(Annapolis, MD.)- September 2016

The perennial Ocean City fall favorite, “Wine on the Beach,” will celebrate its 21st year at the coastal resort. The event takes place at Inlet Park, where the historic boardwalk begins. The festival, featuring wines of the East Coast, will be open Friday Sept 30 from 11am to 7pm and Oct 1 Saturday 11am – 7pm.

In addition to the vast array of wine offerings, there will be several vendors offering an array of Regionall cuisine. Also featured are arts and craft vendors and assorted micro-brewed beers for purchase.

Popular local recording artists, including “Bird Dog and the Road Kings,” will provide entertainment on the oceanfront stage throughout the festival.

Stroll from winery to winery with the souvenir tasting glass that comes with admission. Mingle with friends while sipping fine wine, marvel at the fine arts and crafts on display and relax by the sand stage with tasty treats while enjoying live music. Bring a chair or blanket and enjoy the entertainment and sea breezes.

Tickets for the festival are $35.00 (General Admission) at the gate. The cost includes a commemorative wine glass and sample coupons. For those who don’t drink General admission includes commemorative wine glass and unlimited soft drinks from the designated driver location. $15.00 for Children 13-20, they must be accompanied by parent. Under 12 years of age free. Online advanced ticket sales are offered at a reduced price, and are available at the festival website www.winefest.com until Sept 29.

No one under 21 years of age is admitted without a parent.
