end resort. A spa, fully equipped gym and premier Italian restaurant — La Deriva — complement three levels of staggered terraces with breathtaking views of the ocean, where the expansive units overlook the sea. A Kid's Club provides a safe space for children to play under the supervision of trained staff.

But, family travel is not just about the kiddies. You can indulge in luxury with in-laws, parents or friends at Le Blanc Spa Resort Los Cabos, a new adults-only all-inclusive that boasts designers suites and a 29,000-square-foot full-service spa.

Breathless Cabo San Lucas Resort & Spa sets the right tone for adult families to continue gathering for vacations together long after the camp days are behind them. With electrifying entertainment — think night with DJ pool parties, live music and performances, fashion shows and social sunset soirees on the rooftop — and a robust array of dining options, Breathless makes it easy for groups to enjoy time together and still feel like they are being catered to

JW MARRIOTT
LOS CABOS

Body and mind in harmony.

Guests can immerse themselves in a pre-Hispanic Mexican atmosphere inspired by healing herbs and organic ingredients amid a harmonious "relaxation lounge".

Our Jasha Spa offers indoor pools, saunas, jacuzzis, a beauty salon, double treatment suites and an ancient Temazcal ritual that connects guests with the inner self.

Café des Artistes Los Cabos is an exclusive restaurant where the most selected Mexican flavors are blended with gourmet French techniques to create a cuisine that is constantly evolving.

on a personal level. Additionally, with its privileged perch on Marina Cabo San Lucas right along Médano Beach, the resort provides guests with easy access to the city's legendary nightlife, top shopping destinations and most popular beachside activities.

For those seeking a more relaxed getaway, Casa del Mar is the kind of boutique hotel where dramatic oceanfront views are complemented by the charm of Colonial hacienda-style architecture and the draw of world-class golf courses. Likewise, Casa Dorada Resort & Spa's inviting ambience welcomes families of all shapes, sizes and breeds. Not only can families take advantage of services like the Casa Kidz Place program, but they can bring their furry family members along, too, as the resort is pet friendly.

Farther up The Corridor, The Hilton Los Cabos Beach & Golf Resort offers a wide array amenities the likes of which have come to be expected at resorts of this caliber, including cribs, high chairs and children's menus that please the younger set, even as they include the kinds of healthy food options meant to keep their parents happy. But they raise the bar with more thoughtful options like babysitting service, children's activities and the Cabo Kids club, which give parents the chance to bond and enjoy quiet moments together as the kids are exposed to enriching cultural, artistic and science-driven activities that will enhance their vacation experience.

A newcomer to Los Cabos, Zadún, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve, boasts architectural features that invite nature indoors and encourage guests to venture out. Traditional walls are replaced by oversized sliding glass doors, and terraces become an extension of the living space. Plunge pools provide an opportunity to refresh and connect in utter privacy. Whether through the art, textiles or decorative objects made by Mexican artists, all guests reacquaint themselves with wonder, as the property truly is a sophisticated playground. The Ambassadors of the Environment program makes the most of the resort's setting by inviting guests to learn more about the Sea of Cortés and its marine life. Expert naturalists and guides turn the surroundings into a classroom, where they help guests of all ages connect with the local ecosystem.

Nobu's foray into Mexico kicked off with the opening of Nobu Hotel Los Cabos. The newcomer's 200 guest rooms and suites are complemented by a luxe spa, infinity pools, private cabanas, shopping options and a variety of bars and dining — including a Nobu restaurant right on the beach.

Luxury — Stays

Stately resorts anchor Los Cabos' increasingly opulent overnight offerings, even as new players keep the scene fresh as sea mist.

It's a timeless dilemma: So many options, so little time. The ever-expanding inventory of services and amenities — from the most basic and indulgent to the downright progressive and ingenious — make a stay in Los Cabos a basic requirement for any savvy traveler. There are already more than 19,000 hotel rooms online in Los Cabos, and a few thousand more are in various stages of completion. This wealth of lodging options, along with an ever-increasing number of flights to the area from the U.S., Latin America, the Caribbean and beyond, certainly make for a destination that has hit its stride and continues to develop with an eye on sustainability and maintaining a strong sense of place. Whether you're craving a convenient base for all your Baja California Sur adventures, a rejuvenating hideaway where wellness sets the tone for your retreat or a perfectly romantic escape complete with your own plunge pool and toes-in-the-sand dining options, Los Cabos has established itself as a playground for all those who wish to live life to the fullest.

