

Little Towns of Loudoun: featuring the Middleburg Christmas Parade

Day 1 – Friday, December, 2019 (Dates TBD)

Welcome to Loudoun County and Leesburg Public House. Enjoy local and seasonal cuisine paired with 32 beers on tap. Savor the flavors this evening in the comfy atmosphere provided in the bar or the back room.

Savor the view atop Hogback Mountain while enjoying a tasting at Stone Tower Winery. Boasting award-winning wine and breathtaking views, Stone Tower is highly regarded as one of Loudoun's newest staples. After a tasting, sip vino on the patio, walk through the vines or visit the different tasting areas on property.

Visit Oatlands Historic House and Gardens, a National Historic Landmark. The property is the former home of George Carter a descendant from one of Virginia's first families and most recently the Eustis', a well-respected Washington family. Take a guided tour of the Greek revival home and grounds and make sure to check out the four acre English terraced gardens and America's oldest restored propagation greenhouse, circa 1810.

Known to the locals as 'Tuskies,' Tuscarora Mill is a favorite! Housed in a 19th century grain mill in historic downtown Leesburg, it's considered by many to be a Loudoun institution highlighting fresh and local cuisine in its historic atmosphere. Enjoy dinner tonight in this historic atmosphere.

Day 2 – Saturday, December, 2019

Following breakfast, walk the picturesque streets of downtown Leesburg with a local guide, while hearing the stories of this historic town and seeing the sites that make it special. Established in 1758, Leesburg holds a rich past spanning decades and sure to interest any history lovers.

Grab lunch at one of several restaurants in downtown historic Leesburg, offering anything from German cuisine at Doener Bistro, to oysters at King Street Oyster Bar and grilled cheese at Bites.

Head south to Middleburg, the Horse and Hunt Capital of the Nation and spend the afternoon exploring the charming streets of this historic town. Grab seats along Washington Street for the famous Middleburg Christmas Parade. Horses and hounds flood the streets and lead the parade through town. Following the parade make sure to check out the Spirits of Middleburg, a progressive food, wine tastings, ciders, distilled spirits tour at establishments from one end of town to the other End the day at Eddie Merlot's in One Loudoun.

Quality, exceptional service and an unparalleled atmosphere have made Eddie Merlot's one of America's great steak houses. Located in this unique community of shopping, dining and culture, One Loudoun has become Loudoun County's new downtown.

Day 3 – Sunday, Sunday, 2019

After breakfast at the hotel this morning, continue to the Leesburg Corner Premium Outlets to get some holiday shopping in. Shop at designer stores at cut-rate costs. Need more space for all the new finds? No worries, multiple stores offer designer luggage. Want to cool off? Check out the upgraded food court for a drink or smoothie.

Get ready to enjoy a one-of-a-kind dining experience created by celebrity chef Santosh Tiptur at his chocolate themed restaurant, The Conche. With chocolate touches mixed magnificently into savory dishes this meal is sure to be 'sweet.'
