The History of Marble Falls and our Granite

Established in 1887 on the hillside above the Colorado River, Marble Falls quickly became a bustling Hill Country hub.

With a population of over 1,800 in just ten years, Marble Falls grew with the vision of industrial commerce powered by the river. The dams that created Lake Marble Falls were fully realized in 1951, and by the 1970s, word got out that Marble Falls was a great place for lakeside tourism and recreation. And today, you can experience the great outdoors and more in Marble Falls.

Not marble, but granite.

When visitors come to Marble Falls, they obviously assume our lakeside town sits on marble rock deposits, but we are actually known for our granite. Granite Mountain, located west of town on FM 1431, was created more than 1.2 billion years ago forming nature's hardest stone and at the time of its discovery, was 866 feet tall. On July 29th, 1885, the town donated its granite to erect the now Texas State Capitol located in Austin, Texas in exchange for a railroad system and labor to mine the rock. 15,700 carloads of granite were transported to the site in Austin and at the time of its completion in 1888, the Texas State Capitol was said to be the seventh largest building in the world. It is the largest capitol state building in the United States today, and only second in size to the National Capitol in Washington D.C. Our granite from Granite Mountain has also been used in the construction of the Coca-Cola Building in Atlanta, Wyndham Hotel in Dallas, the Galveston Seawall, and the Crocker Building in San Francisco, just to name a few. Although the shape of the dome has changed throughout its lifetime, geologists say there are still centuries left in the mining process, and that it is the largest of its kind in the United States.

Festivals & Events

There's always something to celebrate around here.

Spring

Oh, the freshness of spring. When you're not marveling at the bluebonnet displays, take in one of Marble Falls' signature outdoor gatherings, like Main Street Market Day, Mayfest, Paint the Town, Sculpture on Main, or the Howdy Roo Food Festival.

Summer

Summer calls for a splash of fun. Lakefest brings the boats, the Marble Falls Rodeo brings the adrenaline, and fireworks over Lake Marble Falls brings the oohs and the ahs. You can also soak in more goodness with events like the Summer Concert Series and Movies in the Park.

Fall

Fall is the time to, well, fall into whatever suits your fancy. The Downtown Car Show fills the town with shiny classics for old souls and antiquers alike. The Pumpkin Patch at Sweet Berry Farms puts the whole family into the fall spirit. And Halloween in the Park brings all the spook and sugar a little one can handle.

Winter

When the weather cools, it's time for more celebration. The Marble Falls Walkway of Lights is a can't-miss Hill Country tradition. Pair that fun with other events like the Community Christmas Tree Lighting, Winter Ice Skating Rink, Christmas Market on Main, Ice Sculpture on Main, and Victorian Christmas Home Tour.

First stop, the Visitor Center.

Swing by, say hello, and stock up on maps and pamphlets at the Visitor Center. You'll find a bunch of local folks who are experts in sharing recommendations, directions, and all the insider knowledge. Some may say they're walking, talking visitor guides, too.

You'll find the Visitor Center at the corner of Ave G and 2nd Street. Just a stone's throw away from Blue Bonnet Cafe and Bear King Brewery.

Day 1: Dip your toes in the water.

- Morning: First things first, get comfortable. Check in, unpack your bags, hang your hats, all that good stuff. Then grab some breakfast at Beloved Café, Numinous, or the historical Blue Bonnet Café.
- Early Afternoon: Now that you're settled in, it's time to get going. Rent a kayak or paddleboard from Just Yakin to enjoy a paddle on the lake.

- Afternoon: Have a post-paddle picnic at Lakeside Park. There are shady trees for relaxing, a lakefront trail for strolling, and if the weather allows, a beach for some swimming.
- Evening: Head into town for a laidback dinner at one of our local breweries (can't go wrong with Double Horn or Bear King) or discover the perfect fish tacos at LeSturgeon Seafood Company.

Day 2: Hike the hills.

- Morning: Fuel up with a breakfast taco from a local food truck, then make your way to Balcones Canyonlands National Wildlife Refuge. You can soak up the scenery with a hike (the Warbler Vista Trail is one of our favorites) and spend some time admiring the native birds and wildlife. Another great park is Inks Lake - its Devils Watering Hole scenic overlook is worth the climb!

- Afternoon: Now that you've worked up a sweat, it's time to slow things down. Visit Krause Springs, a natural swimming hole and camping area, to relax in the refreshing spring-fed pool and explore lush gardens and waterfalls.
- Evening: Return to Marble Falls and head Downtown for some dinner. Just our two cents, but Tex-Mex and burgers both taste really good after a day in the sun.

Day 3: Take a scenic drive.