That tradition continues with the timeless award-winning properties that have anchored the destination for years and the fresh, new hot spots claiming their space in this oasis between the desert and the sea.

SIRENA DEL MAR WELK RESORT CABO

The luxurious Welk Resorts Sirena del Mar in Cabo San Lucas is a seven-acre resort perched on the cliffs of the Cabo San Lucas peninsula, with a clear view of El Arco. Every villa has a direct oceanfront view. Enjoy sunbathing and swimming at the private beach. Marvel while you watch the migrating whales from your own villa, the pool or the beach. Once you arrive, the view alone can transport you to another world. The amenities will ensure you want to return to that world again and again. Leave the hustle and bustle behind and reward yourself with the relaxing vacation of your dreams. Las Palapas Restaurant is open daily for breakfast, lunch and dinner, with poolside dining available. You can lounge by either of the two infinity-edge pools, which, like the spa, feature views of the ocean. A swim-up bar offers a wide assortment of beverages, as well as a negative-edge "mega" spa and waterfall. Decks on three different levels ensure unobstructed views of the Sea of Cortés. Get your heart pumping at the fitness center, also with ocean views, and then wind down at the game room. Make time for the many resort activities like snorkeling, water aerobics, stretching, bingo, ping-pong tournaments, Spanish lessons and dance classes. Also available for guests are outdoor billiards, air hockey and foosball. Activities nearby include horseback riding, golf, mountain biking, parasailing, personal watercraft, fishing, ATV riding and off-road motorcycle touring. Plus, the resort is just a 10-minute drive to Cabo San Lucas. In the lobby and lounge area, guests can find complimentary Internet stations and a mini-market.

THE CAPE, A THOMPSON HOTEL

The Cape, a Thompson Hotel is situated along one of the most desirable stretches of white sand in Los Cabos: the local surfers' paradise known as Monuments Beach. Near the southernmost tip of the Baja California Sur peninsula, this secluded shoreline and its picturesque environs inspired the resort's name. The Cape is the English translation of "el cabo." This visually inspired name reflects the hotel's distinct personality – a sophisticated and stunning concept, set amid the white sands and ocean breaks synonymous with the locale. The luxury resort features 161 guestrooms, all with unobstructed views of the Sea of Cortés and the destination's famed icon, El Arco. The Cape seamlessly blends Thompson's signature upscale urban aesthetic with a distinctive 1960s Baja-meets-Southern California vibe. Guests enjoy two pools, including an infinity pool with a swim-up bar; a sixth-story rooftop lounge and garden with unmatched views of the city and sea; an intimate spa and fitness center with two private outdoor cabanas for treatments with an ocean view; and a diverse array of chef-driven food and beverage destinations, including a signature restaurant overseen by award-winning chef Enrique Olvera. The Cape boasts a collection of premium suite options, including several panoramic suites; penthouse villas with private rooftops and plunge pools; one-, two-, and three-bedroom villas; and its signature multi-story, multi-bedroom option, the Surfer Villa – a two-story luxury suite ideal for a luxe vacation, private event or intimate wedding. The resort also offers several distinct meeting spaces, for both large-scale and intimate events.

LA MARINA INN

Welcome to La Marina Inn, on the shores of the Puerto Los Cabos Marina in San José del Cabo. This exciting hotel was built in 1953, on the forefront of the fishing village of La Playita. The hotel is now under new ownership and management and has been recently renovated, including furniture, providing a vintage Los Cabos experience with a modern twist. Our rooms have ocean and poolside views and a spectacular restaurant on the grounds for your convenience. For those special occasions or a friends-and-family retreat, we also offer three suites that can accommodate two, four or six people. All rooms are of ample size, with two queen sized beds and amenities. La Marina Inn delivers a vintage Los Cabos experience while providing easy access to historic San José del Cabo and Puerto Los Cabos Marina, which opens the door to sportfishing, scuba diving, surfing, swimming with dolphins or just relaxing at the beach. La Marina Inn, brimming with authentic Mexican charm, features 24 recently renovated guest rooms and suites, local favorite George's Restaurant, cocktail cantina, swimming pool, and a massage treatment room. Located in the heart of historic La Playita, steps from Puerto Los Cabos Marina, and only minutes from both downtown San José del Cabo and adventure on the East Cape. We look forward to welcoming you at La Marina Inn. George's Restaurant is a local-favorite for more than 20 years. Famed for its sea-to-table menu, vintage palapa and friendly service. Even if you're not a fan of seafood, you'll still find something here to suit your tastes, from traditional Mexican cuisine to pizza, grilled steaks and burgers to divine desserts. George's truly has something for everyone. You are even welcome to bring your own freshly-caught fish to the restaurant and our chef will prepare a unique dish just for you! George's is open seven days a week from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. serving break-fast, lunch and dinner, and there is a handy take-out window, too.

