HILL COUNTRY Craft Beer TRAIL

Drive The Craft Beer Trail takes you on a beautiful journey through the Texas Hill Country, full of river crossings, fields of wildflowers, and steep rolling hills. Trail options range from close-by to as far away as Fredericksburg. You will also have the opportunity to visit some of the Hill Country's most notable scenic attractions, such as legendary Luckenbach, TX, and the rolling hills of the "Devil's Backbone" on historic – and supposedly haunted – Texas Farm to Market Road 32. Once you make your way home to New Braunfels, enjoy an evening at one of our breweries and watch the sun set over the Comal River with a fresh, local beer.

Ride Cruise in style and comfort as shuttle buses drive you along the trail of your choice. We didn't skip any amenities on this one: enjoy music, conversations, beverages, and food – all at ease while experienced drivers get you safely from here to there in an air-conditioned shuttle. Does this sound too good to be true? Well, here's your wake-up call! Book now to reserve your Hill Country craft beer experience!
