TRANSPORTATION

GETTING HERE

Located in the heart of the heavily populated Northeast corridor, Atlantic City is conveniently accessible to tens of millions of potential visitors by rail, air and road.

Atlantic City International Airport is just a short drive from downtown Atlantic City and offers direct and connecting flights to many popular destinations throughout the United States. Philadelphia International Airport is also just a short one hour drive west via the Atlantic City Expressway and offers direct and connecting flights to many hubs in the U.S. and around the world.

The Atlantic City Expressway, White Horse Pike (Route 30) and Black Horse Pike (Route 322/40) offer quick and convenient highway access to Atlantic City. Parking is available at all casino hotel parking garages for a nominal fee. Dozens of surface pay parking lots are located throughout the city. The Wave parking garage, located at the foot of the Atlantic City Expressway on the corner of Mississippi and Fairmount Avenues, offers 1,180 spaces in the heart of downtown Atlantic City.

ATLANTIC CITY AIRPORT

NJ TRANSIT TRAINS

ATLANTIC CITY EXPRESSWAY

ATLANTIC CITY BUS STATION

Atlantic City is accessible via a rail terminal adjacent to the Atlantic City Convention Center. New Jersey Transit and Greyhound offers bus service to and from New York City, Philadelphia and other major cities from a bus terminal located at Atlantic and Ohio avenues.

Once in Atlantic City, finding your way around town is a breeze, thanks to our world-famous and environmentally-friendly Jitney service. All Jitneys, now operated fully by compressed natural gas, are available 24 hours a day throughout the year for a single ride fair of $2.25. Jitney routes run along Pacific Avenue from the Inlet to Jackson Avenue and throughout the Marina District. Frequent rider tickets are available at a discounted rate.

Taxi service is also easily available throughout the city, with a maximum fare of just $13 per ride between any two points within the City's borders.

Boardwalk Trams and Rolling Chairs are available on the Boardwalk. Rates vary according to season.

ATLANTIC CITY JITNEYS, ROLLING CHAIRS AND TRAMS

JITNEYS

Jitneys are an Atlantic City icon that have served the City for over a century. Atlantic City jitneys are 13-passenger mini-buses that travel the entire city, running from the inlet to Jackson Avenue and the Marina area to Pacific Avenue. A jitney ride costs $2.25 and discounts are available for seniors and frequent riders. Jitneys are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week and 365 days per year – or even 366 days if it's a leap year. The jitney stops are located on each block corner of Pacific Avenue.

From the touring cars of 1915, to today's state of the art fleet, Atlantic City's jitneys have continued to bring innovation and change to the concept of public transportation, now celebrating over 100 years.

ROLLING CHAIRS

Rolling chairs, a throwback to Atlantic City's heydays, are powered by an attendant and available from 8 a.m. to 1 a.m. Sunday through Thursday and 8 a.m. to 4 a.m. on Friday & Saturday. Rates are charged by the block or amount of time traveled. For one or two passengers, a trip of 0 to 5 blocks start at $5 and increases from there. A half-hour tour can run $30 and an hour costs approximately $40. These rates do not include tip. A rolling chair ride on the Boardwalk is a great way to get to a particular destination or to relax and enjoy a scenic tour. The rolling chair was introduced in the 1880s and was the only vehicle permitted on the Boardwalk at the time. Rolling chairs were originally used by handicapped persons, and the practice grew to include visitors wishing to use this leisurely form of transportation. They became a preferred mode of Boardwalk transportation, a tradition that continues to this day.

BOARDWALK TRAM

The 15-passenger electric tram cars travel the entire length of the Atlantic City Boardwalk. Tram cars are available, Sunday - Friday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Friday & Saturday - 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. The fare for a tram car ride is $4 for a one-way ride ($2 for children under 12) and $10 for an all-day pass ($5 for children under 12.)

The electric motor trams were first introduced on the Boardwalk in the 1940's but had completely disappeared by the 1990's due to the popular use of the rolling chairs.

