

$1,000 scholarships to study Tourism or the Hospitality Industry

The Newport News
Hospitality Association is offering
$1,000 Scholarships!

High school seniors To be eligible to apply, you must:

- be a resident of Newport News and go to school there (public, private or home-schooled).
- have applied to an accredited college, university or technical school.
- agree to pursue a field of study related to travel/tourism or hospitality management.

Persons already enrolled in a hospitality-related program.

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- be a resident of Newport News.
- be enrolled in an accredited college, university or technical school.
- be pursuing or agree to pursue a field of study in college related to travel/tourism or hospitality management.

Persons currently working in the hospitality industry.

To be eligible to apply, you must:

- be employed in the hospitality industry in Newport News.
- be enrolled in an accredited college, university or technical school.
- be pursuing or agree to pursue a field of study related to travel/tourism or hospitality management.

Applications are available at NNHA member hotels, restaurants and attractions, Newport News Visitor Center, NN offices at Fountain Plaza Two on Town Center Drive, online at www.newportnewshospitality.com/
www.newport-news.org/about-our-city/nnha.html.

Deadline March 31, 2016

The scholarships will be awarded in May 2016