Aboriginal Cultural Experiences

♀ IN CULTURE TOURS, FREMANTLE

IMMERSE IN DREAMTIME STORIES, EXPLORE A DIFFERENT WAY OF LIFE AND REFLECT ON OUR PAST AND PRESENT ON AN INSPIRATIONAL ABORIGINAL CULTURAL TOUR LED BY A NOONGAR GUIDE.

Flowing through the heart of Perth City / Boorloo, the Swan River / Derbarl Yerrigan has forever been at the core of life in this beautiful and bountiful destination, well before modern streetscapes and contemporary buildings came to be. According to Noongar Dreamtime, the Waugul (giant rainbow serpent) wove its way through the land and carved out the sacred Derbarl Yerrigan at the beginning of creation, giving life to all around. Being a primary food source for the Whadjuk Noongar people of the Boorloo plains, less than 200 years ago, the river's banks were lined with paperbark trees and fish, frogs, turtles and crustaceans abounded. The rich swampland tracks of Boorloo Bilya, trodden for thousands of years by Noongar people, have over time been transformed into Perth's urban cityscape, where the river remains a fundamental element and lifegiving asset to the area. There is an endless fountain of knowledge to learn from the traditional owners of this land.

Learn about Noongar culture, connection to Country, history, Dreamtime stories and Aboriginal art from one of the many inspiring and educational Aboriginal tour guides within Perth, offering a diverse mix of authentic and immersive experiences accessible to all.

Experience Kings Park / Karrgatup, Elizabeth Quay / Goomup, or Yagan Square / Goologolup through a Noongar lens on an immersive walking tour with Go Cultural Aboriginal Tours & Experiences. For a truly rich experience, make your way to Rottnest Island / Wadjemup where its lead guides, Noongar man Walter McGuire and Kungarakan woman Meg McGuire, will share with you the Noongar connection to Wadjemup, the island's complex past, and welcome you to participate in sand and smoking ceremonies.

In Perth City, Mervyn Abraham of Warrang-Bridil (meaning 'enlighten to acknowledge') will take you on an inspirational and educational tour. Learn of Noongar language and traditional Aboriginal lifestyle, while identifying the positive cultural influence in the development of the Optus Stadium Precinct and Matagarup Bridge along the way.

In Mandurah, slow down on an overnight camping tour with Goolamwiin to truly experience the ways of local Aboriginal culture and connection to Country. An authentic Welcome to Country, immersive walking tour, bushfoods tasting, Noongar language session, interactive artefacts experience, and a campfire dinner with Dreamtime stories under the stars are all part of the journey; with an artist workshop and traditional performance optional. Hosted by Noongar woman Kerry Stack and Noongar man Trevor Stack, expect everlasting memories from this enriching experience.

Explore Elizabeth Quay, Rockingham's Point Peron, Lake Richmond / Walyungup, or Kings Park on a walking tour with Djurandi Dreaming led by Whadjuk man Justin Martin. Learn of the spiritual significance of certain landmarks and locations to Aboriginal people and envision another way of living as you hear the stories of life prior to colonisation.

THE SIX NOONGAR SEASONS
The Aboriginal six-season calendar varies for different groups throughout the state and across Australia, acting as an extremely important guide for what nature is doing at every stage of the year. By listening to the seasons, learning how to live safely, sustainably, and respectfully in relation to the land, animals, and plant cycles, Aboriginal culture ensures the natural preservation of ecosystems.

Look to Wardandi Bibbulmun woman Dale Tilbrook and book one of her Dale Tilbrook Experiences to taste the incredible breadth of bush tucker foods found across the Swan Valley, or try your hand at intricate Aboriginal dot painting. Drop in to Maalinup Aboriginal Gallery at Mandoon Estate to admire the artworks on display and sample native bush tucker. The healing properties of various bush medicines and how to work sustainability with the Noongar six seasons are another speciality of Dale.