BEACH AND Boardwalk

In 1850, a local physician named Dr. Jonathan Pitney sought to develop a resort in what is now Atlantic City thanks to the island's cool breezes, healthy air and refreshing waters. More than 170 years later, the Atlantic Ocean and its soft, free sandy beaches are still a magnet that draws millions of visitors and residents to this seaside resort during the warm summer months.

The world-famous Atlantic City Boardwalk, the first incarnation of which was built in 1870, was originally constructed in order to help adjacent hotels keep sand out of their lobbies. Over the years, the Boardwalk has grown to its current length of 5.5 miles, 1.5 miles of which stretches into the neighboring town of Ventnor.

The Boardwalk is also home to many novelty shops, eateries, amusement piers, volleyball courts, beach bars and casino hotel properties, and plays host to dozens of seasonal events including concerts, parades, festivals, competitions and more.

The official Atlantic City visitor information center is located on the Boardwalk at Mississippi Avenue inside historic Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall.

Each summer the Boardwalk welcomes hundreds of thousands of spectators for the annual Atlantic City Airshow, which features an amazing array of stunts and breathtaking aeronautic maneuvers by an exciting list of military, commercial and private acts.

If you'd prefer to see Atlantic City with pedal power, check out an Atlantic City bike rental and cruise up and down the 5-mile Boardwalk between 6 a.m. and 12 Noon year-round and 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. from October 15 to May 15. From Albany to Jackson Avenues, hours are 6 a.m. to 12 Noon on Saturdays and Sundays from July 1 through Labor Day and 24-hours all other days. 24-hour bicycling is also permitted from Connecticut Avenue to Gardner's Basin year-round. There are shops to browse, sea views to admire and plenty of restaurants to enjoy. Biking is also a great way to get around town and take in Atlantic City's true atmosphere.

TOP 10 things to do in Atlantic City

Atlantic City offers a plethora of exciting things to experience. Check out our 10 top:

MURALS

Atlantic City is home to numerous murals with additional ones to come. A few of the unique and beautiful pieces include, "Before I Die" which features fill-in-the-blank lines where a person can add their bucket-list item to the wall and the "Jelly Fish," an optical illusion mural wherein the tentacles of the jellyfish appear to move when using red and blue 3D glasses. Visit www.atlanticcityartsfoundation.org/murals to see the map showing each mural location.

MEMORIALS

Atlantic City is home to some of the most unparalleled and unique memorials dedicated to humanity.

- "In The Line of Duty" - First Responders & 9/11 Memorial features a 7' tall bronze casted statue of a police officer, a fireman and K9 officer mounted on a 6'x4' granite disc. A second monument shows two marble pedestals with the first displaying a police shield on top of the pedestal while the other has a firefighter's helmet.

Location: Boardwalk at St. James Place between Tennessee and New York Avenues

- The Civil Rights Garden Features a winding brick path through a garden of seasonal plants, flowers and ginkgo trees, along with eleven black African granite columns. The path represents the long journey of African-Americans to achieve freedom and equal rights. Inscribed on the columns are quotes from dozens of historical figures, with the central column featuring an upraised hand and a large, bronze bell hovering over a reflecting pool.

Location: Pacific Avenue and Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard

- The New Jersey Korean War Memorial features a sculpture of a group of soldiers under fire, a soldier and nurse helping a wounded soldier and a 12-foot tall statue of “the Mourning Soldier” clutching dog tags from fallen soldiers. The back wall of the memorial, beneath an eternal flame, are the names of the 822 New Jerseyans who were killed or still missing in action, as well as a wall honoring the five New Jersey servicemen who were awarded the Medal of Honor for heroism. Location: Brighton Park