Seeing Green

The southern-most tip of Baja California Sur continues to dominate the Latin American golf scene with its offerings.

Inspired by the Sea of Cortés, Pacific Ocean and the rugged Los Cabos terrain, legendary golf designers have carved out their visions of perfection while creating some of the most stunning courses in the world – the two newest being Diamante’s El Cardonal and Quivira Golf Club. Courses throughout the region have been developed by legends of the sport, including Jack Nicklaus, Tom Fazio, Davis Love III, Greg Norman and, most recently, Tiger Woods. Here are the ones open for play, as well as the information that’s worth noting for each.

CABO DEL SOL - THE DESERT COURSE

This Tom Weiskopf par-72 course stretches to 7,049 yards and features undulating greens, demanding elevation changes and dramatic bunkering, as well as mesmerizing ocean views from all 18 holes. The target-style golf experience with sloping fairways offers plenty of bunkers that can challenge golfers of all skill levels. A unique combination of desert and ocean scenery, along with canyon-like arroyos and variation in foliage create a breathtaking backdrop for this formidable course. cabodelsol.com. Director of Golf: Erik Evans

CABO DEL SOL - THE OCEAN COURSE

Measuring 7,091 yards from the tips, the Ocean Course stretches more than a mile along a coastline of craggy rock outcroppings and sun-washed shores. It’s easy to forget you’re on a golf course, especially when experiencing the final three holes, which sit right on the ocean. The waves crashing against the rocks, verdant fairways and greens, and gentle sea breezes make the experience feel more like a romantic walk on the beach than a spectacular Jack Nicklaus-designed golf course. cabodelsol.com.

Director of Golf: Erik Evans

CABO REAL GOLF CLUB

Designed by Robert Trent Jones II, Cabo Real Golf

Club is now in its 20th year of operation. The showpiece of a 2,800-acre resort and residential project with 3.2 miles of beachfront, the par-71 golf club features a multi-themed, target-style course that measures 6,848 yards. questrogolf.com.

Director of Golf Operations: Sergio Castillo

CABO SAN LUCAS COUNTRY CLUB

One of the first golf courses in the region, Cabo San Lucas Country Club offers spectacular views of El Arco at Land’s End. The picturesque par-72, Roy Dye-designed, 18-hole course measures 7,237 yards and is set amid endless cacti and colorful bougainvillea. One of the club’s main draws is its “drinking and driving” offering, courtesy of a lighted driving range that’s open until 11 p.m. most nights. cabocountry.com Golf Professional: Luis Rangel Parrodi

CHILENO BAY GOLF & BEACH CLUB

Designed by Tom Fazio, the 18-hole, par-72 Chileno Bay Club course provides 7,260 yards of play from the tips. The tees, fairways and greens blend in seamlessly with the surrounding desert terrain, and every hole provides magnificent views of the Sea of Cortés. Right in the heart of the course is Lake Chileno, a desalinated lake with a stunning blue hue. This exquisite course is part of Chileno Bay, a 1,200-acre master-planned resort located on a beautiful beach. chileno bayclub.com

Head Professional: Ryan Silverstein

CLUB CAMPESTRE SAN JOSÉ

Measuring 7,055 yards from the championship tees, the well-manicured, par-71 Club Campestre San José course is the centerpiece of the 550-acre upscale community that goes by the same name and includes a beach club and social club. Part of prestigious Questro Golf, the 18-hole course was designed by Jack Nicklaus and is spread across the gently rolling foothills of the Sierra de la Laguna mountains. Nestled between the mountains and the sea, it features spectacular views from every single hole. questrogolf.com
Director of Golf Operations: Sergio Castillo

DIAMANTE CABO SAN LUCAS – EL CARDONAL

Tiger Woods' architectural debut, the 18-hole, championship El Cardonal visually complements Diamante's famed Dunes Course. With dramatic views of the Pacific Ocean and natural arroyos, mature vegetation and native dunes, the par-72 course measures 7,363 yards. It features a long front nine that meanders through rippling dunes, while its back nine gradually ascends the higher ground. diamantecabosanlucas.com