Perth City – BOORLOO

SUN-KISSED AND INTOXICATING, PERTH CITY / BOORLOO LIGHTS UP LIKE NO OTHER PLACE. ITS SLOWER-PACED ATMOSPHERE MERGED WITH CULTURAL VIBRANCY SENDS A THREAD OF CONNECTION PULSING THROUGH ITS STREETS.

IN PERTH, YOU'LL find a destination draped in natural beauty offering the best parts of urban life at a relaxed pace – with enough spellbinding green open space to breathe deeply, thanks to its 26 parkland areas and reserves.

The mesmerising Swan River / Derbarl Yerrigan that flows and glimmers daily under the piercing Western Australian sky is fundamental to our capital city's origins.

Today, the Swan River remains an integral part of Noongar spirit and culture and with the city set beside it, it's at the heart of Perth's activities and ecology.

There's no spot to appreciate the ethereal beauty of 'The Swan' quite like Elizabeth Quay, a picturesque recreational precinct located along the waterfront.

In Elizabeth Quay, you'll be welcomed by luxury accommodation like The Ritz Carlton, DoubleTree by Hilton Perth Waterfront and Quay Perth. Find yourself in awe of million-dollar views as you wine and dine at the range of waterside restaurants and rooftop bars, including 18 Knots and Henry's Rooftop @ The Reveley.

Did you know, Perth is the only place within Australia where you can depart by boat from a capital city and arrive in an award-winning wine region on the same day? Set off from Elizabeth Quay's Barrack Street Jetty with Captain Cook Cruises on an indulgent expedition to the Swan Valley wine region, or journey to the port city of Fremantle where this eclectic and artsy town is your oyster to explore.

KINGS PARK

KINGS PARK IS one of the world's largest and most magical inner-city parks.

Perched atop a limestone escarpment overlooking Perth City, from this serene vantage point, you can observe the brilliantly coloured sails of boats on the river by day and the twinkling lights of the city from dusk.

The park is also home to the spellbinding Western Australian Botanic Garden, which showcases over 3,000 species of the state's exquisite flora.

Picnic on grass within cultivated gardens while the kids explore impressive nature playgrounds, jog by the untamed bushland reserves, attend one of the summer outdoor concerts under the stars, or step into Aboriginal Dreamtime and become absorbed in stories from the oldest living culture on earth.

Nyungar Tours and Go Cultural are some of the local guides who welcome you to join them for a tour of their Country.

TIP // Visit in September for the Kings Park Festival and admire the enchanting pink field of everlastings.

Buildings house a collection of contemporary restaurants, cool bars, cutting-edge boutiques, charming cafés, the world-class hotel COMO The Treasury and its Shambhala Wellness Retreat. Start at Petition's Beer Corner or Wine Merchant before dinner at one of the precincts culinary gems such as Petition, Post, Long Chim, or the rooftop venue Wildflower.

Nearby at Hibernian Place, you'll find another exquisite example of an old-meets-new precinct, including luxury accommodation, The Westin Perth.

Visit The Perth Mint along Hay Street and absorb a golden nugget of West Australian history. Founded in 1899 to refine the gold exploding out of the state's goldfields, take a tour at the mint and learn of legends of WA's past, admire a gold coin weighing one tonne and watch a live gold pouring using historic techniques.

Visit the Perth City Visitor Kiosk to pick up a map and embark on a self-guided art, history, or heritage tour; or allow one of their knowledgeable guides to lead the way.

Perth's west end is renowned for its small bar and dining scene, which breathes electricity into the air of the city centre.

Tucked within laneways and elevated upon rooftops, in Perth's west end you'll find young professionals post-work at polished bars boasting cocktails by impressive mixologists – if you

TIP // Start your holiday with an immersive walking tour with Two Feet & a Heartbeat or Oh Hey WA to familiarise yourself with the city.

Be sure to check out the iconic and distinctively designed Bell Tower at Barrack Square too, offering stunning views of the Swan River from the sixth-floor open air observation deck.

