

Patrick Rose founded Corridor Title in October 2010, and serves as its President. He is responsible for managing the company, directing client services and development, and implementing Corridor Title's growth strategy. He is a graduate of the University of Texas Law School and Princeton University, and was first licensed to practice law in May 2006.

Patrick was born and raised in Dripping Springs, graduated from its public schools, and is active in the Austin, Dripping Springs, San Marcos and New Braunfels communities. Prior to founding Corridor Title, he served Hays, Caldwell, and Blanco Counties for eight years in the Texas House of Representatives. Patrick strongly believes that his responsibility, and that of Corridor Title and its team members, is to deliver a world-class quality customer service, deeply understand our markets and their participants, and to purposefully serve the communities of our region.

In furtherance of the final goal, Patrick's civic involvement includes the following: Greater San Marcos Partnership, Co-Chair of the Vision 2025 Strategic Plan and Prior Chair (2019); Real Estate Council of Austin, Executive Committee Member and Prior Chair (2019); City of Dripping Springs Economic Development Committee, Member and Prior Chair (2012-2018); New Braunfels Economic Development Foundation, Secretary and Executive Committee Member. Patrick's previous service includes Texas State University Development Foundation, Board Member, Treasurer and Co-Chair of the 2016 Strategic Planning Effort; and Texas Land Title Association PAC, Fundraising Co-Chair. Patrick lives in San Marcos with his wife, Anna, and sons, Henry and Charlie, where they are members of Our Lady of Wisdom University Parish.
