Loudoun: A Meeting Destination

Located in the heart of Virginia's horse and wine country and yet only 25 miles west of the nation's capital, Loudoun County is a dynamic destination. Host your meetings and events in the center of the business corridor conveniently located near Washington Dulles International Airport and major interstates. Meet in luxurious hotels near the thriving business community of Fortune 500 companies or amid the bucolic scenery of a country resort, winery, or bed and breakfast. Loudoun County offers more than 5,000 sleeping rooms, more than 60 meeting and conference facilities and unique venues, and the largest adult conference and training center in the nation.

Loudoun also offers endless creative teambuilding opportunities for your business meeting or event attendees. Participate in activities that range from ziplining and winemaking to programs that use horses to teach people how to enhance their communication skills.

An easy drive for attendees in the mid-Atlantic region and globally accessible via two international airports, Loudoun offers convenience and value-for-money rates within the Washington, DC Metropolitan area. Take your next event, seminar, conference, or retreat to the next level in Loudoun County, Virginia!