Wander north of The Bell Tower and enter the heart of the CBD, where heritage abounds in Perth's east end.

The State Buildings bordered by Barrack Street and the bustling St Georges Terrace are the jewels in the heritage crown of Perth's enchanting east end. Connecting three iconic heritage buildings into one vibrant cultural destination, the stunning State Along St Georges Terrace alone, seek out prohibition-style Bobeche based downstairs at The Heritage, Foxtrot Unicorn hidden in an underground bank vault where access requires imagination, the chic Terrarium bar where lush greenery envelops the surrounds, and Bar Lafayette situated below ground in the stunning heritage-listed Old Perth Technical School. On Queen Street, the bar Arara, is the place to be if exotic cocktails are up your alley; while the block over, blended into the streetscape, Varnish on King is an underground whiskey bar worth finding. just peek behind the black door and become immersed in late-night mystique.

Enjoy an evening out in this sophisticated side of town. For modern, Australian cuisine with world-class wine and a stunning setting, there's Balthazar based in the art deco 'Lawsons' apartment block, the simple yet elegant Heritage Wine Bar for which the name says it all, and the chic and upbeat Tiny's bar, restaurant and liquor emporium that's all about big flavours and its wood-fired grill.

For international fare, try the underground Lalla Rookh Bar & Eating House for Italian; the sophisticated Miss Mi for modern Asian dining adjoining the Novotel Perth Murray Street hotel; or the Spanish-influenced Ascuá where fresh WA produce is theatrically cooked on a wood-fired grill.

Connecting Murray and Hay Street, more multi-cultural dining – like the delicious Rojiura Curry Samurai – can be found down the bustling brick-paved Shafto Lane, also studded with cafés and bars.

Make a day of it and explore the west end's many retail hubs, including Piccadilly Arcade, Wesley Quarter, Trinity Arcade, Raine Square and Forrest Chase where high-end and chic boutiques reside. The quaint London Court laneway is an architectural treasure that will take you back in time to a historic era.

NORTHBRIDGE

Cross over the horseshoe bridge from Perth's centre, or meander through the Yagan Square precinct to find yourself in Northbridge.

Home to Perth's Cultural Centre, Northbridge is oozing with multi-cultural and creative activity.

Its iconic arts festivals attract acts and audiences from far and wide each year to deliver monumental seasonal bursts of creative talent. Expect a colourful explosion of weird, whacky and wonderful independent acts of all varieties when FRINGE WORLD lands in town; while Perth Festival injects a much-desired dose of artistic excellence into the local scene, with its carefully curated line-up of dance, theatre, music events and more.

TIP // Experience movies with atmosphere in the summer months at Fringe World's Rooftop Movies in Northbridge.

In Northbridge, Perth's nightlife capital, you'll find eclectic crowds enjoying well-crafted cocktails and local tunes. William Street runs through its core with a wealth of restaurants and small bars to explore. For fine, intimate wine bars with tasty share plates, try North Bird, Shadow Wine Bar, Wines of While, or Vincent Wines – a short stroll from one to the next. Discover diverse eateries like Bivouac Canteen & Bar, Double Rainbow and Francoforte Spaghetti Bar; cocktail bars loved by locals like The Bird, Ezra Pound, and Mechanics Institute; as well as ample boutiques, quirky bookshops, and op shopping options. Northbridge is booming with artisan ice-creameries, with Kuld Creamery, Chico Gelato and Whisk Creamery – all found on William Street – serving delicious treats. Around the corner, along Roe Street, you'll also find the local Chinatown where endless oriental options and late-night feeds will leave you feeling satisfied.

Inner City Neighbourhoods

PERTH METROPOLITAN IS home to many precincts that have developed their own distinct personalities over time, forming village-like districts radiating heart, soul and spirit.

In these vibrant areas, the streets are lined with vintage style boutiques and designer stores, popular wine bars and diverse restaurants. You'll also find lush green parks, playgrounds, and skate parks where the kids can roam free; plus, theatre and film for lovers of art and culture.

