

OSHKOSH

POETRY CONTEST

WELCOME TO OSHKOSH

Written by
Diane Lowe

So lucky to have lived in many places in the past
We enjoyed each one, better than the last
Then came a time for one more move
Oh, where, oh where what city shall we choose
We did lots of research to assist us in our quest
This we thought would be a difficult test
Which city would be best, for quality of life?
So, Oshkosh was quickly in our sites
A beautiful city on a gorgeous lake
We knew right away we had not made a mistake
From the library, schools & downtown shops
To the yearly Air Venture planes and props
The Backlot Comedy House, you can be such a ham
To all the great performances presented at the Grand
Great places to grab a bite to eat
From pizza to mac' n cheese ZaRonis can't be beat
Downtown restaurants and Wagner Market to mention a few
And so many places to grab a cold brew
So lucky to have the best Farmers Market around
To the Miss Wisconsin Pageant, who will be crowned
A giving and compassionate community indeed
We always come together in such great speed
Thank you, Heroes of Oshkosh and Planet Perk
For all you do for the community you so loving work
The Oshkosh Food Co-Op will be such an addition
Thank you to all who worked on this wonderful mission
So many organizations in which to volunteer
So as my poem finally nears
We wish to give OCVB a round of cheers
