Whether it’s spending a day on the slopes, frolicking at a winter carnival, checking out a museum or going on a big city adventure, families find New York offers a wide variety of awesome places to reconnect and make winter a season to remember.

BIG CITY ADVENTURES

Time-honored kid pleasers in New York City include the American Museum of Natural History’s dinosaur halls and spectacular space shows at the Hayden Planetarium. The Intrepid Sea, Air & Space Museum, a former battleship, delights with drone demos, virtual flights and family overnights. Times Square’s National Geographic Encounter: Ocean Odyssey is a new, immersive entertainment experience that harnesses groundbreaking technology to transport guests on an underwater journey with the ocean’s mightiest of creatures.

The Brooklyn Children’s Museum lets kids have fun while learning (sneaky!) at interactive exhibits like “World Brooklyn,” a pint-size cityscape lined by faux stores where young’uns can immerse themselves into multi-cultural experiences that foster curiosity, creativity and lifelong love of learning.

A playground for kids’ minds, the Staten Island Children’s Museum includes super-size board games, a firsthand look at a bug’s life and replicas of different ecosystems. It’s not all pretend, though: The museum’s “House About It” exhibit allows visitors to work a real drill, and “Portia’s Playhouse” is stocked with costumes so little actors can get down to thespian business.

TRAVEL BY SEA, SKY & LAND

It’s a watery world of fun year-round at Long Island Aquarium. Indoors, explore an Amazon rainforest and go eye-to-eye with fascinating creatures like a giant octopus and bobbing seahorses. Feed sharks, pat a stingray and take some sea lion selfies. Everyone gets on-board to watch wildlife splash and sun on seal cruises.

Future astronauts are inspired at the Cradle of Aviation Museum. Young aviators command a space shuttle, build roaring rockets and explore the moon before settling down for storyline. Kids can touch everything they see at the Long Island Children’s Museum. From interactive exhibits to art programs and theater, it’s all designed to delight children.

BE COURAGEOUS
