

THE PLACE TO BE

Written by

Oshkosh is the place to be.
It has a water park,
The zoo is free.
There's just so much,
To do and see.
Simply take a stroll downtown.

Have you ever been to EAA?
Seen the fireworks and great displays?
People come from every place,
To see this grand event.

If you choose to be our guest,
I must confess,
Great tales come from our music fests.
From rock to country,
Christian and more.
Our festivals,
You'll soon adore.

Is that enough?
Do you want more?
We have fine dining,
And amazing stores.
Escape rooms,
Parks,
It's fun galore,
Everywhere you go.

I could go on,
For weeks and days,
Years and months.
Oh, the time I'd take.
To tell you about all the greats,
And all the fun you'd have.

But we're out of time,
You have to leave.
I'll say goodbye,
For now, at least.
But I'll see you soon,
Because I think you've seen,
That Oshkosh is the place to be.