- Morning: If it's springtime, a.k.a. Wildflower season, you best be driving along the Willow City Loop for some breathtaking scenery and photo ops. Otherwise, Park Road 4 is a beautiful route to take year round.
- Afternoon: Stop at a local winery or vineyard

(Perissos, Spicewood, and El Gaucho are all great choices) to do a tour, sip delicious wine, and savor great views. Looking for lunch? Rae's, Ginger & Spice, or Jardin Corona in Downtown Marble Falls will do the trick and then some.

- Evening: Hang around the Downtown area and explore a delightful selection of shops and boutiques.

Day 4: Soak up the sun.

- Morning: Get an early start to the day with a little fishing excursion. Lake Marble Falls and the Colorado River are both great spots to post up.
- Afternoon: Pack a lunch and head to Hidden

Falls Adventure Park. There's plenty of off-road activities, including ATVing, dirt biking, and even driving your own vehicle. Another great spot to explore is Spider Mountain.

- Evening: Enjoy a farewell dinner at Bay View. Sunsets are a big deal there, like a bell-ringing big deal. What better way to close out a great trip?

Bay View Restuarant and Bar

4401 Cottonwood Drive

The best of times at Bay View.

Date nights, birthdays, and weekend getaways are all made better with a meal at Bay View Restaurant and Bar.

Step onto the restaurant's patio and you'll be met with soaring views of Lake LBJ. If you ask any local about golden hour, you'll discover it's quite a big deal at Bay View. In fact, there's an official bell ring to celebrate the sunset each night. It'd be tricky to find a dining experience this special anywhere else.

The menu is packed with fresh, local flavors, all which pair beautifully with the hand-crafted cocktails and lengthy wine list. Try the Filet Mignon. And the Bay View Wedge. And Yesterday's Soup (it's always better the next day!). If you're lucky, you might be in town for one of their monthly wine and food events.

At Bay View, “nature crafts the sunsets while they craft the cuisine.”

Hop to it.

We may be easygoing, but don't sleep on our craft brew scene. A bounty of breweries call the Marble Falls area home. And to that we say, cheers y'all.

Sips on Second | Speakeasy & Craft Cocktails

Hard to find, easy to enjoy.

When Danisa Scott set out to create a new craft cocktail experience, she set the bar high—and hidden. Sips on Second is Marble Falls' newest and only Speakeasy and Craft Cocktail bar that captures the spirit of the roaring twenties.

Upon making a reservation, guests are given instructions on how to find and enter an enchanting cocktail lounge drenched in moody, art deco styling. From there, creative mixology, delicious charcuterie, and good company are sure to follow.

P.S. You're welcome to give the bartender a few keywords like "basil," "effervescent," and "sweet." They'll take care of the rest.

Sips on Second captures the spirit of the roaring twenties.

Steps for Tasting Wine

There's so much wine to savor in and around Marble Falls. So to taste like a sommelier, remember the four S method. Salud!

|---|---|
| 1 SEE Evaluate by sight | 2 SWIRL Aerate the flavor |
| Assess the wine's visual character. Varieties in color, haziness, and thickness are clues to a wine's type and origin. | Release the aromatics of the wine's flavor by giving the glass a swirl, allowing air to flow through it. Wine glasses are uniquely crafted to allow space for this step to take place. |
| 3 SMELL Identify floral aromas | 4 SIP Savor the taste |
| Capturing the flavor's scent helps to determine whether a wine is young or old. Newer wines will have pungent aromas, while older wines will have subtle floral undertones. | Tasting the wine should confirm your interpretation of the flavor's bouquet. Take note of whether the wine releases floral, herb, mineral, or barrel flavors. Then neutralize your palate, and it's on to the next tasting. |

A terroir worth tasting

Ter-roir (noun): The complete natural environment in which a particular wine is produced, including factors such as the soil, topography, and climate.

The Texas Hill Country is known for its wine scene, and Marble Falls is at the heart of both. Classic varietals, experimental ideas, and wide-open spaces—here's to finding your favorites.

10 Questions to Ask at a Winery

1. WHAT ARE THE GRAPE VARIETIES USED IN THIS WINE?

This will tell you the wine's composition, giving you the basic essentials to better understand the general properties and origins of wines.

2. WHAT TYPES OF GRAPES ARE GROWN AT THIS VINEYARD?

There are over 10,000 varieties of grapes in the world, inspiring wineries to create signature blends based on the region they reside in.

3. HOW LONG ARE YOUR WINES AGED?

The timeline of wine aging varies based on grape varietal, fermentation technique and desired flavor.

4. HOW DOES BARREL-AGING CHANGE THE FLAVORS OF YOUR WINES?

Barrel aging gives wine a unique, oak-like flavor. And steel barrel-aging offers a different profile. After enough wine tasting, you may be able to identify a barrel-aged wine from a wine that undergoes a different fermentation process.