CITY OF VINCENT

City of Vincent is home to a collection of humming hubs, with Leederville, Mount Hawthorn, Highgate and North Perth all lively cultural and culinary hives in their own right.

Located conveniently along the train line, just three kilometres from Perth city; Leederville is one of Perth's most well-established inner-city precincts, equipped with a welcoming community skate park and brimming with boutiques, bright cafés, multicultural restaurants, wine bars, beer gardens and lively clubs. Make your way to Oxford Street to be right in the thick of it. Caffeinate at Queen of Leeds or Pixel Coffee Brewers before browsing the myriad of boutiques on the main strip. Urban Depot has it all, from vinyl records and kitsch collectables to fashionable fits and accessories. Discover high-class labels at Hunter Store and Perlu, or luxurious skincare and scents over at Remedy.

With no shortage of small bars and lively restaurants, liven up the night with tapas at Duende or Pinchos, dine on authentic Italian at Pappagallo, or treat yourself to a modern mix of shares at Naber or the new Powell's Fromagerie and Wine Bar.

TIP // Beaufort Street is another hotspot, day and night, for lively cafés, diverse eateries, endless bars and boutiques.

A cultural institution for film lovers, you can't miss Leederville's Luna Palace Cinema with its retro red façade on the corner of Oxford and Vincent Street. This boutique movie theatre shows the best mix of arthouse, contemporary and classic films. Grab your popcorn, and perhaps a vino, and settle in.

SUBIACO

Just five kilometres from Perth city, Subiaco, affectionately known as "Subi," pulsates with character and local charm. Over recent years it's surged with stylish boutiques, vibrant bars and fine eateries – centred around the main strip, Rokeby Road. A prime destination for events, check what's on at the Subiaco Arts Centre and the art-deco Regal Theatre – captivating audiences since 1938 with its mix of music, comedy and theatre.

Lovers of culture will feel at home in Subiaco. The Subi Farmers Market holds a sense of nostalgia for many locals who faithfully source the freshest fruit and veg from its exhibiting farmers and producers. Held every Saturday from 8am to 12pm, make a morning of it and explore the explosion of colours, tastes and smells as you peruse artisanal stores featuring baked goods, handmade soaps, and serving multicultural cuisines.

TIP // Discover Subi's own mesmerising sculptural giant, Bille Bob, somewhere among the streets — part of the Giants of Mandurah outdoor exhibition by Danish artist Thomas Dambo.

A hotspot for foodies, book in at one of the many notable restaurants for an evening of delicious dining. At Shui (like feng shui), you can expect to dine on moreish Asian-fusion share plates, exploding with flavour. Lulu La Delizia is renowned as the go-to for high quality yet comforting Italian, with fine wines to match; while Dilly Dally nearby is another Italian favourite, beckoning with its relaxed vibe. Missing Europe? Yiamas Greek Restaurant is the new kid on the block and justifiably buzzing.

There is no shortage of respectable drinking dens in Subi to hop your way through either. From the high-class Cherubino City Cellar, tucked away intimately upstairs; to the neighbourhood favourite hangout, Bark; to the chic Bar Amelie with its comprehensive but carefully curated drinks list plus morsels to match; to the cool, heritage-haven, Lums, where wine is the word on the street — there's an option for all occasions.

VICTORIA PARK

A 'south of the Swan River' gem, you can reach Victoria Park — or 'Vic' Park as the locals call it — by train, bus or foot from Perth city, which resides just three kilometres to the west.

Vic Park really is a melting pot of multi-cultural cuisines, so hit Albany Highway and let your nose lead the way. From Asian fusion Noho Asian Tapas and ramen at multiple corners; to Burmese diner Mango Café; to authentic Middle Eastern all around, including premium Lebanese food at The Prophet — diversity of fare floods the streets.