- The Saracini-O'Neill Atlantic City 9/11 Memorial was constructed in remembrance of those individuals who perished on September 11, 2001, as well as those whose lives were lost in subsequent military response to worldwide terrorism. It consists of a piece of World Trade Center steel set in a stone wall with memorial plaques mounted on each side. There are also two benches dedicated to Atlantic City natives, Captain Victor Saracini, United Flight #175 pilot and John O'Neill, head of security at the World Trade Center. Location: Jackson Avenue and Boardwalk

- The World War I Memorial was modeled after a Greek Temple and measures 124 feet in diameter and consists of 16 large Doric columns. The rotunda houses a 9' tall bronze statue titled “Liberty in Distress” and the names of battles in which Atlantic City soldiers fought are etched in the top along with medallions of four of the armed forces. Location: S. Albany and Ventnor Avenues

Steel Pier

Steel Pier is one of the most historic and iconic landmarks in Atlantic City and features rides, games and multiple food options. Steel Pier also offers helicopter rides, boasts a custom carousel depicting scenes from the city's history and is home to The Wheel, which is 227 feet tall and has 40 temperature-controlled gondolas. Steel Pier is also home to AC Axe & Pub, where guests can experience the thrill of axe throwing with family and friends.

Location: Virginia Avenue @ Boardwalk; (609) 345-4893; www.steelpier.com

Absecon Lighthouse

Designed by Civil War General George Meade and built in 1857, the Absecon Lighthouse is New Jersey's tallest lighthouse. Visitors who climb the 228-step historic structure will be rewarded with a bird's eye view of Atlantic City's dazzling skyline and back bay. The lighthouse still has its original first-order Fresnel Lens in place.

Location: Rhode Island and Pacific Aves.;
(609) 449-1360; www.abseconlighthouse.org

Gardner's Basin

Nestled on a protected channel along the back bays, directly across from the state marina and Coast Guard station, this maritime park replaces the hustle and bustle of the Boardwalk with a different type of activity. Sightseeing, dolphin watching and fishing cruises come and go from the docks, eateries serve up seafood and ale house brews and the Atlantic City Aquarium offers feeding and live animal shows for all to enjoy.

Location: 800 N. New Hampshire Avenue;

The Anthony Bourdain Food Trail (Atlantic City)

A Jersey boy at heart, The Anthony Bourdain Food Trail pays homage to his childhood growing up in Leonia, New Jersey and summers spent at the Jersey Shore. The trail spotlights the locations featured on CNN's Emmy Award-winning Anthony Bourdain: Parts Unknown.

- Knife and Fork Inn
- Dock's Oyster House
- Tony's Baltimore Grill
- James' Salt Water Taffy

Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall

A 2019 lobby renovation included the addition of the "Atlantic City Experience," which provides an interactive timeline with movable partitions and a mini theater with video clips highlighting key dates in the City's rich past. There are also several historic display cases and touch screens with hundreds of archival images of Atlantic City. While there, partake in a tour and hear a recital on the world's largest pipe organ.

Location: 2301 Boardwalk;
(609) 348-7000;

Tanger Outlets

Tanger Outlets is a 15-city block retail and dining district which includes Coach, Kate Spade New York, Aldo, H&M, Nike, Pandora, Michael Kors, Crocs, Ruth's Chris Steakhouse, Under Armour and the Beef Jerky Outlet just to name a few. Providing the area's largest selection of quality gear for hunting, fishing, camping, boating, and more, Bass Pro Shops also features a wide variety of wildlife mounts and a large aquarium, offering a unique experience for the entire family.

Location: 2014 Baltic Avenue; (609) 343-0081; www.tangeroutlet.com/atlanticcity

The Beach and Boardwalk

No trip to Atlantic City is complete without a trip to the world-famous Boardwalk and free, sandy beach.