5. HOW ARE YOUR WINES FERMENTED?

Fermentation processes vary by winery, wine type, and region. Differences in fermentation techniques determine sugar-alcohol content—and flavor.

6. HOW DO YOU KNOW WHEN A WINE IS AT ITS PEAK?

Winemakers can identify a wine's peak years, indicating when one should drink it to enjoy the best flavor.

7. WHAT WOULD YOU PAIR THESE WINES WITH?

Most wineries will have recommendations about spices or recipes that pair well with their wines.

8. WHAT IS YOUR GO-TO WINE FOR EACH SEASON?

Often, wine preference mirrors food preference, meaning seasonal flavor choices will translate to seasonal wine recommendations.

9. ARE ANY OF YOUR WINES A BLEND?

"Blended" refers to wine that is composed of more than one grape varietal, sometimes from the same vineyard, sometimes from different regions, to create new flavors.

10. AT WHAT TEMPERATURE SHOULD THIS WINE BE SERVED TO ENSURE THE BEST FLAVOR?

The temperature at which a wine is served will greatly impact its flavor. The ideal temperature varies based on the type of wine.

INKS LAKE STATE PARK

Some call it Hill Country.

We call it heaven.
There's plenty of fresh air, solitude, and sunsets to go around here.

Take in a deep breath. And the view.

From cascading rock cliffs to dramatic rolling hills, Marble Falls has trails for a quick, brisk hike, or a long and leisurely afternoon.

It's pretty much the perfect way to leave the world behind.

Inks Lake State Park

WOODLAND TRAIL - - - -

2.2 miles

A backcountry hike that will take you through oak woodlands, over rocky hills and to beautiful scenic views of Hoover Valley.

LAKE TRAIL ———

1.2 miles

PECAN FLATS TRAIL ·····

1.8 miles

DEVILS WATERHOLE NATURE TRAIL - - - - -

0.2 miles

This trail section takes hikers to a waterhole lined with rocky cliffs great for jumping into the lake. It also has great views and access to several fishing spots.

VALLEY SPRING CREEK TRAIL ······

0.9 miles

DEVIL'S BACKBONE NATURE TRAIL ······

1.2 miles

This popular trail takes hikers along the creek that feeds into Inks Lake. As you walk along the north shore line, hikers will come across several small waterfalls and beautiful vistas until you reach the wildlife viewing station.

Balcones Canyonlands National Wildlife Refuge

VISTA KNOLL TRAIL ———

0.9 miles

Take in sweeping views of Lake Travis and discover wooded and rocky enclaves.

