

The Outer Edge

Video Series

The Outer Banks from the insiders out.

Explore the heart and soul of the Outer Banks of North Carolina through the stories of OBX locals who pour their passions into photography, commercial fishing, boat building, crafting local products, analyzing weather patterns, and fueling the grassroots music scene. Witness the unique bond between the islands and the people who cherish and care for them. Celebrate the beauty, resilience and creativity that define the OBX.

EPISODE 1

Sea to Table

Along NC's barrier islands, a culinary tradition thrives thanks to the bounty from the Atlantic and the hard work of generations of watermen. This episode shares the journey of seafood from sea to table. From the practice of sustainable oyster farming, to the unwavering dedication of the region's commercial fishermen, a story of passion and commitment unfolds. It's a celebration of the authentic flavors of the OBX, where each dish tells a tale of the sea and the hands that carefully bring those treasures to our tables.

FEATURING:

- Vicki Basnight - Co-Owner, Basnight's Lone Cedar Cafe
- Aaron Hopkins & James Clower - Co-Owners/Founders, Herring Shoal Shellfish Co.
- Benny O'Neal - Co-Owner/Founder O'Neal's Sea Harvest

WHERE THERE'S HARDLY ANY LAND, YOUR FARM IS THE SEA. AND HOW THE HARVEST GETS TO THE TABLE IS NO LESS A STORY.

EPISODE 2

Crafted at Sea Level

You'll find the heart and soul of a community deeply intertwined with its environment and heritage. "Crafted at Sea Level" tells the captivating stories of local artisans. From the intriguing tale of Kill Devil rum, born from the depths of maritime history, to sea salt harvested from the surrounding ocean, to the artistry of handcrafted surfboards shaped by local legends, a tapestry of craftsmanship unfolds. These aren't just products; they're creations that echo the spirit of a community bound to the sea.

FEATURING:

- Rascoe Hunt - Owner/Founder, Gale Force Glassing
- Scott Smith - Co-Founder, Outer Banks Distilling
- Brian & Shaena McMahon - Co-Founders, Hatteras Saltworks

WHATEVER IT TAKES IS THE SPIRIT IT TAKES TO MAKE IT OUT HERE.

EPISODE 3

Local Notes

Listen to a harmony of sounds rising from a vibrant music scene composed by a community and influenced by the nature that surrounds it. This episode draws back the curtain on a singular musical landscape, where collaboration thrives and creativity knows no bounds. From intimate jazz nights to family jam sessions, the OBX resonates with a range of melodies, each note a tribute to the beauty and close-knit bonds that define the community. Here, the rhythm of the ocean, the breath of the wind, and the stories of generations inspire a rich tapestry of music.

FEATURING:

- Tshombe Selby - Singer, Metropolitan Opera
- Ed Tupper - Musician & Photographer
- Dan & Laura Martier - Co-Founders, Martier Sound Meditation
- Dawn Moraga & Willow Rae - Musicians & Artists

A MUSIC SCENE THAT STRETCHES FROM THE FISHING PIER TO THE FARTHEST HORIZON.

EPISODE 4

To Build A Boat

Along our shorelines, where the legacy of fishing runs deep, a tale of extraordinary craftsmanship emerges. Episode 4 explores the community of boat builders, whose skills have shaped vessels renowned for performance and resilience. From the innovative Carolina hull, designed to conquer the challenging seas, to the blend of time-honored techniques and modern materials, each boat embodies the passion and dedication of its creator. These are not just boats; they are floating works of art, and a testament to the ingenuity and spirit of the Outer Banks.

FEATURING:

- Josh Everett - Founder/Lead Designer, Everett Nautical
- Paul Spencer - Founder/CEO, Spencer Yachts
- Patrick Harrison - Owner/Designer/Builder, Harrison Boatworks

A TRADITION BORN OF NECESSITY WITH NO END IN SIGHT.

EPISODE 5

Wild Lens

Here, on the edge of the continent, jutting 30 miles out into the Atlantic, a group of dedicated photographers finds their muse in the people and places of the Outer Banks. This episode takes us in search of the essence of the barrier islands, from the raw beauty of its shores to the spirit of its people. We look through the eyes of the photographer, connecting viewers to the Outer Banks through images that evoke memories and emotions. For them, life truly is the journey -- being present and savoring the moments that set the Outer Banks apart.

FEATURING:

- Eve Turek - Owner, Eve Turek Nature Photography, SeaDragon & Yellowhouse Gallery
- Wes Snyder - Owner, Wes Snyder Photography
- Daniel Pullen - Owner, Daniel Pullen Photography

A REPUTATION BUILT NOT BY FLAWLESS COMPOSITION, BUT BECAUSE OF ITS GENUINE NATURE.

EPISODE 6

Mother Nature's Playground

This final video of Outer Edge season 1 explores the powerful and ever-changing weather patterns that shape the region, from the constant presence of the wind to the dramatic arrival of storms. Locals have developed a profound respect for nature's forces, understanding its capacity for both creation and destruction. They have learned to coexist with this dynamic environment, appreciating its beauty and preparing for its challenges, fostering a strong sense of community and a deep connection to the natural world.

FEATURING:

- Drew Pearson - Director, Dare County Emergency Management
- Rob Mitstifer - Lead Forecaster, Surflife
- Dennis Carroll - Director, Cape Hatteras United Methodist Men & 2020 Citizen of the Year

TO TRULY LOVE THE OUTER BANKS, YOU MUST LOVE HER
WHEN HER HAIR IS MESSY, HER HEART IS COLD, AND HER
MOOD IS DOWNRIGHT NASTY. YOU KNOW WHEN SHE COMES AROUND, SHE'LL BE STUNNING, BREATHTAKING, AND A WHOLE LOTTA FUN. - RYAN RHODES

Watch the series

Scan the QR code, click here or visit
OUTERBANKS.ORG/EDGE

