Myrtle Beach Area Fast Facts

The Myrtle Beach area, popularly known as the Grand Strand, stretches from Little River to Pawleys Island, and is comprised of 14 communities along the South Carolina coast. Home to world-class golf, 60 miles of wide, sandy beaches, exciting entertainment, family attractions and Southern hospitality, the Myrtle Beach area presents the quintessential vacation experience, welcoming over 19 million visitors annually.

Location

The Myrtle Beach area is the jewel of South Carolina and is nestled along the mid-Atlantic region of the eastern United States.

Weather

The Myrtle Beach area enjoys a mild annual average temperature of 73 degrees (F) with an average of 215 sunny days each year.

Population

Approximately 325,000 people reside in the Grand Strand.

Lodging

There are approximately 425 hotels and 98,600 accommodation units in the Myrtle Beach area. From elegant golf and seaside resorts, to rustic cottages, bed & breakfasts and mom & pop motels, the Myrtle Beach area offers accommodations for every taste and appeals to every type of traveler. There are also several campgrounds and mega RV parks located between Myrtle Beach and the South Strand, many of which are oceanfront or just steps away from the beach. In addition, there are a number of beach homes and condos available for rent, thereby giving vacationing families a true home away from home.

Dining

There are approximately 1,800 full-service restaurants in the Myrtle Beach area, and it is no surprise that seafood is one of the primary cuisines. Murrells Inlet is nicknamed “the seafood capital of South Carolina” and Calabash-style restaurants are popular in the Northern Strand as well as Carolina/ Lowcountry cuisine. Visitors will also find a range of other dishes to satisfy their appetites including steak, ribs, barbecue, home-style cooking, pizza, international fare and regional specialties.

Golf

The Myrtle Beach area boasts 90 championship golf courses and more than 35 extravagant miniature golf courses, making it a premiere destination for golf enthusiasts and aficionados. There are approximately 3.2 million rounds of golf played annually in the Myrtle Beach area.

Attractions

The beach is certainly the Myrtle Beach area's No.1 attraction, but the fun doesn't end with surf and sand. The Grand Strand offers a wide range of unique attractions and exciting entertainment options, from shopping, dining, water sports and theme parks, to live entertainment theaters, nightclubs and celebrity concerts. The Myrtle Beach area boasts seven live theatres with a total of more than 7,300 seats.

Retail

The Grand Strand shopping complexes are destinations within themselves, including more than 200 outlet stores. Visitors can stroll along boardwalk promenades on warm evenings, venture in and out of hundreds of unique specialty stores and dine in exceptional restaurants along the way.

Meetings/Groups

60 miles of breathtaking beachfront, more than 90 golf courses, 98,600 accommodation units, a modern convention center with 250,000-square-feet of meeting space and an adjoining business-class hotel make the Myrtle Beach area an ideal locale for meetings and group gatherings. Plus, the Myrtle Beach Sports Center offers a great venue for various indoor sporting events.
