GENERAL DESCRIPTION

The Catskills Region beckons with the promise of discovery, offering scenic natural beauty, legendary hospitality and unique, off-the-beaten path attractions. The Catskills' epic waterfalls, fly fishing waters, and breathtaking views are easy to access and close enough to New York City to offer a day – or week's – worth of adventure. Hike to roaring waterfalls, cool off with a handcrafted brew and dine on farm-to-table cuisine, or visit in winter to experience cross-country skiing, alpine skiing, and boutique shopping. The region's vibrant arts and culture heritage continues today, and artists from around the world have claimed the Catskills as their home, bringing music, art exhibits and myriad performing arts to center stage. ### NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Newly Opened Lodging

AutoCamp Catskills marks the fifth property in the portfolio and second on the East Coast. It's the epitome of "welcoming outdoor hospitality," consisting of high-end, boutique-style amenities with mid-century modern design. Totalling 95 units, guests choose from 31-foot airstreams, high-end tents, suites, and modern cabins. Guests will be situated among the vibrant outdoors with hiking trails, a gathering space at the Clubhouse, and an escape from the city life in Saugerties.

The Bluebird Hunter Lodge is the ultimate treat for those seeking a retreat and an escape from city life in Hunter, NY. This boutique-roadside lodge is now accepting reservations for stays starting June 19 this year and is one of three mountain properties under the Bluebird by Lark umbrella. Each of its 45 rooms has something unique to offer every type of guest, with decor with vintage '70s vibes with modern amenities, as well as rustic vibes with cozy comforts where guests can enjoy amenities like private balconies and living rooms with large windows that offer gorgeous mountain views.

The Wylder Windham lived a previous life as the historic Thompson House Resort. Opening this summer, the new 110-room, full-service resort aims to connect guests to nearby Windham Mountain and the surrounding 20-acre property with a river meandering through it.

Piaule in Catskill features cabins located in a forest, surrounded by nature. There are hiking trails, a restaurant, bar and a spa located on the property.

Hutton Brickyards in Kingston features luxury cabins – some with Hudson River views, a spa, restaurant and more along 73 acres.

The Eldred Preserve in Eldred is located on 600 acres, featuring ample outdoor activities. The Bradstan Boutique Hotel uses natural elements to provide luxurious and distinct accommodations.

The Boarding House at Seminary Hill in Callicoon offers beautifully appointed rooms made using simplistic Shaker design. The Boarding House is located near Seminary Hill Orchard & Cidery, serving local hard ciders in their expansive tasting room.

Chatwal Lodge in Bethel is nestled within the gates of The Chapin Estate, offering elegant details carved straight out of the woods from which it stands. The Lodge also offers extraordinary culinary experiences with farm-to-table cuisine, and a spa with incredible wellness services.

Upcoming Lodging Openings

Moliving's Hurley House in Hurley will feature 60 luxurious and eco-friendly units along 55 acres. Each cabin will be equipped with outdoor deck space, floor to ceiling windows, WiFi and more.

Expected Open: Spring 2022

The James Newbury Hotel is located on the waterfront in Coxsackie. The hotel will have a spa, an event center for gatherings, such as weddings and more.

Expected Open: Fall 2022

The Aurum will be a 36-room hotel featuring one of the only Roman hammams of its kind in North America, known as the Aurum Thermae. The property, spanning 131 mountainside acres on Mount Tremper, will emphasize privacy. The new hotel will feature newly built structures for the guest rooms, suites and standalone mountain bungalows.

Expected Open: Fall 2022

Wildflower Farms is a new resort located on 140 secluded acres in Gardiner. Located just 90 minutes from New York City and set amongst the storied region's natural beauty, the resort will be a verdant escape focused on nature and wellness in all senses. The expansive grounds will include orchards, animals, heirloom gardens, a namesake farm and fields of wildflowers throughout, offering an oasis within reach for visitors with limited access to green space. Wildflower Farms, Auberge Resorts Collection will provide a meaningful encounter with nature at every step through nature-framing design, bespoke guesthouses, world-class, source-origin cuisine and unique outdoor experiences.

Expected Open: Fall 2022

New Food & Drink

Good Night in the Ulster County Town of Woodstock celebrates sharing with a family-style menu of vibrant dishes based around Southeast Asian cuisine.

Locust Grove Brewery Barn in Milton, Ulster County, transforms fruit into hard cider and craft beverages with a rotating selection of food trucks.

New Attractions

Zoom Flume Water Park reopens for the season in June with the debut its new Rip Van Racer Slide, a double flume mat ride.

The early trails have opened at the new Sojourner Truth State Park in Kingston. Born in the Ulster County town of Esopus as Isabella Baumfree, Sojourner Truth freed herself from slavery and traveled the country speaking as an abolitionist and suffragist. Once completed, the new state park will encompass more than 500 acres along the Hudson River shoreline with majestic views of the valley and Catskill Mountains.

Visit the newly restored Delaware and Hudson Canal Museum and Mid-Hudson Visitor Center in High Falls to explore the 19th-century stone structure and get travel information.

SURPRISING FACTS

1. The Catskill Park, 700,000 acres of land within the Catskill Mountains, is home to one of New York's two Forest Preserves. Park visitors can hike, camp, fish, ski, mountain bike, rock climb, canoe or snowmobile to take in the sights and smells of wild and plant life, lakes, rivers and 35 high peaks.
2. The Catskills region is known as the birthplace of American fly fishing. Exhibits highlight fishing heritage at the Catskill Fly Fishing Center and Museum on Willowemoc Creek, one of the nation's finest trout streams.
3. Although the 1969 Woodstock Festival was originally planned to be in Woodstock, NY, it was held on a farm in Bethel, NY owned by Max Yasgur, where 500,000 people gathered for peace, love and music over three days.
4. In the early 19th Century, the beauty and majesty of the Catskill Mountains inspired a group of artists to create a new style of art featuring landscape paintings. This landscape movement, the first in American art, became known as the Hudson River School.