CACTUS ROCKS TRAIL ·····

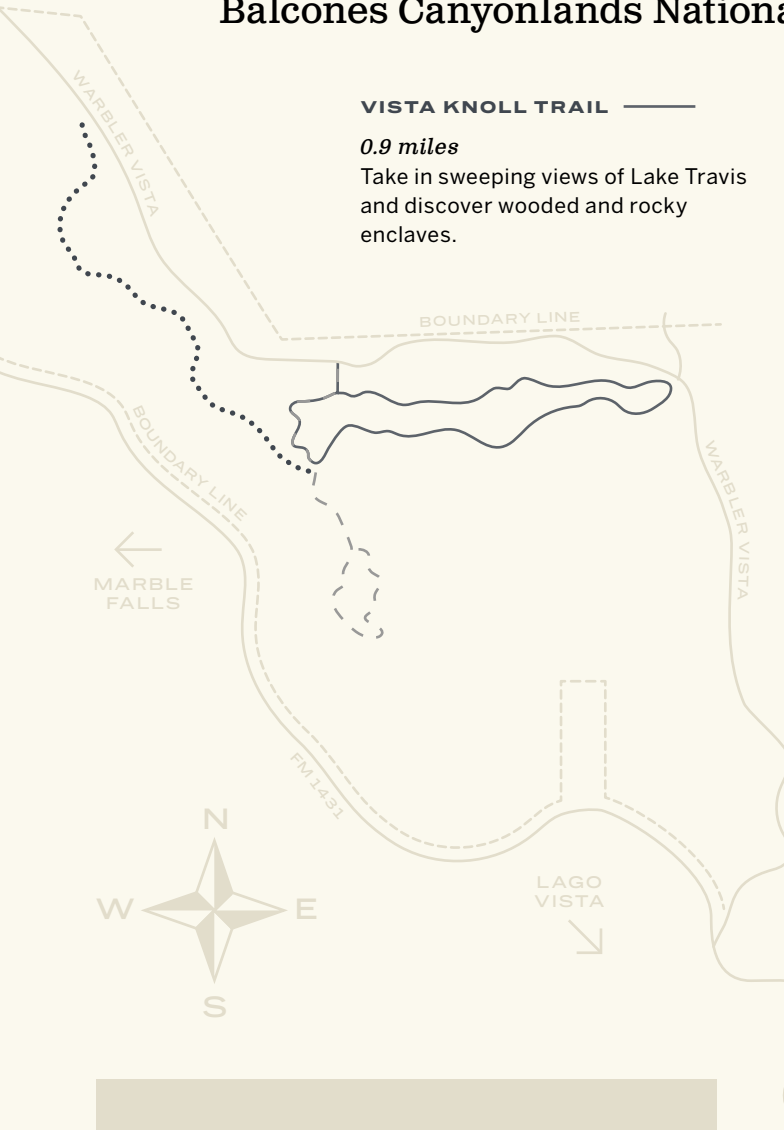

1.25 miles

Explore the habitat of the golden-cheeked warbler—and large rock formations, interpretive trail markers, and variety of plant life.

RIDGELINE TRAIL - - -

0.7 miles

Follow a ridge with nearly complete tree cover the entire way. The trail connects to the Cactus Rocks Trail and the Sunset Deck and its overlook towards Lake Travis.

BIRD WATCH

The Golden-Cheeked Warbler

The golden-cheeked warbler is pretty special around here. As the only species that nests exclusively in Texas, the golden-cheeked warbler calls the local Ashe juniper woodlands home. Declared endangered in 2009, we're careful to keep their habitat a robust and welcoming one.

Day trips, campouts, et cetera.

Welcome to the Texas Hill Country, a rolling canvas for whatever your recreational heart desires. This is where the real exploring starts.

SCULPTURE ON MAIN

Sculpture On Main, first mounted in 2007, is a public showing of sculptural art within the historic Downtown Marble Falls area. The project is intended to enhance the artistic ambiance of the community while serving as both a tourist attraction as well as a unique cultural amenity for local citizens. Pieces are mounted on the median and other areas easily accessible to the public. This is a 365/24/7 art show.

Pieces are solicited from artists from around the southwest. The Board of Highland Lakes Creative Arts (HLCA), the curator of the show, jury pieces in each year.

Each piece will remain on display along Main Street and the Downtown area for two years. Of the over two dozen pieces, there are six pieces currently on permanent display, two of which are donated by the artist and two which have been donated to the City by the HLCA, with support of the Marble Falls EDC. All of the remaining pieces on display are available for purchase.

Wildflowers

Wake up and smell the bluebonnets—and over a dozen other wild Texas blossoms.

When the calendar turns to spring, the fields around Marble Falls are awash with an unnatural amount of nature's color. Yep, it's pretty spectacular. When you get here, be sure to stop by the Visitor Center for an updated map of the season's best spots, or visit visitmarblefalls.org/wildflowers for an interactive map.

BLUEBONNET

TEXAS PAINTBRUSH

WINECUP

PRAIRIE VERBENA

YELLOW CONEFLOWER

DID YOU KNOW?

A healthy rain in the late fall and early winter months can make for a strong wildflower season in early spring. Bluebonnets, for example, tend to peak in April and taper in May, but a wetter fall can bring an earlier bloom.

INKS LAKE STATE PARK

Go with the flow in Marble Falls.

We've got spots to fish, lakes to boat, and rivers to float. No matter the water you choose, you're bound to feel refreshed.

Welcome to the Highland Lakes.

The Highland Lakes is a chain of six spectacular freshwater lakes that double as reservoirs along the lower Colorado River. Formed by six dams, the Highland Lakes wind through the Texas Hill Country, from Lake Buchanan all the way down to Lake Austin.

Marble Falls sits above Lake Marble Falls, at the heart of the Highland Lakes chain. Perfect for swimming in, hiking around, or boating across, the lakes are a cherished part of the Texas landscape.

DEVIL'S WATERING HOLE

All aboard.

There are so many ways to spend a day in the waters of Marble Falls. You could catch some waves (and air) off the back of a ski boat, float belly up in Krause Springs, or wade into the waters of Lakeside Beach Park. Logistics aside, grab your favorite swimsuit and get in.

Just west of Kingsland, and kind of a secret, where the river laps over a floor of pink granite.

FM 3404

Down where the white bass run.

The warm weather in early spring and late fall really brings out the bass.

The White Bass Run in March and April is when white bass leave the depths of the lake to spawn in the shallow creeks. With a legal catch limit of 25 fish per day, you won't go home empty handed on your gone fishin' day.

Fishing Spots

If you're a lake town, then you're a fishing town.

So grab some gear and get to casting. Lake Marble Falls is home to a hearty population of largemouth bass (we're talking up to 10 pounds). Catfish, striped bass, and even carp are known to swirl just beneath the surface too. Fish in splendid solitude, or join in one of the local tournaments. Whether you're in a kayak, on a SUP, or perched on the banks of Johnson Park, it's easy to put yourself right where they're biting.
