

2022 Gallup Intertribal Ceremonial | Centennial Ceremonial Celebration Red Rock Park, New Mexico

TRIBAL PROCESSION INFORMATION & REGISTRATION FORM

Special Invitation to all Native American & Indigenous Peoples to join the opening of each One World Beat Show as part of the Tribal Procession.

“The Ceremonial” has always been an event that has brought Native American & Indigenous Peoples together and this special segment has been created as a tribute to the resilience of Native American & Indigenous Peoples. Long ago, many of our relatives gathered their harvest & livestock, made new clothing, and travelled from all directions to be amongst each other to trade, see old friends, make new friends, compete in races, share songs & dances, & just laugh with each other!
They were Together As One Together As Native People!

DESCRIPTION

One World Beat is produced by the Intertribal Ceremonial Office and will begin by Eagle Dancers leading in the Tribal Procession of Native American & Indigenous peoples, after all are in the arena, there will be an “indigenous variety show” on a full production stage with hosts. Those participating in the Tribal Procession will receive free admission! In addition participants will have arena “floor” access and may bring their chairs and choose a spot to enjoy the show with their family and friends!

You may walk in with your Tribe or choose the Intertribal Section (or other)