Time for a beverage? Hailing from Denmark in the South West, Boston Brewing Co. has become a hotspot for grabbing a fresh brew and gastropub fare; while you can't look past Victoria Park Hotel as an iconic institution with polished heritage. If you're a beer connoisseur, The Dutch Trading Co is 'the' place within the beer community — with 22 rotating taps profiling a range of brews from around the world. Venturing beyond the suburb of Vic Park, Blasta Brewing Co. in Burswood is another beer hall worthy of attention.

TIP // In Lathlain nearby, Laika is a cult café favourite for those in the know, while by night, soak up the sophisticated ambiance of Italian-inspired wine bar, Cosy Del's, next door.

Across the Swan River, to the east of the city, Optus Stadium is the world's most beautiful sporting facility and a multi-purpose venue for entertainment events, offering behind the scenes stadium tours. Immerse yourself in Aussie culture as you become one with the crowd watching AFL, roaring with every goal scored. It's a revered ground for international cricket too, another national favourite. When the sports stars take a break, blockbuster concerts take centre stage as the stadium lights up with impressive effects — envision the crowds come alive to the sounds of major music acts.

Not only can you strap yourself in and tour Optus Stadium from the top but, here, on the Burswood Peninsula you can also climb to the top of Perth's landmark Matagarup Bridge and enjoy 360-degree views of the city from 72 metres above the river, before zip-lining back down to the Swan riverside.

While in Burswood, stay at Crown Perth and experience true luxury. Pamper yourself at the spa or lounge by the poolside, dine on fine food at one of its many impressive restaurants, watch a live performance at its world-class theatre, or hit the casino for a night of entertainment. It's the complete package.

SOUTH PERTH

South Perth is a vibrant suburb poised along the southern banks of the Swan River, acclaimed for its lush South Perth Foreshore — the most picturesque spot to admire the Perth city skyline. For those seeking a unique perspective of the city, Swan River Seaplanes offer exhilarating Perth City Scenic Flights paired with exclusive picnic packages, departing from Queen Street Jetty.

Embrace the cool splash of water with an afternoon at Funcats Watersports, offering an array of aquatic activities — from catamaran boat hire to stand up paddle boards (SUPs). Bask in the sun while enjoying the dazzling views of the riverside surroundings as you work up an appetite.

Another equally active and scenic means to experience the foreshore is on GoGo Active's Majestic Foreshore & East Perth Bike Tour. Begin at the Mindeerup Piazza on Mends Street, the foreshore gateway of South Perth, and return back over the Narrows Bridge after a morning of guided riding.

Mends Street and Angelo Street are both vibrant strips buzzing with shops, cafés, restaurants and bars to experience. The Mends Street Arcade is home to it all, while the Angelo Street Market is a South Perth institution. Operating since 1988, it's oozing culture and its freshly made rolls are a must-try.

A trip to South Perth would not be complete without exploring the iconic Perth Zoo. This haven of diverse fauna from around the globe provides engaging experiences for all ages. South Perth is conveniently connected to Elizabeth Quay via regular ferry services, allowing for seamless exploration of the area's eclectic mix of attractions from Perth City. Or, stay in South Perth to experience it all — The Peninsula Riverside Serviced Apartments and Pagoda Resort & Spa are stand-out accommodation options.

♀ FREMANTLE MARKETS

Fremantle – WALYALUP

IN FREMANTLE / WALYALUP, BECOME CAPTIVATED BY A SPIRITED MARITIME CITY RADIATING CULTURE AND CHARACTER.

THERE'S SOMETHING IN the air of Fremantle that sends a ripple of creativity, culture, and connection pulsing through the streets. Perhaps it's the salty westerly blowing in from the portside; wafts of incense, freshly roasted coffee and sweet honey cake mingling in the markets; the sound of buskers performing with soul, or the roar of punters echoing beyond beer gardens as the 'Freo' Dockers score an epic goal. Whatever it may be, discover it for yourself when you get lost in this diverse and charismatic destination.

