JOSH TURNER
With Special Guests Mo Pitney & Jimmy Charles
Friday March 23, 2018
Ocean City Convention Center

In just one week, multi-platinum MCA Nashville recording artist Josh Turner will be taking that stage at the Ocean City Maryland Convention Center Friday March 23, 2018.

Turner has sold more than 8 million units, is a disciple of traditional country music and one of the youngest members of the esteemed Grand Ole Opry. From his 2003 platinum-selling debut Long Black Train to his most recent 2017 Billboard No. 1 release, Deep South, Turner has garnered multiple GRAMMY, CMA, and ACM nominations. Turner's hits include "Your Man," "Why Don't We Just Dance," "Firecracker," "Would You Go with Me," "All Over Me," "Time Is Love," and his most recent "Hometown Girl."

Josh Turner will be joined on stage by rising country music artist Mo Pitney. With hits like "Country" "Clean Up On Aisle Five" and "Boy And A Girl Thing" you won't want to miss Mo! When Mo sings "Country," the vocal delivery, story telling, musicianship and reflections of his outdoor lifestyle – as well as faith, family and patriotism, offer a spot on portrayal of who Mo Pitney is.

Opening the show will be Eastern Shore Native, country singer and songwriter, Jimmy Charles. A Towson graduate, Jimmy has had an impressive start to his career as he gained high praise from Simon Cowell on season 9 of American Idol and was named one of the top 50 on the show Nashville Star. Jimmy's style is best described as "Country, a lil Rock & Roll and a Whole Lotta Soul." Jimmy has received radio play for four of his hit songs including "Whatever it Takes" and "Bout Summertime." Whether he is playing some of his favorite Country, Classic Rock covers or playing one of his own compositions, Jimmy is a mesmerizing entertainer with amazing stage presence and personality, keeping his audience on the edge of their seats or dancing in the aisles.