Steel Pier Observation Wheel

THE FUN DOESN'T STOP

Spanning out over the Atlantic Ocean, families will love the iconic Steel Pier amusement park, which offers loads of fun with more than 25 child-themed and extreme rides, games, food and a family pub and bar overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. A 227' Observation Wheel with 40 climate-controlled gondolas gives the ultimate skyhigh view of the city. Put the pedal to the metal with exciting go-kart racing at Central Pier or test your skill with 18 holes of miniature golf at Kennedy Plaza across from Historic Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall. Historic Gardner's Basin features the popular Ocean Life Center and Aquarium, which is a 14,000-square-foot, three-story marine life educational center, as well as restaurants with bay-front views, and boating and fishing excursions.

Attractions

While on the Boardwalk you can excite your senses and take a helicopter flight high above the Atlantic City shoreline right at the fun-filled Steel Pier. Step into the bizarre and strange world that is Ripley's Believe it or Not! and reflect at the Korean War Memorial at Park Place.

Visit a unique piece of nautical history at the Historic Absecon Lighthouse, which opened in 1857 and helped mariners navigate the tricky shoreline. Located one block off the Boardwalk at Rhode Island and Pacific Avenues, visitors can climb the lighthouse's 228 steps to the summit, the highest in New Jersey at 171 feet, where breathtaking panoramic views of Atlantic City, the ocean and its surroundings await.

Take time to see the works of local artisans and explore the rich history on display at the African American Heritage Museum of Southern New Jersey at The Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University.

The fun and excitement doesn't stop at Atlantic City's borders, as many nearby attractions are sure to please.

Lucy the Elephant is just a short trip to Margate, while the charming Historic Towne of Smithville takes you back in time and is famous for its unique shops, eateries and children's activities. Storybook Land keeps the spirit of childhood alive with 20 acres of entertainment and educational fun. Popular seaside resorts, such as Ocean City, Wildwood, Cape May, and more are just short drives along the Garden State Parkway. The Forsythe National Wildlife Refuge and state parks, such as Estell

Manor and Batsto, offer nature enthusiasts the chance to hike, camp, picnic, canoe and enjoy the majesty of the Pine Barrens in all its glory.

The greater Atlantic City region is also the place to be for golf. With 20 championship-caliber courses within a short, 30-minute commute, our courses offer the tranquil beauty of wetlands, stunning bay views, challenging topography with deep ravines, rolling fairways, stretches of sand bunkers, tall pine trees and majestic vineyards. Visit www.AtlanticCityNJ.com for a large selection of golf packages that will fit any budget and vacation length.

SOUTH JERSEY WINERIES, BREWRIES & DISTILLERIES

Atlantic City area wineries, craft breweries, and distilleries boast award-winning beers, wines and spirits including sparkling wines, chardonnay, and cabernet sauvignon that can compete with vintners from the West Coast and abroad. The Atlantic City region is rich with vineyards offering picturesque tours and tastings.

Where better to get your fill of blueberry, peach, cranberry, apple, sugarplum and sour cherry vintages than in the heart of the Pine Barrens and the sandy soils of Southern New Jersey!

Located in the heart of prohibition-unfriendly Atlantic City, Little Water Distillery is a craft distillery founded by brothers Mark and Eric Ganter, producing quality spirits including LIBERTY RUM, PROSPERITY RUM, WHITECAP WHISKEY, 48 BLOCKS VODKA and RUSTED REVOLVER GIN for thirsty souls in the Garden State and beyond.

ATLANTIC CITY GOLF COURSES PROVIDE CHALLENGES FOR PROS AND BEGINNERS

How good is Atlantic City golf?

Good enough to earn a “Top 10 Golf Cities in America” designation from ForbesTraveler.com. Not to mention most of the area’s 20 courses made it on to the “best places to play” list in Golf Digest. Atlantic City, NJ isn’t the kind of place where you just play one round and go home. Wake up, play 18 or 36 holes, eat dinner in a beachside restaurant, then catch a show, check out the wild nightlife and finally retire to your well-appointed hotel room. Rest and repeat until you’ve exhausted all of the championship golf that the region has to offer. Start planning your next golf getaway in Atlantic City.