Begin your journey at Fremantle's most central point, Walyalup Koort – meaning Fremantle's heart in Noongar language. In Walyalup Koort, get lost within FOMO, an impressive cultural hub that unites dining and entertainment under one roof. Featuring an arcade, bowling centre, retro bar, mini golf centre, an alley of oriental street eats, and much more – there's something for the entire family here.

TIP // Short on time? Let the locals help you make the most of it on a vibrant and engaging chariot-ride with Peddle Perth or an immersive walking tour with Oh Hey WA.

Affectionately known as the 'Cappuccino Strip', South Terrace has a distinct Italian influence and has long been a Freo-locals tradition for dining and entertainment options with cafés, restaurants, games arcades and pubs abound. Take time to walk from South Terrace through Market Street to discover endless boutiques filled with shoes, books, local fashion labels and artisan goods.

Off the Cappuccino Strip, you'll find the enchanting and iconic Fremantle Markets. Having first opened in 1897, the Victorian era markets are abuzz with activity from Friday to Sunday with over 150 stalls offering fresh produce, jewellery, fashion, and craft wares. Stay close at the heritage hotel, Warders Hotel where you'll find the Asian inspired Emily Taylor restaurant and quaint Gimlet bar.

A dive into Fremantle history and heritage wouldn't be complete without a tour of the infamous Fremantle Prison. This UNESCO World Heritage-listed building was built by convict labour in the 1850s and incarcerated WA's most dangerous criminals right up to 1991. If the stories on offer don't send an eerie chill down your spine, perhaps a chance ghost sighting will! Delve underground and explore the labyrinth of tunnels built by prisoners on a Fremantle Prison Tunnels Tour, to envision life doing tough time.

A 15 – 20-minute walk north of Fremantle Prison, you can discover another of Fremantle's original and gothic heritage jewels, the Fremantle Arts Centre. This is a must-visit attraction, housing visual art exhibitions and a stunning retail store, FOUND, stocked with handmade creations by local WA artisans. Rottnest Island

– WADJEMUP

ENTER A DIFFERENT FRAME OF MIND WHEN STEPPING FOOT ON ROTTNEST ISLAND / WADJEMUP, AN A-CLASS RESERVE RENOWNED FOR SECLUDED BAYS AND LAID-BACK ADVENTURES.

SURROUNDED BY THE expanse of the Indian Ocean, just 19km from the coast of Perth, the secluded Rottnest Island is such a profoundly special place. It's a place resonating with a powerful sense of connection pulsating through its brilliant bays and sheltered beaches, untamed bushland, and laidback, simple lifestyle. It's a place to make memories with the family, and to meditate with one's self. It's a place so many generations of Western Australians reminisce upon as they reflect on joyful family adventures set to coastal backdrops and otherworldly sunsets.

It's also a place that holds painful memories for Noongar people whose family members were incarcerated on the island from 1838 to 1931, warranting deep contemplation and an understanding of its relevance to Aboriginal people when visiting the island. There's plenty to learn here for those who are curious, and the Wadjemup Museum and an immersive tour with Go Cultural Aboriginal Tours and Experiences are ideal places to start.

Arrive on the island via ferry, or by air, and feel completely at ease with zero traffic, free from crowds and city life. The iconic mode of transport on the island is a bicycle, while regular hop-on-hop-off buses and segway tours are also available.

Get to know Rottnest Island on a hike of the Wadjemup Bidi, comprised of five trails that showcase various landscapes and scenery from coastal headlands to stunning inland lakes. The Hike Collective curate inspiring tours, with The West End Guided Hike a favourite for its access to views of playful long-nosed fur seals from Cathedral Rocks.

TIP // Catch a 20-minute flight with Swan River Seaplanes for a swift and exhilarating arrival onto the island, landing right in front of Thomson Bay.

Let the wind whip through your hair and feel the sunshine on your back when cycling around to discover the island's collection of serene lakes and swimming spots.

