

Visit LOUDOUN

Get to know Loudoun, Virginia

From agritourism to American history, Loudoun boasts countless interactive experiences for students to discover. Located just 25 miles from Washington, D.C., Loudoun features everything from working farms where students can get hands-on to outdoor adventures, Civil War history and historic homes that allow students to become immersed in the nation's past. Along the way, enjoy exceptional dining, fun activities, historic towns and breathtaking views of Virginia's countryside.

Adventure & Activities

Take part in one of the numerous outdoor adventure opportunities and experience Loudoun by land, air or water! Kayak the Potomac River, zipline through the treetops or challenge classmates to a ropes course at Harpers Ferry Adventure Center. At Salamander Resort & Spa, participate in equi-spective – a unique teambuilding activity that teaches communication with the help of a horse. After a day exploring, unwind at one of Loudoun's entertainment centers. From a trampoline park to go-kart racing, and bowling to laser tag, there is something for every group to explore!

Agriculture & Culinary

Home to countless farms, Loudoun has preserved its rural countryside, which provides a unique opportunity for students to participate in the world of agriculture. Engage with local farmers, pick-your-own produce at Great Country Farms and learn how food truly gets from the farm to your fork. Loudoun also provides opportunities for students to get in the kitchen. Participate in a culinary class at Cookology, make a chocolate sculpture with a celebrity chef at the Conche or watch a cooking demonstration with internationally known chef Rich Rosendale at Roots 657.
