Colcord

At 12 stories high, the Colcord building was touted as Oklahoma City's first "sky-rise" upon its completion in 1910. Every luxury of the time was incorporated into the construction, many of which remain today: the distinct marble adorns the columns and walls of the main lobby, topped by ornamental crown molding, and the nickel and bronze letterbox and elevator doors still shine. As you enjoy exquisite modern elegances, you are at the crossroad of luxury and convenience. Located in the heart of downtown OKC, the Colcord is mere steps from historic Bricktown and Oklahoma City's major attractions including Myriad Botanical Gardens and Crystal Bridge, Cox Convention Center, Chesapeake Energy Arena, Oklahoma City Museum of Art, Civic Center Music Hall and the Oklahoma City National Memorial.