The breadth of incredible snorkelling opportunities available is unparalleled. Take a Rottnest Snorkel Experience Tour for local insights, indulge with a 'Snorkel & Sail' tour on the iconic Capella catamaran through Charter 1, or define your own adventure. While there are more than sixty beaches and twenty bays to choose from, the shallow reefs of The Basin swimming hole, underwater trail markers and colourful fish of southern Little Salmon Bay, and the coral of Parakeet Bay all make these stand-out choices for snorkelling.

TIP // Book ahead to hire a bike, snorkel gear, or a SUP board from Pedal & Flipper.

Experience the ocean from another vantage point when taking the plunge with Skydive Geronimo – the only island skydive experience in Australia. And to reward yourself and relax the nerves, indulge with a Luxe Seafood Cruise through Rottnest Cruises. Enjoy seafood as fresh as it gets as you draw your own lobster pot to the surface before docking in one of the island's pristine bays for a freshly cooked, seven-course banquet on the boat.

That's not the only taste of luxury you'll experience on Rottnest Island. The island boasts a spread of waterfront, alfresco dining options with sweeping views of the horizon, just steps from the sand. Hotel Rottnest, Isola Bar e Cibo, Lontara, and Pinky's Beach Club are some of the finer options that will tantalise the tastebuds. While in the main settlement find classics like the Rottnest Bakery, where the vanilla slice is to die for; Frankie's on Rotto, where the pizzas are fresh; and The Lane Café, where the Cray Dogs are a must-try.

While day trips are easily done, immersing yourself into island life by staying several nights is ideal. There's a wide breadth of options available – from the family-friendly campground a stone's throw from The Basin, to self-contained cabins and chalets, eco-glamping at Discovery Parks Rottnest Island, to the premium Samphire Rottnest resort overlooking Thomson Bay.

There's plenty more to explore for history buffs too, with Rottnest having played a significant role in both World Wars. Once the location for military training and defence, cycle up or catch the bus to Oliver Hill to visit the gun tower and the maze of underground tunnels.

QUOKKAS

If you've heard one thing about Rottnest Island, it's probably about the little marsupials known as quokkas that are synonymous with the area. Quokkas can be found just about everywhere on the island, often hopping about through the main settlement and grazing on grass, leaves and shrubs at Garden Lake. Rottnest owes its English name to the quokkas – when Dutch explorer Willem de Vlamingh stumbled across the island in 1696, he mistook them for rats and named their home Rotte Nest, meaning rat's nest. Please observe the quokkas from a respectable distance.

WATERFALLS

The lush Perth Hills landscapes are home to many stunning waterfalls from winter to spring, but Lesmurdie Falls on the Darling Range is arguably the best known. The waterfall takes a 40m drop over the rocky edge of the range, into the Lesmurdie Brook nestled below in the valley, and is surrounded by luscious bushland as far as the eye can see. Lesmurdie Falls is particularly popular for the metal walkway that runs parallel to the waterfall, allowing visitors to view the rushing water up close. For the more adventurous, there are two walk trails winding through the dense bush, surrounded by a cacophony of wildflowers come spring.

Perth Hills – GAADA-MOORN-DA KATAMUNDA

ESCAPE PERTH'S BUSY CITYSCAPE WITH A TREE CHANGE TO THE SCENIC PERTH HILLS / GAADA-MOORN-DA KATAMUNDA — A SPRAWLING ENCLAVE OF CHARMING VINEYARDS AND ORCHARDS, WILDFLOWER WALKS, AND ENCHANTING WATERFALLS.

LESS THAN AN hour's drive from the city centre, the Perth Hills offer a nearby getaway where locals reconnect with nature in vast acres of unspoiled bushland. A connection point for both the world-renowned Bibbulmun hiking track and the iconic Munda Biddi long distance, off-road cycling trail, this is a mecca for any active nature-enthusiast.

