STAKEHOLDER FEEDBACK

Loudoun County is...

Wine Country
urban and rural
At the cusp of monumental change
Little bit of something for everyone
Welcome
misunderstood
A composite of cultures
Cultural Diverse
Vibrant
Growing
One stop shop
Historical Resilient
open-minded
phenomenal
Family Oriented
A place to live, work and play
EAST vs WEST
Bedroom community of Washington D.C.
Housing affordability, specifically how it affects the tourism sector and its workforce

Covid-19 past impact on small business and how it may continue to impact tourism

Worries that Loudoun County is becoming less of a place made up of towns where people can live and work

Perceptions that tensions still exist between Eastern and Western Loudoun County

Stakeholders were most concerned with the dichotomy of preserving the County’s current landscape, while knowing that in order for the economy to continue growing, there needs to be infrastructure to support growth.
STAKEHOLDER FEEDBACK

What would you wish to change for Loudoun County?

Stakeholders had handful of similar responses, but also mentioned other wish list items. Some brought up the east and west divide, while others touched on affordability, not only for residents but for visitors as well.

- More mid-priced activities
- Tolerance and respect amongst the broader community
- Lack of affordable housing in the county
- Finding a way to bridge the division that exists between the east and west of Loudoun County

RESIDENTS SEE LOSS OF OPEN SPACE AND AWARENESS AS LARGEST BARRIERS

Affordability and infrastructure are close seconds
RESIDENTS

What are you most concerned about in regards to tourism in Loudoun County?

Over Development
About 32% of residents are worried that much of the open spaces and green landscape that makes Loudoun County unique will be ‘destroyed’ because of too much urban development and infrastructure.

Traffic
More than 30% of residents believe that traffic is a concern, as the congestion is disrupting the quiet atmosphere.

Affordability
About 15% of residents are concerned over the lack of affordable housing. This presents itself an issue in the eyes of residents, both from the tourism side as well as resident housing prices for the tourism and hospitality sector workers.

OTHER ISSUES THEY WERE CONCERNED ABOUT...

Losing the quaintness of Western Loudoun County

Not enough variety in arts venues, night life, events

A history that continues to be forgotten

A lack of awareness for tourism in general

Too much national media attention

EMBRACING VARITEY: BALANCING AND BUILDING AWARENESS

BY 2025

Loudoun County will celebrate and inspire visitors and residents alike to enjoy the benefits and variety of Loudoun County
EMBRACING VARIETY: 2022 KEY ISSUES

Balancing all Loudoun County has to Offer for all Stakeholders

Visit Loudoun represents the tourism industry and provides a visitor perspective and recommendations regarding land use and zoning. Visit Loudoun also functions as a referral agency to assist county and town staff, boards, and commissions regarding tourism issues.

Loudoun County should be Known for its Diversity

Loudoun County is unique in its diversity of products. From equestrian experiences; craft-beverages, a range of dining options, farm to table experiences, agriculture, historic attractions; and outdoor recreation. All combined to make Loudoun County a unique and diverse visitor destination.

Partnerships in Local Travel Destinations

Current travel trends shows more visitors are traveling domestically and regionally. Increasing the successful execution of partnerships and joint ventures will continue to grow activities and attractions that complement each other.

DE&I Efforts

Visit Loudoun received a B+ in their DE&I efforts in 2022. Additionally, 89% of stakeholders are highly likely to recommend Visit Loudoun to other diverse tourism and hospitality businesses in Loudoun County.
EMBRACING VARIETY: HOW WILL WE EFFECT CHANGE?

STRATEGIES:

WHAT WE WILL DO...

Diversify Loudoun's offerings even further by ramping up the promotion of Loudoun's sports-related activities, primarily by leaning into the trend of silent sports and self-care options to capitalize on the growing trend.

Ensure that all marketing efforts highlight the variety and diversity that Loudoun County has to offer in all respects. One way is by leveraging the vast diversity of the county to increase the quality and length of visits through travel trends such as work-cations and biz-leisure travel.

Encourage industry members and residents to share what they love about Loudoun County through their own experiences with Loudoun County.

Visit Loudoun will continue to build on the DE&I strategies to reverse any negative perceptions of Loudoun County by building inclusion and belonging within its marketing and social media assets.
INVOLVE THE COMMUNITY: SPREADING AND AMPLIFYING THE WORD TO EVERYONE

Loudoun County (residents, business owners, and government alike) continue to support and engage with tourism in the county
Stakeholders and business owners may still lack information and understanding of Visit Loudoun’s role, contributions, and key metrics when it comes to promoting Loudoun’s tourism assets. Resident opinions have evolved since the pandemic and are positive about Visit Loudoun’s work (70% of residents support tourism).

All of Loudoun County feels a strong desire to protect their outdoor amenities, including open spaces, parks, and beautiful vistas. Rather than viewing this concern through the lens of anti-development, it can be reframed by highlighting Visit Loudoun’s role in increasing interest and education around the outdoor amenities within the county. The data supports this, as 46% of visitors want to see more outdoor activities and 68% of them are interested in enjoying some kind of outdoor activity in the county.

