Discover the Massive Meetings Property Renovations in Greater Palm Springs

June 21, 2022 | Tyler Davidson

While California took the safe and steady road during the pandemic, its hotel stock was busy with renovations, such as in the Greater Palm Springs area, where the desert bloomed with improvement to many of its major meetings properties as well as infrastructure throughout the Coachella Valley.

Following are standout renovation and rebrand projects completed either during the pandemic, or in one case, right before, at six of the destination's major resorts that cater to the meetings and conventions segment.