Old-world meets new in a peaceful oasis of towering trees and scenic walking tracks that wind through gentle rolling hills and village-like towns, while an abundance of local producers make for a haven where foodies can meet the makers at road-side stalls and local markets to sample the best seasonal produce. If you fancy a tippie of spirits along the way, you'll also find a growing number of distilleries studded throughout the Perth Hills.

TIP // Visit Noble Falls in Gidgeggannup for bushland walks and tranquil picnics.

MUNDARING

Get above the treeline for an awe-inspiring view of the Perth Hills and beyond in history-steeped Mundaring. The area is home to the recreational Lake Leschenaultia, popular for secluded camping trips and family days out on the water, with canoe and stand-up paddleboards available for hire in the warmer months. The Mundaring Weir is also a scenic destination that, like Lake Leschenaultia, offers easy access to a number of walking tracks through the looming marri and wandoo trees, particularly popular during the wildflower season.

Revel in Mundaring's rich history with a wander along the Railway Reserves Heritage Trail — a 41km loop on railway formations — and stop at historic taverns dotted along the way for a refreshment and a breather.

Finish up at the federation style Parkerville Tavern, a family pub and local mainstay since 1902.

KALAMUNDA

A hub among the hills, quaint Kalamunda is known for its village charm. On weekends, the local farmers market takes centre stage in the town. Seasonal fruit and vegetables are abundant, but you'll also be able to stock up on artisanal breads, pickles, jams, oils and cheeses, and sample locally made pastries and coffee. Come with an appetite to taste as much of the incredible produce on offer, and a bag to fill for later.

The first Saturday of each month you'll also be able to experience the Kalamunda Artisan Market, a melting pot of bohemian artists and passionate crafters, selling everything from soy candles to bespoke pottery.

Nearby Bickley Valley is home to the heritage-listed Perth Observatory, where powerful telescopes bridge the gap to the stars and also celebrate the history of Noongar celestial storytelling and Aboriginal astronomy.

Having taken in some celestial culture, turn to local viticulture with a trip through the scenic Bickley Valley, home to boutique wine and cider makers. And, with a short drive, find your way to Pickering Brook to the artisan cidery, bistro and farm, Core Cider — a stunning venue to spend the afternoon cider tasting or even fruit picking.

In Pickering Brook, book into the Italian treasure La Fattoria for a wholesome food and wine experience, with grapes grown and wines made onsite.

ARMADALE

Connecting contemporary living and heritage attractions, Armadale is nestled among a number of scenic parks and blossom-leaden orchards. Among vast untouched bushland is Araluen Botanic Park, which features winding walks through 14 hectares of developed garden among almost 60 hectares of native forest that make for a stunning backdrop to concerts and festivals throughout the year. Although home to many native plants, the park is particularly famed for its Springtime Tulip Festival, where visitors can take in the breathtaking view that is more than one hundred thousand tulips in a multitude of vivid hues.

Within the Darling Scarp Regional Park, lies the colourful Armadale Settlers Common, offering rich history and over 318 species of flora. Divided into two networks, within an important flora conservation, the bushland offers beautiful scenery, picnicking spots and walking trails guiding you through diverse landscapes.

SERPENTINE-JARRAHDALE

Scenic walk, bike and horse trails wind through Serpentine-Jarrahdale's expansive stretches of jarrah tree-filled bushland, revealing hidden, trickling brooks and picturesque vistas. The region is home to the Serpentine National Park on the Darling Scarp. Come spring, multihued wildflowers dot the park in an otherworldly array of colour. A rock-rimmed pool at the base of the Serpentine Falls proves a popular swimming spot, with the cascading water making for an awe-inspiring backdrop from winter to spring.

For bursts of flavour worth remembering, Jarrahdale's boutique Millbrook Winery is a must-visit. Its restaurant is renowned for the variety of heirloom produce, picked fresh from its one-acre garden, that inspires the seasonal menu. Shiraz and Viogner are its top varietals, thriving in the climbing hills.
