

PARK CITY AND YELLOWSTONE 7 NIGHTS / 8 DAYS

Park City, Utah is North America's most accessible mountain recreation destination, just a quick 35-minute drive from Salt Lake City International Airport. Start your National Parks adventure in Park City where you will immediately feel your vacation has just begun! Park City caters to all kinds of travelers with over 100 lodging options ranging from cozy boutique hotels to spacious condominiums and full-service hotels. The town is home to two renowned ski resorts, Deer Valley and Park City Mountain, offering The Greatest Snow on Earth®. These resorts, along with nearly 650 kilometers of public trails, offer endless opportunities for outdoor activities year-round. Food lovers will appreciate Park City's nearly 150 bars and restaurants, while shoppers can explore a variety of unique stores along historic Main Street and Kimball Junction.

DAY 1

1. Salt Lake City International Airport to Park City

Today your adventure begins as you arrive to Park City.

2. Explore Historic Main Street

At the heart of Park City is its historic Main Street – home to over 200 unique and local businesses. You can shop at independent boutiques and galleries, dine at one-of-a-kind restaurants, and enjoy local craft beer and spirits at the many bars and saloons or learn about the history of the area by exploring the Park City Museum. Everything is within a short walk or take a free ride on the Main Street Trolley.

DAY 2

1. Visit Park City Mountain

Summer brings long sunny days, cool mountain air and a variety of outdoor activities. Thrill seekers can enjoy a ride on one of the world's longest alpine slides, ride the Mountain Coaster or explore kilometers of stunning hiking and biking trails. Take in the views with a scenic lift or gondola ride or spend the day on the greens with your travel companions at Canyon Village's 18-hole golf course.

2. Visit Deer Valley Resort

Experience the "Deer Valley Difference" in Park City. Indulge in luxurious lodging, dining, and impeccable service, all contributing to unforgettable mountain memories. The resort comes alive with outdoor concerts and lots of activities, boasting 112 kilometers of mountain biking and hiking trails, alongside scenic chair lift rides.

DAY 3

Park City to Grand Teton National Park, Jackson, WY

(About 4.5-hour drive)
Bear Lake / Jenny Lake

DAY 4

Grand Teton National Park, Jackson, WY to Yellowstone National Park

(Less than an hour drive)
Snake River / Old Faithful /
Madison River

DAY 5

Yellowstone National Park to Cody, WY

(About 1-hour drive)
"Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone"
/ Hayden Valley / Cowboy Rodeo

DAY 6

Cody, WY to Thermopolis, WY

(About 1.5-hour drive)
Buffalo Bill Historic Center /
Wyoming Dinosaur Center and Dig
Sites

Park City has many award-winning restaurants reflecting a variety of culinary influences, local ingredients and offering something for everyone. After dinner, explore the local culture and music at one of many bars, clubs and historic saloons.

DAY 7

1. Thermopolis, WY to Park City (About 5.5-hour drive)
2. Visit Utah Olympic Park

Experience Utah’s Olympic Legacy! Guided tours of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games venue are available daily, year-round. Explore the park’s two free museums to learn about the history of skiing in the west and relive the Salt Lake 2002 Olympic Games. Take the ride of a lifetime on the bobsled or check out the extreme tubing, ziplining, ropes courses, alpine slide and more.

DAY 8

1. Enjoy Park City’s Arts & Culture or Shopping

Hit the Park City shops and art galleries before your trip back home. We have everything from souvenirs, books, and sportswear to art collectibles. Our art community is alive and thriving all year long. Historic Main Street is lined with quaint shops and galleries. Junction Commons is a popular destination for brand-name bargain.

2. Park City to Salt Lake City International Airport

Park City’s local bus service is free and runs seven days a week from early morning to late at night. VisitParkCity.com/Sustainability/Car-Free-Travel.

Mountainkind™

Park City, Utah attracts a special kind. A kind with a passion for nature. A kind that craves adventure. And takes part in the community of a vibrant alpine town. The Mountainkind™.

Perhaps you’re one of them – drawn to a bountiful wilderness, home to two world-class ski resorts, an Olympic legacy, colorful mining history and a diverse cultural scene – all just 35 minutes from Salt Lake International Airport.

Today’s Mountainkind have more to enjoy in Park City than ever. And – through land restoration, local initiatives, celebrating diversity and a goal of zero net carbon by 2030 – there’s even more dedication to preserving those things for generations of Mountainkind to come. Learn how to do your part when you visit, at VisitParkCity.com/Stewardship.

More to Discover...

INTERNATIONAL DARK SKY PARKS

Jordanelle State Park is the closest accredited dark sky space to Park City. The Provo River flows from the Uinta Mountains and fills Jordanelle Reservoir. Water enthusiasts delight in maritime play opportunities.

Rockport State Park is between Wanship and Peoa on State Road 32 with the Wasatch Mountains spreading to the west and the Uinta Mountains dominating the eastern skyline. The park facilitates reoccurring programming to educate visitors about best dark sky practices and why dark skies are essential for nocturnal animals.

GUIDED TRIPS & TOURS

When there are so many things to do in Park City, sometimes you need someone to show you the way. And whether you’re a thrill seeker, nature enthusiast, or history buff, there’s a guided experience perfectly tailored to you. Park City hosts a wide range of guide services, from fly fishing on the Prove River, a Blue Ribbon Trout fishery, to helping you navigate the nearly 650 kilometers of trails by bike or foot. Or you can experience a Haunted Sites tour that explores Park City’s resident ghosts.

YOUR PARK CITY CONTACTS

Sachiko Sado | Director of Global Markets
Phone: 435.290.9776 | Email: sachisado@VisitParkCity.com

Megan Collins | International Marketing Manager
Phone: 435.640.6756 | Email: megancollins@VisitParkCity.com

Park City Chamber of Commerce & Visitors Bureau | VisitParkCity.com

