

RECREATION, ATTRACTIONS & SHOPPING

- Year-round recreation and attractions in the Village of Pleasant Prairie keep locals and visitors busy.
- Do a little ice fishing at Lake Andrea then warm up inside the Pleasant Prairie RecPlex with a few laps around the indoor track. Join us for the Jelly Belly summer carnival then relax and enjoy the sunset from Chiswaukee Prairie. Shop 'til you want to drop; but instead relax with your friends at Prairie Springs Park. Make a day of it—better yet—stay the night and try something new tomorrow!

Founded in 1898, the family owned, Jelly Belly Candy Company, began making Jelly Belly® jelly beans in 1976. The Jelly Belly Visitor Center in Pleasant Prairie offers an experience center and free daily train tours including free samples and a variety of Jelly Belly products. For tour information, call 866.868.7522.

The largest municipal recreation facility in America, the RecPlex features an Olympic-sized aqua arena with lap lanes and a 50m competition pool, an indoor waterpark with water slides, a fieldhouse, indoor track, ice-hockey & figure-skating rinks, and a ton more for individuals and families. Whether you are here for an athletic competition or dropped in on a day pass, you'll be glad you visited.

Take a break from all the hustle while you're in the area. Check out spring-fed Lake Andrea for a variety of outdoor activities including a 2.3 mile paved trail, continue your biking trek through Pleasant Prairie on the Kenosha Bike Trail, or walk through the Des Plaines River Flood Plains. Get out and take it all in!

We make shopping in Pleasant Prairie easy! Take advantage of the Premium Outlets or shop along Highway 50 at one of our amazing Prairie Ridge shops.

All around Prairie Ridge you'll find everything from Costco and Target, to unique finds such as Seebeck Gallery where you can find a variety of local, regional, and national artist creations – and get quality custom framing. Bring out your creative side through painting at Pinot's Palet, or sharpen your dance moves at Fred Astaire's Dance Studio.

At Pleasant Prairie Premium Outlets, enjoy exceptional brands up to 65% off every day. More than 90 stores including kate spade new york, Pandora Outlet, Starbucks, Levi's Outlet and more. Premium Outlets regular hours are: Mon. - Sat. 10am - 9pm, Sun. 10am - 7pm (call for holiday hours).