5. The Catskills was the only region in the U.S. voted as a Top 10 Best Places to Visit in 2019 by Lonely Planet. The Catskills was featured as one of the 50 Best Places to Travel in 2021 by Travel + Leisure.

SPORTS & OUTDOORS

The nearly 300,000-acre Catskill Forest Preserve offers a vast selection of outdoor adventures on both public and private lands with hundreds of lakes, streams and mountain trails. Places to stay include wilderness campsites, cabins and luxury resorts. Drive or ride a scenic byway and find adventure around every bend.

Boating and Watersports: Outfitters such as Reber River Trips and Kittatinny Canoes in Barryville, and Lander's River Trips in Narrowsburg, lead canoe, kayak or whitewater rafting trips on the Delaware River. Swimmers enjoy the cool mountain lakes. In Haines Falls, North-South Lake State Campground offers rowboat, canoe, paddleboat, stand-up paddleboards, single and tandem kayak rentals.

Camping: More than 50 beautiful public and private campgrounds are found throughout the region. North-South Lake State Park, the biggest state park and campground in the Catskill Preserve, offers hiking, swimming, fishing and kayaking amid magnificent views.

Fishing: Legendary trout streams for fly fishing include Willowemoc Creek and the West Branch of the Delaware River. Private outdoor resorts such as the 3,000-acre Eldred Preserve in Eldred, and the West Branch Angler Resort in Hancock, cater to fishing and hunting enthusiasts. Lodging and boat rentals are available. The Catskill network of reservoirs is open for fishing and non-motorized boating.

Golf: Beautiful courses for golfers of all skill levels include the challenging championship course at Blackhead Mountain Lodge & Country Club in Round Top; the scenic Sullivan County Golf & Country Club in Liberty; the beautiful French Woods Golf & Country Club in Hancock; and in Windham, Christman's Windham House and Windham Country Club rated a "must play" by Golf Digest.

Hiking: Hundreds of miles of multi-use trails lead through spectacular landscapes—up mountain paths, around lakes, beside waterfalls and through historic villages. Climbing the 35 Catskill high peaks is a lofty goal for many hikers. The 26-mile Catskill Scenic Trail, with a gentle grade, is ideal for hiking, biking, horseback riding or cross-country skiing. Information on trail conditions and the five Catskill Fire Towers can be found by visiting the Catskills Visitor Center online or in person.

The Kaaterskill Falls Viewing Platform is open year-round and boasts the highest two-tiered cascading waterfall in New York State. One of America's oldest tourist attractions, it has been featured in some of the most prominent books, essays, poems and paintings of the early 19th century. Posted trail signs must be obeyed and proper footwear is required.

Hunting: Private preserves and game farms are found throughout the region. State lands are open for hunting during the appropriate seasons. Find license and other information at The Catskills' regional website and the Department of Environmental Conservation.

Mountain Biking: Many ski slopes in the Catskills become challenging mountain bike trails off-season. Plattekill Bike Park in Roxbury has more than 60 miles of lift-served bike trails. Windham Mountain Bike Park offers miles of trails that provide unique downhill riding experiences serviced by a high-speed quad lift – you'll never pedal uphill.

Nature Centers: Nature lovers have many choices including the Basha Kill Wildlife Management Area in Wurtsboro, and Mountain Top Arboretum in Tannersville.

Scenic Train Rides: Historic train rides run through some of New York's most striking scenery. The Delaware & Ulster Railroad in Arkville features open-air cars and themed trips such as holiday train rides and reenactments of train robberies.

State Parks: State parks include North-South Lake State Park, popular for camping and swimming; Bear Spring Mountain State Park, with 24 miles of trails for horseback riding, mountain biking, hiking, snowmobiling and cross-country skiing; and Lake Superior State Park, with swimming, boating, fishing and boat rentals.

Scenic Byways: Experience the Catskills' high peaks by riding or driving the Mountain Cloves Scenic Byway. Enjoy views of rolling farmland, fresh water, and historic hamlets on the Catskill Mountains Scenic Byway along Route 28 which celebrates the beauty of the Catskills. Find dramatic vistas along the Durham Valley Scenic Byway, which offers views as far as New Hampshire. Ride the cliffs along the mighty Delaware River on the Upper Delaware Scenic Byway. Savor breathtaking valley views along the windy roads of the Shawangunk Mountains Scenic Byway. Refuel at a unique eatery or coffee house or stroll through a boutique or antique shop to stretch your legs.

Winter Sports: Downhill ski areas include Hunter Mountain, Windham Mountain, Villa Roma, Belleayre Mountain, Holiday Mountain and Plattekill Mountain. Many ski areas also offer cross-country ski and snowshoe trails. In Prattsville, Bearpen Mountain Sports offers miles of cross-country ski, snowshoe and fat tire bike trails. Winter anglers will find ice-fishing at Colgate Lake, Green Lake and North-South Lake.

Zipline Adventures: New York Zipline Adventures at Hunter Mountain is the longest and highest canopy zipline tour in North America. Kittatinny Canoes in Barryville features a dual racing zipline that overlooks the Delaware River.