AREA PARKS and Forests

THE NATURE OF ATLANTIC CITY

Atlantic City is much more than just a cosmopolitan escape. Venture into the surrounding area and you'll find unique natural treasures that don't get the recognition they deserve. If you're looking to add a bit of the outdoors to your AC trip, check out these awesome spots for great views and recreation.

Parks

For true outdoor experiences near Atlantic City, parks throughout the area offer something for everyone. Whether you love to hike, bike, paddle, fish or just observe some of the region's wonderful wildlife, you'll find plenty to do here.

Lake Lenape Park in Mays Landing has a two-mile paved hiking and biking trail with plenty of opportunities for wildlife sightings and gorgeous lake views. The park sometimes offers guided hikes, which provide an overview of the park's local flora and fauna.

Atlantic County Park at Estell Manor spans roughly 1,700 acres and includes facilities for just about every type of outdoor recreation. Roll or stroll along the 20 miles of hiking trails, paved exercise trails or the unique Swamp Trail Boardwalk--when it snows, these trails become cross-country skiing routes. Show off your athleticism on the soccer field, softball field or sand volleyball courts. Take to the water with canoeing and kayaking on Stephen's Creek or the South River. Try your hand at fishing (licenses are only required for the freshwater ponds). Or you can simply relax all day with a picnic and spend the night at a campground.

Cape May National Wildlife Refuge is a stunning natural retreat that's ideal for wildlife watching, fishing and walking. The 11,000-acre area is particularly suited to birdwatching and many interesting species are found here, including the peregrine falcon, American woodcock and piping plover.

Corson's Inlet State Park packs a lot into its 340 acres--a stretch of pristine untouched oceanfront, diverse wildlife, sand dunes, estuaries and more. Boating is a popular activity at Corson's Inlet--watercraft of all types are permitted, but all users are subject to New Jersey Boating Regulations. The sand dunes harbor nests for piping plovers, least terns, black skimmers and other shorebird and waterfowl, making for an excellent birding destination. Other outdoor activities include fishing and hiking.

Forests

The Southern New Jersey Pinelands are forested treasures that are ripe for exploration.

Wharton State Forest is the largest state forest in New Jersey with more than 115,000 acres of woodlands, bogs, hiking trails and unpaved roads perfect for horseback riding, mountain biking or just cruising. Just 30 minutes from Atlantic City, this gem features cozy cabins as well as campsites that range from well-appointed to primitive. Hikers should ascend to Apple Pie Hill for sublime views. Boaters will find Mullica River enjoyable, especially by canoe or kayak.

Belleplain State Forest is gorgeous 21,000 acres of pine, oak and cedar woodlands and swamps. A former Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) site in the 1930s, Belleplain also features some interesting architecture. Outdoorsy folks will find more than 40 miles of hiking and biking trails to enjoy within the forest, as well as hunting, fishing, boating and swimming opportunities. Visitors can spend the night in a cozy cabin or yurt, or choose from more than 150 tent camping and RV sites complete with flush toilets, showers and laundry facilities.

At Edwin B. Forstythe National Wildlife Refuge enjoy year-round wildlife viewing opportunities. This coastal habitat is visited by 275 species of birds, including rare birds like the piping plover.

No matter how you want to enjoy the outdoors, Atlantic City's surroundings have a nature experience you'll love.

ATLANTIC CITY

Entertainment

Year in and year out, the entertainment industry's leading performers, acts, shows and concerts call Atlantic City home, thanks to the city's world-class entertainment facilities and venues.

Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall is one of the top grossing, mid-sized arenas in North America and it routinely hosts many of the hottest acts in entertainment. The Hall has hosted major acts over the years, most recent acts include 21 Pilots, Jonas Brothers, Tool, Janet Jackson, Florida Georgia Line, Rod Stewart, Post Malone, Fleetwood Mac, Lynryd Skynyrd, Celine Dion and more!

