ABOUT THE EVENT: 2022 GALLUP INTERTRIBAL CEREMONIAL

Description:

One of New Mexico's longest running events and beginning in 1922, Tribal members and Dance groups would travel by foot, covered wagons and horseback from all directions to Gallup to be a part of this event! In 2022, for the 100th anniversary, there will be 11-days of events, as the Gallup Intertribal Ceremonial continues to celebrate Native American & Indigenous culture & heritage.

August 5th & 6th

Scheduled events at Red Rock Park include: Four Winds Amphitheater Performances, Artisans Market & Demonstration, Ceremonial Queen and Tribal Royalty Meet & Greet and the One World Beat shows in the Red Rock Park arena– Native American & Indigenous Tribal Processions & Performance Showcases featuring HAKA: Maori Cultural Experience of New Zealand and Pamyua (Yup'ik) of Alaska.
