

Gonville & Caius College

Gonville & Caius College

Located in the very heart of Cambridge, Gonville & Caius College offers an array of modern and traditional meeting rooms and private dining facilities.

With over six hundred years of heritage, Caius has beautiful buildings around the historic Old Courts in the city centre. Caius has five light and airy meeting rooms, and several atmospheric panelled dining rooms as well as the magnificent Old Courts Dining Hall that can hold up to 186 for gala dinners and weddings.

Just over the river at West Road, neighbouring the Cambridge University Sidgwick Site, are The Stephen Hawking Building and the Harvey Court Building set in extensive gardens. The versatile Cavonius Centre is a large multi-functional space with separate registration and breakout areas as well as beautiful gardens which can be used.

During vacation periods, West Road also provides modern ensuite B&B accommodation, making it ideal for residential conferences.