Boardwalk Hall has also hosted great sporting events like world championship boxing, the New Jersey State High School Wrestling championships, American Hockey League (AHL) games, World Wrestling Entertainment (WWE) events, Disney on Ice, Indoor Auto Racing, Professional Bull Riding, E-Gaming Conferences and tournaments, and the upcoming 2022-2023 Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Division I men's basketball championship.

Entertainment's biggest and most successful acts routinely take the stage and perform under the bright lights at Atlantic City's casino hotel properties. Some of the funniest comedic acts regularly perform at the destination's comedy clubs.

Visit www.AtlanticCityNJ.com for a complete list of upcoming events.

AC MURALS

Atlantic City is home to over 55 murals - most of which were created in the past five years through the Atlantic City Arts Foundation's flagship program "48 Blocks AC." The program invites local, regional and international artists to create murals in a diverse range of styles and content that are located across the city's visual landscape. Notable works include "Not For Sale" by BK Foxx, "Memory" by Atlantic City artist Kelley Prevard, "Dissent is Patriotic" by Sarah Painter and Cosby Martin Hayes, "Osprey Project" by Even Lovett, "I Gotta Be Me" by Glenn Taylor and "Keep on Shining" by Heather Deegan-Hires. Leaders in Training youth assisted and original art for this mural was submitted by a student. More information about the murals and their locations can be found at www.acartsfoundation.org/murals.

Dining

Foodies, when you come to Atlantic City, come hungry because our culinary menu is a delightfully tasty, enticing, eclectic mix of gourmet restaurants with internationally acclaimed chefs, small family-owned eateries, buffets and instantly recognizable chain establishments.

Many of the city's dining establishments are well equipped to create a special meal for large or small groups, served in private rooms, communal tables, chef's tables and other unique arrangements. If you want to eat where the locals eat, you will find dining favorites in nearly every neighborhood in the city.

Are you in the mood for steak and seafood? Try Dock's Oyster House in Ducktown, Ruth's Chris Steakhouse or the Knife and Fork Inn. Is Italian your favorite? The Ducktown neighborhood features Angelo's Fairmount Tavern, Ducktown Tavern and Angeloni's II, while Tony Baloney's in the Southeast Inlet is famous for its unique pizza recipes. Meals from all sorts of ethnic backgrounds such as, American, Italian, Vietnamese, Asian, Indian, Southern Cuisine, Mediterranean and more, can be found at dozens of restaurants throughout the city. Short on time? Several nationally-known fast food chains offer quick and convenient service. In the mood for a good, old American dish? Applebee's, Atlantic City Bar & Grill, Johnny Rockets, Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville Cafe, Five o'Clock Somewhere Bar, LandShark Bar & Grill, Rainforest Café and Tun Tavern could be for you.

Shopping

If you are in the mood for some shopping then you have come to the right place. Atlantic City features hundreds of shops on the Boardwalk, inside the nine gaming properties and throughout the downtown. So make sure you bring your comfortable walking shoes.

Tanger Outlets The Walk, located at the foot of the Atlantic City Expressway and in the heart of downtown Atlantic City, features nearly 100 retail outlet stores and restaurants. Shopping at The Walk is a breeze with convenient parking nearby, a pedestrian walking-friendly layout and is just a short walk away to the Convention Center, NJ Transit train station, bus terminal, Boardwalk Hall, casinos and the world-famous Boardwalk.

The 86,000-square-foot Bass Pro Shops Outpost outdoorsman super store is a must see attraction for all those who love nature and sporting. This popular non-gaming destination within a destination encompasses four city blocks in the heart of downtown Atlantic City and features a 13,000-gallon aquarium with native species, boat showroom, 245-space parking lot and more.

Meanwhile, the casinos feature eclectic shops and restaurants.

Dozens of fun shops may be found on the Boardwalk for visitors who are searching for souvenir t-shirts, novelties, gifts, caps and more. Many other unique local shops are sprinkled around the city and are certainly worth a visit, including Princeton Antiques, which features rare, and out-of-print books, photographs, postcards and a wide variety of memorabilia.