Visit Loudoun will continue to balance and promote tourism assets throughout the county with unique support and promotion.
INVOLVE THE COMMUNITY: HOW WILL WE EFFECT CHANGE?

STRATEGIES:

WHAT WE WILL DO...

1. Draw in visitors by creating and showcasing curated itineraries that allow resident interests to be highlighted in tourism material. One example is the CTA (Certified Tourism Ambassador) program, which could showcase the resident’s top five favorite things to do in the county.

2. Deliver more opportunities to continue changing the narrative around tourism – according to the data, more than 70% of residents support tourism in the county. Leveraging resident following on social media to share data in a compelling manner could be a key metric of interest.

3. Communicate the view of Loudoun with all its variety of offerings, as a cohesive entity (with Visit Loudoun survey data) to residents, government, and business stakeholders to reinforce the mission and purpose of Visit Loudoun.

4. Support local businesses by creating attractive offerings for visitors that highlight activities the county has to offer while also showcasing its unique ability to be a place where visitors could work and live.
SUPPORT MUSIC AND THE ARTS: SHOWCASE CULTURE

BY 2025

Loudoun County will highlight music and the arts as key drivers and enablers for growth and excitement in the destination
Support Music and the Arts: Key Issues

Signature Annual Events Draw Repeat Visitors

Loudoun has an opportunity in promoting key signature annual events to serve as a draw for repeat visitors and to remain competitive with other destinations.

Music and the Arts Contributes to Overall Quality of Life

Having more variety within the music and arts scene is central to creating a sense of place for everyone in Loudoun County, including the diversity that exists in the county.

Loudoun Should Seek Additional Variety in Venues to Truly Be a Music and Arts Destination

Continue adding to and diversify venues. Find ways of utilizing the existing infrastructure to highlight the music and arts scene (while also hoping for a big performing arts center in the future).

Enhance Destination Development

Enhance destination development ‘in concert’ with the county’s comprehensive plan for economic development related to a large performing arts venue.
SUPPORT MUSIC AND THE ARTS: HOW WILL WE EFFECT CHANGE?

STRATEGIES

WHAT WE WILL DO...

Foster and support both visual and musical local arts through the music sub-committee. Find local, niche venues and showcase local talent that emphasizes the importance of local artistry.

Integrate the music and arts scene into the greater tourism assets and existing events in order to draw awareness towards how the arts scene can make a big impact into the broader business community.

Continue providing insights and data to facilitate and support with the goal for Visit Loudoun to be a resource for knowledge about how Loudoun County can be viewed as a destination for music and the arts.

Get creative about intertwining arts and history (e.g., historical arts walk).
INFORMING INFRASTRUCTURE: SUPPORT LOCAL EFFORTS

BY 2025

Loudoun County will feel more like an integrated destination with a plan for growth, frictionless flow and sustainable distribution of visitors throughout Loudoun County.
INFRASTRUCTURE: 2022 KEY ISSUES

Affordable Housing for Workers

Key tourism businesses continue to struggle to find a robust and local workforce, many of which do not reside in Loudoun County because of the lack of affordable housing.

Transportation Bottlenecks

Loudoun County continues to see increases in traffic, which translates to bottlenecks for residents and visitors alike. The current infrastructure of dispersing visitors is both a challenge and opportunity for the destination.

Expansion of Full-Service Hotels

There is concern that a lack of full-service hotels is a short coming for business travel and families. In order to fully advance and develop visitor infrastructure – full-service hotels are needed and desired for the long term.
INFORMING INFRASTRUCTURE: HOW WILL WE EFFECT CHANGE?

STRATEGIES:

WHAT WE WILL DO...

1. Leveraging and utilizing data from survey results (residents and visitors) as input into the Economic Development Councils and local government planning.

2. Participate in conversations and or partnerships for long-range planning, including alternative transportation options across the county.

3. Drawing awareness of affordable housing as a key priority for the county and local government officials.
THEMED CURATED EXPERIENCES: RECOGNIZING THE DIVERSITY OF LOUDOUN COUNTY

BY 2025

Loudoun County will offer newly curated experiences that will delight and inspire visitors and residents alike to continue to drive the growth of the destination.

THEMED AND CURATED EXPERIENCES: HOW WILL WE EFFECT CHANGE?

STRATEGIES:

WHAT WE WILL DO...

Continue to build upon the existing business partnership network with one core mission to make Loudoun County thrive in a post-pandemic world and look outside the industry to create partnerships.

Providing focused, themed itineraries for visitors by delivering customized interest categories so visitors can feel less overwhelmed while planning the trip.

Nudging visitors through providing activities centered around convenience. One way to do this is by making it easier for them to extend their trip an extra day (e.g., offer a discount to a co-working space nearby).

Allow visitors an outlet to learn more about Loudoun County before they arrive by leveraging an existing asset (e.g., the CTA program).