DIAMANTE CABO SAN LUCAS – THE DUNES COURSE

Reminiscent of Ireland's Island Golf Club, the par-72, 7,300-yard Dunes Course at Diamante Cabo San Lucas was designed by 21-time PGA Tour winner Davis Love III. This beachfront course boasts 18 holes with emerald-green fairways and dramatic views of the Pacific Ocean. Critically acclaimed, it was a Top New International Golf Course in 2010. Its 14-acre practice and performance center is unlike anything else. diamantecabosanlucas.com

EL DORADO GOLF & BEACH CLUB

Stretching to 7,322 yards, this par-72 Jack Nicklaus-designed course is ranked as one of the top courses in the world. Located on The Corridor, it offers spectacular play opportunities as it winds through desert landscapes featuring colorful canyons and arroyos. The course at El Dorado is a stunning and memorable experience for anyone who has the opportunity to play it. eldoradogolfandbeachclub.com
Head Professional: Jesse Wheeler

OASIS SHORT COURSE

The second course designed by Tiger Woods for Diamante Golf and the first par-3 course in Los Cabos, the Oasis Short Course is the latest addition to Diamante's 1,500-acre master-planned resort community, which is also home to two signature championship courses, a 10-acre man-made crystal lagoon and a wealth of amenities and services. diamantecabosanlucas.com

PALMILLA GOLF CLUB

The venerable Palmilla Golf Club has been recognized as the "Grand Dame of Los Cabos." Famous for offering 27 holes of amazing golf and spectacular views, it was Jack Nicklaus' first signature venture into Latin America. With three distinctive nines – Arroyo, Mountain and Ocean – the course gently guides golfers through 800 vertical feet of Baja California Sur desert. palmillagc.com.

Director of Golf: Jason Ballog

PUERTO LOS CABOS GOLF CLUB

Puerto Los Cabos Golf Club features a unique 18-hole composite that includes the Marina Course, designed by Jack Nicklaus, and the Mission Course, designed by Greg Norman. Stretching to 7,461 yards, the par-73 layout is etched into the rolling desert foothills, backed by the Sierra de la Laguna Mountains; all 18 holes are perched high above the Sea of Cortés, the pristine coastline and the resort's marina. The Mission Course has more than 400 feet of elevation change. Making use of its flash-faced bunkers to signpost the fairways and defend the greens, the layout reveals Norman's fondness for Australia's classic Sandbelt courses. The club's Marina Course features rippling fairways, undulating greens and sculpted bunkers. Eventually, Puerto Los Cabos is slated to offer two separate courses: an 18-hole Jack Nicklaus-designed public course and an 18-hole, Greg Norman private course. questrogolf.com.

Director of Golf Operations: Sergio Castillo

QUERENCIA GOLF CLUB

A private course designed by Tom Fazio, Querencia is truly one of Latin America's greatest layouts. Its 18 holes span more than 300 acres, carving their way through deep arroyos and resting atop arid plateaus. It is Fazio's first project in Mexico and has been ranked the number one golf course in the country by Golfweek magazine. The par-72 course measures a total of 7,070 yards and features harmonious transitions and subtle breaks. loscabosquerencia.com.

Head Professional: Luke Brosterhous

QUIVIRA GOLF CLUB

After several years of planning and anticipation, the Jack Nicklaus-designed Quivira Golf Club opened for play in late 2014. This stunning par-72, 18-hole course stretches to 7,139 yards and is set along massive sand dunes, rugged cliffs and white-sand beaches. With views of the Pacific Ocean from all 18 holes, Quivira offers more oceanfront exposure than any other course in Los Cabos. This is Jack Nicklaus' sixth course design in Los Cabos. quiviragolfclub.com.

Director of Golf: Antonio Reynante

VIDANTA GOLF

One of the most enjoyable golf outings in Los Cabos has to be the nine-hole, par-35 Vidanta Golf in San José del Cabo. The course measures 3,153 yards and is semi-flat, but don't be fooled by the modest measurements, as it presents quite a few challenging holes that include both water and bunkers. Built for soft play in 1987, it was originally proposed in order to attract more tourists to the region. Though it is the oldest course in Los Cabos, Vidanta is widely considered one of its best values. vidantagolf.com.

Insider | Tips

Get acquainted with Los Cabos.

LOCATION: Los Cabos refers to two towns — Cabo San Lucas and San José del Cabo — found at the end of Baja California Sur, about 1,000 miles south of San Diego, California, just south of the Tropic of Cancer.

