THE OFFICIAL MYRTLE BEACH AREA VISITORS GUIDE

ENJOY

The Beach

ON A BUDGET

TRY THESE GREAT FREE THINGS TO DO

While visiting Myrtle Beach, it's easy to make the best use of every dollar. From events such as concerts and firework shows to enjoying mother nature, there's so much to do that won't cost you a dime. Once you arrive at The Beach, you'll have a hard time narrowing down your top free activity choices.

The Beach

Create unforgettable memories while enjoying 60 miles of wide, soft sandy beach. Be sure to pack your beach towels, a sheet and/or beach chairs so you don't have to rent them. Wake up early in the morning and run along the ocean shore to take in the fresh, salty air. Grab your chair, sit down, let your toes sink into the warm sand, and relax in the afternoon while listening to the soothing waves roll in.

Hot Summer Nights

Every night of the summer, from June to September, Plyler Park and the Myrtle Beach Boardwalk are transformed into a family-friendly entertainment zone. Best of all, Hot Summer Nights Myrtle Beach activities are free. Events run from 8 to 11 p.m. each night and include fireworks every Wednesday night. Visit MyrtleBeachDowntown.com for more information.

COUPONS

Franklin G. Burroughs - Simeon B. Chapin Art Museum

Consider visiting the Grand Strand's home for contemporary visual art in all mediums since 1977. The Art Museum has been a showcase for living Southern artists, including Myrtle Beach's own Alex Powers, Dixie Dugan, and Ouida Salvo. Housed in a restored 1920s beach cottage with signature green-striped awnings and a picturesque tea porch, the Museum has 11 galleries with visual art exhibitions changing throughout the year. The museum is open Tuesday - Saturday, from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. Admission is free. For more information visit MyrtleBeachArtMuseum.org.

Horry County Museum & L.W. Paul Living History Museum

The Horry County Museum in Conway, SC is a free attraction that focuses on the history, pre-history, and natural history of the area. Not far from the museum is the L.W. Paul Living History Farm where visitors can experience the everyday life of a historic Horry County farm. Free tours are offered every Saturday at 10 a.m.

Murrells Inlet Marshwalk

Visit the historic fishing village of Murrells Inlet and experience nature along The MarshWalk which offers great views of the saltwater marsh, birds, and beautiful scenery. Home to many waterfront restaurants, music is in the salty air once evening rolls around. The MarshWalk is free to enjoy.

Music on Main Concert Series

Journey to downtown North Myrtle Beach to delight in the sounds of a live band on Main Street. Families are encouraged to visit downtown after a long day on the beach to experience the many restaurants of Main Street, listen to live music, shop, and dance til' you drop. Kick back in your beach chair and enjoy these free concerts from June through mid-October. More details at <https://parks.nmb.us>.

Vereen Memorial Gardens

Enjoy an easy hike through the woods and along a beautiful salt marsh boardwalk at Vereen Memorial Gardens, just south of the North Carolina border in Little River, SC. Visitors are welcome to walk, hike or bike the park with their family and pets. The park is open from dawn to dusk with no cost to enter.
