Why Choose Oakland, California?

Take your meeting someplace different. For meeting professionals, Oakland is the perfect creative incubator and provides a unique destination and memorable experience for your event. Oakland challenges old ideas, creating state-of-the-art innovation. Savor our trendy culinary scene, immerse yourself in our vibrant arts and nightlife and soak up the proactive spirit Oakland is known for. Let's meet. For real.

Real Clean.

The Oakland International Airport and Oakland Convention Center have both earned the GBAC STAR facility accreditation on cleaning, disinfection, and infectious disease prevention. Oakland hotels, venues and businesses are following many guidelines to make sure guests feel comfortable and safe during their visit. Contact us to learn the latest ways Oakland is prioritizing cleanliness and safety.

Real Community.

With over 125 languages spoken within the city, Oakland is one of the most diverse cities in the country. This inclusivity is infused throughout the city, including the culinary scene, arts and music, attractions and local businesses. Attendees will look forward to their time outside of the conference to explore the city's walkable neighborhoods, and experience the vibrant culture and welcoming energy of the community.

Real Access.

One of the city's prime assets as a meetings destination is its location and accessibility. Oakland is located only 12 minutes from San Francisco, 40 minutes from Napa Valley and 40 minutes from Silicon Valley, with three international airports nearby. Oakland International Airport (OAK) is very convenient and offers 55 international and domestic nonstop flight destinations. The city also offers public transportation options by train, boat, bus, rideshare or bike.

Real Spaces.

With 5,000 rooms in Oakland, the city is great for all sized meetings. Oakland will be welcoming three new hotel properties by 2021, bringing additional hotel rooms to the city. The Oakland Convention Center is connected to The Oakland Marriott City Center, offering 100,566 square feet of meeting space and 500 guest rooms. The city also offers unique meeting spaces, such as The Landing Cafe, located at the Oakland Zoo by aerial gondola and boasting panoramic views of the Bay Area.

Real Simple.

The Visit Oakland Sales Team makes contracting for your next conference or meeting a breeze and operate as a meeting planner's destination expert, offering services from effective and avoidable dates for meetings; sourcing hotel and overflow rooms; vendor referrals (transportation, offsite venues, team building); nonprofit referrals for corporate social responsibility programs; local destination experts (speakers for conferences); restaurant dining referrals; local official resources (city closures, permits, etc.); curate incentives for strategic partners; and much more.

By Water

Take in panoramic views as you cruise on the water and under the Bay Bridge to various terminals located in San Francisco, Oracle Park, Sausalito and more!

By Rail

Zip across the bay to skip traffic and ride share pools. The Bay Area Rapid Transit, or BART, can get you from Oakland to San Francisco in 12 minutes. Beat that!

Transit Time

Don't limit yourself to planes, trains and automobiles. Here, Oakland visitors and residents spotlight their favorite ways to get around the city.

Transfer Points

All aboard. Access Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) from Oakland International Airport and San Francisco International Airport, as well as multiple stations in both cities and beyond. For longer trips, head to the Amtrak station in Jack London Square and take the Coast Starlight route along the Pacific or the San Joaquins route to the Central Valley. Oakland is also a stop on the Capitol Corridor line, which goes to Sacramento and Silicon Valley.

Take the bus. AC Transit runs throughout Oakland and the East Bay, while the free Broadway Shuttle runs along Broadway between Jack London Square and Grand Avenue Mondays through Fridays (shuttle service from Jack London Square terminates at 27th Street from 7–10 p.m.). Greyhound also operates out of Oakland.

The power of two wheels. Take advantage of bike share program Ford GoBikes, which has bike stations throughout the city. Lime also offers pedal bikes and scooters.

Connect with a car. For short-term options, there are car share programs such as GIG Car Share, Getaround and Zipcar, or take Uber or Lyft.

Enjoy a ferry tale. Board a ferry from Jack London Square, and relish the ocean air on your face during the half-hour trip to San Francisco.

Day Trips From Oakland

Take advantage of Oakland's central location and explore everything Northern California has to offer. From treks in wine country to natural wonders in Monterey, incredible destinations await—all within a four-hour drive.
