Tucked in the heart of the Chicago-Milwaukee corridor on the Lake Michigan coastline, Pleasant Prairie is a recreation destination for travelers and residents alike, offering competitive and leisure activities for all ages. Fueled by a low sales tax, shopping at our iconic Pleasant Prairie Premium Outlets is second to none. Here, you can tantalize your taste buds, shop and play your day away, then stay the night and try something new tomorrow!

ONE-OF-A-KIND

The state-of-the-art Pleasant Prairie Recplex is the largest municipal recreation facility in America. It's the venue of choice for many regional, national, and internationally hosted tournaments and special events. Members and guests can enjoy an indoor waterpark, modern fitness center, on-site daycare, fieldhouse, Olympic-size aquatic center, two NHL-size ice rinks, and lighted ball fields. Explore nature on adjacent Lake Andrea for outdoor fun in all seasons.

LOCAL FAVORITES

LAKE ANDREA

This 110-acre lake, fed by a natural spring, offers relaxation and fun in all seasons. Enjoy the 2.3 mile paved walking/running path, beach, Froggy's Landing for watercraft rentals, and a public boat landing.

JEROME CREEK PRESERVE BOARDWALK

Located within the Hackbarth Trail, this serene spot offers visitors a peaceful view of the Des Plaines River and the Jerome Creek Preserve.

KENOSHA COUNTY BIKE TRAIL

The southern portion of this trail passes through Pleasant Prairie from 89th St. and 30th Ave. to the Wisconsin/Illinois State Line where it connects to the Robert McCloy Bike Path. FUN FACT: this paved trail sits on top of retired railroad tracks.
