Visit Myrtle Beach, S.C. Announces Latest New Developments

Myrtle Beach, S.C. (March, 2021) - Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, continues to safely welcome visitors to its 60 miles of gorgeous coastline, now boasting new attractions, accommodations, dining options, and more for 2021. Visit Myrtle Beach and its partner organizations continue to remind travelers to visit the destination responsibly and created a Healthy Travel section on VisitMyrtleBeach.com with the latest COVID-19 updates and mandates. The following is the latest information on new tourism developments in the region.

ACTIVITIES & ATTRACTIONS

Cultural Arts Center in Downtown Myrtle Beach

The City of Myrtle Beach and Coastal Carolina University (CCU) have entered into an agreement to purchase property that will be turned into a new cultural arts center and theater in downtown Myrtle Beach. The center will be located in what is now three properties in the downtown area of Myrtle Beach along Highway 501. The space will include a 300-seat theater, art gallery, reception area, dressing rooms and rehearsal space. It will be used for performing arts classes by CCU students as well as allow the city to host up to 30 productions per year. Construction is expected to begin in 2021 with the theater opening in the spring of 2022.

Myrtle Beach Mall Plans for The District

The Myrtle Beach Mall is proceeding with its $150 million redevelopment for a new retail and restaurant space. Named “The District,” current plans include new waterfront restaurants, sports bars, additional shopping areas, clubs, and a boutique hotel. Renderings also include a promenade and garden in the middle. A construction date has not yet been set. Additional details can be found at <https://www.mymallmyrtlebeach.com/>.

Tanger Outlets of Myrtle Beach

Tanger Outlets of Myrtle Beach (both the Hwy 501 and Hwy 17 locations) are opening several new top brand name and designer stores in Spring 2021. Sea Everything is now open at the Hwy 501 location, and Paradise Wine Company and Crabby J’s Arcade will be opening soon. Travis Mathew and Haven’s Marketplace are now open at the Hwy 17 location. Locations and store details can be found at www.tangeroutlet.com

American Surf Parks

Myrtle Beach will soon be home to South Carolina's first man-made surf park, called American Surf Park. The park's surfing lagoon will generate up to 1,000 waves per hour, with waves between 2-6 feet in height. The development will also include an amphitheater to accommodate up to 15,000 people. Preliminary renderings of the park have been completed and the building is expected to begin in 2021.

The Hangout

Broadway at the Beach will add a new restaurant, retail and entertainment venue to its Entertainment District, called The Hangout. The new venue is currently under construction at the southeast corner of the property. The Hangout will become a new gathering place for great food and family fun, offering seasonal seafood dishes, beachside burgers, sandwiches and tacos, appetizers and sides made from locally sourced ingredients prepared from scratch in a world-class hi-tech kitchen designed to handle thousands of diners daily. It will also offer live music year-round both on indoor and outdoor stages. The Hangout is scheduled to open in 2021. For more information, visit www.thehangout.com.

Big Red Bus SC

Big Red Bus SC provides a one-of-a-kind experience for guests who are looking for a unique tour of the Myrtle Beach area. As South Carolina's first registered double-decker bus, this fun adventure is home to an array of tours that pay homage to the Grand Strand's unique characteristics. Big Red Bus SC is creating new tours to accommodate all interest levels, including the Real Estate Tour that is set to debut in 2020.