POPULATION: Approximately 288,000 people live in Los Cabos.

CLIMATE: It's a subtropical desert. During the summer, the highs can reach 90° F with sporadic showers. Winter evenings may drop to 60° F, with daytime highs near 80° F.

TIME ZONE: Los Cabos is on Mountain Time (MT), which is one hour later than Pacific Time.

LANGUAGE: In Mexico, Spanish is the official language, but English is widely spoken throughout Los Cabos, especially by those within the hospitality industry.

ELECTRICITY: 120 volts/60 hertz. Electrical outlets are the same as those used in the U.S.

BANKS AND CURRENCY: The official unit of currency is the Mexican peso (MXN), but the U.S. dollar (USD) is widely accepted. All major Mexican national banks are represented here and are usually open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Many locations have ATMs that accept U.S. bank cards the same way they do in the U.S. Transaction fees may be higher, and some ATMs can dispense both Mexican pesos and U.S. dollars. While you can exchange dollars for pesos at the airport, many hotels or at any bank, banks usually have the best rates.

Credit cards are welcome at most major restaurants and hotels. When using your credit card, the statement total will appear in pesos at the exchange rate posted on that day.

EXCHANGE RATE: At press time, one Mexican peso equaled .050 U.S. dollar. This rate changes regularly. Check what the rate is when you are ready to travel and once you arrive.

COMMUNICATION: Most major wireless carriers offer packages that provide messaging, calling and data services at reasonable rates. Check with your provider and ask about roaming rates in Mexico, international package options and other travel-related services prior to your trip. The Internet works quite well throughout Los Cabos, and Wi-Fi is a standard amenity at a number of businesses and most hotels and resorts, so Skype, FaceTime, Whatsapp and other Wi-Fi-enabled apps are a cost-effective way to stay connected.

To call the U.S. from your U.S. cell phone, dial 00 + 1 + area code + phone number. To call locally to landlines, just dial the seven-digit phone number.

To call locally to local cell phones (within the same area code), dial 044 + phone number. To call Mexico outside of Los Cabos, dial 01 + area code + phone number.

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS: Mexico celebrates a number of public holidays annually. Except for banks and government offices being closed, your vacation plans should not be disrupted because of them.

GETTING AROUND

To get from one town to the other, you can expect to pay between $50 and $60. Red and yellow taxi vans operate in San José del Cabo; blue and green vans cruise Cabo San Lucas. They are available 24 hours a day and are never far.

Buses run regularly and cost $2–3, depending on the exchange rate. Accounting for stops at major hotels along The Corridor, the ride takes between both towns can take about an hour. As of 2018, Uber is also available in Los Cabos.

AIRPORT & TRAVEL DETAILS

To enter Mexico, you need a valid passport. All foreign travelers must pass through immigration and customs. Once you have been cleared by immigration officials, collect your luggage and proceed to customs where you push a button on something that looks a lot like a traffic light; if the light turns red, your luggage has been selected for inspection. After getting through customs and immigration, you may walk past time-share sales people eager for your attention.

Unless you've arranged pickup with your hotel, yellow and white mini shuttles are a good option. They are less expensive than taxis, but they won't depart unless full, so you may find yourself waiting a few minutes.

Cab drivers and other pre-arranged transportation providers have a designated waiting area just outside.

Just 20 minutes north of San José del Cabo, the Los Cabos International Airport (SJD), services more than 400 domestic, international and private flights weekly. At press time, the following airlines offered flights to Los Cabos: Aeroméxico, Aero Pacífico, Air Canada, Alaska Airlines, American Airlines, Calafia Airlines, Delta, Frontier, Interjet, Magnicharters, Southwest Airlines, Spirit Airlines, Sun Country Airlines, Sunwing, United Airlines, VivaAerobús, Volaris and WestJet.

Nonstop flights and connections to Los Cabos are available from numerous cities across the U.S., including Atlanta; Charlotte; Chicago; Dallas/Fort Worth; Denver; Detroit; Houston; Kansas City, Mo.; Minneapolis; Newark; Phoenix; Salt Lake City and Seattle. From California, there are flights and connections available from Los Angeles, Orange County, San Diego, San Francisco and San Jose. From Canada, there are flights available from Calgary, Edmonton, Kelowna, Toronto, Vancouver and Winnipeg. The smaller, less frequented airport Cabo San Lucas International Airport (CSL) services mostly private aircraft. It is located just 10 minutes away from downtown Cabo San Lucas.
